Croaking is not confined to the Frog Ponds. At this season almost everybody is hoarse. The bleating of distressed lungs is heard everywhere. Why is this, when Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will cure any cough, cold or hoarseness in 48 hours? Sold by all Druggists. tmch5

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

What we all want now, is money! You may realize hundreds of dollars by investing $50 in stock operations through the reliable house of Alex. Frothingham & Co., brokers, 12 Wall street. Their Weekly Financial Report gives full information and is sent free. 8

To an already well established reputation, are constantly added the warmest praises of travelers who have enjoyed the hospitalities of the Grand Central Hotel, New York.

The vicissitudes and chances of fortune are shown clearly in the results of the February Drawing of the famous Louisiana State Lottery Company. A lucky urchin in San Antonio, Texas, captured fifteen thousand dollars by spending a dollar. Such is luck. Why not let the reader write to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La., for the full information about the next drawing?

AS A RELIABLE REMEDY for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, or any affection of the throat and chest, use, according to directions given on each bottle, Madame Zadoc Porter's Couch Balsam. It is always reliable, and in the possession of a single bottle may, in case of a sudden attack, prove to be worth fifty times its cost. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. eod&tsept15 78

Portsmouth Chronicle

Catholics in New England.

A recent number of the Catholic World says; "The change in the proprietorship of the soil in New England has gone on to an extent much larger than is generally known; and one would labor under a serious mistake who supposed that the foreign descended population of New England was altogether, or even unduly congregated in the cities." The same article say: "It may be unwelcome news to our Protestant readers, but it is true that nearly twenty-five per cent of the present population of New England is composed of Catholics. It may be still more unpleasant for them to learn that nearly seventy per cent. of the births in that region are those in Roman Catholic families. New England, indeed, promises to be the first portion of the country which is likely to become distinctly Roman Catholic; the increase of the population is very largely Catholic; the emigration is almost entirely non-Catholic."

Commonwealth Consolidated MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the "COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY," of San Francisco, call the attention to the mining property of this Company, situated in the Tuscarora Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Prize," and developments thus far made in the shaft and level of the Commonwealth Consolidated indicate the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found at every depth in sinking the shaft upon the "Grand Prize" now so successfully worked, and paying its regular monthly dividends.

The Commonwealth Consolidated Mining Company consists of two distinct properties, known as the "All Alone" and "Veritas" mines, which have been consolidated into the above-named Company; both of these valuable properties have been proved beyond the ledge found to be well-defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The Corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in most California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for a working capital.

This stock will only be issued and sold from time to time, as funds may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able superintendence of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment for the working capital, and the price is fixed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the Stockholders that their intention is to enhance the price of each issue from time to time, as the work of development progresses and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Alone" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 70 feet, and a crosscut is about being closed to run it 200 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are principally New England men, and the Board of Directors offer every assurance to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and a examination of the management as to the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and guaranteed at all times.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills
For all the Purposes of a Family Physic,
CURING
Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Ulcers, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but power ul to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole living. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skillful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so efficacious, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

Centaur Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. The immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experience by the celebrated Samuel Pitcher, M.D.
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents a large bottle.
J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The 'atest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Fletcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

STANDARD REMEDIES
Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and prosperity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior article cannot secure a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKFORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cure of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I hereby (as "snuff" and "snuffing-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embalmize a similar cure in the papers. For 25 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "snuffing-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work. Through intervals I used snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 108 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, only sharp and weak, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen-eighths of the time. I provided relief to none of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a packet and try it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way comfortable with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Boils; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous affections, indicating a foul blood, the Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Manitoke, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Erysipelas and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Itch or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhea arising from its usual virulence and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections as the confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before offered in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R. I.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am indeed in duty bound to say that although I have been sceptical of all the "nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc. THEO. P. BOGERT.

BRISTOL, R. I., July 24, 1877.

Diplomatic Ceremony.

Minister Comly, the United States representative at the Sandwich Islands, writes as follows to his newspaper, the Columbus (Ohio,) State Journal, concerning the vexations of diplomatic ceremony:

Do you know what it is to the Minister to have a man-of-war visit his post? First the Admiral sends his staff officer to report his arrival. Then they take a drink. Then the Minister runs up his flag, and sends a despatch to the Minister of Foreign Affairs notifying his Majesty's government that the Admiral has arrived, and desires to salute the flag. Then his Excellency replies, and sets the time when the Admiral may shoot, and his Majesty's big guns will be all loaded ready to reply, gun for gun. Then the bombardment takes place. Then the Admiral calls on the Minister, with his staff and all their good clothes. Then they all drink. Then the Minister goes aboard the man-of-war in his good clothes and the Admiral's yawl. Then they all drink. When he leaves the vessel, after being presented arms to, and all kinds of bother, he gets only about thirty yards away when his ears are torn and his head bursted by the big guns of the vessel firing a fifteen-gun salute. The mariners have their oars peaked and their eyes on the Minister, and he is expected to take off his hat and grin horribly a ghastly smile, as if he really enjoyed the honor of having his head bursted in this way. Then the Admiral comes ashore with his staff, and the Minister takes him to call upon his Majesty's government. We go first to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, who tells us when we may have an audience at the palace to present the Admiral and other officers to his Majesty. Then we visit the other Ministers, the Governor of Oahu, the Justices of the Supreme Court and the Marshal of the Kingdom; then we take a drink. Then the Admiral invites the Minister to lunch, and they take a drink. Next day or so, the Minister takes the whole party to the palace, and they are presented in due form to his Majesty. The Admiral reads a little speech, in which he tells his Majesty how glad we are to see him, and his Majesty reads a little speech in which he replies how glad he is to see us. Then we talk awhile with all the grandees, and after backing out of the presence, sign our names in a little book, and the Admiral hurries on board the vessel to get his kidneys relieved from the pressure of his sword belt as soon as possible. Meantime all the other Excellencies, representing every country under heaven, have been sending notes to the Minister begging him to name the happy day when it will please the Admiral to send a boat for them to come aboard, and have a salute fired for them. Then the Frenchman always gets mad because he did not get as many guns as he thinks he ought to have had, and the Minister has three months' correspondence on his hands before that is settled. You think that it is all over now? The trouble is only about to begin. There are dinners, lunch parties, dances, serenades, visits to be paid, and the devil to pay if the foreign representatives do not receive their return calls before the week is out.

Perfectness of God's Work.

On examining the edge of the sharpest razor with a microscope, it will appear fully as broad as the back of a knife—rough, uneven and full of notches and furrows. As exceedingly small needle resembles an iron bar. But the sting of a bee seen through the same instrument exhibits everywhere the most beautiful polish, without a flaw, blemish or inequality, and it ends in a point too fine to be discerned. The threads of a fine lawn are coarser than the yarn with which ropes are made for cables. But a silkworm's web appears smooth and shining, and everywhere equal. The smallest dot that is made with a pen appears irregular and uneven. But the little specs on the wings or bodies of insects are found an accurate circle. How magnificent are the works of God!

—It is estimated that the total worth of furs collected by the Hudson Bay Company since its organization represents a money value of $100,000,000 in gold. Still, strange to say, owing to the careful preservation of game, the average yearly catch is not sensibly decreasing.

—Iceland is again threatened with volcanic eruptions. A nice land truly, where a man freezing under the lee of an iceberg, is afraid of being burnt to death by a jet of lava.

—"Now, Johnny," says grandma, "I want you to sit still as a little mouse." "Mouses don't sit still, grandma."

New York Letter.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13th.

In these days of political and financial disintegration it is not astonishing that amusements change in some respects, and standard dramas give way to burlesque. The theatres long ago felt the financial pressure, and the manager who reduces his prices has the satisfaction of seeing larger audiences than his competitors draw. The Grand Opera House, one of James Fisk, Jr.'s, monuments, has had a great run since the reduction of prices to suit the purses of the public. It is rare in other theatres to get out "half a house," except when such public favorites as Maggie Mitchell, Aimee, Booth or Joe Jefferson are filling engagements. Niblo's, so noted in years gone-by for spectacular dramas, is still the favorite downtown resort, and retains its old-time popularity under the management of Mr. George S. Gardner. The "Peep o' Day" hold the boards just now, with an excellent stock company, and the thronging crowds which gather at the evening performances and the matinees testify fully to the enjoyment of rollicking fun—of which there is sufficient to cheer the heart of the most disconsolate "evangelist" extant.

Speaking of amusements and the decay of the standard drama, nothing shows it more than the continued rush of thousands to the theatre where "George, the Count Joannes," is the chief attraction. Brokers, students and club men engage rows of seats and go en masse, armed with tin horns and other instruments of torture. Hundreds fail to gain admittance. Joannes pockets piles of trade dollars, and the audience furnish a large portion of the dialogue of the play. When the Count invites the moon to arise, a chorus of "Cheese it" comes up from the audience. The "Juliet" of the performance is requested to "pull her vest down," and the support is often kept busy dodging eggs unkindly perfumed. The "stars" of the play expect to be ridiculed and are willing to pocket their feelings so long as those who abuse them fill the house night after night for their pecuniary benefit.

The spirit of ridicule finds outbreak at any entertainment where managers care little beyond filling their own purses. Some individual engaged Gilmore's Garden the present week, in which to exhibit a "Congress of Beautiful Women." One thousand women were advertised, and but 125 were at hand on the opening day. The afternoon performance was good, but in the evening but twenty-nine of the women appeared to be gazed at. A few ladies and 4000 men were in attendance, and realizing that they were "sold," determined to have their money's worth. They gathered by the thousand in front of the "beauties" and volunteered to "see them home," "hold their bonnets," "squeeze their hands," etc. Any who left their seats to dance or promenade were followed by hundreds, and a smile would be hailed with a prolonged "Ah!" The tormentors of innocent womanhood (so to speak) practised imaginary osculation in chorus, and the "twoet" of hundreds of lips in unison was followed by a rush toward some new attraction. It wasn't very nice fun, however, for—the frogs. There were even some quiet individuals in the audience who thought the conduct of these "gentlemen" rude; in some cases brutal. The prohibition against smoking could not be enforced, and clouds of tobacco smoke filled the vast building, under which orchestra and audience labored with difficulty for enough breath to use for practical purposes.

The steady growth of the city up-town still continues, and the rapid construction of the Third and Sixth Avenue Elevated Railroads will in a couple of months lend an increased impetus to the movement. It takes an ordinary horse-car driver forty-two minutes to urge his animals from City Hall to Central Park on his quickest trips. It is hoped that twenty minutes will suffice on the "Elevated." The tide of travel has left the old and widely known hotel "St. Nicholas" stranded among wholesale business houses, and it will end its days as a public house by May 1st. It is part of the A. T. Stewart property, as is the "Metropolitan." To run both profitably as hotels is impossible, so the "St. Nicholas" will become a block of stores and offices, and the "Metropolitan," it is hoped, will secure its guests and patronage. The "Astor House," with its famous cuisine and perfected arrangements for the care of guests, is coining money under the management of Col. Dam.

The fever of speculation in Wall street has been checked on the regular stock board for a long time, because the heavy operators have quietly purchased and locked up the control of the leading stocks. None but giants in financial operations of the kind have any business to engage in the strife, and as these giants do not compose a majority of the operators new plans and new avenues of speculation are eagerly embraced. The new "bucket-shops," as they are contemptuously called, deal in shares from five in number upwards, and as there are ten-fold as many speculators in five dollar lots as there are in $500 lots, the "bucket-shops" thrive and increase, greatly to the annoyance of the members of the old stock board.

In this condition of affairs the new Mining Board has suddenly sprung into prominence, and whereas a month ago but a few thousand shares of mining stocks were sold, now the sales average more than 50,000 shares per day. The past week has been an exciting one and the operators from the regular stock board have invested largely in these stocks, so that seats in the Board, which were offered last summer as low as $35, now sell for $450 cash. The cheaper stocks are in great demand, and much money has been made in them. "La Crosse" went in three days from thirty-three to sixty cents, and in one day from sixty to seventy-one. "Bertha and Edith," which opened brightly on the Board last Fall at $1.35, being badly managed broke in December to one cent a share, and afterward was quoted for weeks at two cents. Tens of thousands of shares changed hands at these rates. The price gradually rose to four, six and seven cents per share, and with a change of Directors the speculators bought freely. In ten days it went to twenty-three cents and is quoted to-day at eighteen. The "Consolidated American," which was selling in October for $3.50 (par value $10) is now at $17, and holders expect it to reach $25. "But you can't always sometimes tell"—or words to that effect. G.

News and Notes.

The great strike of the Lynn Crispins is over, having resulted in loss of wages for all the strikers for some weeks, and permanent loss of their jobs for many of them.

H. A. Smith, a laborer, had his head cut off at Salisbury pond in Worcester, Mass., Wednesday, by a pair of ice-tongs attached to a rapidly-travelling belt striking him on the neck.

The notorious Mme. Restell, of New York, having been refused bail and being confined in a cell in the Tombs on charges of a most serious character, beside that of abortion, threatens to send Gotham wild by disclosing skeletons in the closets of the best families in the city.

Capt. J. H. Merriman, of the revenue service, who was ordered by the Treasury Department to investigate the circumstances attending the wreck of the Metropolis, says: "The fragments are unusually small, and her rottenness so apparent that there was but one opinion as to her unseaworthiness among the many persons I met on the ground."

The Waltham Watch Company recently shipped 200 stem winding watches, on the order of the British Government for the use of conductors and engineers of the State railroads of India. This order was obtained by the London agency in competition with foreign manufacturers.

The level of the Niagara was very low at the Falls last week. The channel between Goat Island and the First Sister was dry, and there were only narrow streams between the Second and Third Sister.

A family of six persons, composed of Daniel Reardon, his wife and four children, were burned up in their house at Wickham, Queen's county, N. B., on the 11th inst. The nearest neighbors lived a quarter of a mile distant, and did not know of the burning of the house until the next morning. It is surmised that the fire caught from a stovepipe which was near the ceiling, and the smoke suffocating the family the beams fell upon them, and thus prevented their escape.

The Rome correspondent of the London Times says the ambassadors of the Catholic Powers have jointly intimated to the Camerlingo that if some Cardinals, known for their uncompromising spirit, whom they named, were likely to obtain the suffrages of the Conclave, the ambassadors would be compelled to oppose their election. The Camerlingo has found in the Pope's desk a sealed packet, with instructions for delivering it into the hands of his successor. He also found 400,000 scudi, the destination of which probably is designated in the Pope's testament. The Pope's wealth altogether is said to amount to 120,000,000 lire, (about $24,000,000,) which is mostly in the hands of the Rothschilds at Paris.

Serious apprehensions are felt for the safety of the ship Fannie Tucker, of Wiscasset, Me., Captain Roberts, which sailed from Bombay on the 13th of last October for Calcutta. She has not been heard from since leaving port, and as the usual time of making the voyage seldom exceeds fifty days, there seems but little ground to hope for her safe arrival. The ship was a good vessel of 1526 tons, and was built at Wiscasset in 1875. She is largely insured at offices in Boston.

Gen. Benjamin F. Butler is reported as saying that in his childhood he was "one of the conventional good boys who always learn their Sunday school lessons," and that in this way he knew all the New Testament by heart, and a good part of the Old. This is the hardest rap ever given to the "good little boy who always learns his Sunday school lesson."

It has been no secret for several months that the Boston Globe, which has sunk a great many fortunes since it was first started by Mr. Ballou, was again in serious straits, and had at least nominally changed hands. The Boston Journal gives a report that it has been sold again to another stock company and will appear as a two cent morning and evening democratic newspaper. The Journal mentions the name of Manton Marble, late of the New York World, as the possible editor, with a possible salary of $15,000! We have also heard the name of Mr. Edwin C. Bailey, a former publisher of the Boston Herald, connected with this scheme. The democrats have already one excellent paper in Boston, the Post, of which Governor Gaston is reported to be a large stockholder, and we suppose this opposition must come from another faction of the party. Whether the democrats of Boston can support two newspapers is a matter on which we are not called to express an opinion. We may say here, however, that the Globe has been conducted by its present manager with uncommon enterprise and an industry almost literally sleepless.—Worcester Gazette.

Political.

It is now said that President Hayes has become satisfied (and none too soon, if it is true,) of the utter hollowness of the professions of the southern democrats, and thinks it about time that the unpunished ex-rebels should do a little "conciliating," at least to the extent of giving republicans accused of political offences a decently fair trial. If the rabid, bulldozing wing of the party is to rule, and the State courts used without regard to law or justice to punish republicans for their republicanism, the Attorney General of the United States will order action on the hundreds of suspended cases against the democratic night-riders and assassins of the South, which were suspended as a "conciliatory" measure.

The House committee on elections has submitted a report on the Dean-Fields contested election case, awarding the seat held by Fields, republican, to Dean, the democratic candidate. Dean would have been seated long ago had the democrats needed his vote, as was shown by the action of the House in the contested cases from California and Colorado.

It is now reported as probable that the "democratic House" will abolish the office of doorkeeper, and devolve its duties on the sergeant-at-arms, the democratic House having had a heap o' trouble with that office.

It is intimated that the Boston Globe is to come out as a full-fledged democratic paper. It will never be able to do the democratic party half the good, as a party organ, that it has done as a "reform" organ of pretended republican sympathies.

The Eastern War.

The British fleet has passed the Dardenelles, in spite of the formal protest of Turkey.

The Russians are reported to have occupied Constantinople, "as a measure of pacification."

A Bear Garden in the House.

In the U. S. House of Representatives, Wednesday afternoon, there was over an hour of the most excited debate on the question of what was done last year by the southern democrats and others to change the result of the Presidential election. The southern democrats have grown morbidly sensitive to the charge that they bartered away Mr. Tilden's chances. Mr. Aiken, of South Carolina, whose tongue got the better of his judgment, charged Mr. Hewitt of New York with having "sold out" the democrats. [Mr. Hewitt was trying to explain that he did not mean to cast any reflection on Mr. Aiken, by what he said on Monday in reply to Mr. Aiken's proposition to sell out West Point.] Mr. Hewett became greatly excited, and in denying this charge, declared that a proposition had been made to him to sell the Presidency, which he rejected with scorn. This caused great excitement all over the chamber, which suddenly abated, however, when Hewitt indicated that he meant what was known as the Pickett story last year. Mr. Garfield made a hit by first exonerating the southern democrats from the charge of selling out, and then accusing the Nichols government of ingratitude in prosecuting Wells and Anderson. These statements elicited applause from each side of the chamber. Mr. Ellis, of Louisiana, having misunderstood Hewitt's statement, called him a liar, though no name was used, but on being better informed, withdrew the remark.

—A little girl living in Holidaysburg told her little brother to watch how the sparks would fly when she poured the contents of a powder flask on the stove. The sparks flew and so did everything else in the vicinity, including one of the girl's thumbs, and the hair on the boy's head.

PROPOSALS FOR THE WORK.

IN compliance with the provisions of the Act of the Legislature relative thereto, notice is hereby given that proposals will be received by the undersigned, until the eighteenth day of March next, inclusive, for the materials and work in the construction of a new State Prison in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor, under the following classes:

1. Water supply, and drainage.
2. Excavation, grading, culverts, and stone masonry for foundations.
3. Ashlar, quoins, sills, steps, and other cut stone work.
4. Brick masonry of all kinds.
5. Iron doors, and iron work for cells, stairs, windows and railing.
6. Steam works for heating, cooking and washing.
7. Make the patterns and furnish fifty tons of iron castings, more or less, consisting of cell tops, columns, plates, registers, bucket irons, and other castings.
8. Carpentry work, including plastering, painting, slating, plumbing, and inside water and gas pipe; and all other work not included in the other classes.

The plans and specifications may be examined at the office of Dow & Wheeler, Architects, in Concord, and all other information may be obtained by application to the undersigned.

The proposals must be made for EACH CLASS of work as above designed, by THEMSELVES; and include all materials and work in that class, and all the incidentals required therefor.

The undersigned reserve the right to reject any proposals as in their judgment the interests of the State may require. And the parties whose proposals may be accepted will be required forthwith to execute proper contracts accordingly, and to furnish satisfactory bonds for the completion of the same, as contemplated in the act.

All proposals are to be enclosed in a sealed envelope, addressed to the undersigned, care of John Kimball, Chairman, at Concord, and forwarded so that they will be received by them within the time above specified.

THE CITY.

On Wednesday afternoon Randall & Caswell bought about 40,000 lbs. of cod.

Not a vessel was laying at the fish wharves on Thursday morning; the weather was too tempting to the hardy "toilers of the sea."

The "head-house" of the old south rope walk—all that there was left of it—has been taken down and a one-story dwelling is being built in its place.

Mr. Wm. F. Fernald has contracted to build a three-masted schooner of 425 tons for G. T. Vaughan and others of this city, and Capt. Moses L. Staples of Wells, Me., who will command her.

We regret to learn that Capt. B. F. Jacobs met with a serious accident on Wednesday, owing we believe to an icy sidewalk. While in front of (or near) the China Tea Store he slipped and fell, breaking the small bone of one of his legs.

A bachelor in this city received for a valentine, a box containing an assortment of linen collars, cuffs, and pocket-handkerchiefs, neckties, hose, etc., and a bouquet of immortelles, and don't feel very much puffed up either. What a brute

The price of fish has been very low this winter. Cod has brought from seventy-five cents to one dollar and a half per hundred lbs., (those caught off Hampton, near the shore, bringing the lowest prices,) and haddock about seventy-five cents per hundred.

On Wednesday afternoon a flock of fowls belonging to Mr. Frank L. Carkin, at Gravelly Ridge, ate a quantity of meal which had accidentally been mixed with water in which coarse salt had been washed. In less than an hour over forty valuable hens, of the White Leghorn variety, died.

There is to be a fine entertainment of recitations at Franklin hall next Monday evening, in which Mrs. James P. Bartlett will read from the dramatists, Miss Susie Spalding from the poets, and William Russell Foster selections from Dickens. It will be for the benefit of the Woman's Temperance League.

Hon. James W. Patterson, Ex. U. S. Senator, will speak on the subject of temperance, at Music Hall, next Sunday evening, under the auspices of the Temperance Reform Club. The accomplished and gifted soprano, Miss Mary Alice Poole of Portland, will favor the audience with selections appropriate to the occasion. Admission to all parts of the House 10 cents. Doors open at 7; praise meeting at 7.30.

The schooner "Pilgrim," whose history and an account of whose wreck we published a few weeks ago, has been heard from for the last time. The last previous account given of her was, that she was seen on White Island (outside of Whale's-back,) with the sea breaking heavily over her. It seems that she got detached from there and drifted to sea, and that the gale carried her out to Duck island, at the Shoals, and laid her high up on the rocks. The ballast (pig iron) and some of the timbers have been picked up.

The Weekly says "Mrs. Susie Melvin Marcy has located in Washington, with design to teach vocalism, English and Italian, to young ladies, and has won much applause by her fine singing, under her new public name of Mrs. Melvina Marcy. She was thoroughly educated by Madame Rudersdorff, and the Washington Capital says, 'on the late occasion of the organ concert at All Souls Church, Mrs. Marcy by urgent request sang one of her choicest solos; the result was most flattering to her talent and culture; the immense audience was enthusiastic over her effort.' The Washington Post also says, 'she kindly sang one of her most exquisite solos, which was received with great enthusiasm; in voice, Mrs. Marcy is a full, rich soprano, and she comes with letters of the highest recommendation, and abundant and flattering notices of the press wherever she has been heard. By earnest desire of her Boston, St. Paul, Chicago and other friends in Washington, seconded by Mr. Rossile of the Arlington Hotel, she also sang in the elegant parlors of that noted house one evening, to the best acceptance.'"

SUPREME COURT--JAN. TERM.

In case Smart vs. Tetherley, to recover $100, balance claimed to be due for lumber, etc., tried Wednesday, a verdict was given for plaintiff.

On Thursday, case Lutia A. Cotton, of Brentwood, vs. John Kimball, of Epping, was tried. Kimball it is alleged sold Cotton a farm, giving a warranty that it was clear from incumbrance, which was not the case. Given to the jury.

Another case, same vs. same, growing out of the same transaction, is to be tried to-day.

THE VICINITY.

The President on Thursday nominated Clarence S. Chapman for Postmaster at Great Falls.

A dramatic entertainement, the proceeds to be devoted to the relief of a bereaved and distressed family entirely worthy of relief, will be given in Treffethen's Hall, Kittery, on Friday evening, Feb. 22d, when "The Skeleton Witness" and "Above the Clouds" will be presented.

We are informed that Rev. Mr. Packard, of Kittery Point, has had to give up four engagements he had made for delivering temperance lectures this week. On Saturday and Sunday nights he was to have spoken in Bath, Me. It is to be hoped the reverend gentleman will soon recover his health, as there are none too many temperance workers.

The engine which drew Conductor Smart's train on the Boston & Maine Railroad on Tuesday morning, 12th inst., (the anniversary of the great strike of the engineers on that road,) created something of a sensation at Newmarket Junction, and quite a crowd assembled to see the decorations. Two flags were floating on each side of the headlight, and on the glass (crystal) was an excellent cartoon, painted in commemoration of the strike. On the upper part was a lively-looking rooster, and over its head were the letters, "B. L. E. (Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers), Feb. 12, 1877." Underneath this was another rooster with head and tail down, looking as depicted as if he had been wet and had the "crow" all taken out of him. Opposite this last were the letters "B. L. E., Feb. 12, 1878." It was considerable of a "crow" over a big victory won over a powerful and unscrupulous antagonist, but it seemed a good deal like kicking a man after he is down, after all.

At the last meeting of the York County Institute, "the early history of York county and the former names of its towns" was the topic, the President, Hon. E. A. Wedgwood, speaking nearly an hour on the subject. He said that York county—or Yorkshire as it was formerly called—embraced all the coast down to the limit of the present State. In 1760 the county was divided. On the north Oxford was finally taken. Alfred, in the exact center of the county, was formerly known as the north parish of Sanford; in 1784 it was incorporated into a district, and into a town in 1808. Parsonsfield was originally Parson town plantation, and afterwards took its present name. Cornish, originally Francisborough, became a town in 1794. Limington was formerly known as Ossipee plantation, but was incorporated as a town in 1794. Limerick was incorporated in 1797. Newfield was formerly Washington plantation, and incorporated in 1794. Waterboro' was incorporated in 1787 and Hollis in 1798; the latter was formerly known as Phillipsburg. Buxton was incorporated in 1762, Lyman in 1778, Shapleigh in 1785, Lebanon in 1767, Sanford in 1768. Kittery was founded in 1647 and included Eliot and the Berwicks. York was settled in 1624.

Bret Harte.

There has been a great deal of gossip over the conspicuous absence of Bret Harte from the Atlantic dinner in Boston, but it was a matter of no surprise to those who know the history of his early connection with that magazine. When Harte first came on from California, and all society was running wild after him, and he was able to dictate his own terms to the supplant publishers, the Atlantic Monthly closed a contract with him for the exclusive right to the products of his pen for one year. The consideration was $10,000. Of course no stipulation was made as to what amount he would produce, because no author can guarantee in advance to what extent he will be brilliant, or whether he will be brilliant at all. The Atlantic got just one article from Harte during the year. One of his best friends once told me that Harte's great trouble lay in the fact that he was absolutely devoid of a conscience. If his washer-woman had saved $500 by long years of careful industry, he would borrow it without the slightest intention of repaying it, or without a single twinge of conscience over his action. Harte has closed up most of the avenues about him in the way that Dick Swiveller did. The New York Times, which once published some stories of his, spoke of him editorially some time ago in a way that was the next thing to calling him a swindler. There is an old story about his lecturing in Boston with a sheriff's officer at each side of the platform, behind the scenes, waiting to get the money for the dress in which he was lecturing, and there are stories innumerable about his personal debts, and of the sums he has received from publishers in advance without furnishing them with the stipulated equivalent in manuscript. The mystery is, where all the money goes, for there is a great deal of it, and he is not known as a man of gambling habits.—Cor. Cincin. Gazette.

—If the short man ever feels overcome with an intense desire to be tall, it is when he finds himself on the outside of a crowd at a dog fight.

—A gentleman who lately gave a free lecture did not feel complimented when the papers declared that the lecture was hardly worth the price of admission.

—A gentleman well known for his parsimonious habits, having billeted himself on his acquaintance in Edinburgh during some royal visit, was talking to a friend, on his return, of the great expense of living. "How much do you think I spent in Edinburgh?" "I don't know," replied his friend; "I should suppose about a fortnight."

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 126 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. feb13 of the age, is Sozodont. It has distanced competition. Discolored teeth are rendered white by its use. The breath derives fragrance from its aroma. It prevents and arrests dental decay. The gums become rosier and harder under its operation. All its ingredients are vegetable and antiseptic.

Every day adds to its popularity.

Spalding's Glue is like wit: a good thing well applied.

Croaking is not confined to the Frog Ponds. At this season almost everybody is hoarse. The bleating of distressed lungs is heard everywhere. Why is this, when Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will cure any cough, cold or hoarseness in 48 hours? Sold by all Druggists. tmch5

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

What we all want now, is money! You may realize ten reds of dollars by investing $50 in stock operations through the reliable house of Alex. Frothingham & Co., brokers, 12 Wall street. Their Weekly Financial Report gives full information and is sent free. 8

To an already well established reputation, are constantly added the warmest praises of travellers who have enjoyed the hospitalities of the Grand Central Hotel, New York.

The vicissitudes and chances of fortune are shown clearly in the results of the February Drawing of the famous Louisiana State Lottery Company. A lucky urchin in San Antonio, Texas, captured fifteen thousand dollars by spending a dollar. Such is luck. Why not let the reader write to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La., for the full information about the next drawing?

AS A RELIABLE REMEDY for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, or any affection of the throat and chest, use, according to directions given on each bottle, Madame Zadoc Porter's Cough Balsam. It is always reliable, and the possession of a single bottle may, in case of a sudden attack, prove to be worth fifty times its cost. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. eod&tsept15'78

—Straits that Russia would not object to be reduced to—The Dardanelles.

—"Woman," says a Western female on the lecture platform, "wants bread, not the ballot." However, if she were really compelled to choose between the two she would probably take a new bonnet.

—A voice in a Chicago wedding interrupted the ceremony with, "I say it is the devil that has joined them, and the Lord hasn't had anything to do with it." The fugitive remark came from the bride's mother.

—Madison county, Fla., claims the honor of the tallest family in the country. The father is represented to be seven feet four; the mother six feet eight; two sons seven feet three, and one daughter is seven feet nine. Altogether, it is a tall story.

—Gospel disturbers have more than their match in Rev. S. Dunbar of Adair, Ky., who is also constable. Whenever the services of his sanctuary are interrupted, he closes his Bible, marches down from the pulpit, collars the disturber, and leads him to prison.

—A stick of wood loaded with gunpowder, charged by a farmer whose pile was too often visited by thieves, exploded in the stove of the Congregational Church at Bellevue, Ohio, Sunday, much to the consternation of the people and the scandal of the deacons.

Commonwealth Consolidated MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the "COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY," of San Francisco, call attention to the mining property of this company, situated in the Tuscarora Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Price," and developments thus far made in the shaft and levels of the Commonwealth Consolidated indicate the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found at even depth in sinking the shaft upon the "Grand Prize" now so successfully worked, and pay ng its regular monthly dividends.

The Commonwealth Consolidated Mining Company consists of two distinct properties, known as the "All Alone" and "Veritas" mines, which have been consolidated into the above-named Company; both of these valuable properties have been prospected by shafts, the ledge found to be well-defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The Corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in most California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for working capital.

This stock will only be issued and sold from time to time, as funds may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able supervision of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment of the working capital, and the price is fixed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the Stockholders that their interest is to be enhanced the price of ore at least from time to time, as the work of development is carried on, and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Alone" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 60 feet, and a contract is also being closed to run it 200 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are principally New England men, and the Board of Directors effect a guarantee to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and an examination of the management and of the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and encouraged at all times.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills
For all the Purposes of a Family Physic,
CURING
Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Dilousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Neuralgia, Gout, Neuralgia, and Disease in General Part ying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but, over all to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole living. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skillful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits derived from these Pills. They are the best and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as any.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for the intended purposes."
BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable tint, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. The immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unrivalling. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments of the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D. It is a vegetable preparation, and is as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for the sick, Wounds, Swellings, Bruises, Cured Bones, etc., is the Centaur Liniments. There are no limits. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and stiffed horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the child and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES
Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that conclusively works. Why, then, shouldn't the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot survive a superior article. If Dr. Pierce's superior med'c, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outvalued all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (more dollars-grabbing they would be glad if they could mention a similar cure in the papers. For 25 years I suffered with catarrh. The constant passage became complete; clood, "snuff," "snuffing," "sneezing," "nasal douches," "tubes," "wonderful cures" through my interests I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became very liable to try such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed or in my successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 36 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, ody shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, digestion impaired, broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A friend gave me a newspaper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Induced me to purchase a package and work with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which (unlike other remedy by hydrostatic press) by the only way comes with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three days, nor in a week, nor one four or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have enjoyed so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. From my experience with numerous other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Eruptions; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. As a Tonic it possesses no superior and unequalled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and as Tonic it proves to make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
When the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or when there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will kind to effect a cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or pimples, brown spots on face or body, frequent headaches or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternate with hot flashes, low spirits and blues, loss of appetite, tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only parts of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it gives perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhea arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

CATARRH
NEVER-FAILING RELIEF
AFFORDED BY
SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most reliable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly be proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R. I.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any kind I read the testimony of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc. THEO. P. BOGERT.

The Prime Minister of Russia.

Prince Gortschakoff is one of the most agreeable men in Russia. Those who like him least acknowledge that, but few who have been brought much in contact with him have failed to like him as a man; and those who appreciate him best are the men who have served constantly under his orders. He was born in 1798, and has been prime minister of Russia since 1856. He is the richest man in Russia, the subject of highest rank in it, and ruler of the empire; nor could anything shake him from his post except a great national disaster, leading to a unanimous public outcry against the government. He is not a blunderer; he has not had to fritter away his prestige in public speeches as the statesmen of constitutional countries are obliged to do; and he has kept so steadily to the policy of aggrandizing his country, that if he failed he would be pitied for having been ill-served by his instruments rather than condemned for his patriotic ambition. Prince Gortschakoff would not have prospered as the minister of a parliamentary state, for the gifts which make him supreme at the council table, in drawing rooms and in private colloquies with ambassadors would have been thrown away on popular assemblies. He has none of the bluff petulancy of Bismarck, nor of the smirking readiness of retort which enables Count Andrassy to manage the Austro-Hungarian parliaments. He talks slowly, writes grandiloquently, and gives high-minded reasons for everything he advises or does. Persons who might have expected him to explain some tortuous piece of policy on cynical grounds are staggered by his semblance of perfect good faith, and by the reassuring promises which he makes in a tone of stately gentleness, to which his venerable appearance gives the stamp of wisdom and truth. His strength is patience; his talent lies in seizing opportunities the moment they arrive; and these opportunities come through the simplicity of the foreigners who trust him. If he had been obliged to define his policy in noisy Parliaments, to remould it agreeably to the crotchets of agitators, and to listen to the babel tongues of factious newspapers, he would have achieved nothing; and as to his inflation of language, it could have been pierced thro' in no time by the thrusts of debate,—all the sharper to a man of his stamp, as he has no sense of humor.—Pall Mall Gazette.

The French Marriage Law.

A few days since a lady called at the Mayor's office and requested that the marriage intentions of two parties residing in Paris should be posted in the office. Not understanding exactly the exigencies of the case, the Mayor sent to the French Consul for information on the subject. The latter drew up two odd-looking documents in the French language and sent them to the Mayor with a full explanation of the case. It appears that Pierro Reintjet, a Frenchman residing in Boston, has a minor son, Henri, who resides in Paris. The latter desires to marry Hortense, a minor daughter of Laurent Garot, who lives with her parents in Paris. As both parties are minors, the civil marriage laws of France require that the marriage intention shall be published for two weeks at the residences of the parents of both, and therefore the intention of Henri must be published in Boston. This is probably the first case where the permission of the Mayor of Boston has been held necessary for the marriage of a Frenchman to a French woman, both of whom reside in Paris. The two documents referred to were a notice of the intention, which is now posted in a conspicuous place in the Mayor's office, and a certificate, to be signed by the Mayor and sealed with the city seal, stating that the intention has been published for two weeks, and that no objection has been made.—Post.

—Several physicians of New York have united in pointing out the dangers incident to the smoking of cigarettes, which practice is now becoming much more prevalent than it has been at any former time time. Where a few years ago there was but a single brand of cigarettes, —the Cuban—there are now 358 different kinds in the market, some composed of tobacco of varying degrees of vileness, descending down to stuff little better than dirty refuse.

—A writer in the New York Tribune says of the late Pio Nino: "He was like many men who have arrived at great age, of a feeble physical constitution in his youth, and being afflicted with repeated attacks of epilepsy when about sixteen years old he was forced to relinquish the military career his family had chosen for him, and adopted for what promised to be a short life the ecclesiastical profession."

The Remedy.

When the Secretary of the Treasury sent his valentine to the Speaker of the House of Representatives on Thursday, calling attention to the proposed reduction of taxes on the rum and tobacco which this great country delights to produce, sell and consume, probably no member of the House thought of the true panacea for the ills of a reduced revenue.

The people had made up their mind that the remedy for hard times was not to be found in legislation, but in a restoration by natural means, to a normal condition of affairs. When Congress met a year ago in December, we were fast approaching a healthful state of business; confidence was reviving, and capital was looking about for employment. The labors of the House of Representatives were well-nigh exhausted in endeavoring to investigate some republican official, but everywhere they found the reforming democrat as deeply imbedded in the mud of political slime, as was the sinning republican in the mire of corruption, and nothing was done except to threaten to destroy things.

During the present session, the confidence which is a plant of slow growth has been shaken by all kinds of attempted legislation: Our bonds come home from abroad by the cargo; prices are unsettled; internal revenue does not come into the Treasury, because manufacturers hesitate; importers will not order goods, and customs duties are not accruing because of the wholesale changes proposed in the tariff. In short, every business man, instead of attempting to enlarge his dealings, quietly sits down and watches Congress.

And so it will be until this impractical and unwholesome body separates and retires from the capital. With Congress adjourned, we gradually improve and tend toward a healthy condition of affairs, only to have a set-back as that body reassembles to plague the people. The true remedy for all our financial troubles is to be found in the adjournment of Congress, and yet we doubt if a respectable minority in that body can be found which shall appreciate this suggestion.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 13th.

Col. "Bob" Ingersoll still continues to bombard the different Christian churches with his guns, so heavily overloaded with ridicule and derision that the Graphic correspondent intimates that he has made himself amenable to an old Colonial law still in force here, though it fell into desuetude quite a century ago and its existence seems to have been forgotten for several generations until recently. The Graphic says: Col. Bob Ingersoll is delivering his lectures on religious subjects here, and for his information it should be stated that the Attorney-General recently decided that the old Colonial law is still in force in this District, never having been repealed. The first section of this law provides that "if any person shall deny our Saviour, Jesus Christ, to be the Son of God, or shall deny the Holy Trinity, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, or the Godhead of any of the three Persons or the Unity of the Godhead, or shall utter any profane words concerning the Holy Trinity or any of the Persons thereof, and shall be thereof convicted, he or she shall, for the first offence be bored through the tongue, for the second offence shall be stigmatized by burning the forehead with the letter B, and for the third offence shall suffer death." Judging however from the crowds that came out to hear Ingersoll, to laugh at his sallies and to applaud what would have been regarded as blasphemous only a few years ago, there is a very poor show for him to gain a martyr's crown at the hands of a Washington audience. It is said that his hearers include many of the most cultured minds here, male and female; and what may appear still more anomalous is the fact, that many of his most enthusiastic hearers—those loudest in their approval—are members of evangelical churches here or elsewhere.

It would appear from intimations and innuendoes given out by Doorkeeper Polk that Glover's committees had best begin at the centre and work outwards, attending to everything within their province as they go and leaving no unsubdued fortress behind them to endanger their safety or to neutralize the reformatory work they hope to accomplish in a missionary raid on the different navy yards, custom houses, large post offices and other government establishments throughout the country that harbor one or more Augean stables within their precincts. He (Polk) is understood to have substantially admitted the truth of the charges of irregularity resting against him, but he seems to think it is the fault of his clamorous Congressional associates, who have driven him to the point of distraction by their insatiable demands for places which did not lawfully exist. Hence the doubling-up process was resorted to as a partial remedy for that unfortunate and unhappy phase of the public service happily characterized by Mr. Lincoln's remark of "too many pigs for the swill." In other words it was sought to crowd into fifty-three places, sixty-three occupants. As well known, no two things can occupy the same place at the same time; hence while Mr. Polk has demonstrated his genius the general results have been unsatisfactory. Polk also intimates that the committees on accounts were fully posted as to the overburdened condition of his department, and tacitly, at least, approved his course by their failure to condemn the system of distribution in vogue. Several members of Congress show up in this business in a way rather inconsistent with their professions as "reformers."

Why is it that we hear nothing further from the survivor of the Metropolis disaster who saw the life-line cut by a fiend who afterwards perished? His remarkable story was telegraphed all over the country, giving the impression that he intended to make it very hot for him, even if he was dead. Perhaps he has repented of having assailed a man unavoidably absent and thus unable to defend himself; but unless he consents to come to the front and confirm by reiterating his statement, there is danger that some over-worked and under-paid headquarters official here will yet have to bear the odium of the rotten rope. Your correspondent claims that the Philadelphia investigators more than sustained all that he alleged or hinted at relative to the rotten and unsea worthy condition of the Metropolis: and he still insists that an inquiry honestly conducted would conclusively show many of the vessels of our merchant and coasting marine, quite as unfit as she to venture out of shoal water.

KNOX.

News and Notes.

The mansion of Daniel Webster in the southeastern part of Marshfield, Mass., war burned with its contents Friday forenoon. The origin of the fire is unknown. The building was owned by Mrs. Fletcher Webster, who, with her son, were the sole occupants. They made great exertions to save the historical relics, and succeeded in rescuing a quantity of silver plate, pictures, and other priceless mementoes of Mr. Webster. The library was not destroyed, as it was removed some time ago. Loss $50,000; insured $8,000.

Mr. David Dickinson, a Georgia planter, has compiled a careful census since 1865, from which he concludes that labor does not produce so much as it did before the abolition of slavery; that working the same number of hands, there is but little more cotton and not so much corn and cattle raised; and the laborers nevertheless declare that they work harder than when they were slaves. Still they prefer to be free.

The blue-glass excitement has broken out on the other side of the Atlantic. Mr. Davis, director of the insane asylum at Maidstone, Kent county, England, reports some extraordinary results of his experiments with blue-glass lighted apartments in the treatment of insane patients. It is said that similar experiments, with like success, have been made in the health establishment at Berndorf, near Coblenz, Germany.

The Third Regiment of French Zouaves, observing Victor Emanuel's bravery at the battle of Palestro during the war with Austria, elected him a corporal of their regiment, a distinction of which the King was proud. His name was, until recently, daily called by the officer on duty, and the oldest soldier present would advance and reply, "Absent on leave." The regiment has conferred the same rank on King Humbert.

The project to turn Beacon Hill reservoir into a Court House does not meet with favor in Boston. People who have dealings with the Suffolk bar do not want the Court House removed too far from Parker's.

The eccentric (or foolish) American, Miss Thompson, who had her horse shod with gold in Edinburgh, is in Spain astonishing the natives. She put up first at a little town just over the French border, paying extravagant sums for services, and amusing herself by throwing gold into the streets for the children to scramble for. The police persuaded her to go to Saragossa, where she would be safer, but she came back again, and it's a wonder that brigands haven't robbed and murdered her before this. A thief did steal her gold watch and $1,000 a short time ago, but she refused to appear against him.

The love letters of the poet John Keats to Fanny Braune are now for the first time published. They are old, but good.

Mrs. B. S. Benson, a wealthy widow, died while under the influence of chloroform in a dentist's chair, in McLeansboro', Ill., on Saturday.

It is feared that the atmosphere of London will soon damage the surface of Cleopatra's Needle. The Luxor obelisk, erected in the Place de la Concorde in Paris, in 1836, is some 3400 years old, having stood with another still larger one before the great temple of Thebes. The stone is syenite granite, of a brownish red color. Thirty-six years of exposure to the atmosphere of Paris has affected the stone more than the same number of centuries' exposure to the purer air of Egypt.

Michigan Central Railroad shares again in its receipts, and the stock is advancing in the markets.

Miss Sarah O. Jewell has a well-written sketch of New England life, entitled "A lost lover," in the Atlantic for March.

The famous case of the State of Vermont vs. Alice Hadlock, for assaulting Hatch, editor of the North Troy Palladium, last May, was heard by the Orleans County Court at Irasburg. The assault was made with a horse-whip, and Hatch was pelted with red pepper and rotten eggs, and grew out of scandalous and libellous articles in the Palladium reflecting on the young lady's character. The respondent was fined twenty-five cents, the Court considering the above sum all it was worth, and the freedom of the press was vindicated.

James Worley and his wife were chopped to pieces with an axe Monday night near Goldsboro', N. C. Their little daughter said "Uncle Noah" did it, and Noah Cherry, with whom Worley had had a quarrel, was arrested. All are negroes.

Brigantine Blanche was water-logged in the gale of Jan. 7th, and broke in two on the 10th, the crew escaping on a raft, without provisions. On the 16th the mate left the raft on a smaller one to get assistance, and was drowned. On the 19th the survivors were taken off the raft in a starving condition, by an American vessel that landed them at St. Martins.

German bark Otto George was sighted on the 7th inst. on fire, by British steamer Chilian, which arrived at Liverpool Thursday. Two men were seen on the vessel, but the sea was so heavy that their rescue was abandoned after an attempt in which the Chilian's life-boat was smashed and they probably perished.

As a party of Germans were playing cards in Syracuse on Sunday, the dealer gave three cards to one player and five to another. Somebody remarked upon it, when the dealer said he could not see, and fell backward in his chair dead.

The Eastern War.

The Turkish Parliament has been dissolved by the Sultan.

The British iron-clads that passed the Dardanelles went through all ready for action. Four of them anchored at Prince's island, in the Sea of Marmora, and two at Gallipoli. England is hurrying up the manufacture of guns, torpedoes and other war material. The turret-ship Devastation has left England for Malta. A despatch from London, Thursday noon, reported the arrival of the British fleet at Constantinople.

New Hampshire Items.

A pair of oxen weighing 5150 pounds have been taken to Claremont, by a firm of butchers. They were raised by Secretary Evarts, on his farm in Windsor, Vt., and President Hayes was promised a liberal slice when they should be slaughtered.

Robert M. Appleton, machinist and iron-founder at Lake Village, has failed.

Political.

The indignation expressed by the "policy" organs concerning the gross travesty on justice in the cases of the Louisiana Returning Board, seems odd when compared with the apathy with which the conviction of Cardozo and Smalls of South Carolina (at the bidding of Massacre C. Butler) was received by the same papers. Yet the evidence against the latter two was of the flimsiest sort, and the crime of which Cardozo was convicted was not even mentioned in the indictment under which he was tried! But then both he and Smalls had been active as republicans before the democratic rifle clubs were recognized as the only legal voters of the State; and in addition to that offence, Smalls, a "nigger," was guilty of rendering valuable aid to the Union during the rebellion. In the language of a democratic paper, used while the trial was in progress, "this scoundrel (Smalls) stole one of our steamboats during the war, and if he had his deserts would have been hung long ago."

It is ascertained that it is not the purpose of the President or Secretary Sherman to suspend General Anderson from his office of Deputy Collector at the port of New Orleans, on account of his conviction by the State Court, for alleged acts as a member of the Louisiana Returning Board. Regarding the prosecution of Anderson as a political persecution and not inspired in the interest of justice or continued peace and tranquility, the administration propose to show their belief in his innocence by continuing him as a federal officer, notwithstanding his incarceration in jail prevents him from attending to the duties of the office. The office of collector being vacant, there being no person in office authorized to perform the duties, on account of the absence of Anderson, Secretary Sherman has ordered a special agent of the Treasury to take charge of the office, and to perform the duties of Collector until one is duly appointed and qualified.

The President's course in relation to the Returning Board trials is very unsatisfactory to the democrats, which is one proof that it is right.

Senator Kellogg, of Louisiana, has taken the trouble to brand as a lie the story that he borrowed of a Chicago bank $20,000, to use for political purposes in 1876. The denial was not necessary, for the yarn originated in the New York Sun.

Door-keeper Polk is striking back. He says he doubled up his assistants and drew pay for those not authorized by law, at the dictation of democratic Congressmen who wanted places for their friends.

It is said that Hewitt, Randall and other northern democrats in Congress are much troubled over the exhibition of hatred and a desire for vengeance on the part of the southern democrats, as shown by the latters' declarations in the House on the occasion of the recent "spat" there.

The Concord correspondent of the Boston Post announces that if "a rousing vote" is given "in all parts of the State" to the democratic candidate for governor, Mr. McKean, "there is no fear of the result." This is a most venturesome prediction.

The New Haven Union (democratic and inflation organ) says: "The little spat between Hewitt and Aiken, the other day, was the foundation for the very spirited and exciting debate in the House yesterday. The republicans went in deep enough to stir up a feeling between the northern and southern democrats, and then enjoyed the fun. Many harsh things were said, but the points brought out were interesting, and no harm will come of the discussion. It is very evident that Mr. Hewitt is not a natural born leader, while it is certain that the Tilden wing of the democracy is not in high favor among the democrats in Congress."

An Alpine Avalanche.

In the summer of 1864, a party of tourists, while visiting the Alps, climbed, with great difficulty, to an elevated and snow-covered plateau, in order to obtain a better view of Swiss scenery, and contrast the beauty and richness of midsummer below with the bleakness and sterility of midwinter around and above them. In play they rolled the moist snow into large balls, they crowded it over the edge of the plateau. In falling it struck softer snow, which immediately gave way, and soon an avalanche was tearing down the mountain side burying and destroying everything in its course. As the handful of snow became the irresistible avalanche, so the hacking cough with sore throat and Catarrh, if neglected, speedily develops into that dread destroyer, Consumption. In the early stages, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will effect a cure, though if the blood be affected or impoverished it must be purified and enriched by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and the liver and bowels kept active by his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Many who despaired of life and had been given up to die by physicians and friends, owe their restoration to the above remedies.

ELY, Linn Co., Iowa, May 8, '77.

DR. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—I was prostrated some three years since with pleuro pneumonia, which left me with a troublesome cough, that gradually grew worse until physicians gave me up to die with consumption. I tried several remedies, that are advertised to cure consumption, but without obtaining any relief or benefit. Seeing your Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets advertised, I concluded to try them, and I found them to be all that you claim for them. My restoration has remained complete for over two years. Inclosed find $1.50 for a copy of your Common Sense Medical Adviser.

Ever gratefully yours,

Manager Stetson of the Globe Theatre, Boston, has engaged Music Hall for the evening of Feb. 28th, when "the Octoroon" will again be presented, by the same company that appeared here on the 9th inst. It is also reported that Col. Bob Ingersoll will lecture in Music Hall shortly, on which occasion he will do for this region what he has already done in other places, finally abolish hell.

Hon. Frank Jones on Wednesday presented to Congress the petition of New York merchants for a reduction in the rates of duty on importation of linen goods. Also the petition of Baltimore maltsters that a specific duty of thirty-five or fifty cents per bushel be imposed on malt, or that the duty on barley be reduced to five cents per bushel. He also presented the petition of Messrs. Sargent and others of Belmont, engaged in the manufacture of woolen and cotton goods, against reducing the tariff on such fabrics.

The Portsmouth Weekly prints the following anecdote of the late Jeremiah D. Goodrich: "When Isaac Waldron was president of the old Mechanics & Traders' Bank in this city, or its predecessor, Mr. Jere. D. Goodrich was refused discount of a note, without good reason he thought. A few days after, a customer in payment for wood at the store of Mr. Goodrich on Water street, offered him among others, a bill on Mr. Waldron's bank. 'I can't take that,' said Mr. Goodrich. 'Why not? ain't that good money?' 'It may be for some folks,' replied Mr. Goodrich, shaking his head, 'but it is not such as I want.' Away speeds the astonished customer to inquire of Mr. Waldron about his bank; and presently comes a request from Mr. Waldron for Mr. Goodrich to call at the bank, which he did, and in reply to the question why he discredited their bills, said that 'if they refused his paper without cause, he should refuse theirs!' The result was that Mr. Goodrich's notes were discounted after that—and nobody ever lost a cent by the fine, courtley old gentleman, that we ever heard of."

SUPREME COURT--JAN. TERM.

In case No. 403, Lucia A. Cotton vs. John Kimball, tried Thursday, on the coming in of the Court Friday morning a verdict was returned for the plaintiff in the sum of $100. Damages were claimed on account of a right of way existing across a farm sold by Kimball as being free from encumbrance. Defence contended that the right of way was known to the purchaser of the land when the deed was executed.

Case No. 404 was heard Friday. Action between same parties, for deceit in the sale of land referred to in the foregoing case, a right of way existing across the land sold at the time of its conveyance, but which was not excepted in the deed, which was a general warranty. A large number of witnesses from Northwood were in attendance. Towle and Marston for plaintiff; Wiggin and Fernald for defendant.

Nearly all the other cases marked for the jury were continued Friday morning, and the jury will probably be discharged on Saturday.

THE LYCEUM.

The Portsmouth Lyceum committee have completed arrangements for a choice programme on Monday evening. The character sketches by Mr. W. Russel Foster promise to be a grand success; Mr. Foster's well known talent in this direction should be sufficient, of itself, to insure a full attendance. Mrs. James P. Bartlett, who has kindly consented to appear before the public at this time, will render the entertainment doubly attractive with her choice dramatic recitations; competent judges affirm that her impersonations of the various parts are perfect. Miss Susie Spalding will present some rare poetic gems, which will add much to the interest of the occasion; those who have had the pleasure of hearing her in the past will gladly avail themselves of another opportunity. On the whole we think this will be one of the best entertainments of the season, which all should make an effort to enjoy.

CHEAP GAS.

While thankful for the smallest favors, the consumers of gas in Portsmouth can hardly allow the claim of the company that the proposed reduction on the price which has hitherto been charged "will make it as low as is furnished in any New England city, excepting Boston." A bill of the Lowell Gas Co., now before us, is at the rate of "two mills per foot," and we are informed that the company has never failed to pay a five per cent. semi-annual dividend. There would seem to be something certainly in favor of Portsmouth, as the cost of coal is decidedly less here than in Lowell. Why then this difference in price and in dividends?

SUNDAY SERVICES.

On Sunday morning there is to be an eclipse of the moon, the beginning and obscuration of which will be visible to those who arise to see it, the weather being favorable. It will begin in this region at 4:59 A. M., and the greatest obscuration occurs at 6:26 A. M. The moon will set with the greater part eclipsed, at 6:54 A. M., or about sunrise.

At St. Mary's (Catholic) church, Children's Mass at 8:30, Solemn Mass at 10:30 A. M.; Sunday School at three o'clock, P. M.

At St. John's (Episcopal) church services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. every Sunday,—except the first Sunday in each month, when the Children's Choral Service and public cathechising, commencing at four o'clock, is substituted for the usual one at 7:30; seats free at this service. On account of the illness of the rector, Rev. Dr. Pelham Williams of Boston will officiate at St. John's tomorrow.

Mission services; William A. Loyne, Volunteer Missionary. Residence at Faith Home, 16 Deer street. At home daily from 8 to 10 A. M. and 12 to 2 P. M. Services every Sabbath at the Alms House at 10:30; at the County Jail at 12:30. Consecration Meeting every Monday evening at the Home.

At the Middle street (Baptist) church, services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Preaching by Rev. G. W. Gile, of Lawrence, Mass.

At the Court street (Christian) church, preaching by the pastor, Rev. John A. Goss, at 10:30 A. M. and 2:45 P. M. Praise services at 7 P. M., for half an hour; prayer meeting at 7:30. All are welcome. Subject of afternoon discourse, "Future Punishment."

At the Congregational church, service at 10:30 A. M. and 3 P. M. Preaching by Rev. James W. Hubbell, the pastor.

At the Universalist church, preaching at 10:15 A. M., by Rev. Eugene M. Grant.

At the Advent church, services at 10:15 A. M., 2:45 and 7:30 P. M. Elder George W. Brown, of South Eliot, will preach.

At the Freewill Baptist church, on Pearl street, services at 10:30 A. M. and 2:45 P. M.; Sabbath school at 11:30 A. M. Preaching to-morrow by Rev. E. Owen, the pastor.

At the South Parish, morning service, at 10:30, vespers at 7:30. Sunday school at 2:45 P. M. Preaching by Rev. Jas. DeNormandie, the pastor.

At the Methodist church, preaching at 10:15 A. M. and 2:45 P. M., by Rev. L. P. Cushman of Nashua. Gospel meeting in the evening at 7:30; praise meeting a half-hour previous.

Reform Club meeting at Music Hall in the evening; admission ten cents; doors open at seven, praise meeting at 7:30. Ex-Senator Patterson, one of the most finished orators New Hampshire ever produced, will address the audience. Miss Mary Alice Poole, of Portland, will sing appropriate pieces.

THE VICINITY.

Mrs. John Reedman of Hampton, aged eighty-six years, fell a few days since and dislocated her hip.

Mrs. Elizabeth Coleman of Greenland fell from a wagon in that town on Thursday, and sustained injuries which rendered her insensible for a number of hours.

Dr. William T. Merrill of Hampton has been presented with an elegant silver tea service by members of the Congregational society in that town, for his services as organist.

At a recent convention of the furniture dealers of the United States, F. M. Holmes, of Boston, formerly of Greenland, "took the chair." What could be more natural?

MARRIAGES.

GROVER—GOVE. In this city, Feb. 14, by Rev. J. Noyes, John H. Grover and Mary H. Gove, all of this city.

Croaking is not confined to the Frog Ponds. At this season almost everybody is hoarse. The bleating of distressed lungs is heard everywhere. Why is this, when Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will cure any cough, cold or hoarseness in 48 hours? Sold by all Druggists. tuths

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

Alex. Frothingham & Co., brokers, 12 Wall street, make careful investments for customers, in sums of $25 to $100, which frequently pay ten to twenty times the amount invested. Their Weekly Financial Report, sent free, gives full information. 9

To an already well established reputation, are constantly added the warmest praises of travellers who have enjoyed the hospitalities of the Grand Central Hotel, New York.

The vicissitudes and chances of fortune are shown clearly in the results of the February Drawing of the famous Louisiana State Lottery Company. A lucky urchin in San Antonio, Texas, captured fifteen thousand dollars by spending a dollar. Such is luck. Why not let the reader write to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La., for the full information about the next drawing?

AS A RELIABLE REMEDY for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, or any affection of the throat and chest, use, according to directions given on each bottle, Madame Zadoc Porter's Cough Balsam. It is always reliable, and the possession of a single bottle may, in case of a sudden attack, prove to be worth fifty times its cost. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. Mars' Moons.

When the telegraph announced the discovery by Prof. Hall that our neighboring planet had two satellites, and the dispatch was read the next morning at ten thousand American breakfast tables, what think you was the effect upon the hearers? Some colloquy similar to the following was sure to occur: "Mars has two moons, hey? Pass me the milk, Kitty. Strange, isn't it, that astronomers never saw them before. Another chop, please. I wonder what they'll discover next? These corn cakes are excellent. What's the latest from Europe?" We have become so accustomed to startling discoveries and announcements, that we take them as a matter of course. Even truth must appear in flaming colors to make herself seen. The virtues of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets have been tested in ten thousand households, whose inmates will tell you that they consider the discovery and introduction of these remedies of far greater importance to the world than the moons of Mars.

SHIPMAN, ILL., June 18th, 1876.

Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Last fall our daughter—aged eighteen—was fast sinking with consumption. Different physicians had pronounced her case incurable. I obtained one-half dozen bottles of your Golden Medical Discovery. She commenced improving at once, and is now as hardy as a pine knot. Yours respectfully,

REV. ISAAC N. AUGUSTINE.

Commonwealth Consolidated MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the 'COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY,' of San Francisco, call attention to the mining property of this Company, situated in the Tuscarora Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Prize," and developments thus far made in the shaft and levels of the Commonwealth Consolidated indicate the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found at even depth in sinking the shaft upon the "Grand Prize" now so successfully worked, and paying its regular monthly dividends.

The Commonwealth Consolidated Mining Company consists of two distinct properties, known as the "All Alone" and "Veritas" mines, which have been consolidated into the above-named Company; both of these valuable properties have been prospected by shafts, the ledge found to be well-defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The Corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in most California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for a working capital.

This stock will only be issued and sold from time to time, as funds may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able superintendence of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment for the working capital, and the price is placed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the Stockholders that their intention is to enhance the price of each issue from time to time, as the work of development progresses and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Alone" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 70 feet, and a contract is about being closed to run it 200 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are principally New England men, and the Board of Directors offer their assurance to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and an examination of the management, as to the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and guaranteed at all times.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills
For all the Purposes of a Family Physic,
CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cut not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skilful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

HALL'S ON THE HAIR VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the great care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."
BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which most stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unrivalling. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but Centaur Liniment will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Sprains, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. GIMsy1

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that the survival of the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up the several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "relicks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for the manufacturers of the different preparations, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A friend noticed in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternate with hot flashes, low spirits and a gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humers in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organ, whose action they derange, and who of substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Erysipelas and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

CATARRH
NEVER-FAILING RELIEF
AFFORDED BY
SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly be proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R. I.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. Henry Watts, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.

THEO. P. BOGERT.

Recovered Piratical Treasure.

More than forty years ago, two men, named Gibbs and Wansby, were hanged on an island in New York harbor for piracy and murder, having killed the captain and mate, and robbed the vessel, on board of which they were seamen, of a large amount in specie. While in jail they made a statement of having thrown overboard, not far from New York, a chest containing a large amount of the money that had tempted them to crime, and that the rest they had buried in the sand upon the shore where they landed, but the location they could not be induced to disclose. Twenty years went by and then some Dutchmen, residents in the vicinity, were seen gambling on a Christmas night at a tavern at Gravesend, L. I.

between Brooklyn and Coney Island, using as a means of doing so Spanish dollars that were much discolored, as if from salt water. Two wide-awake fellows, among those present, at once suspected, as they were poor fishermen, that they had found the pirates' treasure, as it had been always supposed to be buried in the neighborhood, and keeping a sharp look-out upon their movements, saw them on the following morning start away in a boat, and in a little time land upon a sand-bar not many rods distant from a lonely portion of Coney Island, where they could soon be seen walking upon the sand, and occasionally picking up articles from the surface that they at once placed in their pockets. Not being sagacious enough to keep the secret to themselves after following them thither and sharing in the spoils, the next day hundreds gathered there for the same purpose, and a month went by before the pursuit was wholly abandoned. How much in amount was gathered in the aggregate could not be known, but it was imagined that the original discoverers had the most of it. The money was supposed to have been buried by the pirates in a high bank of sand upon the bar, that had existed there for many years, but which had been washed down in a recent severe storm, thus scattering it along its base upon the shore. Recently an addition has been made to this legend of recovered treasure in the statement that a fisherman of Brooklyn, while dragging for a lost anchor near the shore of Long Island, drew up a chest, covered with sea-weed and shell-fish, in which were found Spanish and Mexican gold, accompanied by a welcome supply of Spanish dollars, the whole amounting in value to nearly five thousand dollars, proving, doubtless, the best day's work at fishing he ever accomplished. Such an event has long been looked for, as it was well known that the money found near Coney Island was not the whole of the pirates' booty, and more of it, at some future time, may yet be discovered. Silver and Rum.

The Senate of Saturday morning at five o'clock, after an all night session in which many amendments to the Bland silver bill were made and many of the Senators got disgracefully drunk, passed the said silver bill by a vote of forty-eight ayes to twenty-one nays—six more than a two-thirds vote. The vote thrown was very large, lacking only seven of a full vote, and there were three pairs out of the seven Senators not voting. This assures the passage of the bill over a possible veto, as there are certainly fifty-one Senators in its favor, and as Sharon is not likely to be present there cannot be more than twenty-four votes for sustaining a veto.

The bill adopted is substantially that reported by the Senate finance committee, with the Bland free-coinage clause struck out; the monthly coinage of silver established at not less than two million nor more than four million dollars; authorizing the issue of certificates for circulation based upon the deposit of silver in the United States Treasury; and a provision for an international Congress to promote the adoption of the double standard. It is believed that in this form it will find less opposition in the House than the original Bland bill encountered, and the friends of the President among the silver men believe that he will sign it.

There was much good-natured badinage and some sharp hits passed around by members, Blaine and Howe, and Blaine and Thurman taking the principal characters. Blaine and Voorhes both acknowledged that, as members of the House at the time of the legislation of 1873, they did not understand the demonetizing effect of it.

A Washington correspondent says: "The scene in the Senate Chamber was remarkable as well as disgraceful. A large number of Senators were in an unfit condition to participate in discussion, being so intoxicated that they could scarcely stand on their feet. There were from ten to fifteen in this condition, and instead of being taken to their homes, they remained in the Senate Chamber to make themselves conspicuous, and pain the occupants of the galleries who were compelled to see the sight. Such a scene was probably never before witnessed in the Capitol, and should bring a blush of shame to every citizen that such exhibitions go unrebuked."

The Eastern War.

The European war threatens soon to take the place of the Russo-Turco war, but exactly who the combatants are to be and on which side arranged is yet undecided, although apparently only a question of a few days. England was never more in earnest, and if a hoped-for coalition with Austria takes place active operations will soon begin, or Russia will subside, which is not at all probable. Turkey appears to be on both sides, while Roumania seems to be fast losing her love for Russia.

News and Notes.

The Cunard steamship China, at New York from Liverpool, reports being boarded by a sea on the 9th inst., and having her first and second mates swept overboard and drowned.

Miss Sarah O. Jewett has a well-written sketch of New England life, entitled "A lost lover," in the Atlantic for March.

The body of Mrs. Ben. Pitman, of Cincinnati, was cremated in Dr. Le Moyne's furnance at Washington, Pa., on Friday, in accordance with the wishes of the deceased.

The Italian frigate Terrible was lost near Salonica last week. The Terrible was rated 2900 tons and carried six 12-ton guns.

The steamer Richmond left Philadelphia for Brazil on Thursday, taking about 500 passengers and nearly 1000 tons of cargo and coal. The passengers are laborers going out to work on the railroad, some of them being survivors of the Metropolis wreck.

The Boston Congregationalist recently sent out 100 circulars to different ministers, asking their views upon the subject of hell, and of the replies received, sixty-three state that in the judgment of the writers the doctrine still survives. Upon this the Congregationalist remarks, "We confess ourselves agreeably surprised at these figures. We were prepared to fear a much less cheerful result."

Two witnesses before the investigators into the wreck of the Metropolis swear that the captain said in their presence: "Well, I did as the owners requested me, for they said, 'if you have to make a wreck, make it a good wreck.'" It may be that the owners did tell the captain this, and that he did repeat it in presence of witnesses; but it is not entirely credible, for if he were rogue enough to allow the owners to give him such instructions without instantly leaving their employ, he would hardly be fool enough to tell of it.

New Hampshire Items.

H. B. Bean, a young married man of Manchester, who has heretofore been much respected, and Mrs. Plumpton, the wife of an overseer of the Amoskeag corporation, disappeared Wednesday night under circumstances leaving no doubt of an elopement. Bean took his wife to a concert, and, excusing himself, returned home, packed a trunk hastily and left, taking $2000 of his own and his wife's money. Mrs. Plumpton also drew from the bank a considerable sum, and left a note telling her husband she should never return, and requesting him to care for her aged mother. The domestic relations of both have heretofore appeared pleasant, and as both are highly connected, the affair has caused unusual excitement in the city. Nothing is known of the whereabouts of the fugitives. Bean's age is about thirty-five years; Mrs. Plumpton's about twenty-seven years.

Moses F. Jackson fell on a sidewalk in Dover, a few nights since, and broke one of his legs just below the ankle.

The bank commissioners say the Great Falls National Bank is the only bank in the state that paid a dividend of six per cent. this year.

Irving Bagley, a boy about nine years of age, employed in S. K. Paige & Co.'s box factory at Bradford, lost all the fingers of his right hand in a cylinder planer.

A mad dog passed through Antrim last week, and bit a little boy and several dogs. The dogs were soon killed, and the selectmen immediately posted notices ordering the people to muzzle or confine their dogs.

The shoe manufactory of I. & J. Woodbury at Salem Depot, and a stable adjoining, were burned on Saturday by an incendiary fire. Loss about $18,000; insurance $7,900.

The Grand Jury at Dover finished their labors Friday, and reported fifty-two indictments to the Supreme Court, thirty-five of which are for keeping and selling liquor. One against J. R. Pinkham of Alton, for wilful and malicious murder, was set down for trial March 5th. At his request, the Court assigned as his counsel Messrs. Edgerly of Great Falls and Cochran of Farmington.

Mrs. Elizabeth Y. Weston of Peterboro' celebrated her Centennial birthday Friday. A large number of relatives were present, embracing five generations.

The convention of clergymen of the Episcopal diocese, held at Nashua, was largely attended and quite interesting. Holy Communion was celebrated Friday, after which they adjourned.

The jury in the libel suit trial at Manchester of James A. Foster against Geo. C. Butler returned a verdict, Friday, for the plaintiff for $165. The libel consisted in certain articles which Butler procured to be published in the Nashua Telegraph and the Exeter News-Letter, charging Foster with a fiendish assault upon defendant's horse in September, 1876, resulting in the death of the horse.

Political.

The silver men are indignant at being called repudiationists, but it is a noticeable and an invariable fact that flat repudiation takes place only in those sections where the silver craze has prepared the way by dulling the edge of public conscience.—Boston Post.

The following is an extract from a letter written by John Ray, counsel for Anderson and Wells, to Mr. Shellabarger, advisory counsel: "The conviction of Anderson and the entire board is a foregone conclusion, and nothing can save them if they are tried in the State court. It makes no difference what the law and what the evidence may be, public prejudice, aided by manipulation of our State law in procuring a jury, makes conviction certain. They have no chance. Under the statute and civil rights bill this question can be solved by the Supreme Court of the United States on a writ of error from our Supreme Court, but, in the meantime, you see the consequences. We are in a bad condition, and have no help or hope. Anderson is as innocent of crime as if he had never been on the board, yet he has been convicted."

The New Orleans Times (ind. dem.) publishes an account of a visit to the two colored members of the Anderson jury, Prince and Montplaiser. The age of Prince (who the friends of General Anderson claim is a minor) seems to be uncertain; but the Times thinks that the Attorney-General should have challenged him peremptorily on the ground of mental unfitness. He says that he supposed a recommendation to mercy was tantamount to an acquittal, and now that he knows his mistake, is sorry that he did not stand out. Montplaiser is somewhat more intelligent, but the Times deems him unfit for a juryman. The colored people are much excited over the conduct of these two men.

THE CITY.

Rev. Mr. Owen will preach in the chapel at Faith Home this (Monday) evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A large number of persons, some five hundred or more, witnessed the baptism on Sunday, at Noble's island, of seven persons, six men and one woman. Rev. George W. Brown, of the Advent church at South Eliot, was the officiating clergyman.

The Great Falls Journal says: "The Mazeppa Combination intended to give an entertainment here one evening last week, but found the stage wasn't large enough and went on to Portsmouth." The stage wasn't large enough here, either, for the gambols of the wild hoss of Tartary.

The course of lectures under the auspices of the Methodist church, which were postponed on account of the revival meetings,—are to be resumed. The course will be opened on Wednesday evening of this week by Rev. Mr. Pitblado, of Manchester; subject, "Love and Love-letters,"—to be followed by four lectures and one concert, on successive Wednesday evenings.

The Reform Club meeting at the Temple, Sunday evening, drew a very large audience. President Roberts of the club presided; Miss Mary A. Poole, of Portland, sang some appropriate selections in a very pleasing manner, and there was a praise meeting before the lecture was commenced. The speaker of the evening, Hon. James W. Patterson, was well received, as he always is in this city, and delivered an earnest and interesting address which commanded the close attention of his auditors to the finish.

At the annual meeting of the Portsmouth Gaslight Company, held Wednesday afternoon, the stockholders were informed that the rate for gas was to be reduced to $3.00 per 1000 feet, "that being as low as it is furnished in any New England city, excepting Boston." If Portsmouth people would read the Manchester papers, they wouldn't need to be told now that they can buy all the gas they can possibly want at the rate of $2.50 per 1000 feet by coming to Manchester, that being the regular charge in this city. Better move up.—Manchester Times.

Bryant's Minstrels, direct from their Opera House on Broadway, New York, are to appear for one performance only at Music Hall, this evening. The humorous portion of the company comprises the leading lights of Carncross & Dixie's minstrels, while the quartette is said to be one of the best in the country. The stump speech of Dougherty, the singing of Arthur Cook and G. W. Harley, the comicalities of Dave Reed, the musical eccentricities of Sanford and Wilson, the mirth-provoking gyrations of "Little Mac," and the other features on the programme promise our people a carnival of fun. Seats may be secured at Dr. Preston's.

The old Melcher house, No. 35 Washington street, was sold on Saturday by auctioneer Joseph P. Morse to Mr. James Janvrin, for twenty-one dollars, the house to be removed before the fourth of March. The associations connected with the old building (it was the place where Daniel Fowle established the first printing-office in New Hampshire) did not seem to make it as sacred in the eyes of Portsmouth people as the "Old South" is in the estimation of certain Bostonians, and the first bid was only five dollars. Once removed from its present location it is of no use as a house, for it is of no particular form, there not being a right angle anywhere about its outside, the rooms inside also "bevelling" to conform to the outer shape. Mr. Janvrin does not propose to remove it, except in pieces, from the spot where it is supposed to have stood for more than 160 years.

FISH OH!

The wharves on Saturday presented an animated scene, the arrivals of fishing vessels being numerous and the fares brought by them good. The following named schooners sold their fish to Randall and Caswell:

Ella M. Johnson, 7,000 lbs.; Georgie Linwood, 9,000; Mary E. Smith, 6,000; Celia, 6,700; Pluribuster, 6,000; Good Templar, 7,000; Nettie Adams, 14,000; small boats, 5,500; total, 61,000 lbs.

The following schooners were to C. Morris Tredick: Josie Johnson, 4,890 lbs.; Sarah S. Babson, 7,850; Rover's Bride, 12,985; Comet, 9,810; Lightning, 4,720; Grace Choate, 5,345; Mary J. Marden, 2,225; Miantonomah, 7,800; George Washington, 4,000; total, 59,-625 lbs.

C. Sullivan & Co. received fish as follows: from schooner Anabel, 5,000 lbs.: Forest Maid, 8,985; Norman, 8,500; Can't Come It, 4,500; W. H. Y. Hackett, 6,875; Blanche Creamer, 7,000; Mary E. Caswell, 6,000; from small boats—Carl Benson, 1,980 lbs.: E. H. Downs, 300; ——Winkley, 400; total, 49,540 lbs.

The total purchases of the three dealers mentioned amounted to over 170,000 lbs., mostly cod, haddock being very scarce.

SUPREME COURT--JAN. TERM.

Case Cotton vs. Kimball occupied the time of the Court on Saturday; all the jurors not engaged on this case were discharged.

The Court will go in at nine o'clock this morning, when the docket will be called.

NAVAL MATTERS.

Master Lyman G. Spalding has been commissioned to be a lieutenant in the navy from the 10th of July, 1875.

Among the officers who have been recently examined and found qualified for promotion are Capt. William G. Temple, and Lieutenants George R. Durand, Thomas W. Gardner, Charles H. Rockwell and Charles M. Anthony; the last-named three were transferred from the volunteer to the regular service for gallant and meritorious conduct during the rebellion.

[Communicated.]

THE SEWERAGE QUESTION, AND REPORT OF CIVIL ENGINEER.

Mr. Editor: A communication in the Times of a recent date on the above subject calls for a word from some one to correct the writer ("P,") and give the public an additional incentive to push the proposed work. The engineer, whose plan is so thoroughly discussed by the writer, even if here would not feel it his duty to commence a missionary work for the conversion of any "esteemed citizen' who thought he had acquired an engineering experience in a winter's evening, and whose article is prima-facie evidence that he is not conversant with the subject he undertakes to discuss; so I offer a few evidences, proven by adoption and usage, that I hope will stir our city fathers to the necessity of carrying out the proposed plan for the relief of our ponds from the accumulating deposit that is giving us so much trouble—as well as to convince some who are not favorable, from fear of failure of the system proposed.

The writer ("P") discusses three points, viz.: 1st, pipes of sufficient dimensions; 2d, a rate of fall that will give and maintain a current; 3d, a continual supply of water to dilute the sewerage.

The 2d point we shall have to refer to other powers than we now have to deal with, as the fall is a matter of fact and not opinion, and the upper end of the sewer cannot be elevated above the territory to be drained, nor the sewerage discharged below low-water mark.

As to the first point: The utility of pipes certainly depend upon their being of requisite size—proportionate to the amount of use and rapidity of flow. The general idea that if they are made large enough there is no danger of making them too large is a popular error; experience proves that if a sewer pipe is too large for the work it has to do, it is more liable to accumulations and consequent stoppage than if too small. The true purpose is to secure a proper size for the immediate removal of all deposits; but Waring says the passion for large pipes is universal, and the feeling seems to be to make the conduit "big enough anyhow."

The size of the pipe leading from the outlet of the Jones brewery culvert having been questioned by the Times correspondent, we will take that one as a sample for the whole. It is proposed to be of twelve inches diameter; careful experiments demonstrate that a pipe of that size, with the proposed fall of one in 450, will give a velocity of two-and-a-half feet per second when running half-full, and a discharge of 881 gallons per minute when running full; a total discharge from both the breweries would not be above 2000 barrels of forty gallons each, and flowing in a continuous stream for ten hours would amount to 133 gallons per minute, or less than one-sixth the capacity of the pipe, leaving five-sixths of the capacity for house sewerage and the street detritus which must be diluted to enter. The fact that "private establishments" sometimes have drains of even larger dimensions than the one proposed for this use is no real reason why the city should commit the same folly. Nothing will flow without a "sufficient fall," but with a given fall and a given quantity to be discharged, the smaller the pipe the greater the velocity of flow and consequent scouring action which prevents desposits.

The statement is made by the writer in the Times that "it has been found that the smallest fall practicable in city sewerage is one in 240;" who has found it so? The rate of fall best suited to a given duty is such as will produce a velocity sufficient to make the sewer self-cleansing, and depends directly upon the size of the pipe and the amount to be passed through it. The great intercepting sewer for Boston is graded at one in two thousand five hundred; in the outfall sewers for Lynn, one in 400, one in 1000 and one in 2000, respectively.

The question of "undiluted sewerage" evidently puzzles "P." House sewerage, if that is what he refer to, is mostly liquid, and the more house drains that enter, the more liquid there will be; any trouble arising therefrom will be in the old and poorly constructed sewers now existing, and with which this article does not offer to deal any more than do the proposed intercepting sewers—but the intercepting sewer will readily carry away any floating solid matter which the old sewers conduct into them.

Again, "P" says "the report passes lightly over knotty points, simply stating that 'some deposit of the more solid portions of the sewerage may take place while there is no flow.'" Evidently sight is here lost of the tide gates which at this stage come into action, preventing inflow from the sea, retaining the deposit above and the mass of liquid which at the opening of the gate is ready to flush that part of the sewer.

Instances of this kind are not rare; the most remarkable one is at Charleston, S. C., where a perfectly level sewer is found, the bottom of which is but twenty inches above low water mark; the main sewer is two and five-eighths miles long, with an outlet at each end, one of which is used as an inlet; each end has a gate, operated at will by means of gates, the water is stored until near low tide, when the washing has the effect of removing sand, mud and even brick-bats.

Flushing may become necessary in the upper portions of the sewers. The one bordering the north pond can readily be washed by an automatic reservoir of small size, which without notice or care will twice daily flush that section; while the south sewer can be cleansed by such a small quantity that the engineer estimated a hogshead daily would suffice,—or again by retention of natural sewerage by a gate, and then suddenly discharging at low water; and there would probably be no need of further enquirty as to "who is to furnish the water?"

The suggestion by "P" that the city secure the mill privileges by purchase or otherwise, is noted; inquiry will ascertain that the north mill is under lease at above a thousand dollars rental, and probably cannot be obtained at all, while the south pond is held by the owner at a fabulous price, while he can convey only the flowage; acquiring control of the ponds and depending upon the efflux of the tides is merely to diffuse the accumulation, making its deposit not less certain, as the current would never be of sufficient force to wash the ponds.

The idea of the piles of a railway bridge placed from six to fifteen feet apart acting as a dam preventing the escape of sewerage into the outgoing tide, is a brilliant one which needs no comment.

Practical men doubt if the proposed sewers can be completed for $16,900, says "P," yet other practical men are doing similar work in various parts of the country for such prices as the estimate was based upon, therefore the doubts may stand for "P's" consolation.

Concerning the third point, "the need of a continual supply of water to dilute the sewerage," a glance at the outlet of any of our sewers will convince any one that the discharge is far from semi-solid; an intermittent flow that has sufficient volume to half-fill even a short portion of a sewer will with a suitable fall have enough power to prevent deposits, this is the action of the proposed flushing.

The necessity for a concerted action in this matter is generally acknowledged, and our city government will be warranted in at once pushing the sewers to completion in order that the coming months of hot weather shall not find us offering greater inducements for infectious disease than heretofore.

Shall there be any longer delay in the case? RELIBE.

This Monday evening our citizens will be favored with a popular entertainment at Franklin Hall, by home talent, of which notice is given in an advertisement in another column. Not only do the performers do a good deed by consenting thus to entertain the people, but they also aid in a good cause.

THE VICINITY.

Mr. T. E. Symmes lectured recently in the town hall at Hampton on "the Bible and Spiritualism," to a select but not crowded audience of ten persons.

The tendency of southern New Hampshire people to deposit their funds in Massachusetts savings banks is shown by the fact that Seabrook has but $8115 in home institutions and $100,000 in Massachusetts.

The Island Ledge House at Wells Beach, one of the finest summer hotels on the coast, was burned on Friday, it is supposed by an incendiary fire; the loss is reported at $40,000, fully covered by insurance. The building was put up by Davis, Wooster & Co., of Great Falls, some six or seven years ago, and was said to have cost, with its furniture when ready for opening, upwards of $75,000.

A man calling himself "King David," and wearing his hat tricked out with feathers, has been reported as appearing in Seabrook, Dover and other towns, causing considerable annoyance to timid women and children. He is David Tuttle, a native of Strafford, a carpenter by trade, and once an active and industrious man, but was crazed by injuries received by a fall from a building on which he was at work.

The term of Nathaniel K. Leavitt as postmaster at Exeter having expired, a large number of the citizens have signed a petition for the appointment of his son, who has for a long time been an efficient chief clerk in the office and who would give his personal attention to the discharge of the duties of the position. It turns out however, that Mr. Marseilles of the News-Letter would like the appointment, and the question remains undecided until after the election.

The Hampton correspondent of the News-Letter says: "The fishermen from our beach are doing remarkably well, better than for several years past. John C. Palmer and others have the past week caught as many as 2500 lbs. a day to a boat. Most of these fish are bought by Messrs. Mason and DeLancey for a firm in Boston. Moses Blake and sons supply Mr. Oliver Lane of Exeter, while quite a large quantity goes to Portsmouth. Some of the fishermen, however, prefer to split their fish rather than sell at the present prices, which have ranged from fifty to eighty-seven cents per 100 lbs. One or two days during the winter fish have sold as low as twenty-five cents per 100 lbs."

G. H. Jenness, Esq., of Rye, the new engrossing clerk of the National House of Representatives, has been moderator (generally getting a unanimous vote, as the democrats would all vote for him as a member of their party, and the republicans would vote for him for two reasons —one being that they knew he would be a "square" moderator, and the other that they didn't want him doing political work on the floor,) of the town meetings of Rye at eight State elections and four Presidential ones, served six years as superintending school committee, and been three years postmaster at Rye Beach. In spite of all this office-holding he has always been regarded as a respectable man and good fellow generally.

"Some time since the city was 'all agog' over the rumor that a young lady graduate of our high school was to marry a western gentleman whose attention was first called to the lady through reading in a paper extracts from her graduation part. It is now stated that the wedding is to come off in Buxton this week; also, that there is really to be a double wedding at that time, as a lady relative of 'our graduate' is to be married at the same time and place." So says the Biddeford Post, which in a later issue gives the name of the young lady graduate who in her school valedictory announced her determination to "earn her own living," and the wealthy merchant of the west who is determined she shan't "go it alone," as follows: "The marriage of Miss Eldena Eldon to A. J. Packard, Esq., of Youngtown, Ohio, will be celebrated at the residence of the young lady's grandfather, Hon. John Milliken of Buxton, on Wednesday, February twentieth."

Croaking is not confined to the Frog Ponds. At this season almost everybody is hoarse. The bleating of distressed lungs is heard everywhere. Why is this, when Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will cure any cough, cold or hoarseness in 24 hours? Sold by all Druggists. tmch5

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

To an already well established reputation, are constantly added the warmest praises of travellers who have enjoyed the hospitalities of the Grand Central Hotel, New York.

The vicissitudes and chances of fortune are shown clearly in the results of the February Drawing of the famous Louisiana State Lottery Company. A lucky urchin in San Antonio, Texas, captured fifteen thousand dollars by spending a dollar. Such is luck. Why not let the reader write to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La., for the full information about the next drawing?

AS A RELIABLE REMEDY for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, or any affection of the throat and chest, use, according to directions given on each bottle, Madame Zadoc Porter's Cough Balsam. It is always reliable, and the possession of a single bottle may, in case of a sudden attack, prove to be worth fifty times its cost. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. Commonwealth Consolidated MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the "COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY," of San Francisco, call attention to the mining property of this Company, situated in the Truckee River Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Prize," and developments thus far made in the shaft and levels of the Commonwealth Company have established the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found at even depth in sinking the shaft upon the "Grand Prize" now so successfully worked, and paying its regular monthly dividends.

The Commonwealth Consolidated Mining Company consists of two distinct properties, known as the "All Alone" and "Veritas" mines, which have been consolidated into the above-named Company; both of these valuable properties have been prospected by shafts, the ledge found to be well defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The Corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in most California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for a working capital.

This stock will only be issued and sold from time to time, as funds may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able superintendence of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment for the working capital, and the price is placed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the Stockholders that their intention is to enhance the price of each share from time to time, as the work of development progresses and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Alone" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 75 feet, and a contract is about being closed to run it 200 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are principally New England men, and the Board of Directors offer their assurance to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and an examination of the management as to the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and guaranteed at all times.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and thus preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases can not lodge or fevers form.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It cures diseases of the scalp, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
Its cleansing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."
BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and efficiently produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the nerves, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the Wild Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee the valuable dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES
Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superiority, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grubbers) would be glad if they could embrace a similar cure in their papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "snifts," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting every eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A friend advised me in my paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for five years and six months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my system. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.
A CLOUD OF WITNESSES.
The following named parties are among the thousands who have been cured of catarrh by the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy:
A. F. Downs, New Geneva, Pa.; D. J. Brown, St. Joseph's, Mo.; E. Lewis, Rutland, Vt.; Levi Springe, Nettle Lake, Ohio; Chas. Norcrop, North Chesterfield, Me.; Milton Jones, Scriba, N. Y.; J. Mighrey, Bridger Station, Wyo.; J. C. Merriman, Logansport, Ind.; M. M. Post, Logansport, Ind.; J. W. Bailey, Tremont, Pa.; H. H. Ayres, La Porte, Ind.; Jessie M. Ross, Ft. Branch, Ind.; L. Williams, Canton, Mo.; W. A. Thayer, Onarga, Ill.; S. B. Nichols, Jr., Galveston, Texas; Jonas F. Rehert, Stoneville, Pa.; S. W. Lusk, McFarland, Wis.; Johnson Williams, Helmick, Ohio; Mrs. M. A. Curry, Trenton, Tenn.; J. G. Joslin, Louis Anders, Gayeport, Ohio; C. H. Chase, Elkhart, Ind.; Mrs. Henry Haight, San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. F. M. Gallusha, Lawrenceville, N. Y.; W. J. Graham, Adel, Iowa; A. O. Smith, Newnan, Ga.; Chas. E. Rice, Baltimore, Md.; Jesse M. Sears, Carlisle, Ind.; Daniel B. Miller, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Mrs. Minnie Arnaise, 290 Delancy Street, New York; H. W. Hall, Hastings, Mich.; Rev. P. Marston, Lowell, Mass.; I. W. Roberts, Maricopa, Ariz.; Chas. S. Delaney, Harrisburg, Pa.; M. C. Cole, Lowell, Mass.; Mrs. C. J. Spurling Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings or affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of the skin, coated tongue, pain in the side, pain in the shoulder, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear. Such as Ulceration of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

CATARRH
NEVER-FAILING RELIEF
AFFORDED BY
SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R. I.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc. THEO. P. BOGERT.

How They Used to Talk.

There are few among the many persons who have reached the active stage of life since the democratic party lost control of the National Government, that have any adequate idea of what is meant by the occasional references to the "plantation manners" and "cracking the slave driver's whip" in Congresses of former days. That the southern democrats ruled the North they know, and that they were insolent and supercilious they also know, but as to the extent to which the fire-eating chivalry carried their bullying, braggart insolence they have no conception at all. For the information of such persons we reprint the following extract from a speech of Alexander H. Stephens, delivered in the United States House of Representatives on the occasion of the passage of the infamous Nebraska bill—premising that Mr. Stephens was not an "extremist" among the southerners by any means, being looked upon by the Bob Toombs class as rather tame, and too moderate in his expressions to amount to much as an exponent of true "chivalry:"

"Well, gentlemen, you make a good deal of clamor on the Nebraska measure, but it don't alarm us at all. We have got used to that kind of talk. You have threatened before, but have never performed. You always caved in, and you will again. You are a mouthing, white-livered set. Of course you will oppose; we expect that; but we don't care for your opposition. You will rail, but we don't care for your railing. You will hiss, but so will adders. We expect it of adders, and we expect it of you. You are like the devils that were pitched over the battlements of heaven into hell. They set up a howl of discomfiture, and so will you. But their fate was sealed, and so is yours. You must submit to the yoke, but don't chafe. Gentlemen, we have got you in our power. You tried to drive us to the wall in 1850, but times are changed. * * * You went a-wooling and have come home fleeced. Don't be so impudent as to complain. You will only be slapped in the face. Don't resist. You will only be lashed into obedience."

—A fisherman in Elmira, N. Y., is said to have unusually good luck in fishing by using grasshoppers, caught last summer and preserved in gum arabic, as bait.

—The Great London Show is already preparing for its eastern summer trip. Among the leading features are to be Mlle. Elise Dockrill, the famous equestrienne; the great French sensation of shooting forth a young lady from a monster cannon, the young lady catching a single rope forty feet from the ground after being propelled in this manner one hundred feet; a genuine Laplander with a team of reindeers; a genuine British mail coach, which will be shown in the processions, and extensive zoological and circus departments.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. Its all makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 16th.

Messrs. Garfield and Stephens shook each other's hands so cordially across the "bloody chasm," in the parts of the ceremonials assigned them accepting the gift of Carpenter's picture by Mrs. Thompson, that sanguine people believed that it had been bridged for all time or that its serrated edges had been brought so firmly together that the occupation of the "conciliator" was "done gone." To such the bout between Hewitt and several of his democratic associates the very next day was a rude awakening. A swell statesman from little South Carolina had insolently suggested that West Point be sold out or given away. Hewitt ceased his cogitations over the "corn kitchen" problem that absorbed so much of his genius since his dismal failure as Tilden's pilot, and deliberately flaunted the "bloody shirt" in the faces of the Confederate Brigadiers about him, boldly proclaiming that West Point had earned the everlasting gratitude of the country by the record made by its loyal graduates in several scrimmages familiar to them. He laid about him in the liveliest manner till exhausted, when he had to submit to the return fusilade from the Confederate batteries. He intimated that everything said by Mr. Chandler relative to a "bargain" was true. One of the Confederates from the Pelican State dashed out on his ear in gallant style, with a counter insinuation that Hewitt "lined in his heart and in his black throat." As it was a democratic funeral, preparations for the obsequies were encouraged from the republican side, they kindly offering to assist. I am sorry to say they were repulsed by ungrateful democrats. The battle ceased only with the exhaustion of the combatants. Rather ashamed of the exhibition they have consumed most of the time since in mutual explanations, etc., so that an external peace may be reached.

The failure, so far, to find the $1800 that Mr. New assessed on the banks for extra work imposed by their careless method of putting up money sent the Treasury, has revived some of the old scandals of his brief administration. One is to the effect that an incompetent nephew was appointed messenger, whose business was, chiefly, to carry money to the desks of counters and return it to the place of deposit. Sums of money mysteriously disappeared; the nephew was said to be a habitue of gambling houses and other disreputable places, and much addicted to games of chance. One young lady turned in her account and money one night, all right, to the remittance desk; the next day it was moved by the messenger in question, after which it was found $1000 short. The young lady was summarily dismissed but was subsequently restored, but in a different division. It is said the discovery of a loss of $2000 was made only a day or two before the discharge of the messenger, the events coming so near together as to suggest some such relation as cause and effect. Soon after, every $900 female employe of the Redemption Division, (save Mr. New's niece,) nearly 200, was indirectly assessed $17.50. It was accomplished by making each one, under vague hints of dismissal in case of refusal, sign an application for seven days leave without pay. In the absence of any explanation as to what was done with the $3,500 thus secured, it was surmised that it went to pay for some eccentricities of the messenger, or to pay the excess of appointees from Mr. New's State. I give this as it came to me and as believed by many here.

Powers, of Maine, one of the youngest members, who came into Congress with the reputation of a hard hitter and as possessed of a good deal of bull-dog pugnacity, made a vigorous onslaught against the bill granting pensions to soldiers and sailors of the Mexican, Creek, Seminole, Black-Hawk and other wars, particularly that provision pensioning those who afterwards went into the rebellion. According to his computation it will require quite $7,000,000 to satisfy all claims that might legally be made under the bill.

KNOX.

The Eastern War.

The European news, Monday, was far less war-like than on Saturday. England's fleet has withdrawn to Mudania, forty miles from Constantinople, and the Russian troops are not to advance beyond the limits set by the armistice.

The negotiations for the peace Congress are reported to be concluded, and Baden-Baden is said to be the place where it will be held.

The London Observer believes that Russia has represented to England that the United States, as a great maritime power, should participate in the congress. England has not objected, but has taken the advantage of the proposal to suggest that Greece also should be allowed to take part in the congress.

The Greek insurgents in Thessaly and Crete continue active hostilities.

The Greek government has ordered out the second reserve of 10,000 men. Turkish troops have been sent to Thessaly.

The London Times' Pera correspondent says: It is reported that the Circassians, when retreating before the Russians, suffocated with sulphur 800 women and children, who had taken refuge in a cave.

News and Notes.

Gold was down to 101 5-8 on Monday, and weak at that. Government bonds were strong.

The Papal Conclave meets to-day in Rome, for the choice of a Pope.

Steamer Old Colony, from New York for Fall River, broke her walking-beam about one o'clock Sunday morning when between Watch Hill and Point Judith. The broken walking-beam went crashing through at least forty-five feet of the hurricane deck and the stateroom hall, carrying the state-room hall stairway and after-cabin stairway completely away; it lodged on the keelson; had it gone through the keelson probably nothing could have saved the vessel from foundering, for a hole would have been stove through the bottom. The steamer City of Fitchburg took the disabled vessel in tow, and steamed into Newport with her. None of the 150 passengers on board were hurt. The damage is between $50,000 and $75,000.

A tax on commercial travellers and drummers—both being identical—is proposed in the State of Ohio. The bill provides that travelling men representing business houses in other States shall pay a license of $50. This may be the little beginning of a bad business.

Mons. P. Valleau Cartier will undertake to waltz thirteen consecutive hours without a rest in Horticultural Hall, Boston, on Washington's birthday, Friday next, beginning at eleven o'clock in the forenoon and finishing at midnight. If he were to saw wood or dig post-holes half as many hours as he proposes to gyrate, he might do some good.

The noted race-horse George Palmer died last week at Albany, N. Y. His best time was 2:19 1-4. Erastus Corning purchased him in 1869, for $16,000.

There was a little incident in this city, the other day, says the Springfield Union, which Francis Murphy's generous soul would have rejoiced to see. A hard-working man had ordered some coal and was paying for it, when he found that his pocket-book did not contain enough by a quarter of a dollar. Telling the dealer that the deficiency would be made up when the coal was delivered at the house, he turned to go away. "Hold on!" he exclaimed, coming back a moment later, his face all aglow, "I'm all right, after all." And, taking some dimes from the inner vest pocket, nearest his heart, he paid the bill in full. "There," said he, "that is my Murphy money. I signed the pledge when Murphy was here (you know I had steamed it pretty hard before that,) and now, whenever I feel as if I must have a drink, I take from my pocket-book the ten cents it would cost, and I put it in there. So there's eighty cents saved already, and no time lost from work." And the man walked away as happy as a king.

The lawsuit between Thomas Lord, of New York, and his children, growing out of the old gentleman's marriage with the wealthy and beautiful widow, Mrs. Hicks, has been settled by Mr. Lord's surrendering his entire estate, real and personal, to his hopeful offspring. The latter in return withdraw their suits against their father—an acknowledgment that they care nothing at all for him, and only wanted his money.

Miss Dickie, of New York, who has been confined in a madhouse for seven years, while perfectly sane all the time, by her brothers and sisters who wanted her property, has been released by the courts. It seems there is no law by which her infamous relatives can be punished. The parties are all wealthy, Miss Dickie's father having left about $200,000 to each of his children.

At Jeffersonville, Ind., across the river from Louisville, Ky., Thursday, a party of boys at play near an old house discovered the dead body of a German widow named Sophia Brantley, partly eaten by rats, an army of which scattered on their approach. It was ascertained that Mrs. Brantley had been living alone, and it is supposed that she was so reduced from starvation as to be unable to fight off the rats.

The coasting steamer C. M. Palmer sank in a collision near Harwich, England, on Sunday, and fourteen persons were drowned.

The "bonanza kings" have purchased a building in New York city, which will at once be occupied by the Bank of Nevada.

The Excelsior block in New York, and two Presbyterian churches, were burned Sunday evening. Loss estimated at nearly $1,000,000.

The consumption of tobacco of all kinds in Paris during the past half year was enormous. Cigars to the value of $1,460,000 were smoked, and cigarettes to the value of a little over $300,000. About $800,000 went for snuff, and $100,000 for chewing tobacco. The number of cigars smoked in the six months was 75,417,300, and the weight of the cigarettes was over ninety-one tons.

A new life-saving apparatus, consisting of a large sheet of stout canvas, with handles for thirty-two men, to be used for catching persons who may jump from burning buildings, has just been completed at the Fire Department repair shops.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Jeremiah Prescott, Esq., the well-known manager of the Troy & Greenfield Railroad and Hoosac Tunnel sends in a History of the Hoosac Tunnel which affords an account of its construction and a description of its characteristics. The tunnel, including fifty-four miles of railroad owned by the State of Massachusetts, has cost the Commonwealth seventeen millions of dollars. It is controlled by the Governor and Council, who employ Mr. Prescott to superintend and look after the interest of the State. Its importance to Boston and the Bay State cannot be estimated, and the increased business over the line of road using the tunnel is a gratifying result to those who so long and persistently advocated this magnificent project. The length of the tunnel is four and three-fourths miles. It has 7573 feet of brick arching, two feet thick, and the drains at the outlets discharge seven hundred gallons of water per minute.

The Homeopathic Life Insurance Company of New York has lost a hundred and fifty thousand dollars in bad investments. This is only a homeopathic dose to what some of the companies have been subjected, although several of them are able to pass the examination of the Supt. of Life Insurance. The insurance companies, investments prove no exception to the general results of shrinkage shown in all kinds of mortgages, bonds, etc., held by institutions of trust in New York.

New Hampshire Items.

Nearly one-fourth of the time of the last two terms of court, held in Dover, in 1877, was consumed in liquor cases, with the following results: Cost of trials, $5,350; received in fines and costs, $5,680; balance in favor of county, $330.

James Gage of Orford, nine years of age, broke his leg below the knee, while scuffling with other boys on his way home from school.

The will of the late Dr. E. R. Peaslee, of New York, includes among other bequests one of $200 to President Bartlett of Dartmouth College for writing the testator's will, and at the death of Mrs. Peaslee, if only one, or neither, of testator's children survive her, $80,000 is to go to Dartmouth College to found a Professorship of Modern Languages. If both children survive the widow, Dartmouth College is to receive but $5000.

Five notorious thieves, a man named Eastman and his two sons, from Charlestown, and Henry Gooche and Frank Bean of Monroe, who have stolen buffalo robes, harnesses and anything else they could, carrying their plunder into Canada and smuggling back liquor, which they peddled about Orleans county, Vt., in pint bottles, have been arrested and committed to jail at St. Johnsbury, Vt., It is to be hoped Vermont will take good care of them, for they are not wanted in this State.

The City Savings Bank of Manchester has suspended payment, and is to go into a receiver's hands.

Political.

The Cincinnati Gazette, the home organ of President Hayes, has finally come to the conclusion that the bourbon democrats of the South have forfeited all claims upon the Administration, and that it is time for the President to consult republicans instead of the "erring brothers." The President don't seem to learn fast.

The story is now going the rounds that Nephew Pelton offered J. Madison Wells $200,000 to count Tilden in, but Wells wanted $300,000 to be placed in his own hands, and Pelton fearing that he could not secure "an honest count" withdrew, and then through State Senator Robertson of Louisiana offered Gen. Anderson $250,000 to count in Tilden, but Anderson refused to negotiate. These statements are now said to come direct from Wells and Anderson.

In his remarks in the Maryland House of Delegates, Thursday, Montgomery Blair said there was but one obstacle to Tilden obtaining the Presidency, and that was the delinquency of the democracy itself. The republicans were disgusted at the jugglery of Hayes, and a majority wanted him out of the Presidency, while a majority of the democrats wished Hayes to remain in office. He intimated that Senator Lamar had favored the installation of Hayes because he had received a hint that Lamar was a man that Hayes would like to put in his Cabinet. He further charged Lamar with favoring the Pacific Railroad subsidy that would rob the people of $100,000,000.

A Brooklyn man last summer deposited $300 with Alex. Frothingham & Co., brokers, 13 Wall st., N. Y., as margin on a purchase of 100 shares St. Paul R. R. stock. The stock was sold six weeks afterwards, realizing $2,300 profit. Their Weekly Financial Report is sent free. 10

Croaking is not confined to the Frog Ponds. At this season almost everybody is hoarse. The bleating of distressed lungs is heard everywhere. Why is this, when Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will cure any cough, cold or hoarseness in 48 hours? Sold by all Druggists. tmch5

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

To an already well established reputation, are constantly added the warmest praises of travellers who have enjoyed the hospitalities of the Grand Central Hotel, New York.

The vicissitudes and chances of fortune are shown clearly in the results of the February Drawing of the famous Louisiana State Lottery Company. A lucky urchin in San Antonio, Texas, captured fifteen thousand dollars by spending a dollar. Such is luck. Why not let the reader write to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La., for the full information about the next drawing?

AS A RELIABLE REMEDY for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, or any affection of the throat and chest, use, according to directions given on each bottle, Madame Zadoc Porter's Cough Balsam. It is always reliable, and the possession of a single bottle may, in case of a sudden attack, prove to be worth fifty times its cost. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

THE CITY.

Schooner Jesse Williamson, Jr., of this port, has finished reloading her cargo at Vineyard Haven, and will haul into the stream to finish repairs.

Mr. William H. Haddock, of this city, on Monday received the papers entitling him to a pension of forty-eight dollars a year, dating back to December, 1862, on account of disease contracted while in the service.

One of our prompt subscribers, an officer of the U. S. Marine Corps, in enclosing his remittance for our weekly says in his letter, "The GAZETTE gives me much enjoyment, in gathering from its columns the local home news. It tends to keep fresh in memory my native city." That is the aim of our paper, among other things,— to give the sons abroad constant information of all of interest that transpires in the "scenes of their childhood."

Ex-Senator James W. Patterson, accompanied by James P. Bartlett, Esq., visited the High School on Monday. After the school had exercised in mathematics, concerted reading, etc., Mr. Patterson favored the pupils with some appropriate and most interesting remarks, and was followed, very briefly by Mr. Bartlett. The scholars never appeared to better advantage, and the school was never more highly complimented than on this occasion.

The fishing schooner Mary E. Smith set her trawls on Friday of last week and brought in on Saturday 6000 lbs. of cod. After disposing of her fish she immediately returned to the fishing ground, and arrived here on Monday with 17,000 lbs. of cod. This is the largest catch by any one vessel for the season. The Pluribuster, which also went out at the same time to set her trawls, came in with about 1200 lbs. Randall & Caswell were the purchasers.

A fresh and characteristic story of Abraham Lincoln leaked out in the proceedings of the Merrill contested will case at New York on Wednesday. Mrs. Merrill's nephew testified that she went to the White House with him soon after he entered the army in 1861, and complained because her letters to him didn't reach him, and wanted the President to do something about it. Lincoln turned round, and with a smile, said: "Madam, I would give ten cents for every letter addressed to me that does not reach me."

The New York Tribune regards it as significant of a coming change in the lecturing profession that the desire of the public for such intellectual entertainments as is furnished by single discourses is giving way to a demand for courses upon subjects worthy of fuller treatment. It says Mr. Albee and Rev. Mr. Spaulding and Bayard Taylor are at present ministering to the new demand. If New York, which has sent forth so many lecturers that have served only to help idle people pass an evening hour, is to begin a healthful change in this respect, there is hope for an improvement for the rest of the land, in the matter of lecturing.

Through information which was positively sworn to as being correct, given us by one Jerry Gunnison, we were led to publish an item on Friday which did great injustice to Mr. Thomas Paine, a resident of Kittery Point, wherein he was charged with appropriating to his own use certain material at Fort McClary. We have since interviewed the orderly-sergeant in charge of the fort relative to the matter, and find that Mr. Paine is entirely blameless in the matter, having acted solely by authority. We gladly make this correction of a most malicious slander against an honest man, which slander seemed to have been made out of whole cloth. Will the CHRONICLE, which copied the first item, please copy this.—Times.

AN OLD HAT STORE.

Mr. N. K. Walker, of the firm of N. K. Walker & Son, No. 11 Congress street, has the honor to be one of the veteran merchants of our city, and the oldest one on the street. Mr. Walker in the year 1823, at the age of fifteen years, was apprenticed to Messrs. Haley and Knight, manufacturers of hats, who carried on their business on the corner of Court (then Pitt) and Water streets, where the Goodrich block now stands. His time being out in January, 1829, he continued with his employers as journeyman until September of that year, when in company with Mr. Joshua A. Knight he bought out the stock and business of Michael Wise, (who kept where Walker & Son now keep,) and continued in the retail trade and the manufacturing of hats. Those who have seen some of the patterns that were in vogue in those days have reason to thank the inventors of styles that have in every respect modified their size, weight, etc. Fur was the only material then used, the weight of the hats averaging half a pound or more; the low price of material and labor enabled them to sell the best qualities for three and four dollars. In the year 1838 Mr. Knight retired from the firm, leaving Mr. Walker the sole proprietor until 1858, when his son, Mr. Albert Walker, became a partner, who remained until 1875, and was succeeded by his brother, Mr. Arthur Walker, who is the junior member of the present firm. The original building was of wood and dates back into the seventeen hundreds. As far back as we can get any record, it has been occupied as a hat manufactory and store. Mr. Wise carried on the business probably before the beginning of the present century. Prior to him was a Mr. Fowle, and the late Mr. William Ilsley and Mr. Mark A. Cate were employed by him. The old building was burned in 1845 and was rebuilt of brick. In 1875 it was remodelled by putting in a new front and increasing the size of the store. The firm have lately added to their hat, cap and fur trade a well-selected stock of articles for gentlemen's wearing apparel; they have always maintained a reputation for honest dealing, and for selling good articles at the lowest market prices.

POLICE COURT.

Monday, Feb. 18th; Batchelder, J.

Thomas Collins was the only sinner brought before the Court. Thomas, who has been residing at the City Farm, on Saturday requested leave of absence, came down town, got drunk, and was locked up. He was sent back to the City Farm to work out $9.90, fine and costs.

"THROWING LIHGT"

Is a pleasant social game, with which, no doubt, many of your readers are familiar. I was glad to see a paragraph in the CHRONICLE of Saturday throwing some light on the comparative price of gas here and elsewhere. The Lowell and Manchester companies have advantages over the Portsmouth company, more than offsetting the lower price of coal here; the consumption by the large factory corporations, and the denser population of those cities, giving them an amount of gas sold to the mile of pipe laid, far exceeding that of a place like Portsmouth. What I would like (and I think many others would also) is an official statement by our gas company, or by an inspector appointed by the city, of the "candle power" of the gas furnished to us, and of its purity. The Gas Commissioners of Boston say in their report of 1876, "gas should at no time have an illuminating power below sixteen candles; it should at all times be free from all sulphuretted hydrogen, and should contain an amount of sulphur and ammonia not exceeding twenty grains of the former, and five grains of the latter, per 100 cubic feet." Boston gas is of the power of 18—19 candles; Lowell, 17; Manchester, 17; Roxbury, 17 1-2; what is Portsmouth's? AJAX.

SUPREME COURT--JAN. TERM.

Alva Wood, Esq., of Exeter, a member of the Rockingham Bar, died at his residence in Exeter, quite suddenly, of heart disease, on Sunday evening. He was a native of Georgetown, Mass., and read law with Bell & Tuck at Exeter, where he has been in practice since his admission to the bar. His age was about 57. He had attended service at the Unitarian church, and had just returned therefrom.

At the coming in of the Court on Monday morning, Judge Bingham, out of respect to the memory to the deceased, ordered an adjournment of the Court. The Bar held a meeting and appointed Messrs. Hatch, Marston and Small a committee to prepare resolutions to be presented for the consideration of the Bar at a future meeting. The question as to attending the funeral of the deceased was left with Hon. W. W. Stickney, the President of the Bar, with Chas. H. Bell, Wm. B. Small and E. Frank Tucker.

The Court was occupied during the afternoon in calling the docket for a final disposition of cases. Judge Bingham has not indulged in the custom so frequently observed by some of the Judges in this respect. He has pushed on through the term and made no little progress in disposing of cases by trial, etc., and has very acceptably discharged the duties of Judge at this his first appearance in this County.

In Cotton vs. Kimball (the first case,) judgment on the verdict of $100 was ordered.

The case Swampscot Aqueduct against the Boston & Maine Railroad has been referred to Ira A. Eastman, Esq.

The arguments in Cotton vs. Kimball (second case) will begin this (Tuesday) morning; this is the last jury case.

Deceased Nonogenarians of New Hampshire.

The list of aged people who have died during the past year is greater than any previous one for the past half dozen years. Eighty persons—26 men and 54 women—90 years of age and upwards, who were alive Jan. 1st, 1877, are now no more. Only three of them were over a century, although some approached very nearly to that age. Below are given the names and corresponding ages of all those nonogenarians and centenarians of our State who have passed away since my last record was published. Any corrections or additions will be esteemed a favor by the writer.

—F. M. Colby, in Manches er Union.

—If a woman wants to faint in comparative safety, Maine is the place to do it. A woman fainted in a car on a Maine railway, and thirteen liquor flasks were promptly placed at her disposal. In this connection it may be incidentally mentioned that there were just thirteen men in the car.

Groundless Objections.

Some having tried "put up" medicines without obtaining the relief promised, indiscriminately condemn them. Is this fair? Suppose a judge should argue that because the last three prisoners had been found guilty, he should condemn the fourth without trial. Is not such reasoning absurd? And yet are not those who condemn all medicines, because they have been deceived in one or two, equally as unjust? The family medicines manufactured by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y., are the purest and best in the market. His Golden Medical Discovery has, for many years, been the standard remedy in all affections of the liver, stomach, and blood, and when used in connection with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy effects a speedy cure of catarrh. While his Favorite Prescription is the only remedy offered, deserving of confidence, for the cure of those diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. Are you skeptical concerning its power to cure? If so, address any of the following named ladies:

Portsmouth Chronicle

—The oldest post-master in the United States is said to be Nathan Wood, who has been post-master at Deep River, Indiana, for more than forty years, having been appointed under Gen. Jackson's administration.

—A Sacramento woman accused her husband of attempting to kill her, and he was sent to prison for two years. Then she begged to be sentenced for the same time, because she could not bear to be parted from him, and the Judge refusing she went away and tried to hang herself.

—In a wild part of Scotland a dealer in fish used to drive his cart a considerable way inland. On one occasion, when passing a wild moor where, although there did reside a schoolmaster, the knowledge of the inhabitants of affairs in general was not extensive, he dropped a lobster. Some children picked it up, and wondering what the strange creature could be, took it to the school-master. The dominie put on his "sparticles," and, turning it over and over, examined it carefully. "Weel," at length said the oracle, "I ken maist o' the wonderfu' animals o' creation except jist twa, and those twa I never saw. They are an elephant and a turtle dove; and so this must be one o' the twa."

Commonwealth Consolidated MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the "COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY," of San Francisco, call attention to the mining property of this Company, situated in the Tuscarora Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Prize," and developments thus far made in the shaft and levels of the Commonwealth Consolidated indicate the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found in the Grand Prize, the shaft upon the "Grand Prize" now so successfully worked, and paying its regular monthly dividends.

The Commonwealth Consolidated Mining Company consists of two distinct properties, known as the "All Alone" and "Veritas" mines, which have been consolidated into the above-named Company; both of these valuable properties have been prospected by shafts, the ledge found to be well-defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The Corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in most California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for a working capital.

This stock will only be placed and sold from time to time, as funds may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able superintendence of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment for the working capital, and the price is placed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the Stockholders that their intention is to enhance the price of each issue from time to time, as the work of development progresses and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Alone" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 78 feet, and a contract is about being closed to run it 200 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are principally New England men, and the Board of Directors offer their assurance to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and an exposition of the management as to the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and guaranteed at all times.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and deaf or if them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both life and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with livelr expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is safe and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft — under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its graceful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or delightful.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and superior work than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavines, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. dtmo1

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated, beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior article supes out a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outsrtrtd all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (more dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh; my nasal passages became completely choked. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh remedy, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and try it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach, I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngeitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and the Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of "Golden Medical Discovery" will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it gets the feet cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humers in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action thus disturbed, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leukorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that it claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R. I.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I can induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WEEKS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.

THEO. P. BOGERT.

A Year without a Summer.

An aged resident of Hartford remembers that the winter of 1829-30 surpassed this in mildness; farmers ploughed every month of the season, and no snow fell until February 2. The winter was followed, however, by a cold, backward spring, with a snow storm in May, which killed the returning sparrows.—Springfield Republican.

As an offset to the above story one of the old residents of Derby tells us the year of 1816 is what is known as the "year without a summer." Old New England farmers refer to it as "eighteen hundred and starved to death." January was mild, as was also February, with the exception of a few days. The greater part of March was cold and boisterous. April opened warm, but grew colder as it advanced, ending with snow and ice, and winter cold. In May ice formed half an inch thick, buds and flowers were frozen and corn was killed. Frost, ice and snow were common in June. Almost every green thing was killed, and fruit was nearly all destroyed. Snow fell to the depth of three inches in New York and Massachusetts, and ten inches in Maine. July was accompanied with frost and ice. On the fifth, ice was formed of the thickness of window glass in New York, New England and Pennsylvania, and the corn was nearly all destroyed in certain sections. In August ice formed half an inch thick. Corn was so frozen that a great deal was cut down and dried for fodder. Very little ripened in the New England and Middle States. Farmers were obliged to pay four or five dollars a bushel for corn in 1815, for seed for the next spring's planting. The first two weeks of September were mild, the balance of the month was cold, with frost, and ice formed a quarter of an inch thick. October was more than usually cold, with frost and ice. November was cold and blustering, with snow enough for good sleighing. December was quite mild and comfortable.—Windermere (U.) Forum.

—Jim Brown, a worthy German, died in Franklin, Mo., recently, and his next friend, also a worthy German, was appointed administrator to settle up the affairs of his estate. The administrator called at a printing office, the other day, to have some posters printed, announcing that the goods of the late Brown would be sold at public auction. "I vant you to write up dose bills in some kind of sthyle," said the administrator, whose mind runs much to business. "I vant somedings dat vill addract der public eye, and pring in der beoples from the koundry." The printer asked for a suggestion or two. "Mrs. Brown und misself haf dalked it over," continued the business man, "und we vant you to head dose bills somedings this way," and he marked on the wall with his cane to show that he wanted big letters—"Hoor-raw! hoo-raw! Jim Brown is dead!"

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent, and gives a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

SENATORS ABSENT OR NOT VOTING.

Messrs. Harris of Tennessee, Patterson of South Carolina, Sharon of Nevada, and Ransom of North Carolina who would have voted for the bill—4.

Messrs. Hill of Georgia, Butler of South Carolina, and Eaton of Connecticut who would have voted against the bill—3.

The silver bill with the Senate amendments was returned to the House on Monday, and was laid upon the Speaker's table, no action being taken upon it. The silver men of the House held a caucus Monday evening and after a debate in which a lack of harmony was developed, agreed to have the bill referred to the banking committee. There is danger that another flood of speeches on the question is to be inflicted on the country by the members of the House.

Naval Affairs.

The Transcript says the business at the Boston navy yard has not been so brisk any winter since the war as it is now. The force of workmen has been quietly enlarged to about 800, and their services are required in fitting out the steamer Richmond, frigate Wachusett and the Leyden. About 150 carpenters are engaged on the Richmond, which is now in the dry-dock. It is desirable to have her prepared for sea by April, but it will be probably the last of May before she sails. It is thought she will be ordered to join the European squadron, which is to be strengthened in order to protect American commerce in case of further complications between the European powers.

It is stated that there is another deficiency in the naval appropriations this year, by which the naval officers will again have to submit to a shave of six or seven per cent. to brokers for their pay for next April, May and June.

News and Notes.

Joachim Pecci, named as the probable successor of Pius IX., is the Archbishop of Perouse, and was chamberlain of the late Pope. He is a "Moderate," and was an enemy of Antonelli. He was created cardinal in 1858. He is a tall, thin man of sixty-eight years, with a nasal voice and simple manners. It is said that "he has been an excellent bishop, and has realized the ideal of a perfect cardinal."

Mr. James F. Downey, editor of the Louisiana (Mo.) Journal, having been assaulted by Alderman W. W. Anderson, publishes a card containing the following business-like proposition: "I will meet him anywhere his friends and my friends may select, both to be unarmed, and if I don't thrash him inside of five minutes I will make a public apology and admit I am no man. I am in no condition to struggle with a man, but I am strong enough to whip a hypocrite and a coward."

Joseph P. Wall was sent to State prison from New York city, Monday, for fifteen years, for kicking his wife to death. The court advised him to bring a civil action against the parties who sold him the liquor, and sue for damages for the support of his children, now doubly bereaved.

Mrs. Catherine Jarvis died at Digby, Nova Scotia, Monday. She was 110 years old, and was born in slavery in the United States.

O'Leary successfully completed the task of walking 275 miles inside of eighty consecutive hours in Chicago, Saturday night, having twenty-seven minutes to spare. He will sail for England on the 26th instant, to take part in the great pedestrian matches, which begin in March.

A dispatch from Jackson, Amador county, California, says by a rise in Jackson creek half the Chinese quarters were swept away. Eight Chinamen and two women were drowned.

A British barque, the Medford, capsized and sank in Salthouse dock at Liverpool on Monday.

Mr. Brandt, a member of the Minnesota House of Representatives, now in session at St. Paul, sent to the clerk's desk on Saturday a $50 bank note, which he stated had been paid him in consideration of a promise to vote for adverse amendments to a pending bill for a perfecting act, under which Mr. Merrill of that city has a contract for supplying books to the city schools of the State. A committee of investigation was appointed, with full power. Resident and non-resident agents of New York and other Eastern publishing houses are said to be involved, but the only party directly implicated is Liberty Hall, formerly a country editor and now reported to be State agent for Appleton's school books.

The house of Mrs. Stanfield, of Lowndes county, Ga., was set on fire by some fiend a few nights ago, and, although Mrs. Stanfield and her youngest child were saved by a laborer, three other children were burned to death. There is strong circumstantial evidence against a neighbor as the author of the deed.

Dr. E. E. Spencer of Cambridge, Mass., has been arrested upon an indictment charging manslaughter in causing the death of Mrs. Catharine McLean, he having taken charge of and then deserted her in a critical condition pending childbirth.

Mrs. Ellen Brown, of Belmont, Mass., was arrested Saturday, for causing the death, in November last, of Annie Clark, a child of twelve years, in her employ as a domestic. Her husband, George Brown, was also arrested as an accessory. Efforts were made at the time to hush up the affair.

Mr. Joseph Jefferson, the distinguished actor, is said to be a firm believer in spiritual phenomena. He says that his personal experience, without any mediumistic interpretation, long ago proved to him the truth and reality of supernatural communication.

It is said charges have been submitted to the Commissioners investigating the official conduct of Capt. Hunting, Superintendent of the life-saving service on Long Island coast, that he has been in the habit of selling appointments in the service; of dismissing charges against crews for money, and of permitting employes to be guilty of gross neglect of duty.

Investigation into the opium-eating habits of residents of the Shenandoah Valley reveals the fact that in the town of Staunton 100 pounds of the drug are sold every week. Many young women and "ladies of the first families" are slaves of the habit. A local newspaper says that public attention was first called to the subject from the fact that a woman sent her horses to be sold that she might use the money to purchase opium. Her agent was unable to sell them, and when he told her so she fell dead. A public anti-opium meeting has been held, and a petition for a tax on the drug is in circulation.

The New York Commercial Advertiser has this: "What has Christianity ever done for man?" asked Bob Ingersoll one day on a Western train. "Well, responded a quiet old lady, "it has prevented Mr. Ingersoll from being Governor of Illinois."

Political.

A New Orleans report says that if the Supreme Court refuses Anderson a new trial he will be sentenced according to law, but it is certain that Gov. Nicholls will at once pardon him. In this event prosecution will be abandoned in all the cases, and Wells, Kenner and Cassanave will be set at liberty. The New York Sun's New Orleans correspondent says it has been discovered that there was an unauthorized secret pledge given by several high officials of the State of Louisiana, that there should be no legal notice taken of the Returning Board affairs in case the Nicholls faction was recognized, and that the democrats are greatly excited over this discovery.

There is an interesting case of Civil Service Reform at Methuen, Mass., within the district of General Butler. The post-office there has been held by a one-legged soldier, of whose faithfulness and efficiency there is no question; but the President, apparently quite forgetting that "the tenure of the officer should be secure so long as his reputation remains untarnished and the performance of his duties satisfactory," proposed to remove the soldier and substitute one Sargent, a friend of Senator Hoar. General Butler has presented the facts in the case to the Senate post-office committee, which has concluded to give the President a little opportunity to think the matter over by hanging the appointment upon a hook.

New Hampshire Items.

The dwelling-house of Deacon Caleb Page, of Manchester, was badly damaged by fire Monday. Loss estimated at $2000.

A French woodchopper, named Joseph Chambeau, was struck by a falling tree in Jefferson, a few days ago, and scalped. His recovery is doubtful.

The engine at the steam mill of Morrill Brothers & Kempton at Contoocook broke a cylinder head, Saturday, causing about $50 damage. There was a narrow escape from more serious consequences.

The last nine months constitute the most disastrous period that the savings banks of New Hampshire have ever seen—for during that time the losses or cutdowns to the City Savings Bank of Manchester, the Carroll County Five Cents and the Wolfeboro, both of the town last named, and the banks at Rollinsford, Derry and Francestown, amount to more than half a million of dollars. It is not to be wondered at that the people are becoming alarmed, and that they are anxious that better laws shall be passed to govern these institutions, and it shall be made a crime for bank officers or Commissioners to allow the funds of depositors to be squandered through inefficiency or neglect.

The American Institute of Instruction will hold its Forty-ninth Annual Meeting among the White Mountains. These sessions will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, July 9, 10, 11, and 12, 1878. The members will be entertained at the extensive hotels in that section, at very low rates of board. Among the houses which will be open to the Institute are the Crawford, Fabyan's, Twin Mountain, and Mt. Washington. An extended line of excursions will be planned, and a portion of each day will be devoted to explorations in the Switzerland of America. Railroads will give free return-tickets to members. All persons attending the Institute are entitled to its privileges by the payment of one dollar as a membership fee.

WHEN ANY ONE calls on a man in Brooklyn, who is reputed to be good but slow pay for his honest debts, he sticks to the truth by telling the man that he has some Southern investments which he expects to realize $30,000 from in a few days. Pleased with the prospect of a largely increased patronage, the satisfied creditor retires, while the conscientious debtor justifies his conduct by saying he alluded to a ticket. He had sent two dollars to M. A. DAUPHIN, P. O. Box 892, New Orleans, to be invested in the next drawing of the celebrated Louisiana State Lottery Company, under the auspices of Generals Beauregard and Early.

After all that has been said about "sweeping reductions," the Grand Central is the only first-class hotel in New York that has made a "sweeping reduction." It offers first-class accommodation for $2.50 and $3.00 per day.

We speak knowingly when we assert that Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is the best article of the kind sold on the American Continent. Personal trial has demonstrated this, and the article is an elegant and cleanly one, without which we think no toilet complete. Messrs. Johnston, Holloway & Co., 602 Arch street, Philadelphia, are the agents for the article, and when our Philadelphia friends return from Cape May, they should certainly procure some of it. We know of no such article extant for the hair, and thus speak in such decided and emphatic terms.—Ocean Foam, Cape May, N. J.

A Brooklyn man last summer deposited $300 with Alex. Frothingham & Co., brokers, 12 Wall st., N.Y., as margin on a purchase of 100 shares St. Paul R. R. stock. The stock was sold six weeks afterwards, realizing $2,300 profit. Their Weekly Financial Report is sent free. 10

Croaking is not confined to the Frog Ponds. At this season almost everybody is hoarse. The bleating of distressed lungs is heard everywhere. Why is this, when Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will cure any cough, cold or hoarseness in 48 hours? Sold by all Druggists. tmch5

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

The vicissitudes and chances of fortune are shown clearly in the results of the February Drawing of the famous Louisiana State Lottery Company. A lucky urchin in San Antonio, Texas, captured fifteen thousand dollars by spending a dollar. Such is luck. Why not let the reader write to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 892, New Orleans, La., for the full information about the next drawing?

AS A RELIABLE REMEDY for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, or any affection of the throat and chest, use, according to directions given on each bottle, Madame Zadoc Porter's Cough Balsam. It is always reliable, and the possession of a single bottle may, in case of a sudden attack, prove to be worth fifty times its cost. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. eod&dtscptf578

Gen. Ewing and Bland are both said to be entirely dissatisfied with the silver bill as it passed the Senate.

Officers of the post-office department estimate that the revenues of the department are now suffering at the rate of not less than a quarter of a million dollars per month by the flood of stamps sold by postmasters at small country offices at a discount for use in cities and towns.

William Trainor, a sixteen-year old school-boy in Berks County, Pa., butted his head so violently against the head of one of his school-fellows, to see which could stand the hardest knocks, that he ruptured a blood-vessel and died.

A singular story comes from Albany, N. Y., Henry Fisher, a bar-keeper, when accused of stealing from his employer, produced two memorandum books in which he had entered daily the amount of his depredations, varying from seventy-five cents to two dollars. Before an arrest could be made he ran home, and was followed by officers in whose presence he shot himself dead. One redeeming fact in the history of the poor lad is that he did not throw his stolen money away on small vices, but gave it mostly to his mother and little sister.

Adamson's Botanic Balsam is compounded of the natural healing extracts of Barks, Roots and Gums in the world. It is a safe and reliable medicine, pleasant to the taste and cures Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Croup. Price 35 and 75 cts.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its managements, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is generally conceded that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

THE CITY.

Another piece of the wing of the National House has been sawn off, and sold to Mr. John Grant, who will remove it to Langdon street.

The Young People's Society connected with the Middle street Baptist church are to give an entertainment (and a supper to which the patronage of their friends is invited) at their vestry this Wednesday evening. Admission ten cents.

On Tuesday parties were engaged in surveying around the wharves leading from Water street. It is surmised that this was being done in the interest of the long-contemplated branch railroad from the Concord & Portsmouth or some other railroad.

The arrivals of fishing vessels with cod at C. Sullivan & Co.'s, on Monday, were the Mary E. Caswell, with 6010 lbs.; Cora Lee, 5990 lbs.; Julia A, 3125 lbs.; and Blanche Creamer, 5560 lbs. Mr. Job Caswell landed, from his small boat, 375 lbs.

The first lecture of the Methodist church course will be given this evening in the church by Rev. Mr. Pitblado of Manchester; subject, "Love and Love Letters." Mr. Pitblado is a most interesting orator, and all should hear him who can. Admission 20 cts.

It is reported that the State of Maine has given permission to parties in Cape Cod and this city, to place weirs in the vicinity of Wood and White islands, at the entrance to this harbor. It will no doubt prove a lucrative investment, as porgies and mackerel abound in these waters during the season.

The Boston Traveller of Saturday evening said: "Schooner Ella M. Johnson, Capt. Furlong, went into Portsmouth one day this week with 17,000 pounds of codfish, which were sold at $1.30 per cwt." It was in the early part of week before last that the Ella M. Johnson was in here and got so good a price for her large fare, which however was not quite so large as stated, as she weighed out (at Randall & Caswell's) but 16,000 lbs. The schooner Mary E. Smith is "high line" of the fleet so far, her 17,000 lb. fare landed at Randall & Caswell's on Monday being the largest catch brought in by any vessel this winter.

The depredations of petty river thieves are becoming a great nuisance to dwellers on the river banks. Along the eastern and Western shores from Eliot to Whale's-back, from the shore and from boats moored to it are taken articles the loss of which entails great annoyance and inconvenience to the rightful owners. Moorings which have been laid down for the accommodation of pleasure parties in the boating season, mooring chains from the light-house, fences and gates from farms, sails and oars from boats, and many other articles are taken by these sneak thieves, the pecuniary loss from their petty pilferings amounting to a considerable sum in the aggregate. It is a pity some farmer or boatman cannot bring an old queen's arm loaded with about seven ounces of duck shot (buck shot might answer just as well) to bear on some of these thieves, at a reasonable distance—say thirty yards.

The temperance lecture given by Ex-Senator James W. Patterson at Music Hall, Sunday evening, was the finest one delivered in this city for years. The first part of the lecture was confined chiefly to descriptions of beer gardens and drinking places in Europe, and contrasting the few cases of drunkenness seen in countries where beer and light wines are used, with the many cases seen in countries—England, for instance—where distilled liquors are the common beverage. During the last half-hour of his remarks he enrapt his audience with his brilliant powers as an orator, appealing to the intelligence of his hearers rather than to their passions. The only drawback to the pleasure of the occasion was the noisy exit made by some persons who from their age and size might have been expected to have some respect for others if not for themselves. We hope to hear Mr. Patterson again.

Bryant's Minstrels gave an excellent variety entertainment at Music Hall, Monday evening, and had quite a large audience, to whom they gave decided satisfaction. Their jokes are new, the musical part of their performance excellent, and while some of the fun is of course boisterous there is a most satisfactory absence of indelicate allusions or acts throughout the entire show. The troupe gives one of the most pleasing and least objectionable minstrel entertainments we ever attended.

The Lyceum entertainment in Franklin Hall, Monday evening, was attended by an audience good in point of numbers, and for intelligence and social standing not easily to be surpassed in this city or any other. The entertainment, as it was anticipated from the well known talent of the ladies and gentleman who furnished it would be the case, was very enjoyable—better than highly-praised professionals often give. The Lyceum committee seem to have reserved the best of the wine to the last of the feast, for this closing entertainment of the course was fully as pleasing as any that preceded it, and some persons who have attended them all liked the last one best.

We have received an "editor's edition" of The Informer, an anti-war, anti-rum and anti-tobacco paper published monthly at Elgin, Ill., by Amasa Lord. In this "editor's edition" we are modestly requested to "promote the cause of peace" by publishing certain petitions "across three columns of your paper!" We won't promote the cause of peace in any such way; and if Mr. Lord or anybody else comes into our office with a request for us to publish "gratis" notices "across three columns of our paper," the cause of peace will be promoted backward to a considerable distance, right straight off. We are a man of peace, as becomes one of "the cloth," and under ordinary circumstances we are non-resistant in principle; but we can conceive of circumstances under which the throwing of the scissors, paper-weights, mucilage stand and ink-bottle would be a commendable act.

POLICE COURT.

Tuesday, Feb. 19th; Batchelder, J.

Angus McDonald, it was shown to the Court, had been drunk. He was assessed $9 90, fine and costs, and paid it.

WRECK.

Fishing schooner Ada D. Hinkley, Hinkley master, of about thirteen tons, belonging to Georgetown, Me., in going down the harbor on Tuesday morning was swept by the tide against schooner Forest Maid, which was anchored opposite the third Newcastle bridge, heeled over, filled and sank. The tide was running very strongly at the time, and there was no wind; no blame is attached to any one. The loss is about $2000, with no insurance; Capt. Hinkley owned one-quarter of the vessel. She was a brand-new boat, having made but eight trips since her arrival here from Georgetown. The accident was due to the Hinkley's anchor not holding, which allowed her to swing athwart hawse of the Forest Maid, her mainsail being torn out by the latter's bowsprit, and she rolled over by the latter's anchor chain. The Hinkley went down with her jib and forsail set, in water deep enough to half-cover her masts at low tide; the crew were landed at Newcastle. Assistance to raise the schooner will be given from the navy yard to-day.

SUPREME COURT--JAN. TERM.

Case Cotton vs. Kimball (second case) was argued on Tuesday, and given to the jury at about one o'clock. The "previous proclamation" was made at five o'clock, and Sudge Bingham took the next train for his home, leaving the july in charge of the Clerk and Sheriff,—to finally adjourn Wednesday morning in case the jury do not agree.

Court has been in session thirty-seven days, and the docket is very much reduced.

While Solicitor Small was arguing the case Cotten vs. Kimball, Tuesday forenoon, he was summoned to Ossipee by a telegram announcing that his brother was dying.

The funeral of Alva Wood, Esq., will take place on Thursday afternoon.

RUNAWAY.

On Tuesday afternoon Mr. Elihu Dennett was driving through Market street when the breeching of the harness broke, and the horse became unmanageable and ran at a furious rate down Pleasant and South streets to his stable, where he stopped without having done any damage. Mr. Dennett put another harness on the horse and started for his place of business, when from some reason the animal again got beyond his driver's control and galloped up town again, at length striking the wagon against a post in front of the store of Cyrus L. Brown & Co., on Market street, the collision throwing the horse down and Mr. Dennett out of the wagon, the driver fortunately landing on top of the horse. The horse immediately rose, Mr. Dennett falling under his feet, but the ready assistance of friends quickly rescued him from his perilous situation, and prevented the frightened animal from running away any more just at that time. The only damage down was the breaking of a wheel of the wagon.

THE VICINITY.

Sewing circles and quilting parties are prevalent in Kittery and York this season.

The teachers of the public schools of York are much annoyed, and the pupils still more so, by the "chin-cough," with which many of the children are troubled.

Mrs. Robert Mitchell, a widow, eighty-four years old, who lives in the vicinity of "Bra' Boat Harbor" in Kittery, deserves a place in the list of remarkable old ladies. She milks ten cows daily, makes all the butter, does all the household work of her large farm establishment, and has the reputation of being a pattern of neatness.

The new Catholic church at Exeter is fast approaching completion. The staging in the inside of the building has been taken down, and the floors are being laid, and pew slips put up this week. There are seventy pews, capable of seating four hundred people. Upon the steple is a cross of corrugated iron, gilded. The edifice is one of the most tasteful churches for a long time erected in this county. The contractors for building the church are Messrs. Harvey and Fall, of South Berwick.

Mr. Colburn Barrell, of Beach Ridge, York, has a flock of ninety-four sheep. The scab having appeared among them this winter he not long ago had the whole flock sheared and dipped, getting about two-thirds of a crop of wool, and apparently eradicating the disease. The sheep, though not used to being shorn in midwinter, seem not to have suffered much, having of course been well cared for after being robbed of their fleeces; and since the shearing the flock has been increased by the production of over forty healthy lambs.

There was a levee at Sea Cottage, at the Long Sands of York Beach, Wednesday evening of last week, for the benefit of the pastor of the Baptist church at York, who may well feel pleased at the evidence of his popularity, for over three hundred persons paid thirty-five cents each to be admitted. The York Band (twelve pieces) was in attendance, and singing and social games made the occasion a most agreeable one; and a "New England dinner" of baked beans, brown bread, etc., was served, to the general satisfaction.

We recently reported the marriage of a pair of school children belonging in York, the groom being but eighteen years old and the bride but fifteen,—the ceremony having been performed in this city by Rev. E. M. Grant, the groom having procured a license from the City Clerk by powerfully "exaggerating" his own age and his intended bride's. Since then there has been another "Young People's Union" formed over on the other side of the river, the high contracting parties being a Kittery man fifteen years old, and a York woman of sixteen years.

There was a mock trial in Bartlett's Hall, Eliot, on Saturday evening, the beach-of-promise case of Emery vs. Mason (the fair complainant being a youth of eighteen years of age, dressed in a cloak and hat,) occupying the attention of "the Court." The court was called to order at about seven o'clock by "High Sheriff" John D. Frost, "Judge" Timothy Dame on the bench; plaintiff's case was presented by Sylvester Bartlett, the defence being managed by John L. Emery. There was much fun occasioned by the testimony of the witnesses, the rulings of "His Honor" and the pleas of the "learned counsel," and it was not till about ten o'clock that the case was given to the jury, who soon returned a verdict for the defendant, who was thereupon sentenced to pay a fine of one thousand dollars, and be debarred from doing any more courting until the fine was paid. The defendant tried hard to get his sentence changed to one of imprisonment, but the Judge was inexorable, so the "culprit" finally decided that rather than pay all that money and give up going courting besides, he would marry the complainant; and the latter's counsel accepting this arrangement, the case came to an amicable end. There was a large attendance at the trial, and any amount of sport.

Postal Card Troubles.

Postal cards are very handy to use and withal a great convenience, but the chances that one of them will fail to reach its destination are much greater than in the case of a letter. This is not because of any fault on the part of the Department but the result of carelessness on the part of the sender. There being no privacy to the cards, and the messages they bear being generally of minor importance, leads the post-office officials to treat them with little consideration when once they go astray. "Bushels of them are burnt every month in this city," said a clerk in the Boston post-office, recently. "We make no effort to return them to senders, but simply throw them aside." The slips which will consign a postal card to the limbo of the unredeemed are many. Anything (except a stamp) stock to either side; failure to put the address on the side designated for it, and the writing of anything except the address on the stamped side, are among them. A good plan is to first address the card and then write the message. Large numbers of cards are daily received at the various offices with no written or printed address in the proper place.

Commonwealth Consolidated MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the "COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY," of San Francisco, call attention to the mining property of this Company, situated in the Pescadero Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Prize," and developments thus far made in the shaft and levels of the Commonwealth Consolidated indicate the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found at even depth in sinking the shaft upon the "Grand Prize" now so successfully worked, and paying its regular monthly dividends.

The Commonwealth Consolidated Mining Company consists of two other valuable properties, known as the "All Alone" and "Veritas" mines, which have been consolidated into the above-named Company; both of these valuable properties have been prospected by shafts, the ledge found to be well defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The Corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in most California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for a working capital.

This stock will only be issued and sold from time to time, as funds may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able superintendence of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment for the working capital, and the price is placed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the Stockholders that their intention is to enhance the price of stock from time to time, as the work of development progresses and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Alone" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 75 feet, and a contract is about being closed to run it 200 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are principally New England men, and the Board of Directors offer their assurance to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and a thorough examination of the management as to the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and guaranteed at all times.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either or them incline it to shed preematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expressive shading; hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft — under which conditions, disease on the scalp can not lurk.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its graceful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."
BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
"I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasant to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for horses, mules, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6imo1

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could obtain a similar cure in their papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed, "snuff," "blue," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a veritable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, slight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, my constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice of your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, such as Tetter or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
When the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humers in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, where action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

The New Pope.

The Conclave of Cardinals, at Rome, met Monday evening, the 18th inst. On Wednesday the third ballot was had, and Cardinal Pecci, an Italian, was elected Pope. Pecci is one of the "moderates." He assumes the title of Pope Leo XIII.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 19th.

The last day of the silver bill in the Senate was about its most lively one. * * It now goes back to the House for concurrence in the amendments; and as they do not in any manner impair the principle upon which remonetization was asked, it is not apprehended that there will be a long discussion over them. With the heavy majority in favor of the measure now ascertained by actual vote in both Houses, it would not seem that a Presidential veto could have any other effect than to delay matters a few days. It is hoped now that this matter is so nearly disposed of that the press of business, the ordinary work of the session—will be taken up and disposed of. The same procrastination as was observed relative to the appropriation bills last year, has thus far obtained this session, not one of the large bills having yet been reported to the House by the committee.

When Secretary Evarts publicly talks about his great sacrifice of $40,000 per year, made because of the country's imperative demand for his services, it may be to prepare the public for his reappearance as advocate in Court for some monopoly, a good many here are disposed to question his diagnosis as to the country's needs. They are so at fault in their estimate of what constitutes a great statesman, as to openly assert that we could fill the place occupied by Mr. Evarts without going out of the country, and they are so captious and hypercritical as to insist that such talk on Mr. Evarts' part marks him as an insufferable egotist. Certainly his management of Mexican affairs, about the only international matter he has yet had to deal with of any importance, has not insured the immortality of his great name.

The manner of Murphy's treatment here has suggested that even great moral reformers may at times be in danger of harboring the same little, petty jealousies that distinguish them from the rest of mankind; but the apostle has been recalled from Philadelphia here again, all differences having been adjusted, it is said. Murphy on Sunday addressed from 6000 to 8000 hearers from the east steps of the Capitol, and enthusiasm has never been at a higher flood. KNOX.

News and Notes.

John Gumbinger, aged twenty-seven years, bar-keeper for Henry Lyda, a saloon-keeper and brewer of St. Louis, and Lyda's nighteen-years-old daughter Maggie, registered at the Lindell Hotel in St. Louis on the 18th as man and wife, and retired to a room. Next morning the dead bodies of the pair were found in the room, both shot in the head, the pistol with which the deed was done being still held in the man's hand. Mr. Lyda's refusal to allow his daughter to marry Gumbinger was the cause of the tragedy.

The body of Jennie Moore was found Sunday, in the Passaic, near Newark. She disappeared from Belleville, in Christmas week. She had been keeping company with a New York gentleman, who was forty-five years old. They were to have been married early in December, but the ceremony was delayed by her illness. Her lover called at her home and remained late. Fifteen minutes after he went away she threw a shawl over her head and went out. She did not return.

A widow in New York, whose little son of eight years was much given to lying, put a fool's cap on his head, on which was written in large letters, "This Boy is an Inveterate Liar," and compelled him to stand on the front steps of her house all one Sunday morning, while people were passing to and from church, exposed to the gaze and the ribaldry of every passer. The widow should have added to the inscription, "and his Mother is a Fool!"

There was a serious affray in Princeton, N. J., on the night of the 19th inst., between two sophomores and eight freshmen, in which one of the sophomores was dangerously shot. A sophomore's room was entered by freshmen, who bound two sophomores to chairs, shaved their heads and left them tied. Other sophomores followed the freshmen, shots were exchanged, and Mr. Atterbury of the sophomore class was wounded in the thigh.

A Vermont paper says that they are beginning at last to suspect that the ravages of diphtheria in Burlington during the past year have been due to the fact that sewers discharge within the breakwater, the water supply of the city coming from the same portion of the lake.

It is "officially" announced from Havana that the Cuban war is over, all the insurgent chieftains having given in their adhesion to the conditions of peace offered by the government.

New Hampshire Items.

Mrs. Ida F. Hunt of North Charlestown, who was buried Monday, 18th inst., shot herself through the heart on the previous Saturday morning. It was a case of somnambulism, and the pistol was bought for her to defend herself when her husband was absent. She was twenty-two years old and leaves a young child.

The farm buildings of William A. Rundlett, in Bedford, were totally destroyed by fire on the morning of the 19th inst. The fire originated in the barn and was probably the work of an incendiary or tramps. All the stock was saved excepting one horse. Loss estimated at $2500; insured $1500.

Rev. Lorenzo D. Barrow, D. D., president of the New Hampshire Conference seminary and well known as a prominent Methodist throughout the country, died at Plymouth, on the 18th inst., of consumption.

The "riot case" at Hanover, which has been in the court for two years, is to be decided next June. The original suit of the State against ten of the students was settled last spring by their paying the costs and offering the town $200 for damages. But as the selectmen of Hanover have paid Parker $700 damages, they refused to accept the amount which the students offered, and commenced a civil suit against ten of the students for the sum of $700.

The town of Barnstead has voted to exempt from taxation for ten years any manufactory which shall locate there, employing $5000 capital or more.

Mrs. William Holt, of Greenfield, now in her 80th year, and one of the oldest, if not the oldest, tailoress in the State, has made by hand, in the last three months, 9 coats, 11 vests, 13 pairs of pants, and worked 230 button-holes, besides doing a lot of miscellaneous sewing and her general house-work.

Congress.

The Senate on the 19th inst. passed, by a vote of forty-seven to eight, a bill restoring to the pension list survivors of the war of 1812 who were stricken from the list on account of participation in the rebellion. Mr. Blaine spoke and voted for the measure, on the ground that it was absurd to punish a few poor old men for treason, while the leading traitors are high in office and virtually control the government and nation they sought to destroy. As the Vice President of the rebel Confederacy, and its Postmaster-General, with many of its leading "Brigadiers," are in Congress; as the Secretary of the Confederate Senate, Gen. Lamar, is now Tally Clerk of the United States House of Representatives; as those "great and good men," Hampton and Nicholls, have more influence with the Administration than any Union generals seem to have; and as the "democratic House" has recognized the fact that the Union army and navy are to be punished for their participation in the war, and an ex-rebel colonel openly advocates the putting up at auction of West Point,—as all this "conciliation" has been accomplished it does appear ridiculous to keep a few score of old soldiers off the pension list on account of a mere sentiment.

The House committee on banking and currency has reported a bill providing for the retirement of National bank notes and the substitution therefor of Treasury notes—in other words, to abolish the National banks.

Political.

The democratic papers announce that "the radicals are abandoning the peace policy, and again vigorously waving the bloody shirt." Well, the "radicals" may well be weary of advocating a policy which makes them keep the peace while the other side carries on war more vigorously than ever; and the "bloody shirt" of the republicans is not nearly so dangerous to the "peace and unity" of the sections of the country as is the sharp crack of the slave-driver's whip which has been so continuously and loudly sounded for a few months past.

J. Madison Wells, in a letter to the New York Times, charges "Judge" Whittaker, Attorney-General Ogden and Asst. Atty. Gen. Eagan, and the other officials of the Louisiana court, with being a precious set of scoundrels. There is no doubt he speaks the truth on that point.

"The repeal of the resumption act will come next," said the lordly Mr. Voorhees in the Senate, and he "cared not how soon it came." That is the programme, and a vote for the democratic ticket in this State will help carry it out.

The Louisville Courier-Journal (democratic) declares that the murders and exploits of mobs in Kentucky are becoming simply disgraceful. Some counties of the State preserve law and order, but in the others no less than one hundred and fifty persons were murdered last year, while only two of the assassins were hung, and hundreds of others were seriously hurt in murderous rows. How is that for the model democratic State?

Philadelphia elected a republican police judge on the 19th inst., by a majority of 25,541 over the democrats and "labor" men. The vote was light, and there was no excitement worth mentioning, only one man being murdered in an election fight throughout the entire city.

Count Joannes.

The Count Joannes, whose performances at the Lyceum Theatre in New York, as appears by the newspapers, are drawing overflowing houses, cares very little for the uproarious demonstrations of his audiences, so long as they bring plenty of money to his pocket and that of the manager. Under such circumstances, as none are better aware than himself, shrewd as he is, he can well afford to be laughed at, and have odd questions put to him by his auditors, just as long as they choose to spend their money for such a purpose. As the man said of the inhabitants of cheese he was eating, he would no doubt reply, if asked, that he was stand it if they can.

With a liberal share of good looks, a fine figure, and a voice, when he had occasion to use it in its higher tones, equalled only at the time by that of Edwin Forrest, in his early manhood he was a prominent member of the Tremont theatre company of Boston. Among the characters in which he was wont to appear of a melodramatic order as well as in tragedy and comedy, was that of Selim to the fair Mrs. Barrett's Zuleika, in a dramatization of Byron's "Bride of Abydos." His father had emigrated from England when George was but a boy, and did not like it as he grew older, that he was a member of a dramatic club; still less was he pleased when he was first admitted to the company of the Federal street theatre, but got quite over it when his son arose to a place second only to that of the most experienced in the Tremont company, and was quite proud of him, when with good habits in addition, he was as fine-looking and well-dressed as any of the higher class of young men of Boston who promenaded Washington street, as he did in his hours of leisure from his profession. Manager Hamblin, during a summer visit to Boston, offered him a prominent position in the Bowery theatre company of New York, where he remained for a year or two until acquiring the means for foreign travel. When in England, he delivered an oration on Shakspeare at the old church at Stratford-on-Avon, beneath the chancel of which the dust of the great poet reposes, which he repeated with much acceptance elsewhere. A history of his ramblings abroad, at various periods, would be curiously interesting, from the fact, that, with all his eccentricities and peculiarities, he has had the force, or skill, or by whatever name it may be called, to obtain access to rare places, and persons high in position and power. He has autograph letters and documents of his own reception, of which not a few would envy him the ownership. In his earlier life as a theatrical manager, it was through his energy that theatres were built in Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va., as well as conducting others in the South, and in his later years, besides being a writer of books of value and interest, he has acted as a counsellor-at-law in the courts of New York, serving as such in the famous will case relating to the large estate of Madame Jumel, the widow of Aaron Burr. It will thus be seen that the Count, though starting with the smallest advantages in the way of education in his boyhood, has been considerable of a man in his day and generation. An incident with which he was connected in his youth, is worth relating. On an evening when he appeared in a tasteful Eastern costume, glittering with spangles, as Selim in "The Bride of Abydos," at the Tremont theatre, a French gentleman, from the Tremont House, asked his name of a Bostonian who sat beside him. "Mr. Jones" was the reply he received. To the question as to the name of an oldish man in the play, "Mr. Jones" was again given in answer. He next inquired as to the name of a vocalist whose execution of a song pleased him. "Mr. Jones," was the response of his neighbor. An elegant new act-drop, with a view of the Hellespont, and Hero's tower upon its borders, so much attracted him, he wished to know who was the artist that painted it. "Mr. Jones" he was told. Finally in asking the same question in regard to a young actor who greatly amused him in the afterpiece, still it was "Mr. Jones." By this time the Bostonian, from a queer glance he gave him, began to get an idea that the French gentleman might suspect that in his replies to his queries he had been amusing himself at his expense, and gave as an explanation, that, very curiously, five members of the Tremont company bore the name of Jones, as follows: William Jones, known as "Gobble," from a character in which he had been famous; George Jones, now the Count; John Jones, the vocalist; R. Jones, the scenic artist, and Dr. J. S. Jones, whose recent death in Boston drew from the press high commendations of him for the credit he had conferred, by an upright life, upon both the dramatic and medical professions. J. H. B.

—A laborer at Jamestown, N. Y., named Andrew Gustafanson, discouraged by his inability to obtain work very coolly placed his neck on a rail before an approaching train, and was instantly killed.

—It is formally announced at Berlin, in connection with the approaching royal wedding, that "the customary whist party immediately after the religious ceremony will be omitted in consequence of the very large number of guests."

—Mrs. Baker, of Flint, Mich., who gave birth to triplets a little over a year ago, which are christened Faith, Hope and Charity, and for which an elegant triplet baby carriage was paid for by public contribution, has just become a mother again,—this time to twins.

—Dr. Le Moyne, the cremation man, has another theory. He is said to believe that the application of water to the body is injurious to the health, and to carry out his theory he recommends an occasional scraping with the back of a table knife instead of the usual ablutions.

—Four hundred years ago occurred one of the most remarkable State executions on record. George, Duke of Clarence, being sentenced to death for taking up arms against his brother, Edward IV., King of England, was given his choice of the mode of his death. He chose to be drowned in a butt of Malmsey wine, and his wish was complied with.

—A Minneapolis boy was recently sent by his teacher, a woman, to the superintendent to be whipped. The lad suspected the contents of the note, and hired a boy he met on the street to deliver it, giving him ten cents. The superintendent didn't discover till after the castigation was over that the boy he had flogged hadn't seen the inside of a school house for a month.

—Old John Berry, who used to live up Lake Champlain, liked a big story. One evening, sitting in the village store, he said he once drove a horse seventy-two miles in one day on the ice, when the ice was so thin that the water spurted up through the holes cut through it by the horse's corks. One of the bystanders remarked that the seventy-two miles was a pretty good drive for one day. "Yes," said Uncle John, "but it was a long day in June."

—A small ragged boy entered an oyster house in Salem recently, and stepping up to the proprietor, asked: "Will you sell me an oyster for a cent? I want it for my sick mother." "What is the matter with your mother?" asked the man, as he proceeded to fill a can with the bivalves, thinking that he would help relieve a case of suffering. "She's got a black eye," was the reply. The benevolence rapidly faded from the mind of the oyster man as he put one oyster in a paper bag.

After all that has been said about "sweeping reductions," the Grand Central is the only first-class hotel in New York that has made a "sweeping reduction." It offers first-class accommodation for $2.50 and $3.00 per day.

A Brooklyn man last summer deposited $300 with Alex. Frothingham & Co., brokers, 12 Wall st., N.Y., as margin on a purchase of 100 shares St. Paul R. R. stock. The stock was sold six weeks afterwards, realizing $2,200 profit. Their Weekly Financial Report is sent free. 10

The Bonds are redeemable July 1, 1907, and bear interest, payable quarterly, on the first day of January, April, July and October of each year, and are exempt from the payment of taxes or duties to the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal or local authority, and will be issued in registered or coupon Bonds, as preferred.

The interest on the Registered Bonds will be paid by check, issued by the Treasurer of the United States, to the order of the holder, and mailed to his address.

Orders by mail will receive prompt attention. Full information given upon application. Correspondence invited.

THE CITY.

Meeting of St. Andrew's Lodge, No. 56, this (Thursday) evening; work on M. M.

The annual ball of the Veteran Artillery Association comes off to-morrow (Friday) evening in Congress Hall, and a genuine old-fashioned good time is laid out for. Grand march at 8:30.

We are informed that there came very near being a fire at Mr. John Mooney's place on North road, Wednesday, a man with a pipe having accidentally set fire to the barn. There was some lively moving round for a few minutes, but four or five buckets of water made things safe.

Eminent Commander A. J. Bunton, with a committee from Trinity Commandry of Knights Templar of Manchester, was in this city on Wednesday and extended an invitation to the members of DeWitt Clinton Commandry to visit them at some time early in March and witness an exemplification of the work.

The first annual ball of Moses H. Goodrich S. F. E. Co., No. Four, will be given in Franklin Hall this evening. There are no organizations in this city more worthy of public recognition than the fire companies, and this ball offers the citizens an opportunity to show their appreciation of the services of the firemen and at the same time pass a pleasant evening.

The navy yard anchor hoy, with the rigger's gang under direction of Boatswain McCaffery, on Wednesday went down river to where the schooner Ada D. Hinkley was sunk, and hooked on to her. The little schooner was an easy lift for the big scow, and she was fleeted in shore several times during the day. The wreckers expect, it all goes as well as it has, to bring the schooner up to the city to-day.

A youthful correspondent writes us that "People should be careful how they jump out of their wagons with their caps pulled down over their eyes, especially around lamp-posts. Mr. Warren Shattuck, of York, jumped out of his wagon on Market square, Saturday last, and struck his head against a lamp-post with vehemence, and bounced back with violence! Had there perchance been another post behind him it would have been likely to have finished him." It was considerable of a struggle Mr. Shattuck had with that lamp-post, and no mistake.

MORE LIGHT.

A new lighthouse is to be erected at Fort Point ("Portsmouth Harbor Light," as per the official list,) as soon as the Spring opens. The material used is to be iron; the new tower will be built inside of, and will be lower and of course smaller than, the present one, which will be torn down as soon as the new structure is ready for its lantern. The iron frames for the new lighthouse are made in Portland, and will take but a short time to put in place after the work is once begun.

The new light will be fitted to burn kerosene, the Lighthouse Board being engaged in substituting kerosene for lard oil as an illuminator. This great improvement is largely due to the trip to Europe of Major Elliott, formerly Engineer Secretary of the Lighthouse Board; a British lighthouse official having visited this country and received marked attention from our government, the British lighthouse board (Trinity House) invited a visit of inspection from some American expert in return, and Major Elliott was sent over. That gentleman was surprised to find that while America, with "kerosene mines" enough to supply the world, was burning lard oil even in her most northern lighthouses, where the chilling of the oil was a grave trouble to be overcome, England was importing American kerosene to burn in her lighthouses, and thereby getting a much more powerful light with less trouble and at far less cost. Major Elliott's able report, on his return, resulted in our Lighthouse Board resolving to introduce kerosene into the American lighthouses as fast as possible.

There was a lighthouse on Fort Point, erected by the State of New Hampshire, before the general government assumed the management and expense of all the lighthouses, on the absolute cession by the States of the various lighthouse sites; Fort Point was ceded in 1789, since which date the lighthouse there has belonged to the National system. The present tower was originally seventy feet in height; but the trees on Gerrish's island having been cut away gave a clear view of it from the eastern coast, and as the elevation of the light made it sometimes difficult for seamen to tell it from the one on Whale's-back, the tower was cut down about twenty feet in 1854, by Mr. George W. Pendexter of this city, but was still higher than it need be, and the new tower will be lower still.

FISH OH!

The deserted wharves of Tuesday had quite a contrast in the busy scenes of Wednesday. The arrivals to Randall & Caswell were: Mary E. Smith, 9500 lbs.; Good Templar, 8000 lbs.; Georgie Linwood, 5000 lbs.; Pluribuster, 5500 lbs.; Nettie Adams, 8000 lbs.; small boats, 3000 lbs.; total, 39,000 lbs.

C. Sullivan & Co.; Norma, 3070 lbs.; W. H. Y. Hackett, 5500; Anabel, 2150; Sayah E. Babson, 5300; Julia A, 2500; Can't Come It, 2500; Carl Benson, 1500; total, 22,520 lbs.

To other purchasers, a total of 30,000 pounds.

The schooner Lizzie D. Saunders arrived Wednesday with 160,000 frozen herring. There has been great scarcity of bait lately and this arrival will be of great convenience to the fishermen.

SUPREME COURT--JAN. TERM.

At seven o'clock Wednesday morning the jury in the case of Cotton vs. Kimball rendered a verdict, giving the plaintiff $40 damages, and the Court was then finally adjourned.

THE VICINITY.

The Island Ledge House at Wells Beach, recently burned, was insured $35,000.

The Odd Fellows' lecture and supper at Kittery Point will come off this evening, if the weather is fair.

The Biddeford greenbackers have decided to run a municipal ticket in opposition to both the old parties.

Thursday evening, 14th inst., a Mrs. Merritt, of Great Falls, met with a severe accident through the careless use of a pistol in the hands of her son. The boy had been out in the yard shooting cats, and when he came into the house, in attempting to take the pistol from his pocket it caught in his vest and was discharged; the ball entered his mother's breast, and is supposed to have lodged under the shoulder blade, as all efforts to find it had at last accounts proved unsuccessful.

On February 11th a large hen-hawk came into the door-yard of David J. Marston, of North Hampton, seized a large hen and attempted to carry her off. Mrs. Marston, seeing the hawk, rushed out doors with the intention of scaring him away, but, as he was not to be scared, she seized a stake and pluckily went for him, and, after a short struggle, succeeded in killing him. He measured five feet three inches from tip to tip of his wings, and was a very formidable bird for a woman to attack.

The Boston & Maine and the Eastern railroads both had slight accidents here this morning, and both on account of the track switches. Three freight cars down over the Dover & Winnepiseogee road were left loose up near Fourth street, and started down the track and ran off near the head of Second street, the switch being moved to accomodate another pair of rails. No particular damage. On the Portsmouth & Dover road the engine of the up-freight from Boston ran off the track near the turn-table, and broke up some of the under works of the engine. No great damage except a delay of an hour or so of the passenger train while clearing the track. This was caused by a misplaced switch.—Dover Democrat, 19th.

Tattooing.

Scarcely a youth of seventeen is to be found among the Samoans who is not elaborately tattoed. Candlenut ashes and water are used for coloring matter. That part of the body from the waist to the knee is covered with a variegated pattern that at a short distance resembles lacework. The operation consumes two or three months, and the operator is very exacting about his pay. When he gets half through he demands his recompense, and if it is not forthcoming he refuses to finish his work. A young man is in deep disgrace if he goes about half tattooed. The girls laugh at him, and the men scorn him. The process is very painful, and the victims are dieted while undergoing it. Some become mere skeletons before they are completed, but it is the fashion, and they are repaid by the admiring glances of the women. The gentler sex are rarely tattooed. Sometimes a delicate garter is seen twining around the leg, sometimes an armlet, or a strawberry design in the middle of the back, but such instances are rare.

—A number of Middleton, Conn., grocers who are "running" on sugar, were outwitted the other day, by one of their number, who did up and labelled a package "fourteen pounds for one dollar." It contained salt instead of sugar, but the other grocers did not know of it, and down went their prices.

—Mr. Martin Milmore, of Boston, is said to have cut the only portrait bust of the late Pope ever made by an American artist. It was the last portrait in marble made of Pius IX. When it was finished the kind old man took the chisel in his hand, and expressing his satisfaction, touched the marble, saying: "Is it in this manner you do it? This is the sculptor's pen. With this he writes."

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Commonwealth Consolidated MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the "COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY," of San Francisco, call attention to the mining property of this Company, situated in the Tuscarora Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Prize," and developments thus far made in the shaft and levels of the Commonwealth Consolidated indicate the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found in the Grand Prize, the ledge found to be well defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in most California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for a working capital.

This stock will only be issued and sold from time to time, as funds may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able superintendence of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment for the working capital, and the price is placed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the Stockholders that their intention is to enhance the price of each issue from time to time, as the work of development progresses and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Alone" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 75 feet, and a contract is about being closed to run it 300 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are principally New England men, and the Board of Directors offer their assurance to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and an examination of the management as to the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and guaranteed at all times.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all blanch the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or hoary hair resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

All our Grand Extraordinary Drawings are under the supervision and management of Generals G. T. BEAUREGARD and JUBAL A. EARLY.
The next drawing occurs Tuesday, April 9, 1878.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experience by the celebrated Samuel Pitcher, M.D.
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated Darwin's discovery, that the highest on the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," would't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and to a good, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way practicable with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or a month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.
Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Pimples; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Bilious Fever, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable kingdom, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure for a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from uterine ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affection, that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that it claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel gratified at the reputation the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been a sceptic of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to preserve with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WEEKS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial, I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc. THEO. P. BOGERT.

Mother Shipton's Prophecy.

Every now and then, for these four hundred years and more, some one has brought to light the prophecy and memory of Mother Shipton. As event follows event in mechanical progress, her doggerel verses fall in so that they must needs be quoted. One of the predictions thereof—"Fire and water shall wonders do"—has come to pass time and again, and the latest fulfillment is in the Keely motor. This Mother Shipton was one that would have taken high rank as a medium in our day; in her's, the fifteenth century, she was said to have been begotten, like the wizard Merlin, of the phantasm of Apollo, or some aerial demon under that guise, and a beautiful orphan Yorkshire girl, named Agatha. She had the weird, lonely girlhood the child of shame is apt to have, avoided or prosecuted by those who should have been her mates; she was christened Ursula by the Abbot of Beverly, and grew up so eccentric and unnaturally shrewd that by and by this tradition, in those superstitious days, grew about her birth. She prophesied as she grew older, and even "persons of quality" consulted her. She told the great Cardinal Wolsey that he should never come to York, and, indeed, when within eight miles of it, he was arrested by Northumberland at King Henry's order, and brought to Leicester, where he died. Also she is said to have foretold the great fire of London, the execution of Charles I., and many notable events besides, of the reformation and the reigns of Elizabeth and James. At the age of seventy-three she foretold her death, and at the hour predicted she died. Her name is a popular tradition in Yorkshire, even to-day, and the tradition is founded in part upon fact. Her famous prophecy was said to have been published in her life time, and again 200 years ago; it was certainly published forty years ago, for we have seen it in a book of that time, where it was said to be copied from an older book. Though most of the items are vague enough, some show a marked coincidence with remarkable events, such as the invention of steam, railway locomotives, and tunnels, the telegraph, ironclads, and the admission of Jews into Parliament (in 1858.) Without further preface, these are the elegant lines:

Carriages without horses shall go,
And accidents fill the world with woe;
Around the world thoughts shall fly
In the twinkling of an eye.
Water shall yet more wonders do,
Now strange, but yet they shall be true;
The world upside down shall be,
And gold be found at the root of a tree;
Through hills man shall ride,
Nor horse and ass be at his side;
Under water men shall walk,
Shall ride, shall sleep, shall talk;
In the air shall men be seen
In white, in black, in green;
Iron in the water shall float
As easy as a wooden boat;
Gold shall be found and shown
In land that's not now known;
Fire and water shall wonders do;
England shall at last admit a Jew;
The world to an end shall come
In eighteen hundred and eighty-one.

—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

—A man that don't know anything will tell it the first time he gets a chance.

—A novel way to raise money to purchase a church bell was recently projected and carried out by an ingenious young man of Kentucky. He circulated slips of paper about the room, asking each lady to sign her name (ostensibly to compare the hand-writing) which was promptly done without any idea of the object. Then he wrote above a promise to pay a specified number of kisses on demand, and sold the slips at auction. They yielded quite a sum, though whether the unwriting signers honored their drafts is not recorded.

—In 1787 a fellow named Kelly was sentenced to execution at Trim, in Ireland. On the early morning of the day intended to be his last he contrived to cut his blanket into strips about four inches wide, join them together with strong woolen threads, and form a double sling. This he passed under his hams, fastened the ends at his neck, and there provided an iron hook to receive the halter. Thus accoutred he proceeded to the place of execution. It is supposed that he found means to bribe the hangman, to whom he made a request to draw him up close to the pulley, and lower him gently when dead. But the crafty manœuvre did not succeed. Kelly had not allowed for the stretching of the strips of blanket by his own weight; the point of the hook fastened into his windpipe and gave him so much pain that he struggled violently. He was, however, allowed to hang until really dead, when his sling apparatus was discovered.

The Life Saving Service.

The bill reported from the Senate committee on naval affairs, with a recommendation for its passage (to organize a life-saving and coast guard service,) is the measure introduced by Senator Sargent, which requires, in the first place, that the Secretary of the Treasury shall transfer to the Secretary of the navy by the first of next July the present establishment of the life-saving service, embracing all its property and records. The bill further requires the President to assign navy officers for the performance of duties as follows: One not below the rank of commander nor above that of captain to be superintendent of the life-saving and coast guard service, and having charge of it under the immediate direction of the Secretary of the Navy; one for each district, to serve as inspector thereof (these officers to be selected from grades below commanders;) and one of the pay corps of the navy to act as disbursing officers of the service; all officer thus assigned to receive for such service the same pay and emoluments they are entitled to while on shore duty, and no other except actual travelling expenses. The other sections of the bill provide that enlistments for this special service shall be made under the general laws and regulations for enlisting men in the navy, the preference to be given to honorably discharged seamen or petty officers who served three years in the navy; that stations shall be kept manned throughout the year, except those which, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Navy, are not required, they, during the periods of closing, to receive half pay, and that the Secretary shall have authority to accept the services of volunteer crews at any lifeboat station, and compensate such volunteers as instrumental in saving human life; that pay of seamen be given to regular employes enlisted as experienced surfmen, and such of them as shall be necessary for keepers and coxswains shall have a special rating of keeper, at an allowance of $31.50 per month, together with the present navy ration.

Congress.

The Senate on Wednesday voted, thirty-two to twenty-one, to restore the franking privilege, giving to the President and Vice President and members of the Senate and House the right to send and receive all correspondence which does not exceed two ounces in weight, free. This restriction will prevent Congressmen from sending overcoats and boots by mail, as in years gone by.

The House on Wednesday unseated Darrall of Louisiana, and gave to Acklin the seat to which Darrall was elected. Acklin is a democrat, of course.

The House committee on elections stood six to five on the Dean-Field contested election case, in favor of Dean, the democratic contestant.

New Hampshire Items.

The Rochester Courier says the selectmen of that town helped a family, recently, where the father and mother were both sick in bed, and a snarl of little children had pounded up in a mortar what little corn there was in the house, and were living on hominy.

Rev. C. M. Palmer and wife, of Meriden, will soon sail for the Sandwich Islands, where they intend to take up their residence.

The statement that R. M. Appleton, of Lake Village, has failed, is without foundation.

Alice Shackford took strychnine on the night of the 19th inst., at Concord, but it is hoped that her life may be saved, as medical aid was summoned so soon as it was known.

Eleven of the "gentleman" freshmen of Princeton College have been suspended, and one sophomore dismissed, on account of the disgraceful outrages in which they were engaged on the night of the 19th inst. The case of the sophomore who was shot is lying over until he recovers. Attebury, the wounded man, and Carter, who has been expelled, it seems commenced the trouble some weeks ago by unmercifully hazing a freshman named Lane.

A commission, composed of Hons. F. A. Faulkner of Keene, C. W. Woodman of Dover and John Farr of Littleton, was appointed by the Governor and Council to hear the case brought by a petition of 1200 citizens against the Winnipiseogee Lake Cotton and Woollen Company for failure to do the appropriate work of a manufacturing corporation in New Hampshire, having drawn the waters of Lake Winnipiseogee and tributaries out of the State for use in Lowell and Lawrence, Mass. The opening argument for the people, by Judge Rand, of Lisbon, was made Wednesday morning, at Lake Village. The commission at recess viewed the water privileges and surroundings. The examination of witnesses for the people commenced in the afternoon. The people demand that the company conform to the charter or the commission recommend a new one.

Joseph Brown, a leading lumberman of Franklin, had his leg broken twice and was otherwise terribly crushed, Wednesday morning, while unloading a car load of mill-logs, one of which rolled over him.

News and Notes.

The Gloucester fishing vessels continue to arrive, and all confirm the first reports of the lawless violence of the Newfoundlanders, who destroyed the seines of the American fishermen at the only time the herring struck in shore, by which the voyages of over twenty vessels were broken up, all of them having returned home clean. Collector Babson, of Gloucester, is taking the affidavits of the captains, for the use of the government. It is said the British Minister, Thornton, has advised his government to send a cruiser to Newfoundland to prevent further outrages on American fishermen and the breaking of the fishery treaty.

For thirty years (up to 1868) the Constitution of Mississippi provided that no person who denied the existence of God, or of a future state of reward or punishment, should hold any office in the civil department of the State. It is proposed to restore the clause.

Don Cameron is reported engaged to Miss Sherman, niece of the General and Secretary and daughter of the ex-judge of Cleveland, and an uncommonly handsome girl.

Mrs. A. T. Stewart owns the largest single diamond in the United States; value, $35,000.

A correspondent of the Scientific American says: "The best remedy for bleeding at the nose, as given by Dr. Gleason in one of his lectures, is in the vigorous motion of the jaws, as if in the act of mastication. In the case of a child, a wad of paper should be placed in its mouth, and the child instructed to chew it hard. It is the motion of the jaws that stops the flow of blood. This remedy is so very simple that many will feel inclined to laugh at it, but it has never been known to fail in a single instance, even in very severe cases."

In Topsham, Vt., a man forty-three years old recently married a thirteen-years-old girl for his fourth wife, having buried the third wife about four weeks previous.

Political.

The New York Sun is a paper that never stops at anything to strengthen the democrats and damage the republicans, but it is forced sometimes to tell plain truths; and, in commenting upon the recent scrimmage between Hewitt and Aiken in Congress, it says: "To-day's exhibition is one of many instances that evidence the rapid demoralization and disintegration of that party. The greed of southern democrats, their general bad behavior, their arrogance toward northern democrats, their evident determination to run the party for their particular benefit are fast alienating northern democrats who have self-respect. A few more displays like that of to-day, and the end will be plainly visible."

The Cincinnati Enquirer, having been censured for advising a split in the democratic party, meets the issue by saying that it counsels harmony in the party, that is, western harmony, as eastern harmony does not suit the case, and, if this is advising a split, split it is.

A Campaign Slander.

When Dr. R. V. Pierce was a candidate for State Senator, his political opponents published a pretended analysis of his popular medicines, hoping thereby to prejudice the people against him. His election by an overwhelming majority severely rebuked his traducers, who sought to impeach his business integrity. No notice would have been taken of these campaign lies were it not that some of his enemies (and every successful business man has his full quota of envious rivals) are republishing these bogus analyses. Numerous and most absurd formulas have been published, purporting to come from high authority; and it is a significant fact that no two have been at all alike—conclusively proving the dishonesty of their authors.

"Hardly a dozen years ago he (Dr. Pierce) came here, a young and unknown man, almost friendless, with no capital except his own manhood, which, however, included plenty of brains and pluck, indomitable perseverance, and inborn uprightness. Capital enough for any young man, in this progressive country, if only he has good health and habits as well. He had all these great natural advantages and one thing more, an excellent education. He had studied medicine and been regularly licensed to practice as a physician. But he was still a student, fond of investigation and experiment. He discovered, or invented, important remedial agencies or compounds. Not choosing to wait wearily for the sick and suffering to find out (without any body to tell them) that he could do them good, he advertised his medicines and invited the whole profession, of every school, to examine and pronounce judgment upon his formulas. He advertised liberally, profusely, but with extraordinary shrewdness, and with a method which is in itself a lesson to all who seek business by that perfectly legitimate means. His success has been something marvelous—so great indeed that it must be due to intrinsic merit in the articles he sells more even than to his unparalleled skill in the use of printer's ink. The present writer once asked a distinguished dispensing druggist to explain the secret of the almost universal demand for Dr. Pierce's medicines. He said they were in fact genuine medicines,—such compounds as every good physician would prescribe for the diseases which they were advertised to cure. Of course, they cost less than any druggist would charge for the same article supplied on a physician's prescription, and besides there was the doctor's fee saved. Moreover, buying the drugs in such enormous quantities, having perfect apparatus for purifying and compounding the mixture, he could not only get better articles in the first place, but present the medicine in better form and cheaper than the same mixture could possibly be obtained from any other source.

It may be thought that all this having reference to Dr. Pierce's private business has no point whatever when considered in connection with the proper qualifications of a candidate for the Senate. Perhaps. But it is the fashion now, and will be for a fortnight more, with sundry journals, to make sneering allusions to this very matter. After that brief period, they will be quite ready to go on doing his work as before, and as always before, to speak of him as a great public benefactor."

New Lungs cannot be made by medicines, or the skill of physicians, but the old ones can be strengthened and preserved by the use of Adamson's Botanic Balsam, a sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, and all diseases of the Lungs. Price 35 and 75 cents.

After all that has been said about "sweeping reductions," the Grand Central is the only first-class hotel in New York that has made a "sweeping reduction." It offers first-class accommodation for $2.50 and $3.00 per day.

A Brooklyn man last summer deposited $300 with Alex. Frothingham & Co., brokers, 12 Wall st., N.Y., as margin on a purchase of 100 shares St. Paul R. R. stock. The stock was sold six weeks afterwards, realizing $2,200 profit. Their Weekly Financial Report is sent free. 10

Croaking is not confined to the Frog Ponds. At this season almost everybody is hoarse. The bleating of distressed lungs is heard everywhere. Why is this, when Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will cure any cough, cold or hoarseness in 48 hours? Sold by all Druggists. tmch5

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

AS A RELIABLE REMEDY for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, or any affection of the throat and chest, use, according to directions given on each bottle, Madame Zadoc Porter's Couch Balsam. It is always reliable, and the possession of a single bottle may, in case of a sudden attack, prove to be worth fifty times its cost. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. eod&ntsept15 7

HALL'S

Air Draught Carpet Sweeper.

Your attention is respectfully solicited to a NEW and RADICALLY IMPROVED CARPET SWEEPER, differing from its PECULIAR SCIENTIFIC CONSTRUCTION, in SIMPLICITY and EFFICIENT action and FREEDOM from all objections of either BROOM or BRUSH renders it FAR SUPERIOR to any known device for removing the DUST or DIRT from the SURFACE of the CARPET.

Among the MANY advantages it possesses are the following:

It contains neither BRUSH or COG-WHEEL.

It removes the dust FROM the CARPET instead of INTO it.

It does NOT make any DUST in the room.

It will remove the DUST from the CORNERS and sides of the ROOM.

It will NOT wear the carpet.

It is almost NOISELESS.

It is NOT liable to get out of order.

A coating CURRENT of AIR is passed over the Carpet, taking with it any Dust, Dirt, Papers, Feathers, Canary Seeds, Crumbs, Pins, Thread or Lint with which it may come in contact, and depositing them in a receptacle from which they can be removed at pleasure.

The NEATNESS with which this little Machine does its work, and the ease with which it is operated, will be appreciated by every housekeeper who examines it. deb22mmch26 10

—We never realized how awkard, how needlessly stupid, how excessively and deplorably faulty nature is, so strongly as when we reflect on the painful fact that she has never yet been able to create a man that will fit a custom made shirt.

—What a beautiful example of simplicity in dress is shown some of the followers of fashion by that domestic animal, the cat, which rises in the morning, washes its face with its right hand, gives its tail three jerks, and is ready dressed for the day.

—During the sermon in the Baptist church at Grand Rapids, Mich., one recent Sunday a five-year-old child left its seat, walked up to the pulpit, and stood beside Dr. Graves, the pastor, who turned toward the lad, saying, "What do you want, my little man?" "A glass of water," the child innocently replied. The minister poured out a glass of water, the child drank it and left the platform. The incident created considerable merriment among the audience, which the child in returning to his seat noticed, and thinking the people were amused at some mistake of his, he made a bow to the pastor and said, "Thank you, sir," and went to his seat, satisfied that he had not committed an impropriety.

THE

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

THE CITY.

Prohibitory meeting this afternoon at three o'clock, in Sons of Temperance Hall. See advt.

The receipts of fish were light on Thursday, only about 17,000 lbs. of cod being received.

A fine portrait of Ex-Mayor William Simes, from the studio of Ulysses D. Tenney, has been placed in Myers' bookstore.

It is said there is a haunted house in Portsmouth. We have no doubt of it; there are hidden spirits in many a house in this city.

Rear-Admiral Ammen of the United States Navy has asked to be placed on the retired list. He will be succeeded as chief of the bureau of navigation by Captain Earl English, at present stationed at this navy yard.

This being Washington's Birthday, and a legal holiday, no paper will be issued from this office to-morrow. Post-office hours to-day: general delivery, 8 to 11 A. M. and from 5 to 6 P. M.; box-office open all day. The Veteran Artillery Association celebrate the day by a ball this evening at Congress Hall. Grand march at 8:30.

Manager Stetson has decided to bring out at Music Hall, on the evening of the 28th, the burlesque extravaganza of "Robin Hood," with the same talent and accessories as at present accompany it at the Globe Theatre of Boston. Maffitt and Bartholomew, Gus Williams, Madame Helen Menzelli, St. Felix Sisters, the Leotards, Naoni and Master Dunn, are included in the cast there.

On Wednesday evening a wrestling match took place on one of the streets in this city, between two highly indignant and profusely decorated females. A gentleman who visited the scene after the battle was over, said that from the quantities of crushed rose buds, etc., that were strewed on the snow, that it seemed there had been quite an ovation and throwing of bouqets, or perhaps an explosion in a millinery establishment.

The lecture in the Methodist church on Wednesday evening by Rev. C. B. Pitflado, of Manchester, was well attended considering the unpleasantness of the weather. The subject, "Love and love-letters," was handled with the skill of one who has carefully studied the passions and emotions which rule our lives. Refined fun, elevated sentiment, pathos and eloquence were combined in the lecture, which was attentively listended to by the audience to the end. It was a good lecture.

The fishing schooner Ada D. Hinkley, which sank opposite the third Newcastle Bridge on Tuesday morning, was raised and taken to the shore about six o'clock Wednesday evening, and brought up to Rollins' wharf on Thursday on the high tide. On examination her hull is found to be uninjured. The damage done is the springing of the foremast, a slight breakage of the taffrail, the loss of a chain and anchor (which caused the accident) and the destruction of a dory. The only article missed from the vessel is a shovel. She will be ready for duty in a few days.

The North Millpond presented quite a lively scene on the afternoon of the 19th inst.; some of the fastest teams in the city were on hand, and not a few lively spurts were made. The racing this season has not caused any serious accident, altho' many teams have participated in the sport. An incident occurred on Tuesday afternoon which created some little fun for the spectators. Mr. H. Fisher Eldredge was trying the speed of his horse with those driven by Mr. Henry R. Stoddard and Mr. James R. Connell, when one of the reins broke. The horse, guided by the single rein, turned around, throwing out Mr. Eldredge, who quickly recovered himself and called to his horse, who finding his driver gone turned about and trotted back to him, seeming to fully understand the whole affair.

Major Addington D. Welch, Secretary of the New England Reform Club, will lecture on Sunday evening, Feb. 24th, in Music Hall, to drinkers, reformed men, and also to those who "never drank a drop." Major Welch is one of the best workers in the cause of temperance on the rostrum, and will be remembered by those who heard him in Music Hall two weeks ago as perhaps the most eloquent and witty, and one of the most earnest speakers that has ever appeared among us. Don't fail to hear him. Doors open at seven. Praise meeting at 7:30. Lecture at eight o'clock. Admission ten cents. Bring No. 2 Moody and Sankey books with you.

Mr. L. Blumauer has sold the lease of his dry goods store to Mr. Chas. H. Marston, of Staples, Stackpole & Marston, who will withdraw from that firm and occupy the store of Mr. Blumauer.

The suit of Charles E. Hodgdon, of Gravelly Ridge, against the Eastern Railroad, to recover damages for injuries received at the time his ice cart was run down by a locomotive at the Green street crossing some months ago, has been compromised by the payment to Mr. Hodgdon of $1500 by the company.

Housekeepers and ladies generally will be interested in the card of "Hall's Carpet Sweeper" in our paper of to-day. It has so many prominent advantages that we hardly can mention them, and so refer to details in the card, only saying that the ladies of Boston have given the sweeper a very decided preference over all others after testing its workings. Its simplicity, noiselessness and durability commend it to all.

The will of the late Rev. Daniel Austin is not yet probated, but we learn that after numerous public and personal bequests, (of which Harvard College gets $7000 and Dartmouth $3000,) one-third of his residuary estate is left to the city of Portsmouth, upon conditions that within two years it shall lay out a park in the Governor's Field, (formerly so called, from Gov. Langdon, and now comprised in Langdon Park,) and shall build a bridge thereto from the Universalist church. This is very nearly what Gov. Langdon, John Elwyn, Mr. Austin, and all the rest of our mankind (who amount to anything) have desired to see done, almost from time immemorial; and since the Park trustees have done so much toward it, and the Board of Aldermen are now engaged in making preliminary surveys relative to a road around the South Pond and furnishing sewage for the same—it may be that this long-talked of and highly desirable plan for a bridge and mall will now be consummated.—Weekly.

THE GREENBACKERS.

Elliot King, Esq., of Portland, editor of the new greenback organ of that city, the New Era, lectured at Mechanic's Hall on the evening of the 19th inst., under the auspices of the Greenback Club of this city. There was a very good attendance; and the speaker, who seems a very pleasant gentleman, apparently delighted the greenbackers, though some of the old "war horses" of both parties, and several gentlemen connected with banks, or owners of bonds, were not sufficiently pleased with the lecture to remain to its close. We have already published a list of the officers of the club; the following is their official Declaration of Principles:

Declaration of Principles of the Portsmouth Independent Greenback Club.

We, the undersigned citizens of Portsmouth, subscribe and agree to the following declaration of principles, and own no fealty to any political party not in accord with us in the points named; and we hereby bind ourselves to each other, and to the Declaration of Principles herewith, for the successful prosecution of the work of organization and education, promising to use our best endeavors to secure the success of the independent party in the control of the affairs of our town, county, State and Nation:

1st. We believe no paper money system has ever been devised so good for the people as a full legal tender government currency, and we demand the repeal of the resumption act and that the greenback be made a full legal tender for all debts, public and private.

2d. We demand that the old silver dollar be restored to be a full legal tender.

3d. We demand that the bonded debt payable in coin, be paid in silver as fast as possible, and full legal tender greenbacks be issued to purchase silver for coining for that purpose only, until the bond owners cry in mercy for the greenbacks.

4th. We demand within a reasonable time the withdrawal of National bank circulation, to be replaced by government full legal tender paper money.

5th. We denounce the specie basis system of paper currency as a cunningly devised scheme to draw from the pockets of labor to benefit a moneyed aristocracy, often disastrous; and we believe that a paper currency of the people, based on the credit of the people, should be made stable as the government itself, by the people.

6th. We believe that our government should supply the people with a sufficient circulating medium, and when in want of money should tax the people for the amount required, as it takes men when it requires them; and we shall use our utmost efforts to prohibit the government from issuing interest bearing bonds to draw from the profits of industry.

7th. We believe that the government debt is a sufficient reason for placing the same in the form of a circulating currency among the people, that they may obtain labor, acquire property and pay their just debts, many of which were contracted when paper money was abundant; and that a great wrong was perpetrated upon the people by the contraction demanded by the bond-holders.

A FEATHERED PEACEMAKER.

A day or two since a pair of roosters, who reside at the foot of Daniel street, between whom frequent misunderstandings had before occurred, had a meeting to settle the question of championship, in other words to see which first would "squeal," or, in sporting phrase "throw up the sponge." Round after round was fought without decided result, while a group of bystanders looked on, and when one of them suggested to the owner of one of the pair to stop the fight, he replied by saying that they had had so many previous fallings out, he thought it best to let them settle all differences between them at once, that peace hereafter might reign in Warsaw. Not so thought another member of the feathered race, who, leaving the feminine members of his household to scratch for themselves, seized each of the belligerents in turn by the neck, and giving them a shake, brought the contest to a close; strutting off when he had done so with the air of a conqueror, and crowing with all his might. One of the spectators recommended him as a candidate for chief of the police, and all who read this will think that after doing such service in a good cause, he should at least be admitted as an honorary member of the S. P. C. A., or the Peace Society.

THE CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening:

A message was received from the Common Council, notifying the Board that they had passed under suspension of the rules the resolution relating to the Green street and Creek railroad crossings, and that they had amended the ordinance relating to the city printing and advertising by adding the word "joint," making it read "joint committee," and concurred in the ordinance as thus amended.

A petition was received from a number of citizens, in relation to the millpond nuisance question; accepted, and laid on the table.

Committee on claims, to whom was referred the claim of Atwood J. Adams for damages for the death of a cow from the bite of a mad dog, reported that he be allowed to withdraw, as he had failed to comply with the State law in such case provided. Accepted and adopted.

The committee to whom was referred the matter of widening Penhallow street, reported, recommending that the petition for such widening be granted, and that $700 be allowed Mr. Gerrish for damages. Report accepted and laid on the table.

N. F. Mathes & Co. were granted a license to sell kerosene, under the usual restrictions.

A number of petitions for naphtha lights in different parts of the city were accepted, and the whole matter, after discussion, was indefinitely postponed

The action of the Board at last meeting in regard to City Solicitor's report was reconsidered. After some discussion the report was referred to the committee on printing, to confer with the Solicitor and report to the Board.

John Jones was appointed special police without pay at Eldredge's brewery.

The bills of Robert Shillaber and Daniel Danielson, Health Officers, were taken from the table, and the report of the committee recommending that they be paid $15 each was adopted.

Adjourned.

THE VICINITY.

Richard Scammon, a prominent and well-known citizen of Stratham, aged sixty-nine years, died very suddenly Thursday morning. He had held many town offices and positions of trust; he was a strong democrat, politically.

The Bank Commissioners having learned of the failure of parties in Boston who were indebted to the Somersworth Savings Bank in a large sum, have ordered that the bank stop payment to depositors. It is stated that the trustees do not believe in any ultimate loss.

—King Victor Emmanuel was buried in the superb white mantle of a Grand Master of the order of the Annuziate, in which garb the sovereigns of the House of Savoy are consigned to the tomb. It was characteristic of the simplicity of his habits that his modest wardrobe did not possess one of these sumptuous garments, and that artificers had to work all night to prepare one.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—A set of teeth things—Dentist's instruments.

—The street car drivers of Montreal are compelled to advertise their dishonesty by carrying cash boxes slung around their necks. The passenger places the money on the lid of the box, the conductor presses a spring, and the money falls in. If the conductor touches the money he is discharged. This comes of getting a bad name.

—A rash young man in Boston asked a small but select dinner party, the other evening, the following conundrum: "Why is Longfellow like Lord Dundreary?" and when they had all given it up, replied: "Because he has a Brother Sam." An icy silence fell upon the company. His father resolved to leave all his fortune to an asylum, and his betrothed, casting upon him a glance of indignation that well-nigh fused her specs, said that henceforth, and even in a railroad collision, they must meet as strangers.—Chicago Tribune.

Commonwealth Consolidated MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the "COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY," of San Francisco, call attention to the mining property of this Company, situated in the Tuscarora Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Prize," and developments thus far made on the shaft and levels of the Commonwealth Company, exhibit indicate the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found at even depth in sinking the shaft upon the "Grand Prize" now so nearly fully worked, and paying its regular monthly dividends.

The Commonwealth Consolidated Mining Company consists of two distinct properties, known as the "All Alone" and "Veritas" mines, which have been consolidated into the above-named Company; both of these valuable properties have been prospected by shafts, the ledge found to be well defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The Corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in most California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for a working capital.

This stock will only be issued and sold from time to time, as funds may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able superintendence of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment for the working capital, and the price is placed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the "Stockholders that their interests is to enhance the price of each issue from time to time, as the work of development progresses and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Alone" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 78 feet, and a contract is about being closed to run it 200 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are prominently New England men, and the Board of Directors offer their assurance to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and an examination of the management as to the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and guaranteed at all times.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."
BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to produce a color not to be distinguished from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Incantations, Charms, Spells and Ointments in existence. The immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unrivalled. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and sick horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6mayl

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By a process similar to natural selection, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKFORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I may be "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could mention a similar cure in the papers. For 25 years I suffered with catarrh. The usual passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "snuff," "inhalers," and "sticks," wounded, worse, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable teacher for such medicines. I became nearly grey, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell had long gone, sight and hearing impaired, only shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hardly expecting to live my seventy-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and test it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydraulic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three months or a second day in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over eleven months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and stimulate my system, I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce others to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.
Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron, gives a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who of substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence in a cure exists in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly be proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R. I.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to preserve with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.,

THEO. P. BOGERT.

BRISTOL, R. I., July 24, 1877.

Daily Chronicle.

A Word to Republicans.

[The following original article was written for us by the editor of the News-Letter, and published in his paper in order to save our compositors the trouble of deciphering his manuscript. For this kindness we return him thanks,—and we recommend republicans to read the article and act on its suggestions.—Ed. Chronicle.]

The democracy are straining every nerve to carry the March election. Let us not lay the flattering unction to our souls that they have been dispirited or daunted by their many successive defeats. They do not make noise—the Tilden tactics introduced in 1876 have taught them the effectiveness of a "still hunt." But they are working with might and main nevertheless. They have got rid of the incubus of an old Bourbon leader, and come forth like a giant refreshed with wine. True, their platform has handicapped them with the Bland silver bill, a pledge for free rum and a declaration against our protective tariff, but they intended to so frame these declarations as to hoodwink the average voter, and suit him exactly, whatever side he may occupy on any or all of these questions. Already the cloven foot of this platform has been exposed, and its advocates are finding plenty of business in defending and explaining it. But let us examine the issues at stake in this contest, and see if they are not important enough to challenge the best efforts of every republican.

1. The election in March will undoubtedly determine the result in November. The party that sustains defeat in the first contest will not be able to rally for the last. This is so plain that it needs no demonstration.

2. The choice of a United States Senator. If we lose in March we cannot hope to save the Senator, even though we win in November. The democracy will elect a Senator in either Legislature that it may carry, and the democratic Senate that meets in 1879 will seat him, with as little compunction as the present House has seated Patterson of Colorado, Wiggington of California, and Acklin of Louisiana, all of whom were beaten at the polls. The democracy needs to carry but one Legislature to secure the Senator; we must carry both, and by such majorities as to leave no chance for a contest when the United States Senate meets.

3. A victory in March will make easy the task of electing three Republican Representatives in Congress in November. The second and third districts are reasonably sure, and the first can be carried by the republicans of Rockingham county. The flood of bribery which overflowed the district in the last two Congressional elections can hardly be expected to rise again. With a new candidate, beer and Congressional directories are not likely to constitute the leading elements in the coming canvass. The battle will be fought upon the real political issues of the day, and these will give the advantage to republicans. There is reason enough for every republican to desire a full delegation of his party in Congress from this State. Every vote of the North will be needed to stay the aggressions of the "solid South," prevent the payment of rebel claims, and rebuke the spirit shown in the Anderson trial in Louisiana, to strike down or imprison any republican against whom any body of Southern people may organize a conspiracy for the making of political capital.

4. We must hold the State firmly republican for the canvass in 1880. New Hampshire cannot afford to go back on her record of twenty years as a republican State. But with a democratic Governor in the chair for two years, and a Legislature of the same stripe, we shall be at the mercy of the enemy, and New Hampshire will take its place in line with the "solid South" for the sacrifice of all that was won by the war. More than ever before our State will be needed and expected to stand in the republican column in 1880. Her five votes in the electoral college may turn the scale. The loss of New Hampshire in 1876 would have given the victory to the men who now spurn conciliation and are making a Pandemonium of every Southern neighborhood in which a republican presumes to show his hand. It is not the hour for surrender, but for vigilance, courage and determination to do all that men dare to do for the cause of freedom, civilization and the rights of men.

5. Let us remember the old gerrymandering tactics of the enemy. The map of the Senatorial and Councilor districts of 1874 still lives, a relic of the ingenious rascality of the men who still are recognized as leaders of the party. The State once in Democratic hands, it will be easy for that party to make its control of the Legislature and Council perpetual. It is only necessary to recall the acts of past democratic administrations, to rouse every honest and public spirited citizen to do the full measure of his duty. They must indeed be fools and blind who would willingly invite the evils from which the State was relieved by the great republican victory of 1876.

The plain duty of republicans is to organize and prepare for active work. Only two weeks remain in which to baffle all the sly and dishonest tactics of our opponents. We know what victory has cost us in the past; we know too how we have more than once paid the penalty of indifference and apathy. We have a decisive majority in the State, but it must be brought to the polls and held firmly to duty. Let the local committees prepare a careful canvass, and make up lists of absentees. See that no republican voter's name is absent from the check list, and also that none but legal voters are upon it. Let us not rely upon past majorities. If every republican voter comes to the polls we shall win; if ten per cent. stay at home the result will be disastrous. We have tried to point out briefly the issue at stake. If to save these cannot command our best efforts, then we do not deserve to be citizens. The old peril is upon us, from Southern Bourbons and financial swindlers, and our only way to save the Nation is to save the State. Let us make no surrender to the enemy until the loyalty of that enemy is proven by a different sort of patriotism from that which he is now displaying or that he has given evidence of possessing during the twelve years since the war.

Robbery and Murder.

The savings bank at Dexter, Me., was entered by burglars Friday afternoon, and the cashier, Mr. J. W. Barron, captured; he not returning home at night his family gave an alarm, and the bank was visited, but it was found locked. The National bank of Dexter is in the same building as the savings bank, and the cashier of the former opened its vault, when Mr. Barron could be heard groaning in the other part; the partition was broken through, and Mr. Barron was found senseless, gagged and his head crushed in, and with a rope around his neck. He died about half-past five o'clock Saturday morning, not having recovered his senses in the meantime. The burglars evidently murdered him because, heroically true to his trust, he refused to open the safe at their command; it is supposed the foul deed was committed between five and six o'clock Friday evening. The burglars got less than a hundred dollars from the bank.

Naval Affairs.

Rear Admiral Rodgers, superintendent of the Naval Academy, in his annual report, recommends the decrease of the number of both cadet midshipmen and cadet engineers. He says that under the present system there are graduated every year many more cadet engineers than will supply the wants of that corps. Also, "that the number of passed midshipmen is increasing every year, and we shall have the sorry sight of an ever increasing number of young gentlemen two or perhaps ten years after the graduation waiting with hope long deferred for promotion for the lowest grade of commissioned officers."

Commander N. H. Farquhar in announcing to the Navy Department the arrival in Chesapeake Bay of the U. S. S. Portsmouth, after a passage of 112 days from San Francisco, reports the health of officers and men good, and adds: "The distance sailed, 15,270 miles—more than half the circumference of the globe—I suppose is the greatest distance ever sailed by one of our men-of-war without anchoring. It is a source of gratification to me that the conduct of the crew has been so good since leaving San Francisco, a period of four months, that I have not found it necessary to confine any, and only in one or two instances to inflict a very light punishment."

Wreck.

Schooner Clements, with 2800 bushels of oysters for Fair Haven, Conn., was totally wrecked on Deal Beach during the late storm; crew saved. Schooner D. L. Bradley, with a load of coal, was wrecked on Ocean Beach; crew saved by men from life-saving station. Three-masted schooner Maggie McDonald, with a cargo of powder, coal and stores, went to pieces near No. Nine station; crew saved by station men. British barque Henry Pelham was wrecked near Ocracoke Inlet; crew saved. British ship St. Bernado went ashore on Reedy Island. A German barque went on Hatteras Bar, and all hands were lost.

Political.

The State election is not to go by default, after all. The republicans are waking up in good style.

The onslaught made in the Democratic State Convention by Harry Bingham upon National banks and "railroad influences in politics," has not been echoed very loudly by the democratic press of the State, thus far in the campaign. Perhaps the facts that the democratic candidate for governor is President of a National bank and Director of a railroad, and that all the important railroads in the State (with one exception) are and long have been under democratic control, may have something to do with the flat manner in which Boss Bingham's war-whoop fell on the democrotic ear.

The South Carolina Legislature is said to be entirely safe on the subject of repudiation. An overwhelming majority is declared to be against the report of the Bond Commission and in favor of paying the entire debt as it stands under the Consolidation Act. This is most reassuring news, and it is but simple justice to give the chief credit for the defeat of the repudiators to Governor Hampton. He has opposed them consistly and fearlessly.—Tribune.

News and Notes.

Col. Blunt, of the U. S. Engineers, has been found guilty of carelessness in the disbursement of money for improvements of Lake Erie, and sentenced to suspension for one year and to have $75 per month deducted from his pay. By his careless ness the grossest frauds were perpetrated by his subordinates in collusion with contractors.

William Silvernail was murdered, it is supposed by tramps, and his body then laid on the railroad track to be cut to pieces by a train, at Pittsfield, Mass., on Friday.

There has never been a critical case of hard times in the country, from the earliest period, when people did not think an issue of cheap money would relieve them. And whenever the question has been made a popular issue, the idea has succeeded in winning popularity. But the experiment has always ended in disappointment, mortification, and ruin. There seems to be great probability of our having another chapter of this experience.—N. Y. Sun.

There have been severe shocks of earthquake along the coast of Peru, and much damage done at Callao by a tidal wave. Not many lives were lost. A tremendous rain storm has visited Payta, rain having been previously unknown there; great damage was done, the buildings not being put up with regard to keeping out rain.

Five men were killed in a flour mill at St. Joseph, Mo., on Friday, by a boiler explosion.

The revolutionists in San Domingo are constantly gaining on the Baez party.

Patrick Fisher is to be hung on the 9th of April, John Kehoe and Dennis Donnelly on the 18th of April, and Patrick Hester, Peter McHugh and Patrick Tully on the 25th of March, in Pennsylvania. All these men are Molly Maguires.

Countess Lambertini, who claims a share of the estate of the late Cardinal Antonelli on the ground that she is his illegitimate daughter, has won the first step in the case before the courts.

On Thursday evening an audience of sixteen persons—thirteen men (of whom three were reporters) and three women—met in Wesleyan Hall, Boston, to hear a Chicago lawyer named Guiteau answer, from what he called a Christian standpoint, Col. "Bob" Ingersoll's lecture on hell. From the size of his audience the lecturer assumed that the Bostonians care very little about hell, anyway.

Daniel Dooley, eighteen years of age, was killed at Lynn, by a freight train on the Eastern railroad, Thursday morning. The unfortunate man, who was the principal support of his mother and several younger brothers and sisters, was intoxicated at the time.

Washington, opposite Sacramento, Cal., has been inundated, many houses swept away, and 300 persons rendered homeless; no lives are reported lost.

A prominent Chinese merchant of San Francisco has recently returned from China, and reports that in the province of San Tong, last year, out of a population of 96,000 fully 80,000 died of starvation. Seventy millions of people are suffering from famine.

The Maine Legislature adjourned Friday morning, after a session of fifty-one days.

An insane asylum at Winooski, Wis., was burned on the 19th inst., and four insane persons perished in the flames.

The suspended freshmen of Princeton college left for their homes on Thursday in a body, escorted by the college proctor; the sophomores, to the number of eighty, all armed with revolvers and clubs, made an attempt to mob them, and followed them on the cars to a station where the freshmen had to stop, but the coolness and courage of the proctor, who is six feet tall and weighs 225 lbs., prevented the gentlemanly ruffians from committing murder or any serious violence.

"Doc" Shockey, a Louisiaus rough, some time ago murdered a mail contractor at Lake Charles, La., and fled to Parker county, Texas, where he was arrested on Friday on a requisition from Gov. Nicholls. When near Fort Worth the arresting party, two sheriffs and two deputies, were attacked by seven masked men armed with Winchester rifles, and the prisoner rescued. Two of the officers were wounded, and one of the assailants—the latter it was thought mortally, as he reeled in his saddle on the retreat.

Congress.

The Senate on Thursday rejected the nomination of George Williamson as Collector of the Port of New Orleans. The nomination of L. E. Nothrop as United States Attorney for South Carolina was confirmed by the aid of democrats.

The Secretary of War, in reply to a Senate resolution as to the cost of the Sioux war, and also as to the casualties of said war, sent a communication to the Senate showing the cost of the war to have been $1,918,106.98; commissioned officers killed, sixteen; commissioned officers wounded, two; enlisted men killed, 267; enlisted men wounded, 123.

In the House, Thursday, all the Senate amendments to the silver bill were concurred in by a vote of 204 to 72, all the New Hampshire Representatives voting against the bill. It now goes to the President for his signature; if he vetoes it, it is not believed the Senate will pass it over the veto, as Saulsbury, Windom, Cameron of Wisconsin, Booth and Christiancy will not vote to so pass it. Bland voted for the bill, though dissatisfied with it, and announced himself "in favor of paper money to strike down the bond-holders."

The Eastern War.

Despatches to the London papers from Constantinople, Friday, say that the Czar has telegraphed that the Russians will occupy Constantinople if the Turks continue to delay the signing of the terms of peace, which include the cession of Armenia and the surrender of part of the Turkish fleet. The draft of the peace conditions contained a stipulation that six of the principal iron-clads be ceded to Russia, on the ground that otherwise the Porte might sell them to England. The Sultan objected. He would prefer to destroy the vessels, and as he undertakes not to sell them to England at any rate, it was announced on Saturday that Russia has withdrawn her demand for their immediate cession.

The Turks evacuated the fortress of Rustchuk on Wednesday, and the Russians under Todleben occupied it.

New Hampshire Items.

The annual ball of the Amoskeag Veterans of Manchester, Friday evening, was attended by sixty-four couples, notwithstanding the heavy storm. Gov. Prescott and Ex-Governors Smythe and Stearns, and their wives, were of the party, with many other prominent men.

John Q. Gordon, of Suncook, sixty-five years old, was found dead on his ox-sled in the woods at Hookset on Wednesday of last week, with his dog watching by him. He died of heart disease.

The steam saw-mill of J. G. Hubbard of Hampstead was burned on the night of the 20th inst., with its contents. The fire was caused by sparks falling into the sawdust. Loss $2000; insured.

There is an old lady living on the Langford road in Candia, who rejoices in being mother of twenty-five persons and great grandmother of twenty-three, all living within a circle of five miles circumference, with the exception of four persons.

George T. Cook, brother of Gardner Cook, of Laconia, sash and door manufacturer, was hit, Friday, by a bursting emery wheel, knocked insensible and had his jaw broken. His condition is precarious.

In Manchester, the jury returned a verdict of $2000 for Henry M. Fairfield against the town of Amherst; Friday forenoon, after being out thirty hours. The plaintiff sustained injury on account of a defective highway in August, 1874, which resulted in paralysis, from which he has been disabled since. At the September term, 1876, he recovered a verdict for $6000, and the case is now tried on a writ of review sued out by the town. The case was ably argued for Fairfield by Hon. George Y. Sawyer, and for the town by Col. John H. George.

Three Facts to Consider.

First—The credit of the United States, when the democrats were forced to give up power, was lower than that of any other civilized nation.

Second—The credit of the United States, in the hands of the republican party, has reached the highest point among civilized nations.

Third—The very first use which the democratic party make of power, when they begin to grasp it once more, is to debase American credit again.

—"Yes, gentlemen, certainly, of course," said a polite clothier, "if you want a pair of pants, step right into my pantry; if a vest, walk right up to my vestry; and if a coat—here, Jacob, show this gentleman into the coterie. This way, this way, gentlemen."

New Lungs cannot be made by medicines, or the skill of physicians, but the old ones can be strengthened and preserved by the use of Adamson's Botanic Balsam, a sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, and all diseases of the Lungs. Price 35 and 75 cents.

After all that has been said about "sweeping reductions," the Grand Central is the only first-class hotel in New York that has made a "sweeping reduction;" it offers first-class accommodation for $2.50 and $3.00 per day.

A Brooklyn man last summer deposited $300 with Alex. Frothingham & Co., brokers, 12 Wall st., N.Y., as margin on a purchase of 100 shares St. Paul R. R. stock. The stock was sold six weeks afterwards, realizing $2,200 profit. Their Weekly Financial Report is sent free. 10

Croaking is not confined to the Frog Ponds. At this season almost everybody is hoarse. The bleating of distressed lungs is heard everywhere. Why is this, when Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will cure any cough, cold or hoarseness in 48 hours? Sold by all Druggists. tmch5

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

AS A RELIABLE REMEDY for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, or any affection of the throat and chest, use, according to directions given on each bottle, Madame Zadoc Porter's Cough Balsam. It is always reliable, and the possession of a single bottle may, in case of a sudden attack, prove to be worth fifty times its cost. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

BOSTON.

THE NEW FOUR PER CENT. GOLD BOND.

This Bank is authorized, by the Treasury Department, to offer for sale and receive subscriptions for the four per cent. funded loan of the United States, in denominations of $50, $100, $500, and upwards, at par and accrued interest in coin.

The Bonds are redeemable July 1, 1907, and bear interest, payable quarterly, on the first day of January, April, July and October of each year, and are exempt from the payment of taxes or duties to the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal or local authority, and will be issued in registered or coupon Bonds, as preferred.

The interest on the Registered Bonds will be paid by check, issued by the Treasurer of the United States, to the order of the holder, and mailed to his address.

Orders by mail will receive prompt attention. Full information given upon application. Correspondence invited.

THE CITY.

Bible reading at Faith Home chapel this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Subject, "The secret place of the Most High," from the 91st Psalm. Friends are invited.

Portsmouth was represented at the ball of the Amoskeag Veterans in Manchester, on the evening of Washington's birthday, by Major David Urch and Major Jacob H. Haddock.

Voters—see notice in another column of sessions of Inspectors of Checklists, and govern yourself accordingly. See to it that your own names, and those of your friends who are entitled to vote, are on the lists, and that no names are put on or left on that should be stricken off.

A lecture, under the auspices of the Young People's Asso'n connected with the Court street Sabbath school, will be given at the Christian Church on Court street, Wednesday evening, Feb. 27th, by Rev. J. A. Goss; subject, "Wit and Humor." An admission fee of ten cents will be charged. Good vocal music will be rendered during the evening. Tickets can be had at Coleman's drug store and of the members.

The late Deacon Joshua Brooks remembered in a liberal manner in his will the following beneficiaries: North church, general benevolent purposes; North Parish, debt (conditioned;) North Parish parsonage, American Missionary Association, Home Missionary Society, American Board of Commissions for Foreign Missions, the Howard Benevolent Society and also the aged Congregational ministers and their widows.—Journal.

The independent greenbackers declare war on the National banks. That must mean fight against the democratic candidate for governor of New Hampshire, for Mr. McKean is President of one of these obnoxious institutions, and of course no honest greenbacker can vote for any such man as that. If the members of the Independent Greenback Club have the courage of their convictions, Hon. Frank A McKean's vote in Portsmouth will be shaved down very perceptibly.

The ball given in Franklin Hall on Thursday evening, by Moses H. Goodrich S. F. E. Co., was in every way an entire success. There was an attendance of dancers sufficient to fill the floor, and the galleries were well patronized; the music of course was first-rate, for Harlow's Orchestra attended to that part of the business; the supper was good and abundant; the floor managers were courteous and attentive, and there were no unpleasant features to detract from the pleasure of the occasion. Dancing was kept up until a late hour Friday morning.

The entertainment given by the Young People's Society of the Middle street church, on Wednesday evening of last week, was highly enjoyed by as large a number as the vestry would comfortably accommodate. The duets and recitations received merited applause, and reflected much credit upon the young ladies who took part therein. The humorous dialogue entitled "Learning to use the weed," was well presented by seven female characters, and showed careful study. The stage part of the evening's entertainment concluded with the dialogue "The country aunt," which served to "adorn a tale" and "point a moral." The tables were well laden with edibles, and all returned home satisfied that it was an evening well spent. *

Washington's birthday was rather a poor affair in this vicinity; a driving storm of sleet commenced shortly before midnight on Thursday, and continued throughout the day Friday, increasing to a regular downpour after dark, the wind blowing fresh all the time; there was one good thing about the storm, however—it was not at all cold. The only public notice of the day was the ringing of the bells for a half hour in the morning, at noon and in the evening, and the firing of a salute from the navy yard at noon; the stores were generally closed in the afternoon, but did not lose much custom by it, probably, for hardly anybody could be seen on the streets. The proposed ball of the Veteran Artillery Association at Congress Hall in the evening was postponed until a more convenient season.

The greenbackers of New Hampshire, under the auspices of the Portsmouth Independent Greenback Club, will hold a convention in this city on the 6th of March, for the nomination of State, county and municipal officers.

Mr. Benjamin Weeks, the oldest affiliated Mason in the city, and we are informed also the oldest member of the Mechanics' Association, died at noon on Sunday. He joined the Masonic fraternity upwards of fifty years ago, and belonged to Pythagoras Lodge until its charter was surrendered; and in 1847 he joined with ten others to form St. Andrew's Lodge, No. 56, of which he remained an active member up to the time of his death.

On Friday evening Strawberry Bank and Mt. Sinai Encampments, I. O. O. F., of this city, were presented by Bunker Hill Encampment, of the Charlestown district of Boston, with a very handsome memorial tablet of parchment, in a costly and beautiful frame, and bearing an inscription expressing the thanks of Bunker Hill Encampment to the Portsmouth organizations for the courtesies and attentions shown on the occasion of the visit to this city, last September, of the Charlestown Encampment. A delegation of thirteen members from Bunker Hill Encampment arrived in this city Friday afternoon, bring the testimonial with them. The presentation address was made by Past Chief Patriarch Benjamin W. Seaver, and responded to by Chief Patriarch William G. Billings of Strawberry Bank Encampment, and Chief Patriarch Albert T. Pickering of Mt. Sinai Encampment. Remarks followed from Most Worthy Grand Patriarch John H. Locke, and others. An elegant cord and tassels accompanying the tablet were made to order as the gift of the ladies who accompanied the visitors to this city last fall.

POLICE COURT.

Friday, Feb. 22d; Batchelder, J.

Henry Moulton, charged with being a common drunkard, owned the soft impeachment and was ordered to Brentwood for three months, and to pay $8.04 costs.

Jeremiah Conners was charged $9.90 for one simple drunk, and paid it.

Eugene Smith, a young man, was sent to Brentwood for thirty days for stealing two hens from his mother; he was also assessed $8.16 costs.

MARE'S NEST DISCOVERED.

Let's see: Has that order in relation to government officials participating in political matters ever been revoked? If not, how is it that the navy yard and political committees are still "run" by them. A resolution passed the other night by the republican city commitee, that three persons be allowed to make the nominations for all the wards, was written with a government pen by a government officer!—Times.

Gracious! No wonder the Times man says "Let's see;" he might see much clearer than he does now, and then not see very clearly, where political matters are concerned. In the first place there is no republican city committee this year, so of course it did not pass any such resolution as the Times reports; and secondly, were there fifty city committees, not one of them would ever think of committing the egregious folly of attempting to take the nominating power out of the hands of the voters of the party, being well aware that the republicans are not so pliable as the democratic masses, and would not submit to any such dictation. George, don't try to measure republican goods in a democratic half-bushel, or a "slop-over" is sure to result, as in this case. It is all very well for a democratic committee to select candidates, and then allow the voters of the party in caucus to "ratify" the nominations thus made; but what a nice time any committee would have that should try any such game on a republican caucus!

A RED-OAK WAR.

It is announced from Washington that the House committee on naval affairs has begun an investigation based on charges of mismanagement of affairs at this navy yard. These charges gravely affect Naval Constructor Theo. D. Wilson. The Boston Herald's Washington despatch of Saturday says: "Two reputable citizens of the vicinage have made affidavit to the fact that a considerable quantity of red oak timber has been received into the yard, and that a quantity of red oak knees have been put into the Ticonderoga. The men who made this statement are Daniel Littlefield of Portsmouth and David Badger of Newington, and they are men of the best reputation for veracity, and their testimony cannot be doubted. Their affidavit, which was on file at the Navy Department, has been forwarded to the House committee, and Constructor Wilson will be summoned here to explain this action on his part. It is well known that red oak knees last only a brief period, and for any constructor to use them in a United States vessel is gross impropriety. It is simply a deliberate attempt to bring the vessel back to the stocks for repairs at the earliest possible opportunity, and the men who are familiar with the facts in the case say that a court martial ought to be ordered for the men who are responsible for it." We know nothing more of this matter than is "in the papers," except that we were told on Saturday that the men who have been putting knees into the Ticonderoga under Mr. Wilson's direction say that they have had nothing to do with red oak. Mr. Wilson we have never supposed to be either an incompetent constructor or a fool, so it is difficult for us to credit the story that he has put into a ship red oak knees, knowing that they must be discovered, as he could not help knowing they would be if put in; but on the other hand both Mr. Littlefield and Mr. Badger ought to know what red-oak is, and they it seems positively assert that red-oak knees have been used. "Some one has blundered," and only an investigation can decide who that some one is.

DROWNED.

On Sunday afternoon about five o'clock the son of Mr. Shea, who owns the old Railway wharf, saw a body lying doubled up over the rail of an old hulk lying at the wharf, with the head and feet in the water. Calling assistance the body was removed, and found to be that of Edwin Herbert, son of Mr. George Herbert, a boy of excellent disposition and habits, aged about seventeen years. It is supposed he fell overboard in a fit, partially recovered and managed to reach the spot where he was found, but could get no further. His death is a sad blow to his parents.

THE VICINITY.

Efforts are making to revive Rockingham Lodge of Odd Fellows, at Hampton Falls.

Mr. Robert Harvey, of South Newmarket, has recently had his eyes operated on in Boston for cataract, and is now at home and doing well. He is over eighty years old.

Mr. Charles D. Garland, of Rye, has shipped from the Greenland station on the Eastern railroad, the present season, over 5000 bushels of potatoes, mostly of the Early Rose variety.

Living H. Hill's tallow factory and slaugter house, in Saco, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 20th inst.,—the second time within two years that his buildings have been burned. Loss about $1000; insured $500.

The Biddeford Post of Saturday says: "The voice of the robin is beginning to be heard in the land. Tuesday, John Rogers, of Kittery, reported several around his greenhouse; and a gentleman on Foss street saw one this morning."

Miss Addie L. Thompson, of Stoneham, Mass., a niece of Col. A. B. Thompson, Secretary of State of New Hampshire, and of Hon. O. C. Moore of the Nashua Telegraph, has accepted an invitation to take charge of a Kindergarten in Biddeford.

A spirited religious revival is going on in North Berwick. The movement is extending among the business men, and the whole community is interested in the matter. On the evenings when meetings are held the stores are closed and the churches are crowded.

On Wednesday of last week a three-years-old son of Mr. Daniel Lydston, of Kittery, while walking backward fell into a pail of scalding hot water which had just been drawn. The little sufferer lingered nearly twenty-four hours before death mercifully released him.

The York County Patrons Mutual Ins. Company held their first annual meeting in Grange Hall, Saco, on Thursday. The company is reported in a prosperous condition. It has been in operation five months, has written risks to the amount of $83,000, and has had no fire losses.

Charles Kershaw, who was arrested in Portsmouth a few weeks ago, charged with robbing John Mahoney at a saloon on Elm street, in Great Falls, was placed on trial in the Supreme Court at Dover last week, and pleading guilty of larceny, was sentenced to State prison for three years.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—She stepped out of the cars a few minutes, leaving a book in the seat, but on returning went to the wrong pew, and inquired of a placid old lady, "Are you sitting on 'That Husband of Mine?'" "Good gracious! No!" exclaimed the old maid, jumping up and scanning the seat with rigid scrutiny.

—The experiment of reducing prices by the Chestnut Street Theatre, in Philadelphia, is pronounced an experiment no longer. Continuing the same bill which had been on the boards for a week previous to the change, the receipts at the Chestnut last week exceeded the receipts of any week during the present season.

—At Portage, Wis., while digging a well, a farmer heard a rumbling noise below, as of rushing water, which grew louder as he went down. He finally struck a bed of gravel, through which a strong current of intensely cold air rushed up, and on going through the bed he came to water, which congeals as fast as it comes into the well.

—Ten years ago there was in the Trinity Church choir, in New York, a phenomenal boy soprano, named Richard Coker. He has since grown into a powerful baritone, and recently made his debut as Alfonso in "La Favorita," at Lucca, Italy. The local Italian papers warmly praise the strength and beauty of his voice and the excellence of his method. His professional name is Signor Della Rosa.

—A novel scene was recently witnessed at the Imperial Opera, St. Petersburg. A prima donna, on the occasion of her benefit, was called out more than twenty times. At last she advanced to the footlights, and, addressing the audience in the Russian language, offered to show her gratitude by singing a national Russian song. The song was received with enthusiastic applause; but the prima donna was much disgusted when the management subsequently fined her 2,000 francs for "addressing the audience without permission."

—As a freight train was passing by the foot of Lookout Mountain into Chattanooga, one of the brakemen discovered a tramp in a car load of mules. The tramp was astride one of the animals and was asked what he was doing there. "Driving mules to Chattanooga," was the laconic response, as he yelled out "whoa!" to the animal. On looking into a car loaded with hogs another tramp was found perfectly at home with the swine. "Who are you?" demanded the brakeman, sternly. "The bellwether of the flock, leadin' 'em down into the fertile valleys of the Tennessee," said the tramp, "and we always ride upon a rail."—Nashville American.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE AND UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

Construction AND Equipment THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery OF THE PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often restores the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; that hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayor of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Sore Throat, Lumbago, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cures-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasant to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The fatest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Cased Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for animals. Sprains, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. ctmay1

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific for the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Dr. Pierce's Medicines have been the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could substantiate a similar case in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "snicks," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until it became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached, my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which, with the remedy, by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for quite sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.

A CLOUD OF WITNESSES,

Golden Medical Discovery Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery Is a Chalagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Chalagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness. Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots before the eyes, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

The last Report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office shows 2,897,50.0 acres of Bounty Land Warrants outstanding. These were issued under act of 1855 and prior acts. GILMORE & CO. pay cash for them. Send by registered letter. Where Assignments are imperfect we give instructions to perfect them.

Arrears of Pay and Bounty.

Officers, Soldiers and Sailors of the late war, or their heirs, are in many cases entitled to money from the Government of which they have no knowledge. Write full history of service, and state amount of pay and bounty received. Enclose stamp to GILMORE & CO., and a full reply after examination, will be given you free.

Pensions.

All Officers, Soldiers and Sailors wounded, ruptured or injured in the late war, however slightly, can obtain a pension by addressing GILMORE & COMPANY.

Cases prosecuted by GILMORE & CO. before the Supreme Court of the United States, the Court of Claims and the Southern Claims Commission.

Each department of our business is conducted in a separate bureau, under the charge of the same experienced parties employed by the old firm. Prompt attention to all business entrusted to GILMORE & Co. is thus secured. We desire to win success by deserving it. Address

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most efficient cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly be proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R. I.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 20th.

It is believed that the disobliging manners of the committee working at a revision of the tariff, will go far to create a sentiment of opposition to the object in view, regardless of the merits of their work. It is alleged that all information is refused to those whose imperiled interests, real or fancied, leads them to the committee for light. Aside from this, the interests to be unfavorably affected by the proposed revision are so vast as to almost preclude the possibility of success by the committee. Of course the tobacco and whiskey interests will approve the work of the committee just to the extent that they are relieved by transferring the burden of taxation to other shoulders; but both together are no match for the many branches of industry selected for that vicarious office.

The advice that a disinterested observer would likely first offer to democratic members of Congress would be to quit their family quarrels and wranglings in public, particularly in the presence of the enemy; and if they have any more dirty linen to wash to do the work privately. The quarrel of last week between Hewitt on the one side and several members from the South on the other, was very demoralizing to the party, and has furnished its opponents with precisely what they wanted and couldn't have got, had not the democrats proved so obliging; and notwithstanding all the apologies and mutual explanations that grew out of it, they have gone into the newspapers to give the widest publicity possible to a rupture that all except those immediately concerned supposed was healed after the first outbreak.

There is a bill now before Congress to give Civil Engineers in the Navy rank; should this bill be passed it would only entail upon the people a few more indigents to support in their old age, for two if not more of that corps (at present civilians) would be placed on the retired list of the navy and have nothing to do for the rest of their lives except to be a burden to the people to the tune of about $2000 a year each. There is no possible justice in this, for these men receive large salaries for very moderate services, and run no more risk in the line of their duty than do civil engineers in private service—often not so much; and in these days of retrenchment and hard times there can be no excuse for making such an uncalled for addition to the already far too long pension list.

The Export-Trade Commission met in this city yesterday. About one hundred delegates were present. Henry Lippett, of Rhode Island, was elected president; and protection, subsidides to American shipping lines, the navigation laws, etc., were discussed.

A National Agricultural College also convened here yesterday; President Flagg was absent, sick, and Vice President T. P. Jones, of Georgia, presided. Twenty States and Territories were represented, and there were some interesting discussions. Mr. Adair, from the Cherokee Nation, made a very interesting address, showing the improvement of his people, as instanced by (among other things) the eighty-two free schools supported by them. KNOX.

The Chisolm Conspiracy Case.

Mrs. Chisolm, who was summoned a week ago to Jackson, Miss., to attend the Federal Court, returned to this city last week. She represents matters as completely under the control of the desperadoes who perpetrated the horrible tragedy on her husband and children. Before testifying she was warned by the District-Attorney not to say one word except in answer to questions. If she alluded to any event calculated to prove the conspiracy by reference to the murders subsequently committed, she was immediately arrested in her testimony and not allowed to go on. If she mentioned anything said by her husband she was told the court did not wish to know anything of the private communication between her and her husband. When she stated that shots were fired at the house and into the house, which she knew because she heard the bullets striking it, and because she sent her son Johnnie to the roof to see the bullet holes, and he reported a number, she was again stopped and asked if she saw those bullet holes herself. Her reply being that as she was not an expert in climbing she had not, the whole testimony was pronounced insufficient. Many of the rabble who were discharging their firearms into the barn, and hiding by night, with their hands on their guns, in the surrounding trees, were witnesses for the defense; and some of these same persons are on the grand jury who have to find a bill for the indictment of themselves for the subsequent murder when that case comes up. The judge charged the jury, and he warned them that unless a conspiracy was proven, which was not, and unless Mr. Chisolm was proven a qualified voter, which was not, they could not but acquit, which they did in five minutes. Judge Lea, the District Attorney, seemed to be entirely overawed by the ruling spirit, and said that for him to pursue any other course would be construed as a spirit of persecution against the democrats. Judge Ware, the Assistant District Attorney, was very indignant, but powerless, held back by the District Attorney and the Judge. The remark was made by some who were present that the manner in which the Judge and District Attorney conducted the case was the best defense those men had. The idea of Judge Chisolm not being a qualified voter, when he had held office nearly all his life in Mississippi, is akin to the rest.—Washington Republican.

A Still Hunt.

The New Hampshire democracy are conducting their State campaign on the "still hunt" system, which not many years ago enabled them for one year to control the State, and in conducting which their superior party discipline enables them to discount the republicans. They know well that the handsome majority in the House of Representatives last year was won by a few hundred votes in the close towns, the aggregate majority of thirty representatives being only about six each, so that a change of half a dozen votes in each of those towns will give the democrats the House—and the United States Senator, too, for if the democrats carry either the coming election or the following one they will elect a Senator, and the United States Senate, which will be a democratic body in 1879 will admit the Senator thus chosen without hum-lag or ha-ing over nice points of law. To retain the Senator, the republicans must carry both elections this year; and if they carry the one in March there will be little trouble over the one in November. Understanding this perfectly well, the democratic leaders are doing their best to capture the needed votes. By stealthily visiting each town, they are attempting to organize their followers in such shape as to overcome any small majority against them, and thereby steal control of the House. It therefore becomes the duty of every republican who lives in a close town to be on his guard against surprises, and to spare no honorable effort to hold every advantage gained last year. But the "still hunt" won't do it without earnest work; and reliance on the apparent apathy of the democracy will be found misplaced, for that party goes to the polls from force of habit, and has more reason to go this year than for many a year before.

Inflation and Repudiation.

Washington despatches of Monday morning say: "If the President vetoes the silver bill the veto will probably reach the House by the middle of the week, whereupon the House will at once proceed to reconsider it. The question will be put: "Shall the bill pass, the objections of the President to the contrary notwithstanding?" On this question the yeas will probably be 200 and the nays 75, being 25 more than two-thirds, taking the vote upon Hewitt's motion to lay on the table on Thursday as a basis. In the Senate the silver men claim that there will be no difficulty about a two-thirds majority, that number being already conceded."

But the passage of the silver bill as it came from the Senate will not satisfy the "silver men;" it does not go far enough in "striking down the bondholder" and the National credit, so they have decided to introduce a supplementary silver bill immediately. This bill will authorize free coinage, repeal the provisions in relation to the International Monetary Commission, and authorize holders of silver bullion to deposit it with the Secretary of the Treasury on the same terms that gold bullion may now be deposited.

It seems eminently proper that Bland, the author of the bill to compel the people of the United States to pay the bonanza kings a dollar for every ninety-cents'-worth of silver they can dig out of their mines, and who now boastingly proclaims that his final aim is to "strike down" the men who, putting faith in the Nation's honor, have loaned the Nation their money—it seems eminently fitting that Bland should come from Missouri, where the men who have furnished money for public improvements are denounced as enemies of "the people," and their robbery through total repudiation of debts unblushingly advocated. The people of St. Clair, Henry, and some other interior counties of Missouri are holding mass meetings upon the county bond question, and the attempted enforcement of payment by legal process through the United States Courts, which has just been inaugurated. The resolutions adopted are very strong, and, in some instances, declare that payment shall be resisted by every possible means.

News and Notes.

John Oldham, a "dashing young society man" of Port Deposit, Md., was cowhided Friday night by a young man named Knight, whose sister, a young lady of excellent reputation, he had very cruelly slandered.

British steamship Tornado, with 5000 bales of cotton, was burned at New Orleans on Sunday. British steamship Arratoon, from Liverpool for Havana, was wrecked on the Fowey rocks on Saturday; all hands saved.

There were two collisions in New York harbor on Saturday, caused by a fog. The ferry boat James Fisk ran into the schooner Jessie Crowley, the latter being at anchor; the schooner was little harmed, but the ferry boat suffered considerably, one passenger being killed and a number knocked overboard and drowned. The steamship Spain ran into the ferry boat Castleton and disabled her, and killed one man.

Osman Pasha, the Turkish defender of Plevna, is treated with great deference at St. Petersburg. A sentinel stands at his house, two gendarmes are always at his orders, and there is an officer who waits on him. His wound still troubles him, and he is generally of dull humor, although he often receives telegrams from Constantinople. The Sultan preserves for him all his dignities, and has ordered that his children be brought up at the public expense.

The German barque lost on Hatteras Bar, with all hands, was the Philip Suppicich. Schooner H. R. Cushing was lost on Hatteres Shoals in the same storm, the crew being rescued by steamship Rapidan.

A fellow named Hitchcock, who persuaded some hundred or so poor girls to subject themselves to the stare and ribaldry of a crowd, and to sell his valentines and sheet music, at Gilmore's Garden in New York recently, under the title of the "Congress of Beauty and Culture," has cleared out to Montreal to avoid paying the poor creatures the pitiful $5 each they so hardly earned. He is said to be a wealthy man,—but he isn't worth anything, no matter how much money he may have.

An explosion of dynamite at Parma, Italy, on Sunday, killed six and wounded about seventy persons.

Political.

On Monday, in New Orleans, the $600,000 defaulter, Whittaker, sentenced Thos. C. Anderson to two years in the penitentiary for being a republican, an unsupported charge—or rather a disproved charge—of forgery serving the pure and upright democrat on the bench with a pretext.

A Salt Lake despatch to the non-Mormon delegate in Congress announces that the Legislature of Utah has passed an election law for that territory which practically disfranchises the Gentiles, and places the control of elections irrevocably in the hands of the Mormon priests.

At the convention of republican delegates from the several wards in Portland, Saturday, Hon. M. M. Butler was renominated for Mayor by acclamation. John F. Turner has been nominated as the greenback candidate for Mayor.

On Saturday, at Charleston, S. C., two regiments of the National Guard, a colored volunteer organization, were reviewed by Gov. Hampton. The display was the finest that the colored troops ever made in Charleston, all the companies appearing with full ranks, well armed and equipped and handsomely uniformed. Several colored bands were in the column, and the field and staff, as well as the line officers were all colored. At the close of the review, the companies massed in front of City Hall, where Gov. Hampton addressed them briefly, congratulating them on the improvement of their organization and efficiency during the last year, reminding them of his pledge previous to election, that the colored race should enjoy full and equal rights under the law with the whites, and calling upon them as citizens to co-operate with him in carrying out his other pledges. The speech was received with enthusiastic cheering.

Mr. Hewitt rises to say, in the terse language of controversy, that Mr. Watterson lies when he accuses him of suppressing Tilden's dispatch.

Supt. Kimball and the Life Saving Service.

PORTLAND, ME., Feb. 18th.

Mr. Editor: In your issue of Feb. 14th, I notice in "Knox's" Washington letter what appears to me an uncalled for attack upon the Life Saving Service, and particularly upon the chief of that Division. Knox is evidently ignorant of the antecedents of that individual, and with the freedom of some irresponsible correspondents proceeds to give his history, which unfortunately for Knox's character for veracity doesn't seem to have much foundation in truth. Mr. Kimball is a son of Hon. Increase S. Kimball, of Sanford, Me.; he graduated at Bowdoin, (I think,) practiced law in York county, represented his town in the State Legislature, and in 1862 was appointed to a clerkship in the Treasury Department, where he soon rose to the chief clerkship of the Second Auditor's Office. In '70, when the Revenue Marine Service was reorganized, Mr. Kimball was selected by the Secretary of the Treasury for chief of that Division, where he has proved himself to be a very efficient officer, the service being conducted far more efficiently and economically than ever before. In that year the Life Saving Service was also placed under his superintendence, and for the record it has made since that time let "Knox" read the statistics before he so flippantly charges inefficiency upon the service and all connected therewith. Mr. Kimball associated with himself some of the best officers of the Revenue Marine; they found the stations few and far between; there were some houses and some boats, but almost everything movable belonging to them had been stolen or destroyed; they visited every part of the coast from Eastport to Bagdad, from San Diego to Port Townsend, and the whole length of the Lake Shore; they established stations, furnished them with boats, life cars, mortars, lines, and all the improved life saving apparatus; regular keepers and crews were employed. Of course there were difficulties in the way, many obstacles to be overcome, but out of the chaos which had previously prevailed they brought order and discipline, and to-day we have the most efficient life saving service in the world. Certainly thinking people don't expect that the life saving service can save every life imperilled. Owners will send to sea rotten ships; badly adjusted compasses will carry ships away from the intended course; and vessels will sometimes go ashore where there is no life saving station for miles. I admit that there have been cases where the station men have not done as well as they should,—heroes can't always be obtained for two hundred dollars per year,—but look over the record; note that by the 118 wrecks on the coasts of Long Island and New Jersey from '71 to '76 but sixteen lives were lost, an average of about three per cent. per annum (and the last year still less); from '71 to '75, out of 3,201 lives imperilled, 3,158 were saved. I know there is a strong feeling just now over the terrible ship wrecks of the "Huron" and "Metropolis." Those vessels went ashore miles from any station; in the Huron case, the stations had not been manned for the winter, as the appropriation does not admit of keeping the men in the stations over four months in the year; in the Metropolis case, the station men came promptly with their mortar and car, and it is stated succeeded in getting a shot line across the vessel, which was cut by some crazy (or worse) man on board the vessel. Seven men, the number allowed to a station, could not drag a surf boat seven miles over a loose sand beach in seven weeks; they did probably the best thing possible under the circumstances, which was to take their mortar and line. Look over the papers after a storm along the coast and you can hardly find a paper which has not a favorable notice of assistance rendered by the life saving men, and I will venture to say that there are not to-day in government employ two harder working, more conscientious, honest and faithful men than the present chief of the Life Saving Service, and the Inspector of Stations, Capt. J. H. Merryman. What is to be gained by transferring the Service to the Navy, as some propose? Naval officers are educated to navigate in deep water, not for surfmen; the Revenue Cutters constantly cruising along the coast certainly seem to be the proper ally and the Revenue Cutter officers the proper Superintendents of the life saving service. Investigate the service all you wish, overhaul and inquire into every particular of it, and in the end I am sure you will find a change would be but a change and not an improvement.

Yours, D.

The English Sparrows.

The last meeting of the Nuttall Ornithological Club of Cambridge, devoted a large part of its time to a discussion of the English or house sparrow. Mr. William Brewster, president of the club, thought their presence undesirable, as they drove away the native species. He doubted their efficacy as destroyers of tree-insects. Mr. H. A. Purdie spoke to the same effect. Mr. H. D. Minot spoke of the English sparrows as disagreeably quarrelsome and noisy; that he had seen them drive away, and sometimes kill, other more pleasing birds; had observed them to eat sound leaf-buds and fruit-buds. They often frequented infested trees (especially where they have no boxes) without disturbing the worms. Messrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Ruthven Deane, and A. M. Frazar, followed, all taking an adverse view of the English sparrow's claims to popular favor.

A Last Greeting.

Among the numerous notable sympathetic creations of the celebrated artist, Gabriel Max, who stands first among the painters of the Munich school, are the touching scenes of the blind girl holding the lamp for her fellow believers to descend into the secret catacombs, and that of the poor motherless child, "Julia Capulet," carried by the nun, also the crushed widow compelled to look on the auction of her distrained property. But by many, "A Last Greeting" is considered his master-piece. It represents a lovely maiden, who has been cast into the arena, in pagan Rome, to be devoured by the savage beasts, for the delectation of the inhuman mob. She leans against the encircling stone wall; at her feet broken by their fall, lie some simple wild flowers; imploringly she looks up, seeking the hand from which they came. Her whole life, like some gigantic panorama, swiftly flashes through her feverish brain, every act stands out with painful distinctness. Deeply she realizes how often that same strong hand, which now alone bestows a last farewell, had been proffered. Ably it would have protected, beside ensuring comfort, happiness and health, had she not carelessly and disdainfully turned away. Women suffering from those chronic weaknesses peculiar to their sex are prone to just such actions. Every day they hear of the Favorite Prescription of Dr. R. V. Pierce, of the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. Thousands of these sufferers write in universal commendation of its great excellence and worth. Once within the dreaded pale of disease, it is worse than folly to be careless, and delay the use of this positive means of cure. Ladies suffering from weakness, bearing-down pain, or weak back, and nervous prostration, will find this a specific remedy. On receipt of $1.50, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," a book of over nine hundred large pages, will be sent post-paid. It contains a clear and concise description of the numerous diseases with which women are afflicted. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N.Y.

THE CITY.

Schooner Mary S. Hontvet, sailed for George's on Monday.

Schooner Lizzie M. Stewart, from Boston, arrived at Bermuda on the 16th inst.

Mr. George F. Wallace has opened a bakery and bread store on Summer street.

Mr. Charles Odiorne, of Little Harbor, has in his possession an overcoat and a boot, picked up on the beach. The boot contains a man's foot.

Rev. C. A. Holbrook, Rector of St. John's church, who has been suffering for the last two weeks with a severe attack of pneumonia, has nearly recovered his health and will be able to assume his pastoral duties next Sunday.

The second lecture of the Methodist church course will be given in the church, Wednesday evening, the 27th, by Rev. Dr. Stevenson of Lawrence, Mass. Dr. Stevenson is an able and eloquent man, and will undoubtedly give a most entertaining and instructive lecture. Subject, "Ideas." Admission 20 cts.

During the process of tearing down the old Melcher house (the first printing office in New Hampshire), which is now going on, the workmen came across a proclamation of Governor Wentworth issued in 1752, which was found attached to the wall. It had been covered over with room paper, and well preserved.—Times.

A piece of the old National House started on its travels toward Langdon street, Monday, but had rather a hard time of it—or at least the movers of it had. The recent warm rains had bared the ground so that the drag was a heavy one, and the old house took every opportunity to sheer out and hit trees and things. At the corner of Winter and State streets it got a chance to run into a lamp-post, which chance it improved and knocked the lamp-post over.

George, of the Times, sticks to his assertion that the republican city committee passed a resolution "that three persons be allowed to make the nominations for all the wards;" informs us that he "is posted" and we are not; and says his "item of Saturday stated a fact." Yes; quite a number of facts—such facts as the Times is accustomed to state concerning republican management—facts that don't exist. In fact, George's primary fact, the "republican city committee," exists only in the imagination of the editor who conceived the brilliant idea that the republicans propose introducing into their party the democratic plan of allowing a committee to dictate "the nominations for all the wards."

We received a brief call, Monday morning, from Mr. T. J. Trafton, formerly of this city but for some years past a resident of San Francisco, who with his wife arrived home on Saturday evening after a delightful trip over the Pacific Railroad. There was but little snow on the Sierras when they crossed, and none on the Rocky Mountains or the Plains, and the whether was like that of a mild summer, about the only thing to indicate the absence of summer being the entire absence of dust. Mr. Trafton is a younger looking man now than when he went away, and reports himself and Mrs. Trafton as more than pleased with their new home on the Pacific coast, to which they will return as soon as certain business matters can be settled.

Mr. George H. Wendell owns a mare, "Nettie," that is not only one of the fastest horses in this city but is unusually docile and intelligent, and will do as many little tricks as almost any of the trained animals that come around with circuses. On being let out of her stall and a heavy tub placed bottom up on the stable floor, Nettie promptly mounted it at the word of command, and while there shook hands with her owner, giving him either of her "hands" he requested, stepped down from her perch at the word, went to the corner of the stable and brought a basket in her mouth to Mr. Wendell, and carried out other orders much the same as an intelligent dog would do. The most pleasing feature of the whole was that the little mare seemed to enjoy the sport as well as anybody, her eyes twinkling and her ears "winking" with very evident feminine pride as she showed off her accomplishments to the bystanders. Mr. Wendell asserts that neither the whip or any other harsh treatment was ever used in training Nettie, an assertion we can readily credit.

BUY SOME TICKETS.

On Saturday evening next, at Franklin Hall, will be presented the plays "Everybody's friend" and "Cut off with a shilling," the proceeds af the entertainment to go to the Children's Home. The cast includes a number of the most accomplished and pleasing amateur actors in this city, and others from abroad, and gives ample assurance that the good bill will have justice done it; and the low price of tickets—fifty cents, with reserved seat—will enable almost any one to enjoy a pleasant evening and at the same time contribute something in aid of a charity that is at once noble in aim and most judiciously managed. The quality of the entertainment offered, the low price of tickets and the merit of the object in view should suffice to crowd the hall. Tickets at Goodrich's bookstore, at any time after half-past ten o'clock this forenoon.

A SHARY CONCERN.

We are informed that the Whale's-back fog-horn, which sounded steadily all through the storm from Thursday night to Saturday morning, was silent on Sunday though there was a thick fog at the time; and that the reason for this was that the storm so undermined the foundation of the old tower and washed out some of the large blocks of stone that it was impossible for the keepers to pass from the new tower to the old one (in which the fog-horn is placed) with the sea then running. This corroborates the statements we made concerning the old light-tower and its connection with the new one, at the time the fog-horn was put in position. No one more earnestly and persistently advocated a suitable fog-signal for this harbor than we; but when it was put into that old, shaky, condemned tower, we denounced the act as an outrage, and still hold to the same opinion. Either the condemning of the old tower and the building of a new one some ten years ago was a needless and costly "job," or the placing of the horn in the old tower was a reckless and criminal trifling with the lives of the men whose duty it is to run it. How would it work, while the House committees are investigating everything else, for one of them to propound some conundrums to the engineer who ordered or allowed the fog-horn to be put where it is?

THE VICINITY.

William S. Noyes, Esq., has sold the Maine Democrat newspaper and job printing office to Frank W. Roberts, Esq., of this city. Mr. Roberts is a young man well known here, admitted to the York county bar last winter, and has had some experience as a journalist.—Biddeford Times.

The farmers of Salisbury, Mass., complain that their neighbors in South Seabrook steal wood from their forests, and have done so for years. A correspondent of the Amesbury Villager says: "The lowest estimate is, that they are compelled to supply wood for fifty families in South Seabrook, or more than one-third of the whole population steal their wood from the groves in Salisbury. It is a common thing for a farmer to go into his wood lot and count the stumps of fifty black birch trees, measuring five inches through, which these fellows have left behind as a mark of their vandalism. They usually select the very best hard young growth of wood, watching their chances as closely as a panther would watch for prey. They have but to cross the border line to escape arrest. The actual loss of wood is estimated as high as $1000 annually. Not long since several good people of East Salisbury went into the woods to cut the yearly supply of wood for their parsonage. It was cut and corded according to custom, but when they returned with their teams to haul the wood home, it was not to be found! Several years ago a special police force of thirty men was appointed to guard the border, but little good was done."

YORK COUNTY SPORTS.

Mr. Morris Goodwin, a butcher, of Eliot, recently had quite a battle with an enormous skunk; the animal defended himself bravely, bit Mr. Goodwin, and otherwise rendered himself objectionable; but he was killed at last, dressed, and found to then weigh nineteen pounds! He yielded five pints of oil.

Skunk skins a few years ago sold for three dollars each, and Mr. Horace McIntire, a "mighty hunter" of York, sold over a hundred of them at that price, or near it. There are two kinds, one all black, the other black and white, the former being the most valuable. Subsequently the price went down to five cents per skin, or in other words, they became worthless.

Foxes, which were very numerous in York county early in the winter, made themselves very scarce along in January, and very few were killed; but they have again put in appearance, and the sportsmen and fur-hunters are after them once more. Mr. McIntire, whose method of hunting them has already been described, considered the outlook sufficiently encouraging to warrant him in laying in another supply of bait, so he purchased another old horse—a venerable old stager of twenty-nine years, this time.

One day recently four gentlemen in the vicinity of Birch Hill, York, had a fine view of a fox hunt—not such an one as the "Queen's County Hunt" of Long Island gets up, where a tame fox is chased through cow-yards and around barns by a lot of dogs and shocking bad horsemen, until he gets tired of the sport, and, taking refuge with some hospitable farmer's wife, has a good feed and then goes to sleep before the fire—not such a fox hunt as that, but a genuine chase of a wild and wary old Reynard by a powerful hound that was doing a little hunting on his own responsibility. The party referred to had a view of the race for over a mile; the animals were in the main road, and the fox was thrice seen to make prodigious springs to one side, and then turn and run back past the hound; the latter would stop when he reached the apparent end of the fox's track, and the latter would gain quite a distance before the dog recovered the scent. At length the fox, after again doubling on the hound, was seen to climb over a snow-drift and scramble through a fence into a pasture not far from the spectators; after running along behind the fence for a short distance the cunning old rascal was seen to stand on his hind legs and look over a stone wall at the baying hound as the latter ran up the road in the opposite direction, and no sooner was the dog past than the fox again took to the road and was off at a great rate toward a distant piece of woods, having got a wide gap between himself and the dog this time. The chase was in full view for about an hour, and the interested spectators afterward learned that the dog raced the fox to Agamenticus, a distance of about four miles, but finally lost him.

Portsmouth Chronicle

[Communicated.]

Second Adventism.

There was an article in the CHRONICLE of Feb. 13th, on Second Adventism. There had been one not long before. In the last it is charged that other sects besides the Adventists say little or nothing about Christ's second advent, because they believe a lie of the devil; and goes on to say they pick out a passage of the Bible here and there to sustain them in what they profess to believe. The sects alluded to have been used to this kind of misrepresentation and denunciation, and in general, they take no notice of it more than they do of the idle wind. Denunciation is not argument; a slur or sneer contains no logic; and unkindness is not love.

The writer says, heaven will be on this earth, and that is all that is promised them. Indeed! A book called the Bible contains promises of very much in the future life. The "other sects" firmly believe it, and rejoice in it. They believe in the second coming of the Saviour, but say nothing about the time because they know nothing about it and know of no one that does.

The Scriptures speak in strong terms of a new heaven and new earth; but in one of the accounts it represents that sinners will be there. The writer of the article in question knows, or ought to, that there are rules for Biblical interpretation and Scriptural exegesis, so that it is not safe to come to conclusions as to their teaching at random or as fancy and imagination dictate.

In the first article, 1880 was named as the time for the second advent. In the last the present year is named for something. we hardly know what, as in some points there is a lack of clearness, and some expressions are ungrammatical. The first time fixed was 1843; since then other years have been named, till certainly half a score of them have been given as the time of the end. And judging the future by the past, other years will yet be fixed upon. LISTENER.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows, with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft — under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It promotes a luxuriant growth. It cures dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: It is, somewhere, the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended in the Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasant to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6mo

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of men? An inferior article super sede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported finds up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR,—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "many" and "inhaling-tube" makers (more dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen-hundredths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, I did not be cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight weeks I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have a yellow color of skin, or yellowish-brown or pink on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that, no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. Nomatter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its power in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.

THEO. P. BOGERT.

"New and Yet Old."

I wish to show what has become a history, within the last nine months, which before was a prophecy. The last verse but one in the eleventh chapter of Daniel, reads thus: "But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him, therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many." When the Russian Army invaded the Turkish soil in Asia Minor, on the east, and then with another army on the Danube, in the north, the Sultan of Turkey was troubled, and "he" went forth with his armies with great fury, and has destroyed of the Russian armies, and his own subjects, men, women and children, as many as one hundred thousand people; and to-day "he" has not any more power over the territory that "he" once held in Europe, than I have. This has become a history in our world. The last verse in the eleventh chapter of Daniel is now a prophecy, which is to be history very soon. It reads thus: "And he (the same "he" as in the other verse) shall plant the Tabernacle of his palace, between the seas, in the glorious holy mountain, yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him." This "he," the Sultan of Turkey, is to leave his tabernacle, Constantinople in Europe, and go to Asia, the Holy Land, so-called, and select some place there for him to tabernacle in; and it will certainly be done at this time. There is a large army and navy lying around Constantinople, waiting for the result of a peace Congress, to decide who shall have the territory in Europe, formerly held by Turkey, but now by Russia; this Congress will meet, hold but a short session, and will decide who shall have it, which shall be Russia and her allies, Austria, Germany and Italy. When this Congress does meet, and break up, there will be a time of trouble all over the entire earth, such as never was; when the Sultan goes to Asia to a place "he" may select there, for a seat of his empire there, then and at that time will David's heir (which is Christ) come and take his throne in Asia, on Mount Zion, and there reign; then the Sultan will come to his end, and none to help him, as all others will who have not made Christ their friend. Then and at that time the two first verses in the 12th chapter of Daniel, will have a literal fulfillment in every respect. We praise men for their mighty acts in the earth, such as sending news from one Continent to another, under water and ground and through the air. God, who is almighty, has informed us that when probation closes up he will send a dispatch across the heavens in the shape of a fiery stream coming forth before Christ, as recorded in Daniel, seventh chapter, tenth verse; then the ten virgins will trim their lamps; then it will be said, let him that is filthy be filthy still, he that is holy let him be holy still; then the four governments will cease holding in check the spirit of war, as is represented in the book of Revelations, seventh chapter, first three verses, represented by four angels holding the four winds while God's people are being sealed; and when the Congress which is to have its session, breaks up, all these scriptures will have their fulfillment, and many more. I have made this subject so plain, it seems to me all must needs see it. I hope I have, but I cannot make any person believe it, if they have a will not to. Christ when here could not make all believe; but such as do believe it, and act accordingly, will get in a few weeks everlasting life, with their bodies made immortal; and when the earth is cleansed from the curse with fire, they will get the promised inheritance. Let me say in conclusion that I am not a phrophet but a son of a prophet, and what my father has said to me I believe it. But I do not understand now all that he has said to me in his word. I have no friends to reward nor enemies to punish; but I wish to do all that I can do with the means I have to do with, that men may see light in God's light, and be made to rejoice in the light of eternal life. What is done for the salvation of our race must be done in a few weeks I believe. When Christ was here he threw down the partition wall between Jew and Gentile; I wish that every partition wall between Christ's people were laid flat, so that they might work unitedly for the salvation of the lost and perishing. I have thought and still think, why the Lord has laid the work on me that he has, is, because I do not belong to any of the religious organization on earth, for this reason, no one of them to my knowledge obeys all the commandments and ordinances that Christ told his disciples they should. I have a soul large enough to take in all that do love our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, in deed and in truth. I have one more notice to give soon, to show what man must do, and what locality he may occupy to be prepared for the event in peace. WM. S. WILLET.

The Life Saving Service.

A bill was introduced in the United States House of Representatives, on Monday, to transfer the life-saving service from the Treasury Department to the Navy Department, and providing that the chief of the service, and the inspectors of the districts, be officers of the navy. This bill is the one introduced in the Senate by Mr. Sargent of California, a republican. On its introduction in the House, Mr. Cox of New York, democrat, charged that the bill was a device to place a lot of supernumerary navy officers where they can earn their bread, and that of the eight hundred navy officers not more than two hundred are doing sea service. He said that this was a scheme to take the business from the men who have administered it for years, and put it into the hands of naval officers, and if that were done it would destroy the efficiency of the life-saving service, both along the coasts and on the lakes.

Mr. Cox's estimate of the number of unemployed naval officers may or may not be accurate, but it is pretty certain that his view of the disastrous results to the life saving service from the proposed transfer is correct. And the unquestionable fact that there are very many unemployed naval officers—so many that Rear Admiral Rodgers, superintendent of the Naval Academy, has drawn the attention of Congress to the matter, and recommended a large decrease in the number of appointments of cadet midshipmen—gives color to his assertion that it is to furnish employment for this unemployed army of officers rather than the good of the life saving service that is sought to be attained by the proposed change. What special fitness naval officers can have for this service it is impossible to discover; they are not educated as surfmen, and an Isles of Shoals crew, or any other crew of men brought up to the management of boats around rocks and in a surf, would fearlessly and safely take a boat where the average deep-sea officer, even if he dared face the unaccustomed peril, would be likely to meet disaster and death. The naval officer is a deep-sea man, and though putting him in charge of the life saving service would undoubtedly give it "tone," by making it a branch of the naval service, that is all the good it would do. The revenue marine officers, on the other hand, are regular coast rangers, constantly employed in the perilous work of succoring distressed vessels and seamen along the shore; and as a correspondent well says, "the revenue cutters, constantly cruising along the coast, certainly seem to be the proper ally, and the revenue cutter officers the proper superintendents, of the life saving service."

Under its present management the American life saving service has been transformed from a chaotic and inefficient disgrace to the government and people, into the most efficient life saving service on the globe; and every one who wishes to see it still further improved, and understands its needs, will hope never to see it tied up with red tape in the Navy Department.

"Strike down the Bondholders."

Nobody can be blind to the fact that the most active agents in getting up the Silver bill mean mischief ahead. When the author of the bill openly uttered the remark that he was "in favor of paper money to strike down the bondholders," and indicated supplementary legislation to accomplish his purpose, it ought to have aroused the public to a sense of the danger before us. It means repudiation of the pbblic debt and a war against capital. This Silver bill is but the entering wedge, and now confessedly so. We have no quarrel with those who honestly believe the interests of the country will best be served by the remonetizing of silver, mistaken though they are believed to be. If any such are among our readers, let them be assured that there is occasion now to pause and consider where the current which has borne us on thus far, unless arrested, will land us.

A war upon bondholders means death to our National credit, destruction of what foreign commerce remains to us, and prohibition against its revival and extension. Of what use is it to adopt measures for opening new markets for American products if our credit is dishonored and the dishonor is to be perpetuated? This declaration of war against bondholders means a demolition of the banks, rifling the savings banks of their deposits, robbery of thousands of widows and orphans, cheating honest creditors of their rightful dues, and utter destruction of domestic credit, which is the life of business and enterprise. It means death to the holders of every other species of property. But, more than all, it means depriving every laboring man of the fruits of his toil, filling our almshouses with paupers, and the country with tramps. All this, too, under the pretence of improving the condition of the country and "giving bread to a hungry people." The whole thing is a delusion and a cheat. Repudiation is the base line from which the radical enemies of the old-fashioned constitutional currency are operating, and what is most dangerous as well as most dishonorable is their resort to a species of guerilla warfare. If this country is to adopt repudiation as its policy let us do it openly and boldly, and not practice the arts of sneak-thieves and pickpockets. If Bland and his associates mean to rid the country of its honest obligations without paying them, let them say so. Then there will be no chance for deception, and we shall have an opportunity of seeing of what kind of stuff the present generation of American people are made. If, too, the sacredness of obligations is to be obliterated, and all contracts which the Constitution forbids to be impaired are to be treated as nullities, let us follow on the doctrine to its ultimate and logical conclusion by going in for a general and equal distribution of all property.

Such declarations as that of Bland should be treated as notice now and to all that the spirit of communism is abroad in the land, and that the rights of property are to be exposed to a severer trial than ever before. They should be a warning, too, of the danger attending, under such leadership, the first departure from well-settled principles in finance which have stood the test of time and the vindication of experience ever since the days of Aristotle. There is special occasion for our political friends to look well to the protection of the old landmarks. Hear what Jefferson, the founder and great apostle of the democratic faith, said to his countrymen: "To preserve the faith of the Nation by an exact discharge of its debts and contracts, expend the public money with the same care and economy we would practice with our own, and impose on our citizens no unnecessary burden; to keep in all things within the pale of our constitutional powers, and cherish the Federal Union as the only rock of safety—these, fellow-citizens, are the landmarks by which we are to guide ourselves in all our proceedings."—Boston Post.

Congress.

In the Senate, Monday, Mr. Conkling presented the petition of James Gordon Bennett, a citizen of the United States, now residing in Europe, asking Congress to aid him in the way he designated in seeking discoveries at the North Pole. Mr Conkling said Mr. Bennett had purchased the Pandora, an Arctic vessel, and intended to man and to run her at his own expense. The petitioner desired that the vessel should carry the American flag, and he (Conkling) moved that the petition be referred to the committee on commerce. It was so referred.

The House democrats are apparently surfeited with their investigations, and on Tuesday refused to give the District committee authority to send for persons and papers; also declined to allow the mousing committee under Glover the five experts which, from the beginning of the session, it has sought.

It is now announced that a veto of the silver bill will be sent to Congress on Friday, and that the silver men have little hope of the Senate passing the bill over the veto.

News and Notes.

A sixteen years old Hartford girl, a wife of about a year, has been divorced from her husband, Edward S. Hansen, who is described as an artist, on the ground of intolerable cruelty.

John Reno, who has just been released from the Missouri State Prison, only to be arrested for a robbery in Indiana, tells how he got his twenty-five years' sentence in 1868 commuted to ten. In 1872 a prominent State Senator came to him and made a bargain to obtain the commutation for $2,400, as Reno couldn't pay the money wanted for a full pardon. The warden, however, a prominent politician named Doherty, who held Reno's money, appropriated it, and only a part of the price went into the Senator's pocket, but the commutation was finally obtained by a compromise.

Two circumstances stamp James Wilson Barron, who died at Dexter, Me., last Saturday, as a man of rare fidelity. The first is the obvious fact, that he died in defending the funds entrusted to him, and saved them at the cost of his life. The second is the fact, discovered since his death, that he had voluntarily and without ostentation insured his life to make up the loss of the bank by an investment which he had indeed advised, but had made with the full approval of the trustees.

A very dangerous rock, hitherto unknown, has been discovered in the Atlantic, to the westward of the Azores islands. The commander of the Spanish frigate Zaragoza, on his last voyage from Havana to Spain, after having suffered from a most violent hurricane, which caused him considerable injury, and the sea remaining in consequence very rough, discovered and noted, on the 26th of last September, at a distance of two miles, a conical rock of greenish color, upon which the sea broke with great violence, and which was only visible at the retreat of the wave, from which he calculated that in calm weather it would be covered by about thirteen feet of water. The position of this rock, as fixed by the commander of the Zaragoza, is lat. 40 28 north, lon. 36 34 15 west from Greenwich. The state of the sea prevented a more detailed examination. Close to the rock was the hull of a wrecked vessel, which did not float, but which the waves covered and uncovered just as they did the rock, and this confirmed the supposition that a reef exists there.

Saturday evening Elmira Allen of West Brome, Quebec, followed Hiram Washer, her seducer, and shot him fatally.

Dr. Phillips, the Trenton, N. J., prison physician, tells the investigating committee, in a matter of fact sort of manner, that he poured alcohol upon the backs of convicts and then ignited it, to ascertain wbether they were shamming.

The Irish societies met in Brooklyn on Monday, and had a free fight over the question as to which society shall have the honor of furnishing the grand marshal of the procession on St. Patrick's day.

The storeship Supply, which left New York with goods from American exhibitors for the Paris Exposition, is an old vessel, having been in the United States service over forty years. She was used as a storeship in the Mexican war, and at the close of the Franco-Prussian war in 1871, she took out a cargo of grain to France. Later, she carried a portion of the American exhibits to the Vienna Exhibition, and in 1876 brought over to Philadelphia the contributions of American artists in Italy.

The accounts of Gen. Burt, formerly postmaster at Boston, having been audited, it appears that there is a balance due him of over $4000. Soon after Gen. Burt vacated the office of Postmaster it was charged that his accounts were wrong about $10,000, and that this amount stood charged against him on the books of the Department. The Postmaster-General appointed a Committee to examine Gen. Burt's accounts, and, this being done, it was found that he had never been allowed the amount expended in fitting up the Old South Church for a Post Office after the big fire, for which he held vouchers for every cent. These vouchers being examined and found correct, Gen. Burt was credited with the amount upon the books of the Department, leaving a balance in his favor of over $4000, for which sum Congress will be asked to make an appropriation, as the appropriation out of which this would ordinarily have been paid was covered into the Treasury two years ago.

The United States navy consists of 146 vessels and 8,684 men, and the cost of the establishment, last year, was a little rising sixteen millions. There is one Admiral, David D. Porter; one Vice Admiral, Stephen C. Rowan; eleven Rear Admirals and twenty-five Commodores, on the active list. One of the latter, Robert H. Wyman, was appointed from New Hampshire and has been in the service in all departments for about twenty years.

The Supreme Court has appointed William B. Johnson receiver of the City Savings Bank of Manchester. He will convert the assets into cash as rapidly as possible, and wind up the institution.

Political.

The republicans of Biddeford have nominated Charles M. Moses for Mayor.

The President on Tuesday nominated Alanson W. Beard for Collector of the port of Boston. Great is Civil Service Reform!

The Boston Post, in an earnest article (copied in another column) on the silver bill and the apparent rapid spread of repudiation ideas, tells its "political friends" that "there is special occasion" for them "to look well to the protection of the old landmarks." There is, undoubtedly; and democrats in this State who believe in National honesty should consider well what they are doing before they vote for the nominees of the convention that in its platform demanded the repeal of the resumption act, but had not a word to say in opposition to the silver swindle or in defence of the National honor. A democratic victory in New Hampshire, on such a platform, would lend fresh strength to the hands of the repudiators of the West and South, already dangerously strong.

The Ohio House of Representatives is democratic, and of course the chairman of the military committee is a democrat. He has recently been proved to be a deserter from the Union army during the war, and a perjurer; but then he is a democrat, so the deserter and perjurer will continue to act as chairman of the committee. His democratic colleagues have refused to expel him on the ground that his offence was merely "technical." Where a democrat is in the dock and democrats compose the jury, little offences like these have a way of growing highly informal, if not of turning out to be mere practical jokes.

The Ex-Confederates are looking forward hopefully to 1880 for the full re-establishment of their power, and they are counting upon republican dissatisfaction in the North to help them. So far as New Hampshire is concerned, they should be wofully disappointed, for on a full vote the republicans have a good majority, and this is an occasion when it should speak to the country with no uncertain sound.—Boston Traveller.

When the "chivalry" of Louisiana, who used to whine so pitifully about the propriety of "letting by-gones be by-gones" when their treasonable and murderous rebellion was referred to, are reproached with violating the letter and spirit of the resolution passed by the Nicholls legislature after it had supplanted the legally elected one, to the effect that all prosecutions for past political offences would be discouraged by the victorious bull-dozers, they answer that Wells was not prosecuted for a political offence but for forgery in altering the election returns of Vernon parish. This contemptible quibble deceives no one, but it does serve to show what a mighty small hole southern honor of the democratic variety can crawl through.

The murders and mob exploitations in Kentucky are becoming simply disgraceful. It is useless to talk about "the good old commonwealth" until it is a "good old commonwealth." While over the greater part of the State peace and good order prevail, there are some counties which are persistently giving us a damnable reputation abroad. There were not less than 150 people murdered in Kentucky last year, The Lord only knows how many were stabbed or shot without serious injury. If the people of Kentucky are satisfied with this kind of reputation, and permit this infamous state of affairs to continue, they can never expect anybody to come here to settle, and they may confidently look to the complete subjection of the entire State to the men of violence and bloodshed. How many people were hung for murder in this State last year? Two, we believe. Is it not shameful? And the worst feature of it is that the people of Kentucky are not ashamed of the record, else they would insist that the law shall be supreme and relentless. —Louisville Courier-Journal.

Old Time Chronicles, No. 167.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

Whoever visits Concord and goes north on Main street some way beyond the State House, finds large elm trees by the way side, and some in front of dwellings. They are many of them of a large size, having been set there in the early history of the town. They are grand for shade and ornament. So far as my knowledge extends, they are superior to any in the State. One of them will be noticed.

Perhaps it is a mile from the State House and just beyond the compact part of the city. There is a large two-story house, almost facing one as he goes that way. It is called the "Coffin house," as one or more of that name once lived there. I do not know when it was built. Probably about one hundred years ago. It was at first but one story and two rooms. Afterwards two rooms were added and another story, also an ell.

In front of it is an elm. It is known as the "Coffin elm." Its age is determined, at least while standing in its present place. It was set there in 1782 by Capt. Enoch Coffin, so is 96 years old.

Early last June I stood beneath its branches, and took a view of it a little distance away. Though not measured it must be five feet in diameter a little above the ground. Its trunk is erect, without limbs up some twelve feet, then it is divided into nine or ten large branches, which higher up subdivide till there is a large majestic top. The proportions of this tree are fair, symmetrical, beautiful and majestic. A lover of Nature's wonderful operations will be compensated for a walk from the State House or the hotels in that vicinity, to see this noble production.

The Boundless Ocean.

Sentimental voyagers have rhapsodized upon "the boundless ocean" as seen from a vessel after the land has disappeared below the horizon, and naught is visible as far as the eye can reach but "the blue above and the blue below." To a landsman it is a novel and impressive spectacle, and the expanse of waters, stretching away in every direction to the horizon, seems sublime in its immensity. But as soon as we ask ourselves what the extent of this circular area of water actually is, we see that imagination has more to do with the impression it makes upon us than the reality. When we look down from a neighboring hill upon an inland pond a dozen miles in diameter, the view of the water may be lovely, but it does not strike us as sublime, for we know that the entire liquid area is a little more than a hundred square miles. But it is just as large as the expanse of ocean seen from the deck of an ocean steamer, if the eye is twenty-four feet above the water. The horizon, the boundary of the "boundless" ocean visible from the ship, is under these circumstances only six miles off, and the vessel is virtually sailing through a circular pond twelve miles in diameter. If we climb the mast the circle enlarges, but when we get a hundred feet above the water we have barely doubled its diameter and quadrupled its area.

The "depression of the horizon" can be readily calculated by this simple rule; two-thirds of the square of the distance in miles is the depression in feet. For one mile, then, the depression is eight inches; that is, if the eye is just eight inches above the water, the horizon or limit of vision is a mile off. To see two miles in any direction across the water, the eye must be two-thirds of four feet (or thirty-two inches) above the surface; to see three miles, it must be at a height of six feet; and so on. The rule is accurate for all distances within the range of vision.

It is curious that experienced mariners generally have as erroneous an idea of the distance of the horizon at sea as any "land lubber" on board. Ask the captain of an ocean steamer (as we have often done) what this distance is, and the chances are that he will say ten or twelve miles. Tell him that it is only six, and he will probably laugh at you. You can convince him only by a mathematical demonstration; and yet you will find on inquiry that in working up his daily "observations" he makes an allowance of five miles for what he calls "the dip of the horizon." Whether this is the allowance made in all cases we are unable to say. If it is, it was probably fixed for the average height of the eye of the observer at sea, which would be considerably less than on a great transatlantic steamship.

It is hardly necessary to say that the horizon is not the limit of vision at sea, so far as ships, icebergs, and other objects rising much above the water are concerned. The masts and sails of a vessel may be seen in clear weather when she is several miles beyond the horizon; and we can roughly estimate her distance by the depth to which she seems sunk in the water. If we assume this to be twenty-four feet, she is, of course six miles beyond the line that divides sea and sky, or twelve miles from the observer; if she is apparently fifty feet under water, she is nearly fifteen miles off. The reader will have no difficulty in applying the rule already given to these and all similar cases.

THE CITY.

Two hundred tickets to "Robin Hood" were sent from Boston to Dr. Preston, Monday. They were all sold at an early hour on Tuesday, and a telegram had to be sent for some more.

The ball of the Veteran Artillery Association, postponed from the evening of Feb. 22d, will come off on Monday evening, March 4th. The indications are that it will be the ball of the season.

A letter was received at the post-office in this city, Tuesday, bearing the following superscription:

Mistur Paigh
a turney at Lau
Portsmouth N. H.

The Masonic brethren are requested to meet at Masonic Hall at a quarter before two o'clock this afternoon to attend the funeral of Bro. Benjamin Weeks, instead of at one o'clock as per notifications issued.

A fair in aid of the Children's Home was held at the house of Chief Engineer David B. Macomb, U. S. N., last Week, Mr. Macomb's little daughter and some of her young friends being the managers; and the little folks had the satisfaction of realizing the very handsome sum of $70 for the excellent charity they designed to benefit.

The next entertainment in the Lyceum course at Franklin Hall will be given next Monday evening. A cantata entitled "The Fairy Bridal" will be presented by a large company of artists, selected from among the best vocalists of the city and vicinity, who have had the piece in rehearsal for a considerable time, under competent leadership.

J. W. Rover was hanged at Reno, Nevada, on Feb. 19th, for the murder of J. N. Sharpe, near Winnemucca, on April 8th, 1875. Mr. Sharpe will be remembered by some as having been a resident of Portsmouth, and in business with Mr. Elisha Tripp. He was a first-class house painter. He married a Portsmouth lady (Miss Akerman) and removed to California some twenty years ago.—Times.

The lecture on "Wit and Humor" by Rev. John A. Goss, to be given under the auspices of the Young People's Association of the Court street Christian Sabbath school, which was announced for this (Wednesday) evening, Feb. 27th, has been postponed for one week on account of a death in the family of one of the members of the Association. The lecture will be given in the Christian church on Wednesday evening, March 6th.

On Thursday evening, at Music Hall, the musical burlesque extravaganza "Robin Hood" will be presented by a troupe that on Saturday last finished playing the same piece at the Globe Theatre, Boston, where it met with great success, being most cordially received. The troupe embraces the names of Gus Williams, Miss Nellie Larkelle and about thirty others. The entertainment will undoubtedly be sparkling and pleasing.

All who honored with their presence the entertainment in Franklin Hall, on the evening of the 18th inst., given for the benefit of the temperance cause, enjoyed it exceedingly. Once more our citizens are called upon to lend their countenance and give their money in aid of one of our sweetest charities, the Home for little children, where some twenty fatherless and motherless little ones are gathered, who look to us for help. Again Home Talent comes to the front, with a delightful programme, for Saturday evening, March 2d. Let us show our interest in the cause by filling the Hall to its utmost capacity, and encourage the actors by the assurance of a rich pecuniary harvest. Tickets for the entertainment are on sale at the book-store of Mercer Goodrich.

THE VICINITY.

The check list printed this year for the town of Seabrook contains about 450 names, and among them are twenty-two Browns, twenty-four Chases and thirty-five Dows. All the E's are Eatons, except one, and there are fifty-eight by that name, and twenty-eight by the name of Fowler.

The troubles of the Somersworth Savings Bank are said to be partly owing to the burning of the Island Ledge House, on which the bank had made a loan. The report is that the insurance on the hotel is the only security the bank holds, and payment will be resisted by the insurance companies.

When the Post of Biddeford was started as a daily democratic paper, some heretical republican of that place sneeringly observed that it wouldn't live long, as there were not readers enough among the democrats of Saco and Biddeford to support it. For this he was sharply rapped over the knuckles by the Post; but it seems the unbelieving republican knew whereof he spake, for the Post died on Monday,—aged thirty-seven days. We are sorry for it, for it was one of the brightest exchanges that came to our table, spicy, outspoken on political matters and yet good tempered, and full of the local news of its district. In its valedictory it says: "Running a daily paper in Biddeford is about as money making a job as selling ice among the Greenlanders, or taking a contract to supply the inhabitants of Hades with ulster overcoats. The political editor has secured a remunerative job of sawing wood. The city editor starts on a tramp to the Black Hills to-morrow."

WITH COMMENDABLE PROPRIETY the Louisiana State Lottery Company of New Orleans, gives to all its patrons a guarantee that it does not in any case disclose any of the facts connected with its immense business; so that if the reader should, by the investment of two dollars, receive thirty thousand dollars in a few days, as a return for his investment, sent to M. A. DAUPHIN, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, no one would be any the wiser, unless he gave willingly a written acknowledgment of the fact.

Controversy among the first-class hotels of New York shows that the service is constantly changing from one first-class hotel to the other, and the bills of fare show the same variety of dishes. The important fact, to travellers, is that the Grand Central offers the same accommodations for one and two dollars per day less than the others.

Commonwealth Consolidated

MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the "COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY," of San Francisco, call attention to the mining property of this Company, situated in the Tuscarora Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Prize," and developments thus far made in the shaft and levels of the Commonwealth Consolidated indicate the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found at even depth in sinking the shaft upon the "Grand Prize" now so successfully worked, and paying its regular monthly dividends.

The Commonwealth Consolidated Mining Company consists of two distinct properties, known as the "All Alone" and "Veritas" mines, which have been consolidated into the above-named Company; both of these valuable properties have been prospected by shafts, the ledge found to be well-defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The Corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and, instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in most California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 20,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for a working capital.

This stock will only be issued and sold from time to time, as funds may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able superintendence of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment for the working capital, and the price is placed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the Stockholders that their intention is to enhance the price of each issue from time to time, as the work of development progresses and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Alone" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 75 feet, and a contract is about being closed to run it 200 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are principally New England men, and the Board of Directors offer their assurance to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and a examination of the management as to the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and guaranteed at all times.

Portsmouth Chronicle

"Pedro" Without the Five Spot.

Last night, after the play was over, a number of beer drinkers went into a C street saloon, and calling for a deck of cards, proposed to play pedro for the drinks. The barkeeper, who was something of a wag, took out the four pedros from the pack and passed it over. The first man that bid for the privilege of making the trump had ace, king and jack, and he felt that he could catch the pedro, to a dead certainty, and so bid six. He failed to get his work in on the five-spot and consequently owed the board his bid. The next fellow also bid up at pretty stiff figures, expecting to get his points out of the crowd by catching pedro. As the game progressed the points that were made came from bids and not from actual play, and as fast as a man got started on the score he would bid up lively—attempt to catch a pedro and get set back. At four o'clock this morning the gamesters were blind drunk and still endeavoring to "catch pedro." They might just as well have attempted to run down a rainbow. At five o'clock the game broke up in a row. A man who accused another of keeping the pedros in his sleeve was immediately knocked down with a terra-cotta spittoon. Then the chairs began to fly as thick as the leaves of autumn. The barkeeper who put up the job interfered to preserve the peace, and now preserves a piece of his ear in alcohol.—Virginia City Chron.

The explanation of this explosion will be an interesting question for scientific people.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus lonely, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and stubborn, thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so efficacious or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for the intended purpose."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur

Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cures-all—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

"Sirs—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasant to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so efficacious in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Chapped Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and contains the same Wind Colic, regulates the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could obtain such a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed, "snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula, Scrofulous Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness: Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, foul taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

Old Bounty Land Warrants.

The last Report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office shows 2,957,560 acres of Bounty Land Warrants outstanding. These were issued under act of 1855 and prior acts. GILMORE & CO. pay cash for them. Send by registered letter. Where Assignments are imperfect we give instructions to perfect them.

Arrears of Pay and Bounty.

Officers, Soldiers and Sailors of the late war, or their heirs, are in many cases entitled to money from the Government of which they have no knowledge. Write full history of service, and state amount of pay and bounty received. Enclose stamp to GILMORE & CO., and a full reply after examination, will be given you free.

Pensions.

All Officers, Soldiers and Sailors wounded, ruptured or injured in the late war, however slightly, can obtain a pension by addressing GILMORE & COMPANY.

Cases prosecuted by GILMORE & Co. before the Supreme Court of the United States, the Court of Claims and the Southern Claims Commission.

Each department of our business is conducted in a separate bureau, under the charge of the same experienced parties employed by the old firm. Prompt attention to all business entrusted to GILMORE & CO. is thus secured. We desire to win success by deserving it. Address

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

GREAT THROUGH LINE AND UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route or through travel. In

Construction and Equipment

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections the confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R. I.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling fully convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WEBB, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc. THEO. P. BOGERT.

No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

A Drunken Congress.

With the increase of democrats in the two Houses of Congress, the increase of drunkards seems to keep even pace. Such paragraphs as these are painfully and disgracefully common:

During the debate on the Pacheco-Wiggington case, and a few minutes before the vote was taken, I heard the reporter say: "There is Beverly Douglas at last, and drunk as usual." Mr. Douglas, a representative from the "Mother of States," etc., was seen on the floor, shaking hands with every one he could reach, gesticulating and talking in a state of maudlin intoxication. He had been sent home and to the hospital, but in this crisis his vote was needed, and a telegram had summoned him to the Capitol. —Washington Cor. Freeman.

They unseated another republican, yesterday, and put in a democrat in his place. It was a close vote, and the democrat only got in by the arrival at the last moment of what is called the "Congressional Reserve." The "Congressional Reserve" are the Congressmen, about twenty strong, who spend most of the time of the session of the House in a neighboring tavern called "The Congressional." Yesterday, when the calling of the roll was begun, a squad of deputies of the sergeant-at-arms was sent post-haste to Sanderson's to bring in "the boys." It took some time to get the "Reserve" in marching order, but they finally arrived on the floor of the House in time to save the day.—Washington Letter to Philadelphia Star.

The scenes during the passage by the Senate of the silver-bill, as described by correspondents of all political opinions, were enough to bring a blush of shame to the cheek of every American. Witness the following in reference to Eator of Connecticut, the leader of the hard-money democrats:

There was another senator, distinguished for his opposition to the pending bill, who displayed great anxiety "to strike out the second line of the word government" [shrieks of laughter;] finally, by help of diligent whispering, a man prompting and supporting on each side, gave his amendment correctly, dropped back in a drunken stupor; the amendment was voted down by the woke, rose, repeated his amendment [wild and uncontrollable merriment,] repeated it the third time [senators around him nearly crazed with mirth,] and, at last persuaded in his befogged mind, he tottered from group to group, denouncing the unfairness of a vote on his amendment "while I was down at dinner." He dined at five. The amendment was voted on after ten.

Thurman, the Ohio statesman and candidate for the Presidency, was quite as drunk as Eaton, and there are said to have been fourteen others in similar condition. Thank Heaven, New Hampshire's representatives were not among the number.—Mirror.

—Where there's a will there's a writ de lunatico inquirendo.

—William Shaw, a convict at Joliet, Ill., has baffled a court. He had been stabbed by a fellow-convict, and when the latter was brought to trial, refused to testify against him. The court couldn't commit for contempt for he was already a prisoner, so that was the end of the case.

—A Paris paper has received the following letter: "Sir—It is perfectly true that I have been condemned to five years' confinement for forgery. But as for the statement that I had been previously subjected to eight days' imprisonment for making a disturbance at night, it is an odious and infamous calumny—I give you my word of honor it is."

—Postal clerks sometimes are obliged to wade through considerable poetry to find the address of a letter. Here is a recent sample:

Over the mountains, rivers and lakes,
Carry this letter for goodness' sakes.
In the State of New Hampshire at Walpole
Leave it;
Mrs. ——— will come and receive it.
If it's delayed I'll always regret it,
It's for a married lady, and don't you forget it.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

For all the Purposes of a Family Physic,

CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most concentrated purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skilful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take, and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

Nasby's Leather Dollar.

Gen. Butler amused and interested the House on Tuesday, 29th inst., by a two hours' speech on the financial question, in which he advocated the adoption of the monetary scheme of that eminent statesman, "Petroleum V. Nasby, Finanseer." Said Mr. Butler:

The "American system of finance," (which will obtain in the near future, and I hope at once,) which I desire is:

First, a dollar that shall have at all times a certain fixed and stable value, below which it cannot go.

Second, I demand that the dollar shall be issued by the Government alone in the exercise of its high prerogative and constitutional power, and that the power shall not be delegated to any corporation or individual.

Third, I want that dollar stamped upon some convenient and cheap material of the least possible intrinsic value, so that neither its wear or destruction will be any loss to the Government issuing it.

Fourth, I also desire the dollar to be made of such material for the purpose that it shall never be exported or desirable to be carried out of the country.

Fifth, I desire the dollar so issued shall never be redeemed.

Sixth, for convenience only I propose that the dollar so issued shall be quite or a little better than the present value of the average gold dollar of the world—not to be changed or changeable. If the gold dollar grows lower in value, or grows higher, not to be obliged to conform itself in value in any regard to the dollar of any other nation of the world, keeping itself always stable and fixed, so that when all property of the country adjusts itself to it as a measure of value it shall remain a fixed standard forever.

We now fully believe, what we never believed before, that Ben Butler did steal the spoons.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 25th.

Murphy, his blue ribbon converts and the various local temperance organizations with their red ribbon adherents, had a monopoly of the celebrating business on the 22d inst., Washington's birth-day. Beyond a fair display of bunting and the stereotyped annual observances indulged in by the Oldest Inhabitant Association, no formal ceremonies were attempted by the Government or the municipality, though the day has been decreed a holiday within the District confines. The streets were crowded, as usual whenever the Departmental employe is let loose and don't really know what to do with him or herself. Then the ladies composing the cream of Washington society were abroad on their daily round of calls to excite the admiration of the many beaux stationed along the line of that thoroughfare to review them, or to exasperate their sister, less successful in obtaining her share of masculine attention, and who was correspondingly indignant with those possessed of greater attractions. But the celebration by the temperance men was the great feature of the day. Considering the number of people in Washington the procession was not large; but the very fact that public sentment has so far advanced here as to tolerate a temperance celebration at all, is encouraging. Up to within a very few years, those here who were at all sensitive to the drift of public, or "society," opinion, shrank from identifying themselves in any conspicuous way with temperance reform, because of the ridicule and other unpleasant things they were sure to invite. It appeared to be about the same up through the various gradations of society till the upper crust—rather the most intolerant, probably—was reached. Even the churches hung tenaciously to the old doctrines and practices of the fathers. Total abstinence was regarded as one of the outcroppings of New England fanaticism, and was cordially hated, of course, by the old Washingtonian who moulded public opinion till the Yankee hordes brought by the war rooted him out and took his place. But to-day I believe every pastor of an evangelical church in this city is a teetotaler, as are many of the lay members. And the growth of a sound, healthy sentiment here since the close of the war has been noted by all interested. But it is to be regretted that the good Murphy might have done has been much restricted and impaired from the lack of perfect accord between him and his friends on the one hand, and some of the temperance organizations on the other. I will not attempt to decide between them. Murphy seems to have lost none of his popularity with the public. He yesterday addressed nine or ten thousand hearers from the east steps of the Capitol. One of the significant features of the celebration Friday was the spectacle presented of one of Washington's most popular Catholic priests, on the stage with Protestant clergymen, working shoulder to shoulder for the cause.

The original movers in the remonetization cause—some of them at least—appear about the only ones very unhappy over the modified silver bill as passed by the Senate and concurred in by the House and which goes to the President to-day for his signature. Now that a little time has been allowed for reflection, I believe the great mass who were opposed to the Bland movement because they feared it covered a scheme for inflation, are not very rabid in their hostility, even if not quite reconciled to the measure, as it now stands. No one appears to have any well founded opinion as to what the President's action will be; but as we may reasonably expect the matter decided in a few days at most, I will indulge in no speculations.

The report of Mr. Sherman's committee appointed a few weeks ago to look up the missing $1800, to the effect that they could find no trace of it, certainly looked as though it was designed to shield some one; besides, as a matter of fact it looked very absurd. Since that time the publicity given the matter of assessing all the $900 female employes of the Redemption Division of the Treasury except Mr. New's niece, $17.50, in open defiance of law and equity; the eccentricities of Mr. New's nephew, who was appointed messenger by that gentleman, and the dismissal of Guthrie, late cashier to Mr. New, under very suspicious circumstances, has wonderfully stimulated the demand that the abuses said to exist in that Department, and the alleged oppression of female employes, shall cease, and that the administration of Mr. New be subjected to a rigid scrutiny with a view to the prompt dismissal of the dishonest, if any, and the petty tyrants who have used their accidental elevation to oppress and insult those every way their superiors except in official preferment. KNOX.

News and Notes.

It is reported from Japan that the boiler of the coasting steamer Yesso exploded recently, killing about eighty natives, and the engineer is in prison charged with manslaughter.

The United States frigate Constitution, which has been loading at Philadelphia with American exhibits for the Paris Exposition, sailed Feb. 26th.

The investigation of the charges against Thomas P. Cheney, Railway Mail Superintendent of the New England Division, was commenced by the House postal committee on Monday in Washington.

General Banks says that he was recently told by an officer of a leading insurance company that there has been of late a wonderful increase of very destructive fires, and he added: "Our companies do not care to thoroughly investigate the cause, but it is a fact that the warehouses and establishments of solvent firms are seldon destroyed by fire."

Dr. Mudd, who was sent to the Dry Tortugas for setting the bone in J. Wilkes Booth's leg, now petitions Congress for $3000 as compensation for his services as a physician during the prevalence of the cholera on the island.

Twelve "Moonshiners" have been arrested and fourteen illicit distilleries destroyed by revenue raiders in Putnam county, Tenn. Among those arrested are Frank Lewes and James Milan, charged with chopping one informer to pieces with axes; another was badly wounded by axes, and two others begged off for their lives.

The Philadelphia Times says: "Some of the leading journals which made the foolish fight against any and every form of silver remonetization are now discussing how the new silver bill may be evaded by the Secretary of the Treasury. Never was there more genuine Bourbonism displayed than the organs of the exclusive gold standard have exhibited throughout the great battle that has resulted in a complete revolution of our financial policy."

In the New Jersey House of Representatives, on the 25th inst., a joint resolution was adopted calling upon the Senators and Representatives in Congress from that State to resist the passage of the bill now before Congress to transfer the Life-Saving Service from the Treasury Department to the Navy Department. Good for the Jerseymen.

Kate Claxton, the well-known actress, has gone into voluntary bankruptcy under her real name, Kate E. Lyon, before a Register in Bankruptcy, and a warrant for her adjudication has been issued. The proceedings are taken in order to relieve herself from liabilities in the deficiency on mortgages held by her on behalf of her husband, Dore Lyon, and in which she never had any real interest, and from the liability on notes made by her husband and endorsed by her. Her husband was discharged from his liability by going through bankruptcy last year.

Oscar S. Carr, of Holyoke, Mass., a carpenter, who has commenced a suit for divorce from his wife, received a carefully constructed infernal machine by express from New Haven, Conn., Feb. 26th, but suspecting a plot, took measures which saved his life. The box contained three-fourths of a pound of powder and nearly five pounds of shot and slugs.

It is reported from Europe that the terms of peace have been agreed upon by Russia and Turkey, though the articles are not yet signed.

Yale students made an uproar at the burlesque performances of the Count Joannes in New Haven, Tuesday night, and at the close had a fight with the police, which resulted in some broken heads and the arrest of nine students.

Political.

In the examination of the democratic doorkeepers of the House, before the House civil service investigating committee, the doorkeepers claimed immunity from violating the law in employing a large number of men in excess of the number allowed by law, by stating that it was necessary to have these men to protect public property and do the business of the House. The doorkeepers did not seem to think there is any impropriety in their constituting themselves the law-making power.

A New Orleans letter says the sentencing of Anderson to two years hard labor in the penitentiary has cast a gloom upon the republicans there. The leaders now say there is no guarantee for any one of them, as they may at any time on any charge be arrested, tried and convicted, entirely irrespective of evidence or law.

It is intimated that the committee on privileges and elections in the United States Senate will soon report in favor of unseating Butler and of seating Mr. Corbin in his stead. This would be an act of eminent justice in the case, and reflect great credit upon the Senate when the change should take place. Butler is a blemish on its character, and our advices from South Carolina are in effect that the people of the State are tired of him.—Wash. Repub.

Henry C. Miles of Milford, Conn., a democrat, has been re-elected School Fund Commissioner by both branches of the Connecticut Legislature against Hon. Jeremiah Olney of Thompson, the republican caucus nominee for the office. In the House, which is republican by twenty-eight votes, Mr. Miles, although a democrat, received a majority of twelve, the ballot standing 118 to 106. Many republicans in that body, among the number being Lyman D. Brewster of Danbury, and P. T. Barnum of Bridgeport, would not consent to make the election of School Fund Commissioner one of partisanship, and voted for Mr. Miles because he had made an efficient custodian of the school funds of the State. This is well; but when will a democratic legislature of some State make a similar record?

The appointment of Hon. Alanson W. Beard, a well known politician, to succeed Collector Simmons of Boston, at the instance of Senators Hoar and Dawes, should at least put an end to the twaddle about civil service reform of which the patent reformers have given us such a surfeit for the past year.

As soon as the National (greenback) party gets fairly into power it will pass an act making forty square rods an acre. Confidence will be restored at once and every farmer will be enabled to till just four times as much land as he now does. —Tribune.

The Maryland Legislature has passed by an overwhelming majority a bill giving negroes the same rights in the legal profession as white men.

A New England conference of the "National party" will be held in Springfield, Mass., early in April, and a thorough organization of the six New England States will be had. The Congressional Greenback Silver League are now flooding the New England States with the speeches of Senators Voorhees, Jones, Howe and Thurman, and Congressmen Ewing, Kelley and Bright.

New Hampshire Items.

Echo, a red Irish setter, owned by William Jarvis, of Claremont, was declared to be, by the judges at the St. Louis dog-show last week, the champion stock dog of that class at the exhibition, and was accordingly awarded the first premium. His son Berkley received the second prize in the champion class and the first in the open class.

The panic on account of the Amoskeag Savings Bank, Manchester, increased during the morning hours, Tuesday, Feb. 26th, and the Trustees of the bank, after a short consultation, concluded to require the thirty days' notice authorized by law. The officers of the bank made a statement showing its absolute solvency, and Hon. Jacob F. James, ex-Gov. Weston, Hon. L. B. Clough and others stated that they had examined the affairs of the bank and there was absolutely no cause for anxiety. The excitement then subsided.

In the cellar of the Joseph P. Stickney house at Concord can be seen two pork barrels 140 years old, hair-looms in the family. They look as if they would do good service for another century.

An old lady named Curtis, living in Stetson, Me., with an old coat on her head went past the barn door while a young man named Kimball was feeding the cattle. He thought it was a tramp, and plunged the pitchfork into the old lady's side, one tine penetrating the lung and inflicting fatal injuries.

Mrs. Hannah Cox of Holderness, who will be 102 years old if she lives till June, recently rode from her home to Plymouth, a distance of two miles, where she took dinner, and returned in the afternoon. She retains all her faculties and does not appear over three-score and ten.

Poverty and Distress.

That poverty which produces the greatest distress is not of the purse but of the blood. Deprived of its richness, it becomes scant and watery, a condition termed anemia in medical writings. Given this condition, and scrofulous swellings and sores, general and nervous debility, loss of flesh and appetite, weak lungs, throat diseases and consumption, are among the common results. Therefore, if you are a sufferer from thin, poor blood, do not hesitate, but employ Golden Medical Discovery which enriches the blood and radically cures these affections by striking at the root of the evil and removing the cause.

For all bronchial, throat, and lung affections, severe lingering coughs, weak lungs, consumption in its early stages, asthma and kindred affections, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the sovereign remedy, and has outrivaled all its competitors. It is harmless in any condition of the system, yet powerful to cure. Druggists sell it.

WITH COMMENDABLE PROPRIETY the Louisiana State Lottery Company of New Orleans, gives to all its patrons a guarantee that it does not in any case disclose any of the facts connected with its immense business; so that if the reader should, by the investment of two dollars, receive thirty thousand dollars in a few days, as a return for his investment, sent to M. A. DAUPHIN, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, no one would be any the wiser, unless he gave willingly a written acknowledgment of the fact.

Controversy among the first-class hotels of New York shows that the service is constantly changing from one first-class hotel to the other, and the bills of fare show the same variety of dishes. The important fact, to travellers, is that the Grand Central offers the same accommodations for one and two dollars per day less than the others.

Eminent physicians endorse Adamson's Botanic Balsam as the safest and most effectual remedy for Coughs, and Colds, ever discovered. Sold by Druggists and Dealers at 35 and 75 cts.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. It is acknowledged by all who have given it a trial as being the most reliable preparation ever used; it is particularly adapted to lung and throat affections in children. Try one bottle. tmch23

Croaking is not confined to the Frog Ponds. At this season almost everybody is hoarse. The bleating of distressed lungs is heard everywhere. Why is this, when Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will cure any cough, cold or hoarseness in 48 hours? Sold by all Druggists. tmch5

THE CITY.

J. K. Porter & Co., Boston, advertise to-day a most unique sale. Inventors and capitalists are alike interested in this opportunity for sale and purchase.

"Robin Hood" at Music Hall to-night, with Miss Nellie Larkelle, Gus Williams, Harry Bloodgood, the St. Felix ballet, and other favorite caterers to the public amusement.

The widow of the late Hon. John Laighton, who is still living in this city at the venerable age of ninety-two years, has lost two of her children within the past ten months—LaFayette Laighton, Esq., who died last spring, and Mrs. Mary E. Dodge, who passed away on Wednesday.

President Roberts and six other active and earnest members of the Portsmouth Reform Club went to Rye on the evening of Tuesday, Feb. 26th, and took part in a rousing temperance meeting. At the close of the exercises, which held the close attention of the large meeting throughout, sixty-four of the hard-handed farmers signed the Reform Club pledge, and steps were taken looking to the immediate formation of a club in Rye.

Ed. Chronicle: I saw in a recent issue of your paper an article signed "Listener," referring to me. I wish to meet that person, face to face, and will then inform him why I told the truth, intelligently if not grammatically. If this offer is declined, I advise the writer to bear the truth a little longer, patiently. I despise the principle in any person, throwing brick-bats or clubs at others, but we have something to do, more or less, with the principles of others.

WM. S. WILLEY.

John F. Janvrin of Seabrook, who has of late been keeping a small grocery at Epping, was arrested in this city on Wednesday on suspicion of being the party who burglarized a number of stores in Seabrook early this month. On his person was found a bank book showing a deposit of five hundred dollars about a week after the last burglary was committed, and a bill of goods bought on thirty days of a Boston firm by "J. H. Chase," which it is supposed is the name given by him in Boston.—Times.

The funeral of the late Mr. Levi Remick, of Eliot, formerly master joiner on the navy yard, took place in Eliot on the afternoon of Feb. 26th, with Masonic honors, a delegation of eighteen members of St. John's Lodge of this city (to which Mr. Remick belonged) going over, and being joined by as many more of the brethren from the other side of the river. The esteem in which Mr. Remick was held by his neighbors was shown by the very large attendance at his obsequies, probably two hundred persons being present. He was buried "in the borders of his inheritance," and the scene as the many sympathizing friends and neighbors stood reverently around the circle formed by the brethren at the grave and witnessed the beautiful burial service of the Order, with the bright sun over all, was eminently in keeping with the occasion. Bro. Remick's age was about sixty-six years.

THAT DANGEROUS LIGHTHOUSE.

The Times of the 26th inst. gives some particulars of the damage done to the old rattletrap tower containing the Whale's-back fog-horn, as follows:

Many of the huge blocks of granite of which the tower is constructed were loosened, and one, situated about three feet above high water mark and estimated to weigh more than a ton, was torn from its position. The wall connecting, or built between the two towers, is partly gone; the steps and rails were carried away; the keepers' dory, which had been drawn up and safely secured as they supposed, was smashed; and other damage of minor importance is reported. The tower is now in such a condition that the keepers fear, in the event of another such storm as they experienced last week, it will all be washed away.

Giving one of the keepers of the light for its authority, it further says:

We should judge that some overhauling and repairing at that institution is needed immediately, and we are furnished with the reason why the fog-horn has not been heard in heavy weather since the storm of last week. The keepers have repeatedly notified the superintendent of lights of the condition of the old tower, but that functionary has not, as we are told, ever acknowledged the receipt of any of their communications, nor has he ever, during the many years of his superintendency, been out to the light! The heavy seas of succeeding storms have acted upon and crumbled the old structure, so that now after the tearing out (so to speak) of portions of the wall, the tower in which the fog-horn is placed has become so dangerous that the keepers decline to risk their lives by occupying it during heavy weather, and consequently the horn is silent.

This proves that what the CHRONICLE said of the unsafe condition of the tower at the time the fog-horn was put in position, was correct; and that we were fully justified in asserting, before it was done, that it never would be done—for we had a right to assume that such reckless trifling with the lives of the keepers would not be permitted by the light-house authorities, who well knew that the old tower had not gained any in stability since the time it was condemned as unsafe, years before. But the "superintendents of light" (Collector A. F. Howard) is not the official to be blamed in the matter, as he has no more power in the premises than the light-keepers, or the editor of the Times; his duty is to recommend suitable men as keepers to fill vacancies, and pay the salaries of the keepers, and we believe he does not even get a commission on his disbursements for his trouble; and he cannot authorize or order, on his own responsibility, the purchase or driving in of a shingle nail. The engineer of the district has full control of the erection and repairing of buildings at light-stations; to him light-keepers have to render monthly reports of the condition of the buildings and apparatus under their charge, with special reports whenever required by any accident; no report whatever is due the superintendent, under the regulations furnished light-keepers for their guidance, and if any such report should be rendered the superintendent could only forward it to the engineer. The present engineer of the first light-house district, which includes all the lights from the eastern point of the Maine coast to Hampton river, is J. C. Duane, Lieut. Col. of Engineers and Brev. Brig. Gen. U. S. Army, under whose general supervision we presume the fog-horn was set up; as an engineering expert he must of course have known more of the condition of the tower than any one could tell him; and as he was (unless our memory is very much at fault) also the engineer of the district when the old tower was condemned and the new one built, we are utterly at a loss to understand how he could sanction placing the fog-horn where it is.

THE VICINITY.

Edwin Fernald, Esq., editor and proprietor of the Great Falls Journal, is in Florida, whither he went for the improvement of his health.

The religious interest in the Free Baptist church at Kennebunkport still continues. Meetings are being held every evening in the week save Mondays.

George William Burleigh, Esq., a prominent lawyer of Great Falls, and a brother of the late Hon. John H. Burleigh, had a very severe paralytic shock, Feb. 25th, affecting the whole ot one side.

The Senator Who Got Drunk.

I have received several letters asking me to publish the names of the Senators who were most jolly tight on the night of the passage of the silver bill. There is so much to be said in favor of Senators who may take ten or fifteen drinks too many on the occasion of a continuous all-night session, that they do not have an opportunity to get a good dinner at the usual hour, and that the strain upon them is often very great. They drink on empty stomachs and are often half-seas over. The trouble the other night all began over a few bottles of champagne. Had the worthy Senators taken nothing but champagne, there would have been no trouble, but some of them had taken whiskey before the wine came up, and more of them piled in the "vintage of Kentucky" afterward. The result was confusion in the Senators' stomachs, and ultimately dismay in the Senatorial brains. One or two of the Senators who distinguished themselves on this occasion were men who always have got drunk and always will do so during all-night sessions. Most of them will not do so any more, and I am not going to publish their names. But there is no harm in saying that the wealthy Don Cameron, of Pennsylvania, was the man who ordered up the wine that mixed so mischievously with the usual Senatorial "pizen" on this now famous occasion.—Washington letter to Boston Herald.

An Opinion on Co-education.

President Bascom of Wisconsin university, formerly a professor at Williams, does not agree with the board of visitors of his institution that co-education is injurious to the health of the young woman students there. On the contrary, he neatly knocks the underpinning from their "opinion" by a few carefully prepared statistics, which have the added value of their author's superior opportunities for observation. The young women not only learn more easily than the young men and hold their own with them in scholarship, he says, but do this at less expense to their health—some of them even gaining in strength—and with only one-third as many absences from college duties. He explains on the theory that the girls have the advantage of being accustomed to confinement, while their big, sun-browned and apparently robust brothers are less able to endure the transition. "It may be felt that the young men are less conscientious than the young women," he remarks, with a sarcastic thrust at the pernicious college habit of "cutting," "but I sharply question a young man, and rarely ask any questions of a young woman." His observation that the absences of the young women decrease as the course advances, while those of the young men are evenly distributed throughout, seems to indicate that the latter do not gain much either in conscientiousness or ability to stand confinement. Dr. Bascom concludes that the health of the young woman who pursues industriously and prudently a course of education is far more safe than it is when she remains in society, and plunges without restraint into its whirl and dissipation.

—Some people are like eggs, too full of themselves to hold anything else.

Commonwealth Consolidated

MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the "COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY," of San Francisco, call attention to the mining property of the Company, situated in the Tuscarora Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Prize," and developments thus far made in the shaft and levels of the Commonwealth Consolidated indicate the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found at even depth in sinking the shaft upon the "Grand Prize" now so successfully worked, and paying its regular monthly dividends.

The Commonwealth Consolidated Mining Company consists of two distinct properties, known as the "All Alone" and "Veritas" mines, which have been consolidated into the above-named Company; both of these valuable properties have been prospected by shafts, the ledge found to be well-defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The Corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in most California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for a working capital.

This stock will only be issued and sold from time to time, as funds may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able superintendence of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment for the working capital, and the price is placed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the Stockholders that their intention is to enhance the price of each issue from time to time, as the work of development progresses and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Alone" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 78 feet, and a contract is about being closed to run it 200 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are principally New England men, and the Board of Directors offer their assurance to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and an examination of the management as to the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and guaranteed at all times.

Portsmouth Chronicle

How Patti Came, Saw, and Conquered.

Patti is having a stirring time of it at Naples. When she arrived they declined to receive her at the Hotel Royal, as she was accompanied by "a friend," and she had to go to the Nobile. She was in high dudgeon, refused to rehearse, and in consequence found an audience at San Carlos as cold as a stone. In less than an hour she sang the whole house into warmth, enthusiasm, frantic delight—it was "Traviata," and the next morning the papers made positive excuses. Nay, more, the committee of the theatre came to pay her the unusual honor of a visit in state. She refused to see them. Expectation was on tiptoe as to her reception the next night. It was feared she would be hissed. Not at all. She sang the "Barbier," and with the same effect as before, her voice acting on their premodiated sulkiness like the rising sun on mists. In the scene in which she has to spell the name of Rossini she kept up one high note so long that the unhappy baritone who accompanied her—not a bad one, either—had to stop three times for breath, she mocking him with a look the while. Naples has now given up all idea of resistance, and has taken up its position at her feet. She receives $1900 a night, with a right to halt the surplus when the receipts exceed $3800. On the night of the "Barbier" they took $5700 at the doors. She therefore received an extra $950, or a total of about $2850 for the night's work, not counting her bonus of revenge!—Naples letter.

—At South Hadley, Mass., they tell this story of Senator Kellogg of Louisiana, that happened years ago when he was working at his trade at the Falls, to show that he was always ambitious. He belonged to a militia company, a good many members of which had become very tired of drilling. Various plans were suggested of getting rid of the duty, and finally the suggestion of Kellogg's, that everybody chosen to office at the approaching election should decline, was thought to be just the thing. But, when the time came and most everybody had refused the captaincy and Kellogg had been chosen, he very coolly accepted the "unexpected honor" with thanks.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few competitors, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; then renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur

Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

"I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated, beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embalm a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over eleven months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.

Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. In Chronic Cases its properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness: Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

When the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most efficacious cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has established and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been accepted of as the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.

THEO. P. BOGERT.

What the Lynn Strike Cost.

The following figures are said to be authentic: The full force in a busy season in the twenty-five factories which were in the strike was 2560 men; the number affected by the strike, 2214; the new hands employed, 765: The general weekly average is found to be $14.05. The general result of the contest may be summarized as follows: Of the 2214 men thrown out of work, 2100 were Crispins or Crispin sympathizers. Hence, if $14.-05 is the general weekly average, then the weekly loss would be $31,106.70, and the whole loss $186,640.20. Of the 765 new men, 115 are men who came back to their former employers, and who refused to join the Crispins; 650 take positions of the strikers permanently. The city has been, when all things are considered, terribly paralyzed.

—Kate, Addie and Laura, three pretty girls of Colorado, were recently mock-married as a joke; but no sooner was the ceremony over than they found out it was real, and though they pretended to be mad, it is said they soon showed they were not.

—George Ladd, the mathematical prodigy, died at the Brattleborough Poor Farm lately. His wonderful ability to solve the most difficult mathematical problems, although without even a common school education, made him an interesting character. If given, for instance, the number of miles from Brattleborough to Washington or any other point, he would immediately and accurately give the number of feet and inches.

FIRST CAPITAL PRIZE.—For account of P. W. Arnold, at Palmetto, Campbell County, Ga., has been collected the amount of half the first capital prize of $30,000, won by his half ticket in the drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery held Tuesday, Feb. 12. The collection was made by Mr. A. Jumonville, of the Louisiana National Bank, who certifies to having been promptly paid by the company on presentation of the winning tickets, as follows.

NEW ORLEANS, February 19, 1878.

THE undersigned certifies that he held for collection for account of P. W. Arnold, at Palmetto, Campbell county, Ga., one half of Single Number Ticket No. 9693, Class "B," in the Louisiana State Lottery, which drew the First Capital Prize of THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS on Tuesday, February 12, 1878; said ticket having cost the sum of One Dollar, sent by the home office of the company at New Orleans, La., through correspondence and that the amount was promptly paid by a check on the Louisiana National Bank, on presentation of the ticket at the office of the company.

A. JUMONVILLE,

FOURTH CAPITAL PRIZE.—Mr. A. Jumonville, of the Louisiana National Bank, held for account of parties in New York city, ticket No. 60,598, which won the fourth capital prize of twenty-five hundred dollars in the drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, which took place on Tuesday, February 12. The ticket cost only two dollars and was cashed on presentation at the office of the company, as may be seen by the following certificate of Mr. Jumonville:

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 18, 1878.

The undersigned certifies that he held for collection for account of parties in New York city, Ticket No. 60,598, Class B, in the Louisiana State Lottery, which drew the Fourth Capital Prize of TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, on Tuesday, Feb. 12, 1878, said tickes having cost the sum of Two Dollars, at the office of H. L. Flum, successor to B. Frank Moore & Son, 319 Broadway, New York, and that the amount was promptly paid by a check on the Louisiana National Bank on presentation of the ticket at the office of the company.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

For all the Purposes of a Family Physic,

CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They meet not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skilful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

THE SILVER BILL PASSED.

A Washington despatch, Thursday afternoon, reported the silver bill had become a law. The President vetoed it Thursday; the House passed it over the veto in less than an hour, and sent it to the Senate, which also passed it in a short time. Ninety cents now make a legal dollar.

The Eastern War.

England continues her preparations for war. Lord Napier of Magdala has been appointed commander-in-chief of the army, with Sir Garnet Wolseley as chief of staff. Major-Gen. Wolseley says: "At no previous period has England been so strong. Were war declared to-morrow, about 40,000 drilled men would fall into line if required, supported by 372 field guns, manned and horsed by the Royal Artillery. These are exclusive of 100,000 yeomanry available for home service." Thus far 600 sets of field ambulance fittings and 300 tons of bayonet steel have been ordered in Sheffield. The Woolwich authorities have purchased 500 miles of telegraph wire for use, together with torpedoes and the material necessary to construct temporary railways for the conveyance of stores and the mounting of heavy guns in siege works. The War Office has ordered that no soldiers shall be transferred to reserve until further instructions.

Congress.

The Senate committee on claims has decided to report a bill for the payment of $150,000 to the Book Agency of the Methodist Episcopal Church South for the use and occupation of its building at Nashville during the war. The claim as presented called for about $450,000

The republican majority of the Senate committee on privileges and elections will, it is understood, agree to report in favor of unseating Senator Butler of South Carolina, and replacing him with Mr. Corbin, the republican contestant.

The committee on military affairs reported a bill in the House, Wednesday, authorizing the Secretary of War to sell the Watervliet arsenal, New York; Washington arsenal, District of Columbia; Allegheny arsenal, Pennsylvania; Pikesville arsenal, Maryland; Watertown arsenal, Massachusetts.

A resolution was introduced in the House on Wednesday by Mr. Crittenden of Missouri, directing the judiciary committee to inquire whether the Union Pacific Railroad Committee has invested its funds or evidences of debt in stock of other railroad corporations. The object of the inquiry is to reopen the old Little Rock & Fort Smith scandal.

News and Notes.

The negotiations with the Spanish Government, growing out of the seizure of the whaling vessels Ellen Rizpah and Rising Sun, owned in Provincetown, Mass., promise a satisfactory solution. Offers of compensation have been made by the Spanish Government, and practically accepted by Secretary Evarts on behalf of the owners of the vessels.

Commodore D. Curtis, a farmer, fifty years old, was shot through the heart and killed at his house, near Mount Vernon, Ind., Feb. 22d, by his step-son, aged thirteen years. Curtis was trying to murder his wife while on a drunken spree, and the boy got a gun and shot him.

W. W. Bolster, State Bank Examiner of Maine, has spent two days examining the condition of the Dexter Savings Bank, and finds the actual loss of the bank, by the late robbery, to be $628, beside $250 more for which the bank is probably liable. The loss of the town funds is reduced to $350; thus the total amount of funds secured by the murderers is pretty accurately ascertained to be $1228. Mr. Bolster finds the affairs of the bank in an excellent condition. The Attorney-General has employed one of the best detectives in the country to assist in securing the murderers.

One of the most disgusting cases of crime ever made public was brought before the Superior Court of Middlesex county, Mass., at Cambridge, on Wednesday, when Thomas J. Bower, and his wife Irona, respectable appearing people about thirty-five years of age, living in West Newton, were arraigned, the husband for repeatedly outraging a fifteen-years-old girl named Lucy E. Shead, and the wife for aiding in and abetting the crime. The girl is an orphan, was taken by the Bowers as an adopted child last September, and on the second day of her residence with them was criminally assaulted by the pair.

Fishing schooner Carrie P. Morton, of Gloucester, is missing, and supposed to be lost with all hands. She had a crew of fourteen men.

Miss Annie Brewster, an American Catholic in Rome, wrote to the New York World, Feb. 7th, on the day of the death of Pius IX: "Cardinal Pecci would be a blessing to the church; he is a man of the world, as well as a good man; pious, gentle, but very firm."

New Hampshire Items.

The republicans of Nashua opened the campaign Wednesday evening with a rally at City Hall. Ex-Gov. Harriman addressed the meeting.

Mrs. Mabel Sinclair recently died at the residence of Thomas Sinclair, in Meredith, at the advanced age of ninety-seven years. She had been totally blind for several years.

James Hill of Wakefield is now in his 89th year, and his wife in her 81st. They have lived a married life upon the same farm and in the same house for sixty-three years. Mrs. Hill's father was a Revolutionary soldier, and lived to be ninety-six, while his mother died at ninety-three. Of his brothers, one attained eighty-one years, and another ninety-two, while one, now living and the youngest of the family, is in his sixty-eighth year. There are two sisters living, one eighty-five and the other eighty-three. The latter is the wife of Moses Perkins, of the same age as herself, and both have lived a married life of sixty-three years. During the last fifty-two years these two couples have resided upon adjoining farms.

The barn and long ell of a house situated at Hillsville, the property of Mr. Charles E. Hodgdon of Alton, were destroyed by fire on Wednesday. It is believed the fire was set in the barn by a tramp. Loss estimated at $1200 to $1500; insured; furniture saved. The house was occupied by Charles Eastman and family.

Political.

The democrats of Biddeford had a rousing caucus on the evening of Feb. 26th, and nominated Dr. Francis G. Warren for Mayor, by a vote of 587 to twelve for all others.

The bill of the Virginia "readjusters," by which the State's creditors were to be swindled out of a large part of their just dues, passed both Houses of the legislature but was vetoed by Gov. Halliday. The advocates of the swindle are much excited, but it is not believed the bill can be passed over the veto.

During the debate in the House on restoring to the pension rolls the names of the veterans of the Mexican war who had been stricken off for treason during the rebellion, Crittenden of Missouri sneeringly asked where Mr. Joyce of Vermont (who opposed the measure as giving Confederate soldiers who fought in the Mexican war a better footing than Union soldiers) himself was during the war. This coarse taunt was instantly answered by Mr. Townsend of New York, who replied that Mr. Joyce was at that time leading a Vermont regiment against the rebels; and as Crittenden, though an avowed rebel during the war was not a fighting one, the taunt only recoiled upon its author. Crittenden's sneer—the same old southern sneer at everything northern which was so common before 1861, and is rapidly coming into fashion again—would have come with a grace less ill from some one of the many rebel brigadiers who now rule the destinies of the Nation they fought to destroy; but it would not have indicated any excessively conciliatory spirit even then.

Brick Pomeroy, Col. Blanton Duncan and Gen. Sam Cary were the prominent leaders of the new "National" party convention at Toledo. A pretty "rich" set of leaders for a Nation to take for its guidance, and no mistake.

Can't somebody take old Ben down to the Peninsula and "bottle him up" again, before he gets off any more repudiation speeches? Otherwise people will suspect him of being a demagogue, one of those days.

The conduct of the democrats of the House of Representatives in opening the pension rolls to ex-rebel soldiers, while Union soldiers are delayed fifteen months in their applications because the pension service is crippled by democratic "economy," must receive the condemnation of the country. If, indeed, these ex-confederate legislators leave us any country. —Providence Journal.

"Nothing New under the Sun."

Editor Chronicle: That "there is nothing new under the sun" is often as true now as in Solomon's own time. The Chicago invention, mentioned recently in your paper, of a life-saving contrivance consisting of a broad sheet of canvas, with handles for thirty-two men, to be used for catching persons who may jump from burning buildings, was an idea of two score years ago, either in this country or in one of the large cities of Europe; the inventor at a public exhibition of it, testing its utility by leaping upon it, in the street below, from the roof of a lofty warehouse. The very simple apparatus by which a man descended half a dozen times lately from the roof of Messrs. Butler & Laighton's store seemed very perfect, and as if it might do good service in case of need. It required less courage to avail one's self of it than in the other case; still there could be little hesitation between taking a wild leap into the air with the certainty of falling upon the firmly-held canvas below, and in remaining behind to be burned to death. B.

A National Bank Man.

It is proper to state, in view of the great ado that has been made by the republican press over the Hon. Frank A. McKean's connection with national banks, that he does not own and never has owned a single share of national bank stock. The point sought to be made by quoting from Mr. Bingham's speech, and then parading Mr. McKean as a representative of the national banking interest, is not, therefore, made at all.—Dover Press.

Yes, but Mr. McKean is the cashier and manager of a national bank all the same. That he never had faith enough in his own management to buy a share of the bank's stock may prove him a very cautious and modest man, but it has little to do with his being a representative of the national banking interest. If he believes with Harry Bingham that his bank is "preying upon the substance of the people," and that his railroads are extortioners, he has no business to act as their agent. The hired tool of public plunderers is quite as much a representative of their business as are his employers.—Mirror.

—"What is your chief consolation in life?" asked a pastor of a young lady in his Bible class. The young lady blushed and hesitated, but on the question being repeated, the ingenuous maiden said: "I don't like to tell you his name, but I have no objection to tell you where he lives."

—An Albany youth who was arrested for sliding down hill was bailed out by the girl whom he went out coasting with. Nice girl, that.

THE CITY.

A robin was seen and heard fooling around Market square on Thursday.

Mr. William Hay met with a severe accident on Thursday afternoon; while tending the stone crusher at the city yard, he had the fore finger of his left hand taken off.

The arrivals of fish for the week have been very light. Only one vessel came in on Wednesday, and she afterward took her fare to Portland. The Comet arrived on Thursday, with 8000 lbs.

It is currently reported that Jordan, Marsh & Co., will shortly open a branch of their immense dry goods business in the store on Market street formerly occupied by the Rockingham Ten Cents Savings Bank.

Mr. F. E. Dearborn, the hatter, has removed to the store formerly occupied by Mr. Josiah T. Brown on Market street; Mr. Brown has removed to the store formerly occupied by Moses Spear, on the opposite side of the street; and Mr. Spear has taken Mr. Dearborn's old store.

Two photographs, one representing a pivot-gun of the U. S. S. Kearsarge and its crew, and the other the officers of the ship, etc., taken in Cherbourg, France, while the vessel laid there after the fight with the Alabama, are shown in the window of Goodrich's bookstore. The pictures are the property of Mr. Wm. Y. Evans, who was one of the Kearsarge's crew at the time of the battle.

"A man must be grounded upon a moral mountain, to be able to withdraw a counterfeit half-dollar from circulation, if he happens to get stuck with it." So says the Bridgeport (Conn.) Standard, and according to that standard our morality must be grounded on quite a hill, for we now possess a counterfeit quarter which some fellow "withdrew from circulation" six months ago by passing it on us, and which we long ago gave up trying to pass on anybody else.

The following items we clip from the Portsmouth Weekly:

It cost about $500 to settle a bankrupt estate in this city, which didn't pay a cent of dividend.

The blare of the Whale's-back fog-horn is distinctly, often disagreeably heard in all the country round about. An old lady from Kittery the other day remarked in a store in this city, "What strong lungs that man must have, to blow that horn so loud!"

It is easy enough to say "there's nothing in the papers"—but any citizen who wouldn't pay the paltry price of a year's subscription for the GAZETTE for that Kearsarge battle piece, or for this Weekly for Mr. Shillaber's or Dr. Adams' Old Church article, must either be short of money or of appreciation of good things.

On Monday evening our citizens will be entertained at Franklin Hall with a most fascinating Cantata entitled "The Fairy Bridal;" founded on Shakspeare's charming play, the "Midsummer Night's Dreams." Twilight, moonshine, dew and spring perfumes are the elements of this exquisite production,—the most fantastic and poetical of all Shakspeare's plays. The quartettes offered in this Cantata are truly beautiful, and the entire production is most enchanting. This entertainment furnishes the last but one of the series offered by the Woman's Temperance League in their lyceum course, which has been commended on all hands for giving the public the highest type of intellectual pleasure for the absurdly low price of 20 cents per ticket. C. L.

The News Letter thinks the republicans and temperance men "have not so hard a task as last year in the Senatorial canvass of the First District, where the candidates are Emmons B. Philbrick, of Rye, republican, and Marcellus Eldredge of Portsmouth, democrat. Daniel Marcy's and Frank Jones' money are not to be used to pull Mr. Eldredge through this year. He must stand on his own merits, and against these we think we can afford to stake the chances of our candidate, Mr. Philbrick, without money. Mr. Eldredge is pretty well known as a rich brewer and a man whose chief interest in the canvass is centered in the free rum plank of the democratic platform. Mr. Philbrick has a clear and honest record. He will make an able and faithful Senator. He will not stand for free rum or squint at any of the iniquities of the democracy."

Mr. Fred S. Wendell, it is reported, has bought the Charles Robinson house on Pleasant street.

Messrs. Daniel Littlefield and David D. Badger, and Mr. Wm. Fernald, of Kittery, Master Carpenter at the navy yard, have been summoned to Washington to testify in the investigation now going on, in relation to the charge that red oak knees have been received upon the yard, and placed in the Ticonderoga by Constructor Wilson.

POLICE COURT.

Wednesday, Feb. 27th; Batchelder, J.

John F. Janvrin was arraigned on a charge of breaking and entering the store of Thomas N. Chase, at Seabrook, and stealing therefrom. Case continued to Tuesday, March 5th, Janvrin being held in $1000 bonds, being unable to furnish which he went to jail.

Thursday, Feb. 28th; Batchelder, J.

Thomas F. Hoyt was adjudged guilty of having been positively drunk; being one of the regular customers of the court, he was let off with a sentence of thirty days at Brentwood, costs being assessed at $6.90. Hoyt passed most of the winter in jail, having been convicted last fall of having, in company with one Hammond, been guilty of malicious mischief in breaking glass. Hammond was some time since transferred to the insane asylum at the County Farm; and Hoyt, who was but recently discharged, has now also gone to Brentwood.

John McCloskey, another regular customer of the court, also drunk, same sentence as Hoyt.

Thomas Bradey, new customer, drunk, fine $3, costs $6.90.

THE GREENBACKERS' PLATFORM.

For several days we have wrestled mightily with the Declaration of Principles put forth by the Portsmouth Independent Greenback Club, and yet there are a few things about it we cannot exactly understand. We can understand that they demand the repeal of the resumption act; the issue of a flood of paper money; remonetization of the "old silver dollar," and its coinage by wholesale as a means of punishing those men who, having loaned the Nation their money on its promise to pay in coin, now have the insolence to demand coin in payment; and the destruction of the National banks, which did so much to aid the Nation in its hour of dire need. All this is made plain enough; but the fifth and sixth planks of their platform are made of some material too opaque for us to see through. For instance:

5th. We denounce the specie basis system of paper currency as a cunningly devised scheme to draw from the pockets of labor to benefit a moneyed aristocracy, often disastrous; and we believe that a paper currency of the people, based on the credit of the people, should be made stable as the government itself, by the people.

A part even of "fifthly" we can understand. It is easy to see that the "coming dollar" of the Greenback Club is not the greenback dollar of to-day, for that has a "specie basis"—is a promise of the United States to pay a dollar. And we can understand that they demand that the "paper currency of the people" shall be "based on the credit of the people" only, and not on gold or silver or anything else tangible. So far along in this financial problem we can make out pretty well; but when we are told that the "people's money" is to be based only on the "people's credit" we are stricken with awe and wonder, and feel compelled to ask—the "people's credit" for what? For a willingness to trample the Nation's honor under foot in order that the Nation's creditors may be swindled out of their just dues? Such "credit" as this would seem not a very substantial basis on which to found a currency "as stable as the government itself." But a still greater puzzle to us is, to know what in the world our greenback brethren want of any credit of any kind, back of their remarkable dollar. It is to be worthless in and of itself, and is not to promise anything; it is simply to be a declaration that it is something which it is not; and how the "people's credit" for anything can have any bearing on the worth of such a dollar as that we utterly fail to comprehend. Then again:

6th. We believe that our government should supply the people with a sufficient circulating medium, and when in want of money should tax the people for the amount required, as it takes men when it requires them; and we shall use our utmost efforts to prohibit the government from issuing interest bearing bonds to draw from the profits of industry.

"Sixthly," emanating as it does from a party that is actuated solely by a regard for the interests of "the people," seems pretty rough. "Tax the people for the amount required," hey? Tax the people, indeed; pretty friends of the people they are, to suggest that the people shall be taxed. The proposition is as heartless as the taxation would be needless; for as the money would cost the government only the printer's bill, in case of emergency an extra ten-cylinder press could be engaged, and a few thousand millions of "absolute money" "based on the credit of the people" struck off with less trouble and expense than it now takes to collect a thousand dollars by taxation. Thus could a war ten times as costly as the war of the rebellion be triumphantly carried on without there being any "oppression of the people" whatever; and in ordinary times a small printing office would do the work of filling the Treasury now done by an army of revenue officials, and the burdens of the people be reduced to a mere bagatelle. Unless "sixthly" is radically altered the greenbackers, as "friends of the people," will have to take a back seat in presence of the Wisconsin member of Congress who two years ago introduced a resolution that there should be no more taxation, but that instead the government should every Saturday night pay to each man, woman and child in the United States, the sum of fifteen dollars. Down with taxation; base is the slave that pays.

THE VICINITY.

A saw-mill belonging to Mr. Isaac Chicks, at Bell Marsh, York, was burned on Monday night, Feb. 25th. Loss about $1000.

An article has been inserted in the Rye election warrant, calling for the sense of the voters on the enforcing of the liquor law and adoption of the cider law.

John M. Burnham, of Dover, recently purchased of Enoch Plummer, of Milton, a pair of six-years-old cattle weighing 5030 pounds on the hoof. They are for the Dover epicures to devour.

Seven stores and the cellar of Grant's Hotel, in Great Falls, were entered by thieves Wednesday night. Small amounts of change were taken from the stores and eatables from the hotel. There is no clue to the offenders.

Messrs. Goss & Sawyer, of Bath, Me., have contracted to build for Dover parties a three-masted schooner of about 350 tons, to be used in the Dover coal trade. The contract price of the vessel, which is to be of oak and hackmetack, is a little over $13,000.

The following are the officers of the newly-formed Rye Reform Club: John E. Leavitt, President; Charles E. Sleeper, Fred. D. Parsons, Mrs. S. B. Bowdish, Mrs. J. E. Leavitt, Vice Presidents; Alvah H. Foss, Secretary; Miss Ella F. Philbrick, Assistant Secretary; Miss Zetta S. Bunker, Treasurer.

The cottage of A. K. P. Lord at Old Orchard was burglarized on Saturday night, Feb. 24th, and a quantity of flour and other articles left in the house by Mr. Lord's family, (the house being now unoccupied) were stolen. The house of Rev. A. P. Hillman at Cape Porpoise was broken into on the same night, but the burglars got only a little change out of Mr. Hillman's trousers pockets.

A correspondent of the Boston Herald gives an account of the materialization seances of Mrs. Pickering at Rochester, in which he describes the appearance under a moderate light of numerous "spirit forms," some of them being seen at the same time with the medium. The medium sat in one corner of the room, with a curtain stretched across it in such a manner as to make a three-cornered "cubby-hole" about three feet on each side; and the correspondent, after the seance was over, was allowed to examine the walls and floor thus enclosed as closely as he pleased, and announces positively that there was no possible opening in either. These manifestations have created the utmost interest in and about Rochester.

At the last meeting of the York Institute, historical sketches of Wells and Kennebunk were given by Joseph W. Hobson, Esq., and Judge George A. Emery. Wells was settled in the year 1641 by one Edwin Littlefield, a name which predominates in Wells to-day. A reverend gentleman also came that same year from Exeter, N. H., from whence he was driven on account of religious beliefs, etc. In the year 1653 the town was regularly incorporated by commissioners from Massachusetts. The first records of the town were destroyed by fire, but enough is known to shew that the morals of the people were then at a low ebb. In the last named year a law was made, possibly in view of raising the morals of the inhabitants; at any rate it soon changed the moral tone and sentiments of its people. This law compelled all males to go to church once or twice every Sunday and also compelled infant baptism, it making no difference what the religious preferences of the parents were. Rev. George Burrows, a minister who resided in Wells, was in the year 1692 hung for having league with the devil. He originally came from Salem, Mass. This same year Joseph Storer built and fortified a fort; this fort was, during the French and Indian wars, attacked by five hundred Indians under French officers, but they were repulsed, the fort being assisted by several small vessels in the harbor. Ship building was carried on to some extent; the largest vessel built was a brig of three hundred tons. In the year 1643 the first saw mill was built. The population is now about 3000, mostly engaged in farming. Judge Emery said that "Kennebunk" is an old Indian name. The first settlement was made by William Larrabee; in 1748 there were twenty families in what is now the town limits, and in that year a church was built half-way between Kennebunk and the Port. In 1804 the first bell was raised in the town, it being the second one in York county: before this date the people were called to church with a drum. The town was incorporated in 1820. In 1747 the highest appraisal of a house was $20. About ten years later the estate of a deceased citizen was appraised as follows: house, $30; pew in church, $70. At present Kennebunk has a valuable library and fine public hall; the inhabitants are largely engaged in maritime pursuits and ship-building, and the largest vessel ever built in Maine, the Ocean King, was built there.

THAT ROMANTIC LOVE MATCH.

No young lady in private life has for a long time past been so well advertised as the Biddeford High School girl whose graduation essay won her a husband from the West; and as so much has been said about her, the following account of her marriage, from the Biddeford Times of Feb. 27th, will be perused with interest by our lady readers: "The double wedding of which so much note has been made of late came off at the residence of John Milliken, Esq., in Buxton, this forenoon. The romantic portion of this affair is already well known. The contracting parties were Andrew J. Packard of Youngtown, Ohio, and Miss Eldena Elden, daughter of John W. Elden of Buxton; also Mr. Chester A. Hayes of North Berwick and Miss Ida F. Milliken, daughter of John Milliken, Esq., of Buxton. Extensive preparations were made and it is estimated about one hundred and fifty persons were present to witness the ceremony. At ten o'clock Mr. Hayes and Miss Milliken entered the room and took their stand, and were followed by Mr. Packard and Miss Elden, who took positions one on the right and the other on the left of the first couple entering. After this came Rev. B. H. Davis of this city, in citizen's dress, and Bishop Neally of Portland, in full Episcopal robes. Mr. Davis stepped forward and Mr. Hayes and Miss Milliken were soon made man and wife. This completed, Mr. Packard and Miss Elden took their places in the center with Mr. and Mrs. Hayes on the outside, and Bishop Neally united them in marriage. The brides presented their clergymen with handsome bouquets. Hearty congratulations followed the ceremony, and then came cake and a good time generally. Miss Elden wore a mulberry or seal brown cashmere and silk dress; Miss Milliken wore a dark purple cashmere and silk dress; both brides looked very neat and pretty. Early in the afternoon the wedded parties with many friends drove to Saco, whence they embarked on the afternoon train over the Boston & Maine. Mr. and Mrs. Packard for Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Hayes for Providence, R. I."

Controversy among the first-class hotels of New York shows that the service is constantly changing from one first-class hotel to the other, and the bills of fare show the same variety of dishes. The important fact, to travellers, is that the Grand Central offers the same accommodations for one and two dollars per day less than the others.

Commonwealth Consolidated

MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the "COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY," of San Francisco, call attention to the mining property of this Company, situated in the Tuscarora Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Prize," and developments thus far made in the shaft and levels of the Commonwealth Consolidated indicate the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found at even depth in sinking the shaft upon the "Grand Prize" now so successfully worked, and paying its regular monthly dividends.

The Commonwealth Consolidated Mining Company consists of two distinct properties, known as the "All Along" and "Veritas" mines, which have been consolidated into the above named Company; both of these valuable properties have been prospected by shafts, the ledge found to be well defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The Corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for a working capital.

This stock will only be issued and sold from time to time, as money may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able superintendence of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment for the working capital, and the price is placed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the Stockholders that their intention is to enhance the price of each issue from time to time, as the work of development progresses and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Along" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 78 feet, and a contract is about being closed to run it 200 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are principally New England men, and the Board of Directors offer their assurance to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and an examination of the management as to the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and guaranteed at all times.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—The boy of the period says, "Wake me when the coal is sifted."

—"The Kiss in the Dark" was played as a farce by amateurs in Mount Sterling, Ky., up to the point where the young man kisses the pretty girl. Then it was turned into a tragedy. The girl's real lover, jealous of her stage lover, and discerning that the kissing was genuine and much relished, shot the offender on the spot. The wound was trifling, but it brought the performance to a close.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It will suffice the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR.
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. Ayer's HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with livelier expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft — under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its graceful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or so cleanly.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purpose."
BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur
Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys Worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6mayl

NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that substantial thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outsrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKFORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (more dollars-grabbing) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. My nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at interval I used snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know what I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, slight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight weeks I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Chologogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, and taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassa and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organ, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

To the Editor.—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for two years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer; I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request I postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I recovered gradually to what the doctors call, I stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon got rid of the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had rendered me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted in the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

COLLINS'

VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Having for many months been troubled with a very painful side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called Pulmonic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and sore ness almost instantly, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them invaluable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES BARTHMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective applicat[illegible] more grateful and effective in [illegible] Irritation, Soreness and Pain in the Chest and believe them capable of preventing serious [illegible] these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Daily Chronicle.

A Romantic Murder.

The novelist who is looking for the plot of a first-class sensational story, will find in this history a romance in real life a parallel to which can scarcely be found outside the pages of fiction. That it should have occurred in this evening of a century of railroads and telegraph lines and newspapers, is, perhaps, the most singular part of the whole affair. The scene is laid in Pickens county, Georgia. First we have the pretty, popular, impetuous daughter of a respectable citizen running the usual career of a country belle, winding up, as it properly should, in matrimony to a young fellow of her own class, upon whom the bonds of wedlock seem to have hung very lightly. During the Christmas season of 1877 his attentions to a young lady so enraged the young wife that she stabbed her to death in a country ball room. Around the wife, thus become a murderess, the husband, his father and brethren, formed a body-guard, and fought their way out of the building where the tragedy was enacted. With a loyalty and devotion to the guilty woman rarely witnessed in these prosaic days, they resolved that she should not be surrendered to the officers of the law, and in a few days, armed and equipped, they moved from Pickens county, no one daring to oppose their progress. In a short time they disappeared, and the sad event was gradually dying out of the memories of all save the friends of the murdered woman. Recently, however, the fugitives were heard from in North Carolina, and a party was organized to effect their capture. A long chase, a desperate resistance, an attempted rescue, and two prison cells for husband and wife and baby child are thus far the complete chapters of this Georgia romance. A case in which so many of the darker as well as the better qualities of human nature are so curiously blended seldom finds its way into the news columns of the daily journals.—N. Y. Herald.

Business of the New York Post Office.

Enough letters, circulars, and postal cards annually pass through the post office in this city to extend, if placed end to end, from one side of the Atlantic to the other; or in round numbers, they aggregate over 240,000,000 per year. To this must be added over 100,000,000 newspapers which in the same period are dispatched, and then a roughly approximated idea of the enormous mass of mail matter which is handled in the lower floors of the new post office building will be obtained. It is curious to remark that the aggregate of letters is more than half of the total number dispatched in all France, and over four times as many as are forwarded in Russia, while a notion of how extensively news and information is disseminated in this country may be obtained by comparing the above total of newspapers transmitted from New York alone with that representing the aggregate number sent in all Germany (2,300,000,) or even with the same in all Great Britain, which is only about fifty per cent. in excess.—Scientific American.

—Rachel H. Whipp has gone to the Ohio State prison for seven years. She married an aged and wealthy widower in Medina in the expectation that he would soon die and leave her his property; but he continued in robust health, and threatened to make a will giving her no more than the law compelled him to. One night he awoke to find a noose around his neck, and his wife pulling at the rope, which ran through a staple in the wall of the room. She intended to hang him and make people believe he had committed suicide.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

For all the Purposes of a Family Physic,

CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most compendiat purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole system. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skilful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27th.

President Hayes appears to have fairly "stumped" his most expert apologist by the decapitation of Collector Simmons of Boston and the appointment of Beard in his stead. The former was appointed by Grant at the instance of Gen. Butler. The appointment was exceedingly obnoxious to the Boston "Silver Grays," it seeming to be accepted in the nature of a personal insult. But Simmons had come to be regarded as a model officer, not only by merchants directly benefitted by the reforms and improved methods of doing business which he inaugurated in the Boston custom-house, but also by his superiors of the Federal Treasury. His reappointment is understood to have been urged, more or less warmly by nearly the entire republican delegation of New England, (save the two Massachusetts Senators, and one or two of her Representatives, perhaps,) and by an overwhelming majority of those whose interests through the custom house are liable to be unfavorably affected by the change. The persevering ingenuity that has been able to make conspicuous violations of Civil Service Reform appear as nothing worse than exceptional eccentricities, will shrink from the formidable job of explaining away the ugly features of this latest retrograde movement. The closest microscopic examination will fail to reveal one single element of "reform" in it, if we may judge from the almost uniform tone of the comment heard here. From present appearances the "disestablishment of the machine" will still be an available issue in the next Presidential campaign, if, indeed, the difference observed by the present administration between "theory and practice," shall not have so loaded the pretense with ridicule as to sink the party making such professions.

Another nomination just made to the Senate, that of one Howard from Ohio to be assistant appraiser in the New York custom house at a salary of $3000 per annum, is attracting a good deal of attention to the President's Civil Service Reform utterances as made first and last. The only qualifications that Howard is said to possess above others that he should be transplanted into New York soil, are the facts that he was the campaign biographer of Mr. Hayes, and that he first saw light and drew breath in a section that has placed the country under such a weight of obligations by contributing of its surplus statesmen much more than her proportion of public functionaries to its civil and military service. The Republican alleges that Mr. Hayes last summer made an effort to induce Collector Arthur to accept him (Howard) as his deputy, but without success; and it intimates that had Arthur acceded he would have avoided the later efforts at his removal. It says in conclusion, however, that Arthur finally consented to appoint him to a subordinate position at $1800.

No doubt seems entertained now that the President will veto the silver bill and that it will be promptly passed over the veto; but as the intention attributed to him is mainly based on speculation, I will content myself with the statement of fact.

A large number of bills have already been introduced to restore the (according to the disgruntled) beneficent features of the Bland bill, emasculated by the Senate. One by Knott authorizes the recoinage of the standard silver dollar and provides for the issue of bullion certificates. Another by Bland has, substantially, the same object so far as concerns the issue of certificates, making them legal tender. One offered by Sparks is also to the same general purport, and one by Fort provides for the retirement of National Bank currency and the substitution of Treasury notes.

The sentiment brought out by Russia's request that the United States be invited to participate in the coming International Conference on European affairs, seems in favor of compliance. It is urged that American "interests" demand we have a voice in such questions as involve the closing to our commerce of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus, and that our present comparative weakness and inability to defend ourselves, no longer renders the strict observance of the letter of the "Monroe doctrine" a matter of policy, whatever it may have been when first enunciated.

News and Notes.

Mrs. J. H. A. Bone, wife of the editor of the Cleveland Herald, jumped into Lake Erie, Wednesday, and was drowned.

It is stated that the lighthouse at Atlanta City, which is a warning against Brigantine Beach, will fall shortly, owing to its foundations being undermined by the encroachments of the heavy sea.

The recent fires at Long Branch have been traced to rum-hole keepers, who, in Molly Maguire style, intended to burn all property belonging to the Commissioners who refused to license them. One named Kavanaugh is in jail, and another named Hines has confessed setting fire to Commissioner Chamberlain's barn and carriage houses, which were burned to the ground, and also to setting fire to the West End Hotel in company with Kavanaugh. Both the incendiaries are Irish.

Some facts in the bankruptcy case of Bacon, Ranney & Co. of St. Johnsbury, Vt., are deserving of mention. Deacon Ranney, one of the firm, settled his private debts at thirty-eight cents on the dollar, but during the year, which has been consumed in going through bankruptcy, he has paid or provided for the payment of more than one-half of the claims against his estate; in other words, while the law releases him from all obligations by the payment of thirty-eight cents on the dollar, he is paying 100 cents on the dollar as fast as he can raise the money.

Mr. Keely, of "motor" fame, is a hopeless bankrupt. Keely absorbed about $100,000 from credulous people to develop his humbug machine, which was going to supersede steam, and dispense entirely with the use of fuel. He pretended that with a teacupful of water he could run a train of cars a hundred miles. For over three years he lived sumptuously, drove fine horses, wore diamonds, and drank champagne at the expense of the stockholders in his motor company—one of whom, by the way, was a Cleveland editor. If Keely gets his deserts he will furnish motive power for breaking stone in the penitentiary.—Cleveland Herald.

Frederick C. Harriott, husband of Clara Morris, has been held in $3,000 bail at one of the New York police courts on charge of assault on his coachman, Terence Gearty. The latter had neglected the horses and was insolent when remonstrated with, and Harriott discharged him. Gearty demanded his money, and said he would take its worth out of Harriott, when the latter struck him.

Capt. Redmond, an English officer of regulars, who refuses to live with his wife, has been ordered by the London Divorce Court to take her to his house once more as his spouse within thirty days, or be declared in contempt.

Mrs. Fanny Foster, the pretty actress who was the innocent cause of a horse-whipping scene between two rival escorts on a Brooklyn amateur stage, has abandoned the professional boards, and is giving readings and recitations.

The widow of President Tyler assisted Mrs. Hayes in receiving her guests at a reception in the White House, Feb. 23d.

A. J. Baldwin, of Berlin, Conn., bitten five weeks ago by a dog, died Wednesday night in great agony. The doctors pronounced it a case of hydrophobia. Seven other persons were bitten by the same dog.

Since 1840 the fast steamships in the Atlantic trade have increased their speed from 8.8 knots per hour to 15.6 knots, and consumption of fuel per 100 indicated horse-power has been reduced from 4.7 cwt. to 1.9 cwt. In 1877 there were 152 steamships of 556,650 tons in the service, of which 125 of 377,905 tons were English. The record of rapid passages since 1840 shows a gradual reduction from 14 days to 7, and during the same time 56 steamers have been lost with 4430 lives. The year 1873 was the most disastrous of any, 7 vessels with 829 lives being lost, among them the Atlantic with 545 lives. In 1854 the City of Glasgow with 480 lives and the Arctic with 322 lives were lost, making that year, the next to 1873, the worst on record.

President Baez has been driven from San Domingo by Cabral and Billini.

The Duchess of Edinburgh is reported to be immensely popular with the young officers of the British Mediterranean fleet. She entertains them often at the palace of San Antonio and gets up all sorts of amusements for them, entering herself into the fun like the lightest-hearted school girl. The older officers are made happy by gifts of jewelry for their wives and daughters.

The alarming rapidity with which short-sightedness is increasing among German students formed the subject of a recent debate in the Prussian Parliament. From extensive observations made in the gymnasia, it appears that the number of short-sighted increases from twenty-three per cent. in the first year to seventy-five per cent. in the ninth or last year. The too frequent custom in Germany of forcing lads to study during the evenings with insufficient light, in ill-ventilated rooms, is undoubtedly a main cause of this wide-spread evil.

The republicans of Concord held a fully attended mass meeting Thursday evening, which was addressed by ex-Gov. Walter Harriman and Hon. A. B. Thompson, Secretary of State. Music was furnished by the Concord Band.

Large quantities of potatoes are being held back in Grafton county in the hope of higher prices.

A large farmers' meeting was held at Plymouth Thursday, at which a Grangers' organization was effected. Col. Clough of Canterbury, George W. Maun, and H. H. Balch addressed the meeting.

There are four pail factories in East Swanzey, which give employment to about fifty men. There are annually manufactured in the place 150,000 common pails, 70,000 toy pails and a large number of small buckets, the latter being sent to Philadelphia for mince meat.

The former residents of Barnstead now residing in Concord held a reunion Thursday night. The party, including invited guests from Barnstead, with the Barnstead Band, numbered about 200. Subsequent to a social gathering in Phœnix Hotel the company sat down to a supper, after which a poem was delivered by Mrs. G. Carr, and an historical address by George W. Drew, both of Concord. E. S. Nutter of Concord presided and speeches were made by various gentlemen present. There were also present Judge L. W. Clark of Manchester, John G. Sinclair of Littleton, J. Horace Kent of Portsmouth, and others.

Dr. H. G. Staples, the Hanover dentist who attempted suicide December 25th, lodging a bullet in his brain, was taken to his father's home at Hardwick, Vt., Thursday. He is rational most of the time. His eyesight and articulation are affected. It is nearly impossible to make himself understood. The ball has never been extracted.

The hearing before the Legislative Commission to investigate the affairs of the Lake Company was resumed in Lake Village, Thursday. Col. Tappan, the Attorney General, appeared before the Commission at the request of the Governor and Council to represent the interests of the State. The investigation related mostly to the injury of the navigable interests upon the lake. Great interest is felt as the investigation progresses.

In nine days, ending February 20th, three women died in Raymond who had attained the age of 80 years or upward, namely: Mrs. Mary Dudley, aged 83 years; Mrs. Susanna Robie, aged 84, and Miss Betsy Richardson, aged about 80. The oldest person in town is Josiah Moulton, 91 years of age, and next is his brother Levi, who will be 89 in April. Three others are 80 or over.

New Sharon had a grand excitement the other night over the supposed presence in her midst of the Dexter murderers. A young man arrived in town by stage, with no other baggage than a hand valise, and ordered supper sent to his room. This excited the suspicions of the crowd, and it began to be breathed about that he was one of the Dexter desperadoes. The Sheriff heard the report and went to a lawyer; the lawyer made out a warrant, and a crowd, armed with all manner of weapons, went cautiously to the sleeper's room. The door was smashed in and the inmate of the apartment, who was quietly sleeping, was aroused, only to discover that he was a student of the Normal School at Farmington, on his way to rejoin his class. The troops then withdrew.

The jury in the case of town of Strafford vs. Abram S. Clark, town treasurer, and his bondsmen, rendered a verdict for the town.

The Manchester authorities recently found a woman and two children, half naked and more than half starved, existing (it was not living) in a box seven feet square and six feet high, with a roof on it. The only furniture in the "house" was an old cooking stove. The father of the children was found in the roof, to which access was had through a hole in the top of the box; his name is John McIntire, known about Manchester as the champion wood sawyer, and he is very sick with Bright's disease. The wretched family was properly cared for.

The Rotten Metropolis.

The following affidavit has been sent to the Secretary of the Treasury:

NEWBURYPORT, Feb. 23.

In May, 1871, I contracted with the Lunt Brothers of New York to cut open the steamer Stars and Stripes and lengthen her out fifty-six feet. After the steamer had been cut open I noticed many rotten timbers in her bow and stern. I told George D. Lunt, who superintended the work, that the stern should be taken out, as it was decayed and not suitable to remain in her. Mr. Lunt objected and directed me to put in new pieces to cover up the rotten wood, which was done. New pieces were also put in decayed timber across the air streak so that the Inspector could not detect the rotten wood underneath. Fifteen or twenty carpenters who were at work for me on the vessel will testify to the above facts if required to do so.

EBEN MANSON.

Newburyport, Mass., Feb. 23, 1878.

Personally appeared before me Eben Manson and made oath to the above statement.

DANIEL P. PIKE,
Justice of the Peace.

Inquiry was made at the office of Lunt Bros. in New York, the owners of the Metropolis, on Thursday; George D. Lunt was absent. His partner declared the affidavit false and dictated by malice, Manson having failed in his contract, and it cost Mr. Lunt a large sum of money at the time the steamer was lengthened. He said the affidavit was evidently made in ignorance of the fact that the Metropolis was stripped at Poillon's ship yard two years ago, when every unsound stick was removed and replaced by good timber.

THE CITY.

Eastern Railroad stock has taken a sudden and decided jump upward, selling on Friday afternoon as high as $7.25 per share.

We learn that the Boston Museum Company, with Warren, have promised to make Portsmouth a visit early this spring.

There was no meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen on Thursday evening. The extravaganza of "Robin Hood," at Music Hall that evening, was very good, and there was some capital ballet dancing.

Postmaster Pierce on Friday received a summons from Washington to appear on Monday, March 4th, before the House committee on post offices and post roads, to testify in the case of Thomas C. Cheney, now being investigated by that committee.

The managers of the Reform Club propose holding a social temperance meeting in Mechanics Hall on Sunday evening. A praise service of half an hour will precede the speaking, after which it is expected that a large number of testimonies from reformed men and others will be given, making it an interesting occasion, and suggesting the good old days of temperance revival in our midst. Doors open at 7. Praise meeting at half-past seven. Admission five cents.

Don't forget that "Everybody's friend" and "Cut off with a shilling" will be presented at Franklin Hall this evening, by a combination of local and out-of-town amateur talent excelling the average professional dramatic company in merit. Also, don't forget the excellent object of the entertainment—to aid the Children's Home. Carefully remember the foregoing, and then buy liberally of tickets. Tickets 50 cents; children under 13, half-price. Tickets at Goodrich's bookstore and at the door.

The fish business was more lively on Friday than for any previous day of the week, as will be seen by the following list of arrivals: To Randall & Caswell, the Nettie Adams, 7800 lbs.; Mary E. Smith, 7000; Pluribuster, 4200; Ella M. Johnson, 8000; Good Templar, 4000; Georgie Linwood, 5400; shore boats, 3200. To other parties, the Josie Johnson, 8125 lbs.; Flying Cloud, 2340; Rover's Bride 3450; Miantonomah, 6500; shore boat (Elvin Newton's) 2100. From other vessels, 20,000 lbs. Total 82,415 pounds.

On Wednesday Miss Fannie E. Mathes, of this city, joins a party of five or seven on a trip across the Atlantic, and a six months' tour of Europe, visiting the British isles, France, Italy, etc. They take the steamer Massachusetts of the Warren line from Boston. Miss Mathes' companions are from among her school associates of Bradford Academy, and they are anticipating what all their friends who stay at home are wishing for them—a most delightful excursion. It will be a party peculiarly appreciative of the many objects of interests which will come in their way, and we wish them bon voyage. —Journal.

John Keenan, a simple drunk, was assessed the usual $9.90, fine and costs. Not having that amount about him, he got the usual alternative dose of Brentwood.

John F. Janvrin and Eliza Lee were arraigned on a charge of adultery; the case was continued to March 5th, Janvrin being required to furnish bonds of $200 and the woman $500, for their appearance. Janvrin's bail on the charge of burglarizing Thomas N. Chase's store in Seabrook, was reduced to $500.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

Lieut. Comdr. Benjamin P. Lamberton is detached from this navy yard and placed on waiting orders.

Lieut. Comdr. A. G. Kellogg is ordered to duty at this navy yard.

Commander Frederick V. McNair, late in command of the U. S. S. Kearsarge, is ordered to command the Portsmouth.

We have faith enough in Constructor Wilson's integrity and professional ability to feel satisfied that he will be able to fully clear himself from all charges affecting his management of affairs on the navy yard; but it is reported that after the naval investigators get through with him they will consider statements that have been made that another navy yard official has more work on his hands than government pays him for—though we don't see that it concerns the government if he has, so long as he does his official duty.

BUSINESS CHANGE.

By a notice in another column it will be seen that Mr. Charles E. Laighton retires from the business which for thirty-seven years and more he has carried on (singly and in partnership with his son, Mr. Charles M. Laighton, who will continue it under the old firm name, Charles E. Laighton & Son,) at the old stand No. 8 Exchange Building, Pleasant street. Mr. Laighton, the senior, commenced business for himself in 1822, over fifty-five years ago; and throughout all that long period his upright dealing and strict attention to business have kept his name high on the list of respected merchants of Portsmouth, and many of his customers of years ago are among the customers of the firm—or rather of its new representative—to-day. Mr. Charles M. Laighton is too well known to need any introduction to citizens of Portsmouth, and under his administration we have no doubt the reputation of the store for being a place where the best goods and just treatment can be obtained; will be continued.

At the Methodist church, preaching at 10:15 A. M. and 2:45 P. M. by Rev. James Noyes, the pastor.

AN ANTIQUE REGION.

There are few localities of Portsmouth that have undergone so little change in many a long year as Washington street, in its entire length from State to Pleasant street. So quiet is its population—good people all—another Rip Van Winkle might there find a retreat where he could enjoy a twenty years' nap without risk of disturbance. Not so was it in "ye goode old times" of the stage coaches, ere that "innowater o' coachmen's privileges," as the elder Mr. Weller termed it, the iron-horse, had driven them away. Then Washington street was enlivened at various times daily, as the gayly colored coaches, with their prancing steeds, started for or returned from jaunts to Boston or Portland. Delightful it is, even in imagination, to look upon such a scene again, with those jolly fellows the drivers, for whom all had a nod and a pleasant word. Ich-a-bod is written now upon the spot where the old stables once stood, where urchins from Puddle Dock and Brimstone Hill could be seen mounted upon the driver's seats of the coaches bound on imaginary journeys to Boston as they rocked up and down, or playing with the pump in the yard where the horses drank, until driven away by "Skinney," the stable boy, to return again when the first chance offered. Then there was the walk across a plank over the dock that led from the stable to the blacksmith's shop where the horses were shod, and the wheels tired, and the nails made that were needed for both; a scene that never lacked lookers-on of the rising generation, who loved to see the sparks fly and hear the bellows roar, and that was recalled to one at least, in after years, when Longfellow's "Village Blacksmith" first made its appearance. Peeps there were, too, into the stall in the stable where a huge black gentleman goat was kept securely tied, or not a youngster would have dared approach within a cable's length of his presence through fear of those terrific horns; the smaller class scarcely doubting him to be, with hoofs as well as horns, the Ancient Henry's very self. A sad change, besides, has come over the dock, where, instead of the water, that at high tide came nearly up to the cap-sill of the wharf adjoining, grass is seen in rank luxuriance on summer days. No boy ever crossed the bridge if the tide were in, without stopping to look into the water and watch the schools of "minnies" that could be seen near the surface. A legend existed that Gov. Langdon could once indulge in piscatory diversion at the foot of his garden, not far off, when the tide flowed thither from beneath the bridge.

On the spot adjoining the dock, now covered by the dwelling that was removed from the corner of Court and Pleasant streets, a bake-house stood that was occupied for a number of years by Samuel Somerby. A sad day it was, when he removed elsewhere, for the rats, who, generation after generation, had enjoyed both board and lodging there. Some jolly sailor-boys, then more numerous about Portsmouth than in later years, took possession of it one day, and with a bucket of punch, and plenty of crackers and cheese, keeping open house for all, had then a merry time; inscribing upon the door with chalk.

"You may go to the Eagle,
Or go to the Bell,
But we'll spend our money
At the Rat Hotel."

The bakehouse had, long years before, been the place of business of Robert Macklin, who is mentioned in Brewster's "Rambles" as being in the habit of walking to Boston in a single day, when going thither for a supply of flour, putting it on board a coaster, and returning to Portsmouth on the third day, performing his last journey of the kind when past eighty. According to Mr. Brewster, his bakehouse once stood upon the ground at present occupied by the Congress block. In the New Hampshire Gazette of Feb. 5th, 1787, his death is thus recorded: "At Wakefield, N. H., Robert Macklin, in his earlier life doing business as a baker at Portsmouth, at the very advanced age of one hundred and fifteen years."

The stables are gone; so has the old red bakehouse; the portly form of Storey, the stage agent, once so familiar, has disappeared from view, nor is heard the crack of the driver's whip over the horses' heads as he starts away on his daily jaunt; the gentleman goat strikes terror no longer to the hearts of his juvenile visitors, and the dock is filling up more and more each year with mud, yet it is pleasant to recall scenes that once were, and that are reflected still in memory's glass.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

ARRIVED, March 1.

Sch Golden Gate, Amoe, Boston, with salt for C Morris Tredick, and C Sullivan & Co.

Controversy among the first-class hotels of New York shows that the service is constantly changing from one first-class hotel to the other, and the bills of fare show the same variety of dishes. The important fact, to travellers, is that the Grand Central offers the same accommodations for one and two dollars per day less than the others.

Eminent physicians endorse Adamson's Botanic Balsam as the safest and most effectual remedy for Coughs, and Colds, ever discovered. Sold by Druggists and Dealers at 25 and 75 cts.

How shall we regain our losses is the question anxiously thought over by thousands in these times. Take our advice and remit a small amount to Alex. Frothingham & Co., brokers, 12 Wall st., N.Y., who by their judicious investments have relieved hundreds from pressing need. Send for their Financial Report, sent free. 11

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. It is acknowledged by all who have given it a trial as being the most reliable preparation ever used; it is particularly adapted to lung and throat affections in children. Try one bottle. tmch23

Croaking is not confined to the Frog Ponds. At this season almost everybody is hoarse. The bleating of distressed lungs is heard everywhere. Why is this, when Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will cure any cough, cold or hoarseness in 48 hours? Sold by all Druggists. tmch5

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. eod&wtsept15 7

Commonwealth Consolidated

MINING COMPANY

THE Directors of the "COMMONWEALTH CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY," of San Francisco, call attention to the mining property of this Company, situated in the Tuscarora Mining District, Elko County, State of Nevada.

The property adjoins that of the well-known "Grand Prize," and developements thus far made in the shaft and levels of the Commonwealth Consolidated indicate the same vein, and of the same richness, as that found at even depth in sinking the shaft upon the "Grand Prize" now so successfully worked, and paying its regular monthly dividends.

The Commonwealth Consolidated Mining Company consists of two distinct properties, known as the "All Alone" and "Veritas" mines, which have been consolidated into the above-named Company; both of these valuable properties have been prospected by shafts, the ledge found to be well-defined, and the ores are proved by assay to be rich in both gold and silver.

The Corporation is represented by one hundred thousand shares of stock, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and, instead of assessing the shares, as is customary in most California mining stocks, the Directors have chosen to set aside 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Company to be sold, and the proceeds placed in the treasury for a working capital.

This stock will only be issued and sold from time to time, as funds may be required to carry on the work, which is being pushed with energy under the able superintendence of a first-class miner.

The first allotment of shares to be sold for working capital has all been taken.

The Directors now propose to issue the second allotment for the working capital, and the price is placed at Three Dollars per share, with the assurance to the Stockholders that their intention is to enhance the price of each issue from time to time, as the work of development progresses and the value of the property is enhanced thereby, until the requisite amount of working capital is obtained.

The "All Alone" shaft is now sunk to a depth of 78 feet, and a contract is about being closed to run it 200 feet deeper.

Messrs. OTIS & CO., members of the Pacific Stock Exchange, San Francisco, and Messrs. STONE & DOWNER, Boston, have been duly authorized to receive subscriptions as above for the Working Capital Stock.

The Officers and Directors of the Company are principally New England men, and the Board of Directors offer their assurance to the Stockholders that the affairs of the Company will be administered upon a safe and economical basis, and an examination of the management as to the working of the mine and the expenditure of the money is invited and guaranteed at all times.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—A Northampton, Mass., servant girl who recently asked leave of absence for a shopping excursion to Springfield, being told by her mistress that she couldn't save enough on her purchases to pay her fare, replied that she could get a ticket to Moody and Sankey's and return for seventy-five cents. But on her return she inquired with a weary air, "Where is Moody & Sankey's store in Springfield? I went to about forty without finding it."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever occupied so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp clean and soft—under which remedy conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

Centaur
Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Fresh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Samuel Pitcher, M.D
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor griples. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmsy1

REMEDIES
Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embalm as similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 36 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months thoroughly cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.
Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers or Old Sores, Blotches, Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally decisive in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. Where there is dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from torpid Liver, or Biliousness. In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who a substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leuchorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Constipation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen.—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a sufferer without relief. I was troubled with a dull, heavy head, buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucous from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my eyes were inflamed and so much inflamed that I could not see distinctly enough to read a newspaper. My eyes were very much inflamed, and I had to stop reading. I finally consulted an eye surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and alteration in my throat caused the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—A deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I observed gradually to arrest the disease, and I stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils and reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. *

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and many of Electric or Voltaic Plasters with no permanent cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended your Collins' Voltaic Plaster, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them inestimable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN. ORLAND, Me., April 2, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Lung and Chest Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs as these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

THE VETO MESSAGE.

The following is the full text of the President's message:

To the House of Representatives:

After a very careful consideration of House bill 1093, entitled "an act to authorize the coinage of the standard silver dollar and to restore its legal tender character," I feel compelled to return it to the House of Representatives in which it originated, with my objections to its passage.

Holding the opinion which I expressed in my annual message that "neither the interests of the government nor the people of the United States would be promoted by disparaging silver as one of the two precious metals which furnish the coinage of the world, and that legislation which looks to maintaining the volume of intrinsic money to as full a measure of both metals as their relative commercial value will permit would be neither unjust or inexpedient," it has been my earnest desire to concur with Congress in the adoption of such measures to increase the silver coinage of the country as would not impair the obligation of contracts, either public or private, nor injuriously affect the public credit. It is only upon the conviction that this bill does not meet these essential requirements that I feel it my duty to withhold from it my approval.

My present official duty as to this bill permits only an attention to the specific objections to its passage, which seem to me so important as to justify me in asking from the wisdom and duty of Congress that further consideration of the bill for which the constitution has in such cases provided.

The bill provides for the coinage of silver dollars of the weight of 412 1-2 grains each of standard silver to be a legal tender at their nominal value for all debts and dues, public and private, except where otherwise expressly stipulated in the contract. It is well known that the market value of that number of grains of standard silver during the past year has been from ninety to ninety-two cents, as compared with the standard gold dollar. Thus the silver dollar authorized by this bill is worth from eight to ten per cent. less than it purports to be worth, and is made a legal tender for debts contracted when the law did not recognize such coins as lawful money.

The right to pay duties in silver or in certificates of silver deposit, will, when they are issued in sufficient amount to circulate, put an end to the receipt of revenue in gold, and thus compel the payment of silver for both the principal and interest of the public debt. One billion, one hundred forty-three millions, four hundred ninety-three thousand, four hundred dollars of the bonded debt now outstanding was issued prior to February, 1873, when the silver dollar was unknown in the circulation of this country, and was only a convenient form of silver bullion for exportation. Five hundred eighty-three millions, four hundred forty thousand, three hundred and fifty dollars of the funded debt has been issued since February, 1873, when gold alone was the coin for which the bonds were sold, and gold alone was the coin which both parties to the contract understood that the bonds would be paid. These bonds entered into the markets of the world. They were paid for in gold when silver had greatly depreciated and when no one would have bought them if it had been understood that they would be paid in silver. The sum of $225,000,000 of these bonds has been sold during my administration for gold coin, and the United States received the benefit of these sales by a reduction of the rate of interest to four per cent.

During the progress of these sales, a doubt was suggested as to the coin in which payment of these bonds would be made. The public announcement was thereupon authorized that it was "not to be anticipated that any further legislation of Congress, or any action of any department of the government would sanction or tolerate the redemption of the principal of these bonds or the payment of interest thereon in coin of less value than the coin authorized by law at the time of the issue of the bonds, being the coin exacted by the government in exchange for the same." In view of these facts, it will be justly regarded as a grave breach of the public faith to undertake to pay these bonds, principal or interest, in silver coin, worth in the market less than the coin received for them. It is said that the silver dollar, made a legal tender by this bill, will, under its operations, be equivalent in value to the gold dollar. Many supporters of the bill believe this, and would not justify an attempt to pay debts, either public or private, in coin of an inferior value to the money of the world.

The capital defect of the bill is that it contains no provision protecting from its operation pre-existing debts, in case the coinage which it creates shall continue to be of less value than that which was the sole legal tender when they were contracted. If it is now proposed for the purpose of taking advantage of the depreciation of silver in the payment of debts to coin and make a legal tender a silver dollar of less commercial value than any dollar, whether of gold or paper, which is now lawful money in this country, such a measure, it will hardly be questioned, will in the judgment of mankind, be an act of bad faith. As to all the debts heretofore contracted, the silver dollar should be made a legal tender only at its market value. The standard of value should not be changed without the consent of both parties to the contract. The national promises should be kept with unflinching fidelity. There is no power to compel a nation to pay its just debts. Its credit depends on its honor. The nation owes what it has led or allowed its creditors to expect.

I cannot approve a bill which, in my judgment, authorizes the violation of sacred obligations. The obligation of the public faith transcends all questions of profit or public advantage. Its unquestionable maintenance is the dictate as well of the highest expediency as of the most necessary duty, and should ever be carefully guarded by the executive, by Congress and by the people. It is my firm conviction that if the country is to be benefitted by a silver coinage, it can be done only by the issue of silver dollars of full value, which will defraud no man. A currency worth less than it purports to be worth will, in the end, defraud not only creditors, but all who are engaged in legitimate business, and none more surely than those who are dependent on their daily labor for their daily bread.

Another Patriot Gone.

On Saturday morning at half-past six o'clock, at Jefferson, Ohio, Benjamin Franklin Wade, one of the best men and truest patriots the country ever produced, died at the age of seventy-seven years, having been born in Springfield, Mass., Oct. 27th, 1800. Born of poor parents who had a large family of children, he received little education save what his mother gave him. At the age of eighteen he moved to the West, walking to Ohio with a pack on his back.

Early in life he entered ardently into politics and soon won preferment, but his hatred of slavery was such that the Whigs of even the Free States could not stand his sentiments, and the Ohio men dropped him, and he politics, until the Harrison campaign, when he stumped Ohio for the successful candidates. In 1841 he was elected State Senator, though he had refused to allow his name to be used; in 1847 he was elected Presiding Judge of the Third District of Ohio by the Legislature; and in 1851, while on the bench hearing a case, was notified that he had been elected to the United States Senate, to the great surprise of himself and all present. At Washington he was the same outspoken foe of slavery and the same fearless opponent of the encroachments of the slave power, that he was in Ohio; the crack of the slave-whip, which for years had been sufficient to make the whole North crouch, had no terrors for bluff Ben Wade; and the only time the attempt was ever made to bully him resulted in such utter discomfiture of the assailant that it was never tried again. Strange as it may seem, the southern fire-eaters always liked and respected Mr. Wade, notwithstanding his sturdy and outspoken opposition to their schemes. His speech in the Senate in 1861, on the day when the Southern Senators withdrew to engage in rebellion, will never be forgotten. He said: "And now, if you will precipitate us into revolution, be it so. If you will leave this council hall and attempt to break up this Government, go! and upon your own heads be the fearful responsibility of such an act. We are ready, quite ready, quite ready to meet your treasonable designs." He was an ardent supporter of energetic measures all through the war, so much so that his zeal led him to oppose President Lincoln's renomination, he considering Lincoln too easy-going a man. After Mr. Lincoln's murder Mr. Wade was elected President pro tem. of the Senate, and presided over the impeachment trial of Andrew Johnson. In 1868 he advocated Gen. Grant's nomination. In 1871 he was appointed one of the Commissioners to visit San Domingo, and recommended its annexation. In 1875 he refused to run for Governor of Ohio, and since then has been but little before the public. He leaves a wife, and two sons, both army officers of excellent standing; and he leaves a name unstained by even a suspicion of anything mean, cowardly, dishonest or dishonorable.

News and Notes.

In a despatch from Rear-Admiral Alexander Murray, commanding the North Pacific station, dated the 4th of Febuary, 1878, he states that since his last despatch, dated January 22d, 1878, the flagship Pensacola had remained in the harbor of Honolulu, with the exception of one visit to the Island of Molokai, whither she went to the rescue of the American ship Harriet N. Carlton, said to be on the reef off the point of that island, and in imminent danger. The Carlton had on board a Chinese cargo, 400 Chinamen, a crew of fourteen men, and the captain and two ladies of his family. The vessel proved a total wreck, but the passengers and crew were all saved. About 200 persons, including the captain and crew, were brought in by the Pensacola, and some 200 Chinamen were sent to Honolulu in two small schooners, and arrived safely.

The Treasury Department has made all needed arrangements for serving out to the country all the silver dollars demanded by the "pickpocket bill" just passed. The first issue will be used in paying the salaries of Congressmen.

The Iowa Senate, Friday, after a vote of forty-one to four, against the decapitation of criminals, passed the bill restoring capital punishment.

Two men were hanged in Missouri, Friday, one of them having been convicted of murder on circumstantial evidence alone.

Some one has written a letter to President Hayes, charging that negroes living in Florida had in several instances been kidnapped and sold into slavery in Cuba. To ascertain the truth of this statement the President has sent Judge Leonard, a republican member of the Louisiana House of Representatives, to Cuba to investigate the matter, and also to secure reliable information relative to the Cuban insurrection on the island.

At a recent meeting of the Trustees of Dartmouth College J. H. Wright of the class of '73 was appointed Associate Professor of Greek.

The Legislative Commission investigating the Winnipiseogee Lake Company at Lake Village have adjourned unexpected ly to meet at Wolfboro', May 8th, for the convenience of witnesses in that section.

Political.

The democratic press is careful to advise its readers to do their politcal work this year "in a quiet way," and what is being done is in that way. The fact is, there is no issue upon which the democrats dare to go before the people. They are wrong on the money question, they are on both sides on the temperance question, and the record of their party in Congress is enough to damn it in New England forever, and therefore, they are sneaking through the State "in a quiet way," trying to steal, what they confess they have no right to, a vote of confidence from the people.—Mirror.

In respect to State affairs, no republican can expect to gain anything by changing Gov. Prescott for Mr. McKean, or a republican legislature for a democratic one. True, the democratic convention promised great things, but that party has never, in its history, remembered its promises when once in office. To-day, the credit of New Hampshire stands high, because it has been cared for by the republicans. The State government has been intelligently and economically managed because it has been in the hands of republicans. The policy of the party has been one of close economy; and if State taxes are higher than they ought to be, it is because the cost of putting down a democratic rebellion, with which the present Bourbon leaders in that State sympathized, has not yet been paid. —Boston Journal.

"Reform" Platform for 1880.

I. Pay all debts in coin worth ninety cents on the dollar.

II. Place direct taxation on industry, savings, and earnings in the shape of an income tax.

III. Shut up our furnaces, shops and manufactories by free trade or a low tariff.

IV. Pay $70,000,000, in the shape of subsidies, grants, and aids, to the South, raising it from the Northern workingman.

V. Take off the tax from whiskey and tobacco, in aid of the industrious democratic poor.

VI. Reduce the army by starvation. It had no right to save the Union.

What a magnificent achievement of statesmanship this platform is!—and every plank of it has been moved in Congress by democratic statesmen, and some of them carried.—Phil. Press.

Kicked Back.

Uncle Job White in his later years experienced religion, and was taken into the church. And Uncle Job's was no hollow profession. He meant all that he said. If the flesh was at times weak, the spirit was righteously willing. On a certain occasion Uncle Job's oxen were temporarily disabled, and he attempted to plough a piece of stumpy ground with a horse. What with the plow catching in the roots of the stumps, and the unpardonable antics of a somewhat stupid horse, the old man had a hard time of it, and his patience and piety were sorely tried, and at last both began to give way. At every catch of the plough the horse became more and more restive, rearing and plunging, and the driver found the difficulty increase with the increase of impediments. Finally, when the restive beast stopped short in his tracks and began to kick furiously, Uncle Job swore in a most terrible manner. A moment's reflection filled him with distress, and, addressing his horse, he said, in a woe-begone tone: "There, you consummate, miserable, tantalizing brute, see what you've done! You've just gone and kicked me right back into the wicked world ag'in!"

Coffee.

Coffee is probably more extensively adulterated than any article yet mentioned. When sold in the ground state it almost invariably consists of a mixture containing little or no coffee and a great deal of chicory and roasted grains, such as peas, beans, rye and wheat. The addition of chicory is frequently defended on the ground that it improves the taste and quality of the coffee, but owing to its comparative cheapness there is a great temptation to use an undue quantity of this substance, and unless the amount of the addition is specified on the packages (as is required in several European countries,) it undoubtedly constitutes a true adulteration; moreover, chicory itself is very often mixed with foreign substances.

Professor Sharples has recently examined several varieties of package coffee, including the "first quality Mocha and Java coffee," an "extra quality French coffee," a "French breakfast coffee," an "English breakfast coffee" and "pure roasted and ground Cape coffee," but wasn't able to detect the presence of the veritable bean in any of these preparations. A very popular and, in comparison with the above, superior brand of "prepared Java coffee," received by the writer for analysis, had the following composition: Coffee, thirty-seven per centum; peas, fifty-two per centum; rye, two per centum; chicory, eight per centum.

A simple method for detecting some of these substances consists in slightly stirring the suspected sample with cold water and observing the color of the liquid and the gravity of the powder. Pure coffee will remain floating upon the surface of the water for some time, and fails to impart a perceptible color to it, whereas chicory and beans (especially the former,) at once sink to the bottom and color the liquid decidedly. Other substances which also rise to the surface of the water can be easily distinguished from coffee by their appearance and taste. Another simple test is to spread the coffee out on a slip of glass, slightly moisten it with water, and then touch the layer in different parts with the point of a needle; in this way the presence of soft non-resisting foreign ingredients can be readily detected. If on opening the package the contents are caked, or show a tendency to cake, the presence of chicory is indicated.—Exchange.

Origin and Signification of the Names of the States.

Maine—So called from the province of Maine, in France, in compliment to Queen Henrietta of England, who it has been said, owned that province. This is the commonly received opinion.

New Hampshire—Named by John Mason in 1739 (who with another obtained the grant from the crown) from Hampshire County in England. The former name of the domain was Laconia.

Vermont—From the French words verd mont or green mountain, indicative of the mountainous nature of the State. The name was officially recognized, January 16, 1777.

Massachusetts—Indian name signifying "the country about the great hills."

Rhode Island—This name was adopted in 1671 from the Island of Rhodes in the Mediterranean, because of its fancied resemblance to that Island.

Connecticut—This is the English orthography of the Indian word Quon-ch-ta-cut, which signifies "the long river."

New York—Named by the Duke of York under color of title given by the English crown in 1664.

New Jersey—So called in honor of Sir George Carteret, who was governor of the Island of Jersey, in the British Channel.

Pennsylvania—From William Penn, the founder of the new colony, meaning "Penn's woods."

Delaware—In honor of Thomas West, Lord de la Ware, who visited the bay and died there in 1610.

Maryland—After Henrietta Maria, the Queen of Charles I., of England.

Virginia—So called in honor of Queen Elizabeth, the "Virgin Queen" in whose reign Sir Walter Raleigh made the first attempt to colonize that region.

North and South Carolina were originally in one tract, called Carolina after Charles IX., of France, in 1501. Subsequently, 1665, the name was altered.

Georgia—So called in honor of George II., of England, who established a colony in that region.

Florida—Ponce de Leon, who discovered this portion of North America in 1519, named it Florida in commemoration of the day he landed there, which was the Pasquas de Flores of the Spaniards, or "Feast of Flowers," otherwise known as Easter Sunday.

Alabama—Formerly a portion of Missisippi Territory, admitted into the Union as a State in 1819. The name is of Indian origin, signifying "Here we rest."

Mississippi—Formerly a portion of the province of Louisiana. So named in 1800 from the great river on the western line. The term is of Indian origin, meaning the "long river."

Louisiana—From Louis XIV., of France, who for some time prior to 1763 owned the territory.

Arkansas—From "Kansas," the Indian name for "smoky water," with the French prefix "are," bow.

Tennessee—Indian for "the river of the big bend," i. e., the Mississippi, which is its western boundary.

Kentucky—Indian for "at the head of the river."

Ohio—From the Indian, meaning "beautiful." Previously applied to the river which traverses a great part of its borders.

Michigan—Previously applied to the lake, the Indian name for a fish weir. So called from the fancied resemblance of the lake to a fish-trap.

Indiana—So called in 1802 from American Indians.

Illinois—From the Indian "illini," men, and the French suffix, "ois," together signifying "tribes of men."

Wisconsin—Indian name for a "wild rushing channel."

Missouri—Named in 1820 from the great branch of the Mississippi which flows through it. Indian term, meaning muddy.

Iowa—From the Indian, signifying "the drowsy ones."

Minnesota—Indian for "cloudy water."

California—The name given by Cortes the discoverer of that region. He probably obtained it from an old Spanish romance, in which an imaginary island of that name is described as abounding in gold.

Oregon—According to some from the Indian, Oregon, "river of the West." Others considered it derived from the Spanish "oreganoo," wild marjoram, which grows on the Pacific coast.

—At the village of La Clappe, France, recently, a plot of ground planted with vines and olive trees slowly sank and disappeared, leaving a gulf of a funnel-shaped form about 120 feet in diameter at the surface and forty feet at the bottom. One hundred feet from the surface may be seen a sheet of water.

—A lady of South Lowell, N. C., relates an instance of the efficacy of prayer. While preparing to make bread she discovered that she was out of yeast, and exclaimed to her daughter, "I wish to the Lord I had a yeast cake." Just then the door bell rang. When the summons was answered, no one was found, but lying on the sill, neatly packed, was a single yeast cake. It appears that some person introducing yeast cakes, deposited this sample as an advertisement and departed for the next house.

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

A bank book was presented at the Portsmouth Savings Bank on Saturday by the executors of a depositor whose account began in 1830 and had been kept open ever since.

At the second session of the Brokers' Board in Boston, Friday, fifty shares Eastern Railroad stock were sold at $7.-50, fifty shares at $7.62 1-2, and fifty shares at $7.75.

George F. Putnam, Esq., chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, was in town on Sunday, stopping at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. George W. Butler.

An alarm of fire was occasioned at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, by the partial burning of the roof of Mr. F. K. Brown's house on Christian Shore. The fire was put out by one of the Extinguishers.

Lent will commence with Ash Wednesday (this week,) and all who would marry soon must hurry up before that date, for in the great churches no marriages are fashionable in the forty days of Lent.

The ball of the Veteran Artillery Association, postponed from Feb. 22d, comes off this evening in Congress Hall, and promises to be the most successful affair of the season. Grand march at half-past eight o'clock.

One day last week a Boston drummer entered a hat store in this city, where he had previously been endeavoring to do business, bearing a good-sized box, which he placed on the floor with the remark that he would leave it there till he was ready to go to the depot. To a query as to what he had got in the box he replied, "Eggs; twelve dozen of 'em. Got 'em cheap—only sixteen cents—and thought I'd take home a few dozen." "You don't mean to say you're going to eat those eggs?" said the storekeeper, with an astonished look. "Why not?" queried the drummer. "Why, the hens around here was got something the matter with 'em," was the answer, "and anybody that eats their eggs gets the itch, sure pop. You can't give eggs away, 'round here." "By thunder! I thought they were too cheap to be good," said the drummer; "and I'll take the darned things right straight back—I won't eat 'em;" and suiting the action to the word he lugged the heavy box off to the grocery store where he had made his purchase, and it required not only the solemn asseverations of the grocer but considerable ridicule from the bystanders to convince him that he had been sold. But he finally carried the eggs away with him.

REAL ESTATE CONVEYANCES.

The following are the transfers of real estate in this vicinity, as presented for record in the office of the Register of Probate for the week ending Feb. 28th:

GREENLAND.

George W. and John P. Weeks, of Greenland, to J. Clement and Mary Weeks, of Greenland, land, $242.

NEWMARKET.

John W. Wiggin, of Newmarket, to George K. Leavitt, of Newmarket, land, $425.

PORTSMOUTH.

John S. Harvey, of Portsmouth, to Benjamin F. Webster, land, $1.

HOME TALENT.

The experience of the past season proves that our most acceptable entertainments come from our own home talent, an agreeable fact of which we had additional evidence in the manner in which the plays of "Everybody's friend" and "Cut off with a shilling" were presented—and received by the audience—in Franklin Hall on Saturday evening, the plays being acted in the most spirited and fascinating manner, the large and cultivated audience testifying their appreciation of the excellence of the performance by generous applause.

This evening we shall have an opportunity of seeing another club, composed of thirty persons, before the Portsmouth Lyceum course in the brilliant cantata of the Fairy Bridal, in one exhibition combining the three sister arts of music, poetry and the drama. Everything about it is rich except the price—twenty cents admission.

THE VICINITY.

William S. Noyes has again assumed control of the Biddeford Democrat, recently reported sold to a young lawyer of York county.

Mr. Samuel D. Lane has been moderator of the town meetings of North Hampton for thirty-three years—for twenty-nine years successively.

Rev. Wm. H. Alden, D. D., of this city, will give a free lecture in the town hall at Hampton Falls on the evening of Wednesday, March 13th.

About two hundred and seventy-five hands are now employed at the Kennebunk shoe factory, and the pay roll of the company amounts to about $1500 per week.

During the past year dogs in Hampton Falls have killed a dozen turkeys for Charles A. Hardy, and for Charles T. Brown sheep to the value of thirty-seven dollars.

The bell buoy on Newburyport bar having been carried away, has been temporarily replaced by a second class wooden nun buoy, with black and white perpendicular stripes.

Frank McGuire, a Biddeford boy fifteen years of age, is playing an engagement as a gymnast in New York city, and has just contracted to go to San Francisco at a salary of $50 a week.

Rev. A. M. Osgood, of Boston, whose body was found floating in the harbor of Stonington, Conn., not long since, was formerly pastor of the Methodist church in Hampton, having settled there in 1838.

Rev. Henry Ferguson, who for the last five or six years has been rector of Christ Church, Exeter, has accepted a call to Trinity Church, Claremont, and enters upon his duties there on March 6th. Rev. G. Brinley Morgan, who for some time did missionary duty at Goffstown, goes to Exeter.

Mrs. Nathan Berry of Greenland has an heirloom in a Bible printed in Oxford, England, in 1768. It is well preserved and contains the Book of Common Prayer and Administration of Sacraments, etc., according to the use of the English Church; also tables of surface measure, weights, coins, etc.

Mr. Horace Sawyer, an enterprising young business man of Rye, has carried on quite an extensive shoe manufactory at the beach this winter. Mr. Sawyer has bought his stock and given employment to seventeen shoemakers the past season, and has shipped about seventy-five cases of shoes to parties in Boston, Haverhill, Chicago and other places. Ladies' shoes and slippers are manufactured by him.

A Greenland correspondent writes to the Exeter News-Letter that "a widow of Portsmouth has offered to give $500 towards remodelling the Congregational church in this town (a voluntary act.) Another gift by a man of this town has been offered; a black walnut desk, Bible and hymn book. The interior of the church needs renovating badly, and it is to be hoped that, considering the above donations, the time may not be far distant when this matter may be taken hold of and the interior made more attractive than it is now."

The cantata of the Fairy Bridal was given in Trefethen's Hall at Kittery on Friday evening, to a crowded audience, and won enthusiastic and often repeated applause. The costumes of the fairies are very beautiful and produce a picturesque effect as the charming little people dance and sing around their queen. Oberon's wooing of Titania, the fair queen of the fairies, is a delightful piece of acting, and the storm scene presents a striking contrast to the previous merry-making. The company presenting the cantata was the same as will give it in Franklin Hall in this city this evening.

Mr. C. W. Sanborn, of Epping, is a very large fowl farmer. He has five buildings for the accommodation of his hens, well lighted and ventilated, and finds a profitable return for his care and expense. Jan. 1st, 1877, he had 124 fowls, the most of them being pullets. These laid during the year 14,097 eggs and hatched out 450 chickens. He has at the present time 250 hens, none of them being over one year old. He considers the three most important points in poultry raising to be pure air in the houses, supplied by proper ventilation, pure water for the fowls at all times, and a variety of food. He does not keep feed by them all the time, but three times a day they are allowed all they will eat up clean.

While we read with pleasure the encouraging reports of the temperance movement throughout the country, whereby thousands of fallen humanity are redeemed from lives of drunkenness, we should not be oblivious of the interest of those around us. Scarcely a night passes but what some of the youth of this town may be seen on our streets or in places of amusement in a more or less intoxicated condition. Some of them, we are sorry to say, are mere boys, who, if they do not break off the habit, will eventually become confirmed drunkards. We sincerely hope that some action will be taken at the next town meeting to repress the sale of liquor in this place. In the meantime a few good temperance lectures might be productive of much good in this community.—Hampton Cor. News-Letter.

Mr. Windham A. Small, of Limington, Me., assisted by two men and accompanied by his wife and two children, on Thursday started to move to Biddeford, and at Dayton took to the river. When about a mile on the Biddeford side of Dayton bridge the ice suddenly gave way, letting the sleigh (in which were Mrs. Small, the children and one man) and the heavily laden four-horse team with the furniture, into the drink. Six human beings and five horses splashing about in the water made a lively scene for a time, but the entire party and nearly all the property were gotten out, the household goods being badly damaged by the welting.

Residents at Old Orchard Beach had a hen-clam harvest after the late storm. Wesley G. Smith was "high line" among the clam fishers, securing 287 hen clams, (which filled two large wash tubs heaping full,) and also a scollop and two dozen round clams, which are common at Cape Cod and along the coast farther south, but very rare along this way. Sometimes the hen clams are thrown up on the beach so they can be gathered without trouble, but during the late harvest the fishers' success depended mostly on who had the longest rubber boots or the greatest power of endurance to work in cold water, as the clams had to be raked out of the surf, the undertow being too strong for them to land.

Captain Parrott.

The following tribute to the memory of the late Capt. Parrott has been addressed by Gen. Benet, Chief of Ordnance, U. S. A., to his business partners, Messrs. Paulding, Kemble and Co., Cold Spring, New York:

"Gentlemen: This Department has with deep grief learned of the death of Capt. R. P. Parrott. He was so long the controlling power of your foundry, for a lifetime associated with this Bureau as an officer and citizen, that it is proper that expression should be given to the sorrow that is felt throughout the Ordnance Department. Of one so widely known and appreciated for his scientific attainments, his inventive faculty, his incorruptible integrity, much might be said, but over his grave I prefer remembering him as I knew him, for some years, in the intimacy of personal and official relations, as the genial companion, the staunch friend, the Christian gentleman, the soul of honor. Not one of all the virtues that keep green the memory of the dead can be denied him, but above all it can be written on his tomb he was a good man. I can only add that in so deep an affliction Mrs. Parrott has my heartfelt sympathy."

Controversy among the first-class hotels of New York shows that the service is constantly changing from one first-class hotel to the other, and the bills of fare show the same variety of dishes. The important fact, to travellers, is that the Grand Central offers the same accommodations for one and two dollars per day less than the others.

The A. T. Stewart House.

The Stewart palace has thus far rather a strange history. The lot was purchased by Townsend, the sarsaparilla man, who made a fortune out of that nostrum, and built what was then (1854) the finest house in the city. Such was its beauty that it was exhibited before the family took possession, at twenty-five cents admission, for the benefit of a charity. Townsend afterward failed, and Stewart bought the property at Sheriff's sale. He pulled down the house and planned the present palace.

This was done before the war, when prices were low, and the inflation so increased the cost of labor and material that the contract became a heavy loss. Stewart held the contractor to the letter, and the unfortunate man suffered to an almost ruinous degree. It is seldom that a building constructed under such circumstances avails much to its owner. Stewart was eleven years preparing a palatial home for his old age, but he died soon after taking possession.

The grandest palace in America is now occupied by a childless old woman and her servants. The gorgeous parlors, the picture gallery, and all the luxurious interior is now a silent waste. The lofty ceiling renders the staircase a labor, and the mistress, being lame from a fall, is unable to meet such a difficulty. A person in such a condition must be contented with the limits of a bedroom, and hence the largest part of the palace is useless. Such is the condition of an establishment which cost a round million, and on which the taxes alone are $7000 a year.—New York correspondent.

—In a play where it was necessary to enter in a great passion Macready used to have a hired "super," whom he would grapple and shake and curse at, off the stage, so that he could enter naturally. One night the "super" sent a substitute, who did not quite understand the business. He resented Macready's rough treatment, which delighted the tragedian, who went at his man with increased vigor. The substitute presently "let him have it," and the pair fought savagely a good round. Macready that night burst upon his audience in a splendid rage, out-Macreadying Macready. When the substitute learned the true state of affairs, however, he bolted; but he was uncarthed, for Macready came off after the scenes gasping, "Hum—ha! where is he? Bless me! A splendid fellow! Pay him double and let me have him every night."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The wonderful result not unfrequently follows, that the wise will not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often restores the growth; and always surely restores its color, or, when that is gone, gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus lonely, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and stabilized; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors and diseases of the scalp cool, clean and soft — under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It prevents baldness, (nothing but a dressing, which has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."
BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than any other dollar. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D
It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:
SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES
Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of men? An inferior article cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outstripped all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, Mass., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could publish a similar one in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became complicately closed. "Snuff," "dust," "douches," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days; suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over twelve months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach, and I used my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have a yellow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Erysipelas and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

GREAT THROUGH LINE AND UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

Construction AND Equipment

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temples, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head, had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as it had not known it to do for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. My voice is as a single I had reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils to that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest, the burning noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I saw so great a deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians in this and Europe, and the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and every apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following the use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

COLLINS'

VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Having for many months been troubled with a very lame side, caused by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury to my side, and for which I have used many medications and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your Collins' Voltaic Plasters, by which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and sore ness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfe ease and comfort, whereas before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them inestimable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, Mrs. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs Irritation of the Throat, Pain in the Chest and Lungs. I believe them capable of preventing serious illnesses to these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

☞ Not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Review of the Fur Trade.

The following, issued by M. M. Backus & Co., of 768 Broadway, New York city, is the spicest "trade review" we have seen for a long while:

The fur trade, for the period now under review, has been a very insignificant one in amount, and somewhat disastrous to dealers. The times have been unfavorable, the weather quite warm, and the tendency of prices of all kinds downward. The almanac for 1877 has had its usual months for fall and winter; but the usual weather has been absent. The furriers have had their customary pluck in providing abundant stocks for the trade; but the consumer has been absent. The outcome of all this has been a poor season, poor prices, slow sales, and bad debts. Other departments of trade talk about the shrinkage in the value of their stocks, but the fur trade can only describe its own condition as that of a shrivelling up, a collapse. How it all came about was somewhat in this wise:

The season opened for the sale of the manufactured article in the early fall with large assortments of seal and mink goods, brought over from the former year—the sight of them was painful to the eye, the burthen of them chafing to the financial shoulder. It required much courage to rate them down to their actual value; because that process wiped out a large part of the capital invested. Then came the cloak makers with their new fashion of a long half-fitting garment, which came at once into popular favor. Forthwith the seal sack had to be made after that pattern in style and length. Sacks thirty inches long dropped in price to half their cost; sacks of a yard in length and over, if of fine stock and good shape, were in demand. Every furrier made haste in their preparation—for a month there was a sign of life in the workshops; one even dared to hope that the crisis had passed, and that there was a future opening for furs, with promise of prosperity. In the period of a month, however, our furriers can make a good many seal sacks—they had plenty of them ready in November. Then it began to be seen that the customers were fewer in number than the sacks; the weather in all this latitude continued unseasonably and perversely warm. November was hardly colder on the average than October, while December had more days that were like spring than like winter. The demand for the seal sack rapidly fell off, and the price fell full as rapidly—so the season ended flat, stale, and unprofitable.

Our remarks seem to be confined to the seal sacque, and rightly so, because that was the only article out of which the furriers had a ghost of a chance to make a penny, and when that chance was lost, the hope of their gains was gone. All other articles in the fur trade were in slow demand, and had to be forced off at ruinously low prices. Sable, ermine and silver fox in muffs and boas were entirely neglected; there was no sum small enough which a buyer would condescend to offer them. Mink furs had still some admirers; but the buyers had them at almost their own price. Seal, otter and skunk in sets had just a little enough demand to keep one in a state of disgust, but not little enough to make one heartily sick. Trimmings of fur were in some repute, but confined to a few styles, and those very arbitrary in their character. Borders on old seal sacks became a necessity, and for them beaver, either natural or colored, and otter in the hair were the popular furs. Dyed beaver, skunk, dyed gray fox, and chinchilla were also used to a moderate extent on cloaks, and furlined garments, and after them the dyed black coney of Belgium, that thing so filthy to the touch, and so offensive to the smell, being cheap, had its usual run. Dyed hares also flourished under the name of Russian foxes, when the pelt was strong enough to bear the edge of the fur knife to be cut into a band; but usually it was too rotten for needle and thread. These last two articles have heretofore combined too many defects; but our European friends will doubtless do better in preparing them hereafter, because they cannot possibly do any worse.

In our eastern cities the fur-lined garment has been popular. The linings have been chiefly of ermine or squirrel, and the garment in greatest demand has been the circular of full length and medium breadth. This has been worn in gros grain silk, sicilienne, armure, and cashmire. Other styles, such as the Princess and the Roumanian cloak, the Neva Pelisse, and the Dolman Mercedes have been in request. All these garments call for a generous expenditure for trimming and garniture. But the whole of this class of trade, demanding as it does great skill and pains in fitting and adaptation has, after all, been only developed within narrow limits, for the very good reason that economy is the order and the necessity of the day.

As for robes, there has been no winter to call for their use. Beaver, bear, wolf, buffalo, goat, dog and cat all lie down together; no one wants them. From Eastern Canada to Nebraska there has been no snow-fall sufficient for sleighing. The tale of the robe must be told another year; this year he is ashamed to make an apology for his existence.

Such is the story of the fur trade of the United States. For the European Continent the story is even worse. No winter, no demand, no money, no prospect. Raw furs opened in London in January with a decline of twenty-five per cent. on beaver and fifty per cent. on muskrat skins, making the present value of prime Canada beaver about $1.40 per pound, and of northern muskrat about ten cents for winter. This is only a commencement of the deluge; the big shower is due in March, when the public sales in London will doubtless drown out the entire list. But as our correspondents will insist upon our naming some approximate prices for the new crop, we also must insist on limiting our quotations as founded upon a very small collection. The fur trade can use about one-third of an average crop, at about one-third of an average price. If some trappers choose to abandon their vocation, so much the better for the traed. We have already enough and to spare. As to collectors of raw furs, they were always a crazy set; never rational, never conservative. They are always paying more for skins than market value, but it is generally somebody else's money that they lose; so that their losses kill seldom them outright, and if they did, such is their tenacity of life they would continue to move and buy, days and days after they were dead.

There have been paid eighty-five cents for strictly prime large northern black skunk, second in proportion; lower grades nominal. Raccoon are bought at twelve to twenty cents for southern lots; twenty-five to thirty-five for western, and forty to fifty for northern. Gray fox, large prime northern, are worth $1.10, and good southern seventy-five cents; common and inferior sorts nominal or neglected. Red fox are worth but little until the Eastern European question is settled. Anyone who invests a dollar in a prime northern red fox does so on pure speculation. Dark Canada fisher will fetch $8, and prime northern otter $6, while southern sorts are worth about half that sum. Marten command from fifty cents to $3, as to color and size. Mink are taken by buyers, when they must be, at thirty cents for pale prime, up to $2 for very choice selected dark Canada. Opossom are not worth their freight. Wolves had best be left on the prairies and in the timber glades.

At the present writing the collection of furs arriving in this city has been about half an average one, but the establishment of a price in one or two kinds already begins to tell on the quantity, and some kinds begin to develop a full crop. There can be only one issue to a full collection, and that will be disaster to all parties interested.

Peace Proclaimed.

A despatch from Constantinople, Sunday night, says the treaty of peace has been signed. The Grand Duke Nicholas announced the fact to the soldiers at a review at San Stefano on Sunday. Russia has abandoned her claim on the Egyptian and Bulgarian tributes. St. Petersburg and Pera despatches confirm the report that the treaty of peace is signed. At St. Petersburg the enthusiasm over the news of peace was almost unprecedented. There was an immense crowd before the palace shouting and singing "God save the Czar."

News and Notes.

It is positively asserted that the war in Cuba is not ended, and Cuban patriots in New York denounce such of their leaders as have complied with the Spanish terms of peace, and assert that this result has been obtained by treachery. It is also claimed that certain Cuban officers have been bribed by gold or by promises of polical and official preferment.

Pope Leo XIII was crowned in the Sistine chapel at the Vatican on Sunday.

The Fall River Mills have shut down for four weeks.

Charles S. Whittier, town clerk of Methuen, Mass., has cleared out, leaving the town minus about $12,000.

Father Secchi, who died at Rome Feb. 26th, was one of the most famous of modern astronomers, and a great authority in solar and stella physics and spectroscopic analysis. When the Jesuits were expelled from Rome in 1870 he was permitted to remain in his observatary. His works in English, French and Italian have attained a wide reputation.

There are over forty cases of typhoid fever in Richford, Vt. each of which can be directly traced to the use of well water that was tainted. Several of the persons now sick must die, those most affected having died last week. The waste water from several underground sewers has been filtering through the earth into the well, and so tainted the water that it was not fit for use. The families, however, that used it were unconscious of the matter until after so many cases of the fever occurred that an examination was ordered.

The House commitee on railroads has agreed to favorably report Tom Scott's Texas Pacific Railroad Steal, the total amount asked for being only about $37,000,000, with $2,000,000 annual interest.

Gospel meetings will be commenced by Messrs. Moody and Sankey, in the Tabernacle, at Boston, on Sunday, the 10th day of March, to continue two weeks. This will afford the last opportunity to hear the distinguished evangelist in this vicinity, as this will be the last time he will labor in Boston. Meetings will be held afternoon and evening of every day except Saturday, and arrangements will be made by railroads to enable people living on their lines to attend these meetings. It is probable that all the meetings will be crowded, but in anticipation of this, arrangements will be made for the benefit of people from out of town.

In December last the farm buildings of Stephen Chick, at Shapleigh Village, Maine, were burned. Officers have been working up the case and arrested Calvin Day and wife, Chick's neighbors. They have been committed to jail in Biddeford in default of $1000 bonds. A young man named Chick testified that he saw Day fire the buildings, but many believe that Chick was the real incendiary. In default of bail as a witness he also goes to jail.

Seaside people are preparing for a remarkably high tide on the 17th and 18th of March. It is full moon at perigee then, and the Jersey prophets expect a great flood. The date, by the way, is the same selected by a South American prophet for the coming of a new earthquake, tidal wave, cataclysm and revolution.

The great hotel for women who live by labor, which was begun by A. T. Stewart, and has been completed by Mrs. Stewart and Judge Hilton, is almost ready for guests. It is now expected that it will be opened with a reception about the middle of this month. All the arrangements are on the most liberal scale, and the occupants of the house will have all the comforts and many of the luxuries of the best hotels of the city.

An extraordinary birth recently occurred at Manchester, England, where the wife of a laborer produced a male child, and seventeen days after, twin girls.

The wife of Captain J. F. Lincoln of Cheyenne, who has been at Laramie City, Wyoming Territory, for some time teaching music and boarding at William Crout's hotel, was insulted recently by Crout, and a telegram was sent to her husband at Cheyenne, who went up on a train and proceeded to interview Crout with a revolver. He fired three shots, shooting Crout through both thighs and one ankle. The wounds are serious, but not likely to prove fatal.

A contract has been made by an American firm with the Russian government for the construction of a canal from St. Petersburg to Cronstadt, a distance of ten miles. The canal will be 280 feet in width and twenty feet in depth, and will admit of the passage of war vessels to within a short distance of the Muscovite capital.

A Shoreham young fellow has smashed the relationship slate again by marrying his aunt and making his three cousins his step-children, his grandfather his father-in-law, his grandmother his mother-in-law, his own father his brother-in-law and himself the uncle of his own brothers and sisters.

On Thursday afternoon as Mr. A. H. Quimby was crossing the Pemigewasset river, with a horse and sled loaded with wood, the ice gave way, letting all into the river. The sled was carried away beneath the ice. After much personal exertion and assistance from his sons Mr. Quimby was able to extricate himself and rescue the drowning horse.

An unknown man and woman were killed while walking on the Lowell Railroad at East Cambridge, Mass., on Monday.

Political.

The young republicans of Manchester have head-quarters open day and evening, and bold spirited meetings.

"We trust our friends will work with a will until election day, and place that able and popular champion of the people's rights, the Hon. Frank A. McKean, in the gubernatorial chair." So says the Concord Patriot. Harry Bingham, in his speech at the convention which nominated Mr. McKean, cashier of a national bank, for governor, said: "A vast system of monied corporations, in the shape of national banks, is preying upon the substance of the people."

The New Haven Union (inflation and democratic,) says: "Of course the enactment of the silver bill does not settle the financial question, or even the silver agitation. The resumption act remains yet to be repealed; Buckner's bill to retire the national bank circulation must be passed; and legislation to give more force to the silver bill enacted, is necessary. We have bullionists and resumptionists on the hip, and they must be driven to the wall. They have plundered the people long enough, and only the full measure of justice will be acceptable to the voters of the country."

T. Spicer Curlett, republican member of the Virginia House from Lancaster county, made a sensation the other day by offering a resolution to sell the Washington monument in Capitol Square, Richmond, and apply the proceeds to the payment of the State debt.

New Hampshire Items.

James Flemming of Manchester was found dead in bed on Friday morning. Heart disease was the cause.

Hon. H. W. Blair has presented to the House of Representatives the petition of the publisher of the Cheshire Republican for the abolition of the duty on type.

Manchester proposes to have a base ball club for the coming season, with $2500 in the Treasury to be raised by subscriptions of twenty-five dollars each.

Forty-nine years ago last week eight persons met in Concord and formed an organization of the Unitarian faith. They builded better than they knew, for they laid the foundations of what is now one of the strongest and most influential of the Unitarian churches of the State. These earliest members were William A. Kent, Col. William Kent, Catharine Kent, Mary J. Kent, Moses G. Thomas, Polly Odlin, Major Timothy Chandler and Mrs. Ruth Bartlett. Of the number, three are now living—Col. William Kent, Rev. Mr. Thomas and wife, the latter formerly Mary J. Kent. All of the others lived to exceed threescore years and ten in age, and Mrs. Odlin reached nearly a century. Mrs. Bartlett was the mother of Richard Bartlett, and a daughter of Chaplain Samuel McClintock of Greenland, who offered a prayer on Bunker Hill on the morning of the battle.

Story of a Strike.

Once there was a mule. He had a pair of limber legs with heels at the end of them. Mule thought his master did not give him corn enough to eat, so, one day, as the boss was passing behind him, he lifted his heels and boosted him on the other side of the barn. This was what Mr. Mule called a strike. He thought he could get all the corn he wanted now. Presently he wanted water. He didn't get it though. He wanted more corn. He didn't get that. He went to bed that night without his supper. The next day he didn't have to work; he didn't have to eat either. He didn't have any company. All he had to do was to stand still and think. He could't think why that master of his did not come and feed him. The next day was the same, and the next. Before that mule had anything to eat again he had grown so gaunt and gentle that he was willing to keep his heels on the ground. The strike was ended.

Controversy among the first-class hotels of New York shows that the service is constantly changing from one first-class hotel to the other, and the bills of fare show the same variety of dishes. The important fact, to travellers, is that the Grand Central offers the same accommodations for one and two dollars per day less than the others.

—A nice young man attended a party in Berkshire the other evening, and becoming enamored with a female guest, pressed his suit with such persistency, that she dashed a dish of boiling water in his face. He then tried a suit at law with her, but the judge declared that she was justified in using the means, and now the nice young man has given her up as not worth suing or pursuing farther.

An Unblased Opinion.

From Comley's Biographical Encyclopædia of the distinguished men of the Empire State, we clip the following: "Every nation owes its peculiar character, its prosperity—in brief, everything that distinguishes it as an individual nation—to the few men belonging to it who have the courage to step beyond the boundaries prescribed by partisanship, professional traditions, or social customs. In professional, no less than in political life, there occasionally arise men who burst the fetters of conventionalism, indignantly rejecting the arbitrary limits imposed upon their activity, and step boldly forward into new fields of enterprise. We call these men self-made. The Nation claims them as her proudest ornaments—the men upon whom she can rely, in peace for her glory, in war for her succor. Of this class of men the medical profession has furnished a distinguished example in the successful and justly celebrated physician, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and any history treating of the industries of the Empire State would be incomplete without a sketch of his useful life and earnest work." Dr. Pierce is well known to our readers by his popular Family Remedies and his excellent manual of domestic medicine, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser."

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

The schooner Golden Gate arrived here from Boston on Friday, with a load of salt.

Mr. Richard H. Waldron, of this city, has been appointed storekeeper in the Boston custom house.

Sagamore Road, on Sunday and Monday, was reported as dangerous, and almost impassable for teams.

Boatswain Isaac T. Choate is detached from the receiving ship Franklin and ordered to the training ship Saratoga.

Schooner Mary S. Hontvet arrived here on Monday, having been gone a week. Her trip to the George's resulted in a catch of 40,000 lbs. of fish, which were sold in Portland.

The Boston Museum Company played Goldsmith's comedy of "She stoops to Conquer," at Manchester Saturday evening. It is said that this company is to play in this city before long.

The last prize dance of the season will be held at Mechanics' Hall this evening. The prizes are a beautiful and unique bouquet receiver and a gold pen and holder. Music by Harlow's Band. Tickets only fifty cents.

Eastern Railroad bonds continue to advance in the Boston market, selling on Saturday at the closing price of 64. Cocheco Manufactory Co. sold at 702 1-2, a decline; Great Falls at par; Boston & Maine stock at 101 3-4; Eastern at 7 1-4.

The republicans for a week past have had a room open in Frye's block, over what used to be the navy pay office, for meeting, comparing notes and laying out political work. The room is open every evening, and all republicans are invited to make use of it.

Mr. Thomas P. Cheney seems to have had some pretty sharp testimony to get over, presented to the House investigating committee on Saturday. Probably the special agent, and the ex-route agent from this city, had a fine opportunity for a "Connumeration" of old matters during the adjornment of the committee's session.

Solon Chase, of Auburn, Me., Chas. McLean of Boston, and Alec. Troupe, of New Haven, will be in attendance at the greenback convention in this city on the 6th, and will address the public at Franklin Hall in the evening. Hon. P. B. Holmes, ex-State senator of Massachusetts, is talked of as the greenback candidate for governor.

On Sunday evening next, in Music Hall, a grand vocal and instrumental concert will be given by Harlow's Orchestra, (nine pieces,) Miss Emma J. Flanders, the favorite soprano, and the New England Glee Club, the proceeds to be devoted to the poor of the city. Tickets twenty cents; gallery tickets ten cents; to be had at Preston's drug store, Buzzell's book store, and at the door. The hall will probably be filled to its full capacity, as it should be, for the concert will be an excellent one, aside from the worthy object for which it is to be given.

On Saturday, in the investigation of mail agent Thomas P. Cheney, Mr. William Conn of this city, formerly mail agent on the Concord railroad, testified that although he had repeatedly endeavored to have Mr. Cheney ride over his route with him, for the purpose of having him examine the car in which the mails were carried and to witness the many inconveniences under which he labored in performing the duties of the service, he had never succeeded in doing so, although Mr. Cheney was frequently present in Concord on political business. Mr. Smith, formerly postmaster at Meredith, and at that time a republican, but a democrat since he lost his office a few years ago, testified that he once bought a position as postmaster for a friend by contributing $250 for campaign purposes.

THE GREENBACKERS' PURPOSE.

The State Convention of this party will be held in this city on Wednesday, March 6th, at the Old Custom House Hall, and there each member of the party will be nominated for Governor or Railroad Commissioner, Senator or Representative. Like A. Ward's famous company, all will be brigadiers. After that, what? the deluge? Probably, for them. There are always people enough, who consider that their talents are not appreciated in their present condition, who are always reaching out after new things. They think themselves born leaders, when they lack every essential attribute of leadership and consequently are ready to join any new party which may possibly recognize their talents and reward them as they deserve. But each new attempt results in worse failure. The old foxes have an object in establishing new parties. They may at first tickle the new adherent with the mention of his name for some important office, but soon the aspirant finds that he is being used to draw some other man's chestnuts from the fire and he again becomes disgruntled and looks for a new party to receive him.

What is this greenback party? It is a democratic side show. The great circus with its gaudy carts drawn by war-horses, while the colts prance joyously, thinking themselves the circus, the stately elephants, the fierce beasts of the jungle and the amusing ancestors of the primitive race, all join in the endless procession toward the State House, but the managers of the greenback show, after extolling the beauty and goodness of their own exhibit, will be found on the inside of the great democratic tent when the show begins. No matter how strongly they talk greenbacks now, every democratic recruit of the paper army will be found a straight democratic camp follower on the second Tuesday of March. It would be perfectly safe to wager that the astute democratic secretary of the Independent Greenback Club will vote the straight democratic ticket on election day and will expend his energies in getting out republican greenbackers and procuring their votes against the republican ticket, as every vote thrown for the greenback cause will be.

The history of similar parties in this State would afford ample ground for predicting such action on the part of the democratic wing of the greenbackers, but there are other reasons for this conclusion. Ever since the foundation of the democratic party to the present time it has been a hard money party. In the days of the old Bank of the United States the democrats claimed that specie was the only constitutional currency, the bank was a "mammoth monopoly," a "chartered libertine," "a licensed fiscal tyrant," which amassed millions upon the poverty, misery and ruin of the people. Therefore against paper currency Andrew Jackson, Thomas H. Benton, Martin Van Buren, Silas Wright, Levi Woodbury and the other old "mint drops" warriors of democracy proclaimed war to the knife. Their slogan was "Separation of bank and State" and the adoption of an "independent treasury." Their struggle was successful, the bank was destroyed, specie payments were resumed, bank and State were separated. From that day to this the democrats as a party have been in favor of gold and silver and have always condemned paper, asserting that it was certain to depreciate greatly and bring with it all the mischiefs of a depreciated currency. The democratic promoters of the greenback party are not fools; they understand thoroughly the past position of their party in reference to this question. Then what means their adhesion to this new party. Is it because of change in belief? No. They still look upon Jackson as the ancient prophet of the faith. Their purpose is party advantage. They know that every vote drawn from republican ranks is a vote in their favor, whether given for Kendall or the greenback nominee. We have said nothing about the platform of the dem—we mean greenback party, because like birdtown it is built between heaven and earth and has no visible support from either. Perhaps a few improvements could be suggested, such as that a plank be added embodying Nasby's suggestion that two dollars in the hands of a poor man shall have a right to marry and raise large families, all dependent upon the credit of the people and to be as stable as government itself. It might perhaps be well to sanction polygamy amongst dollars; we leave that to the fertile brains of the greenbackers to work out, as they have elaborated the rest of their platform. And a timber decreeing that snow storms in July should be considered advantageous for the corn crop would add to the symmetry of their production. Therefore, judging by what has been, and having regard to the unbroken traditions of the democracy in the past, it is safe to offer a liberal reward for every "mint drops" democratic warrior who votes the greenback ticket on the 12th of March. And we hereby offer a chromo for any such.

OBSERVER.

THE LENTEN SEASON.

At twelve o'clock this (Tuesday) night, the season of festivity will terminate for a time; and Lent with its teachings of self-denial and restraint, begins. On Ash Wednesday special services will be held in the Episcopal and Roman Catholic churches, and thenceforward to Easter Sunday, April 21st, extra masses will be celebrated in the Catholic church, while certain rules as to fasting will be observed by all good Catholics.

THE VICINITY.

Mr. Allen C. Moulton has been appointed postmaster at York Corner, York county, Me.

J. C. Jordan, employed by W. F. Hall of Brookline, Mass., several years as a coachmen, shot himself dead at Grant's Hotel in Great Falls, Saturday, with a pistol. He was about fifty-eight years of age, and it is supposed discouraged for want of work and money.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, March 4th.

The checklist is posted, and has on it the names of three hundred and twenty-two voters, some twenty less than last year. Twenty-seven names have been omitted, and eight added; of those omitted five are dead, and the remainder have moved out of town, including the Poor delegation from that part of Rye formerly known as the town of Gosport. The Jeanesses occupy the most space on the list, there being thirty-one of them. Next come the Rands, with twenty-three names, after them Philbricks and Mardens, eighteen each, fifteen Browns, thirteen Garlands, sixteen Lockes, twelve Fosses, ten each of Odiornes, Seaveys and Trefethens, eight each of Walkers and Caswells, and nine Drakes. Of the whole number on the list about forty are seventy years of age and upwards; and our democratic friends probably claim a majority of from seventy-five to one hundred on the governor vote. Since the advent of the republican party, say about 1856, the average democratic majority at State elections has been ninety-two. The largest majority they have had during that time was in 1863, one hundred and forty-two; and the smallest in 1873, when it was only fifty. There are ten articles on the town warrant for the voters to act upon, and strange to say only one relates to roads; this one is for a new highway from Charles Garland's to the south school house. There is also an article "to see if the town will enforce the liquor and cider laws," which will give an opportunity for the recent agitators in Miller's Weekly to come forward and show themselves. And that reminds me that somebody has been brought to task by a correspondent of said Weekly for looking, as said correspondent claims, at the temperance question from "behind a bar" or "rum seller's standpoint." Such a charge, from such a source, is not going to alter in the least the minds of those who take facts for their guide; and if a little trouble had been taken by said correspondent to have ascertained the truth he would not have fallen into the error he did—that is, presuming that he is referring to matters and things of the present time, and not of those which took place eight or ten years ago. But look at the temperance (or rum) question in this town from any standpoint imaginable, and it must take a mind lost to all sense of decency and truth to assert "that there is not such another rum soaked town in Christendom as this." Such talk is not only absurd but scandalous; and while there has been nothing from this pen that can be tortured into a defence of rum drinking or rum-selling, it is rather more than human nature can bear, to let such falsehoods go on week after week without protesting against them. This is not a "rum-soaked town;" on the contrary, it is as thrifty a town as there is in the State, and there are less signs of poverty, less acts of violence and rowdyism, than will be found in other towns of the same size; and to assert the contrary, is only to expose one's ignorance or spite.

Hutchings & Plaisted, of Boston, have taken the contract to build an organ for the Congregational society, and will be ready to set it up about the first of May. Some alterations in the interior of the church will be necessary before the organ can be placed in position. The firm above named are considered reliable and skillful builders, and that they will give the society a fine instrument, there seems to be no reason to doubt.

Rev. Mr. Bowdish, pastor of the Christian church, returned from the West Saturday evening, and on Sunday service was held in his church for the first time since his absence, some three or four weeks.

W. S. Kusel, of the Cable staff, has severed his connection with that company, and left town for New York on Thursday. Mr. Wilmot, another member, also left the same day for England, where he takes a three months vacation. It is also reported that Mr. Quinn is soon to leave.

The Reform Club is to meet on Wednesday evening.

Democratic caucus at town Hall Saturday evening. With the exception of moderator, and perhaps town clerk, the last year's officers will probably be re-elected.

JOHN S. WHIDDEN,
Clerk of Board of Inspectors of Checklists.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—A prestidigitateur named Wanshawski had his arm and hand paralyzed in a recent railroad accident at Peterborough, England. The company tendered one shilling, but the jury awarded him £1500 damages, on the ground that paralysis of the hand virtually closed his profession to him.

—"Life insurance, I presume, sir?" courteously remarked one passenger on an outward-bound steamer to another as they met on deck. "Yes, sir—quarterly returns," replied the person thus addressed; "your face seems familiar—I must have met you at the ja—I mean there. In the same line of business, sir?" "No, sir," haughtily replied the other; "savings bank—$260,000—first cabin, sir," and he stalked over to the privileged side of the quarter deck.

—Commander Jose De Gama Machada, who recently died in Paris, was a great lover of birds. For their benefit he converted a corner of his apartment into a bath-room, where he had thirty baths, carefully tempered for the use of his feathered friends. He left to the Society for the Protection of Animals 20,000 francs, the interest of which is to pay the salary of a person who shall see that drivers do not ill-treat their horses, and he left his birds to the care of women to be selected from a certain province whose people are noted for their kind dispositions. A number of birds which had died, and which he had embalmed, were buried with him, being placed upon his breast.

—Like many others Captain Blank had been pecuniarily damaged by the chronic borrower who never dreams of repayment, so much so that he determined to shut down on that class of financial crickets. And when one of the above described persons rushed breathlessly into his presence lately where he was seated writing, and asked for the loan of $400 "for just twenty minutes," the Captain (slyly glancing at the clock meanwhile) detained him with conversation on several topics, and at length, rising abruptly, said with the utmost sang froid that he had been happy to accommodate his friend, as the twenty minutes had just expired, and, of course, the $400 was not now necessary. With a grimace worthy of Hogarth's pencil the Captain made for the door leaving the astonished would-be borrower in a state of utter bewilderment.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public almost forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, for it cures them, and gives a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their house for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The protection should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it on you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the living of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brash, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with Hyde's expressions; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is prized for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.
Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.
It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.
By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.
As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.
Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."
BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.
This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur
Liniments.
The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.
Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Fresh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.
J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,
There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Samuel Pitcher, M. D.
It is a vegetable preparation, and is effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Boyston, Indiana, says of it:
"SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.
The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.
J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and crippled horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitchers Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. otmay1

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inference cannot safely be drawn that the superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outstripped all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. The business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I hang up the "snuff" and "inhaling-tubes" makers (twelve dollars-grabbers) would be glad if they can discombobulate a similar cure in the papers. For 28 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell had to be gone, hearing impaired, one side shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and with it Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way effectually to reach the cavities. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second or in one hour or month, but in less than six months I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an invaluable remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches, pimples, or blows, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If your food does not digest, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Erysipelas and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leuchorrhea arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen.—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for four years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temples, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could not easily swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter running down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I second gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I took the inflammation and swelling out of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the hearing started in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following the last, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief until the commencement of the use of them. *

COLLINS'

VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, caller by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and plasters, as well as the so-called Pneumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and sore ness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any living. I consider them incomparable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

OSLAND, Me., April 3, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Electric with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

Enlightened New England.

In advocating before the Maine Senate, at its late session, a bill to compel the election of town officers able to read and write, a Senator made some astonishing statements. In the town of Frenchville, of 1851 inhabitants, a large and important town on the St. John river, all three of the selectmen of this year "signed their names with a cross" to the election returns. The town of Madawaska, with 1000 inhabitants, has this year two selectmen who "make their mark" instead of their signatures. Worse still, the plantation of Wallagrass sent its certificates of votes to the capital with the names of the three assessors and the plantation clerk signed "His X mark," and the chairman of this erudite board of assessors is also the superintending school committee! and the town treasurer, to be in the fashion, probably, signs his name in the same way as the "clerk" and school committee do theirs. The plantation of St. John has two assessors, Cry two, Eagle Lake two, and Van Buren one, none of whom can write their own names, or read them after they are written by somebody else. These towns are all largely peopled by French Canadians, and are all overwhelmingly democratic.

Ben. Wade and Robert Toombs.

While the Homestead bill was under discussion, Mr. Toombs referred to it with a sneer, as a measure for white paupers, when Mr. Wade immediately arose and said:

"Sir, you sneer at the Homestead bill because it gives land to the landless, do you? What is your pet scheme? Buying Cuba, stealing niggers for the niggerless. We will go to the country upon it. Land for the landless, against niggers for the niggerless. I am very glad that this question has at length come up. I am very glad, too, it has antagonized with this nigger question. I have been trying here for nearly a month to get a straightforward vote upon this great measure of land for the landless. I glory in that measure. It is the greatest that has ever come before the American Senate, and it has now come so that there is no dodging it. The question will be, 'Shall we give niggers to the niggerless, or land to the landless?'"

Wade one day replied to Toombs, and to all appearance used language which would compel Toombs to challenge him. Several of his friends went to Wade and begged him to desist, but the old man grew more and more violent, until Toombs indicated his intention of calling Wade to account for the language he was using, when Wade quietly sat down, seemingly having accomplished his object. The Southern men looked at each other in surprise, and it was manifest to all that Wade had deliberately sought a quarrel with Toombs. That night a friend of the Southern Senator called on Mr. Wade, to know if he would retract the offensive words he had used.

"No, I won't take back a work," was Wade's emphatic reply.

"That," said the friend of Mr. Toombs, "it will be necessary for Senator Toombs to challenge you to mortal combat."

"This is just what I want, and we might have got to the point without all this palaver," said Wade.

"You surely cannot be in earnest, Mr. Wade," said the Southerner.

"Why, of course I am. Now, I am opposed to the code, and so are my constituents; but you fellows have broke Sumner's head, and we must spunk up a little, or you will break all our heads. The shortest way to end the matter is to kill off a few of you, and I have picked upon old Toombs as my man; he will have to challenge me. Then, of course, I will have the choice of weapons, and I will take my old rifle, and — me if I don't bring him down at the first crack."

When Toombs heard of what Wade said, he replied: "I can't challenge him; if I do, he will kill me."

It appears that Toombs and Wade had been out together shooting with a rifle several times, and while Toombs could shoot well with a pistol, he was a poor rifle shot. Wade was an old hunter, and, at a distance of a hundred yards could hit a dollar every shot. Mr. Wade afterward said to the writer: "If old Toombs had challenged me that time, as I expected he would, I would have made him put a patch on his coat, the size of a dollar, over his heart, and the old fellow would have got demoralized when he saw me drawing a bead on it, and missed me, while —— me if I wouldn't have cut the patch!" Not only did Toombs refuse to challenge Wade, but no Southern member could ever be induced to send him a challenge, no matter what he might say.—Cor. Spirit of the Times.

Importance of the Election.

The importance of the election to be holden on Tuesday of next week, should not for a moment be lost sight of. It is not simply the control of the State government for the ensuing year that is involved, but practically for three years to come, inasmuch as it is conceded that the result of this election determines that of next November, when a Governor and Legislature, as well as members of Congress for the next two years, will be chosen. With all this at stake, and the choice of a United States Senator into the bargain, it is apparent that the coming election is indeed the most important ever holden in New Hampshire, and every republican should see to it that nothing in his power is left undone to secure the desired result.

Maine Elections.

At Rockland, Monday, the republicans elected a majority of the city councils, but there was no choice for mayor, the greenback candidate receiving 134 votes and the citizens' candidate 123. Moffitt, republican, had 562; Gregory, democrat, 449.

Lewiston is democratic as to the aldermen, five to two. For mayor—republican 1282, democratic 1179, greenback 123.

Auburn—for mayor, republican vote 544, greenback 448, citizens' 123, democratic 45.

Portland elected Moses H. Butler, last year's mayor, a republican, by a vote of 2516, to 2304 democratic and 140 greenback votes.

Oliver C. Clark was elected mayor of Saco by 27 majority; the councils are largely republican.

Bath elected the republican nominees, the mayor having 247 majority.

News and Notes.

The Governor General of Cuba has issued a proclamation virtually abolishing slavery in the island, and announcing that henceforth Cuba is to be allowed representation in the Spanish Cortes. It seems that even Spain can learn.

Saturday morning a terific tornado swept through the town of Rich Hill, Ky., destroying many buildings and other valuable property. Eight persons were killed and many others seriously injured.

The Providence Journal appeared on Saturday in a new dress. It is one of the best papers in the country, for news and able editorials.

Ten or fifteen thousand people participated in a demonstration at Pottstown, Pa., Saturday, in favor of protection and against he Wood tariff bill, and addresses were made by Governor Hartranft and others. Among the letters read was one from Senator Cameron. A memorial to Congress was adopted.

The "celebrated Chicago lawyer," Charles J. Guiteau, who advertised to answer Bob Ingersoll's essay on "Hell" in Providence on Thursday last, is alleged to have left town without settling his bills.

Michael Griffin, a policeman of South Boston, had a desperate fight with three burglars early Sunday morning. After firing three shots at them he was overpowered. Other officers coming to Griffin's assistance, the burglars made their escape. It is not known whether either of them was hit. Griffin was taken to the station in an insensible condition. His head was terribly beaten, his own club having been used on him. His condition is very precarious.

Pope Pius IX. had a theory of his own about the creeds and religious art of different countries. "People in raw and gloomy climates," he said, "live in the fear of the devil, but inhabitants of more favored lands live in the love of God."

S. S. Cox, who has made a special study of the needs of the Life Saving Service, has prepared a bill to equip the coast with a larger number of stations, to pay the keepers better, and improve the present system generally.

Trenton, N. J., has a fresh excitement. In one of the churches of that city a week ago a married lady interrupted the pastor in his sermon and informed him that he was a "liar." She forced her way into church last Sunday despite the efforts of a marshal, and next Sunday another scene is promised.

Mr. Wm. H. Sears of Plymouth, Mass., who claims that by a long series of observations he has been able to form a system of weather predictions, forestalls for the present month a prevalence of easterly winds and boisterous weather.

The man and woman run over and killed in Cambridge, Mass., Monday, were Josiah Wheeler and his wife. It is believed to be a case of suicide.

Kate Claxton, the actress, who was recently divorced from her husband, Dore Lyon, was married in New York on Monday to Charles Stevenson, an actor.

John B. Tytus has been ordered to pay a Miss Dickey $6,000 for seduction and breach of promise of marriage, at Cincinnati. Miss Dickey is four years older than Tytus; both are of unusually fine appearance. Tytus is wealthy, and has a wife. Miss Dickey has a child three years old. Mrs. Tytus threatens to leave her husband; and duels, and other law suits, are threatened as likely to grow out of the affair.

The last two months thousands of men out of employ have made application to the New York office to join the cavalry service. Only a few are taken, and a man to be successful in passing the doctor's examination must be over twenty-one and under thirty-five years of age, not less than five feet three inches in height, and weighing between 120 and 175 pounds. No men addicted to drink are taken. The recruits are sent to the West in squads of fifty.

It is a sad fact that Mrs. Abraham Lincoln is living a secluded life in an interior town in France, and declines to return to America lest she may again be placed in a lunatic asylum.

A whole Catholic congregation in Williamsburg, N. Y., Sunday, took the following oath, repeating it after a Jesuit missionary, "I do solemnly promise and swear to live and die in the Roman Catholic faith. I do solemnly promise and swear before Almighty God to shed the last drop of my heart's blood before I will give up any article of faith of the Holy Roman Catholic Church, so help me God."

Chief of Police Breen of Virginia City, Nevada, has been held in $4000 for liberating a Chinese murderer and permitting the substituting of another man. The real murderer has been captured and fully identified.

In New Haven, Monday, Edward McGreeny was arrested for causing the death of his son, two years old, by unmercifully whipping him.

Iron, the great English engineering and mining journal, says: "In deference to a prejudice peculiarly English it has always been assumed in the navy that any scientific person must necessarily be the social inferior of the comparatively ignorant fighting officer. In the old time when what is called seamanship was an important part of marine education, there might have been a slender ground for this prejudice; but now that fighting ships are iron-clads driven by steam, and practically in charge of highly-educated engineers, who have gone through a thorough course of scientific training, it is absurd to deny them their proper rating, and a gross outrage to compel all but the chief engineer to mess at a table of their own, as if they were unworthy to eat in the presence of their supposed social superiors."

New Hampshire Items.

Hon. Charles Holman, President of the New Hampshire Senate, is seriously ill.

The Colly block at Plymouth, occupied by Weeks & Mason, and others, was burned with its contents on Tuesday. Insurance, $17,800; loss probably $30,000. Incendiary.

Rev. Henry Powers, of the Unitarian church at Manchester, has established a religious kindergarten in connection with his Sunday morning service, which will be held in the vestry of the church at the same hour with the regular service in the auditorium. By this plan members of the society who have hitherto been obliged to remain at home in order to take care of their children will now be enabled to attend church.

The oldest minister that has ever lived in New Hampshire was Rev. Laban Ainsworth, who was settled in Jaffrey in 1782, and died March 26, 1858, aged 101 years, seven months and twenty-eight days.

Auburn Taylor, aged eighteen years, left his home in Danville on the 28th ult. to go to a Gospel meeting, since which time nothing is known of him.

According to the report of the Concord City Treasurer, just issued, the receipts for the last fiscal year were $266,006.03, and expenses $263,848.98. The receipts of the water works were $28,050.88, and expenditures, $27,108.33. The City Marshal's report shows that the number of arrests during the year was 917.

Roland J. Avery of Hanover, an employe of the Passumpsic Railroad, has brought suit for $10,000 against the company for injuries received three years ago. A brake chain parted, throwing him across the rail. Two wheels of a flat car passed over his body. He claims the chain was defective and that the company is thereby liable.

Badly Put Out.

If "envy, hatred, malice and all uncharitableness," with an equal infusion of "the gall of bitterness," were ever centred in one individual, they have been for the last elen years in Dana of the New York Sun. When Gen. Grant was first a candidate for the Presidency, he went as far if not farther than the farthest in extolling him for the position, and expressing the fullest confidence that if elected he would do as well at the head of the nation in a time of peace, as he had done at the head of the army when the nation was in peril in a time of war. No sooner, however, had Gen. Grant taken his seat as President, than, for the sole reason that he did not get the position he wanted as Collector of New York, he turned upon him with a rancor that never before was equalled in the whole history of American politics. Not only was this intense bitterness of feeling kept up daily in the editorial columns of the journal with which he was and is associated, but in four or five other paragraphs of the same sheet, —all indicating a depth of meanness that could be equalled by none else than their author. No better parallel could be presented than that of a mangy cur barking at the moon, or the old fable of the venomous serpent gnawing a file. It might be imagined that he would run out of ammunition in a one-sided contest of such long continuance, but for the seemingly apparent fact that his magazine of that sort of material was inexhaustible as the vocabulary of a Billingsgate fish-woman. His crowning achievement, as the object of his spleen approached the close of his administration, was the effort he made to find words to express the contempt into which he predicted he would sink when that time came, not only in the estimation of the American nation, but of the world at large! So long accustomed has he been to abuse the chief magistrate, whoever he is for the time being, he has turned his stream of vituperation upon Gen. Hayes since he went into office, going to show that it is with him a continual disease. When the evil spirit took possession of King Saul, David was sent for with his harp to charm it away. It would take a dozen Davids with their harps to charm away so malignant a spirit as that which has so long possessed the unfortunate being who forms the subject of this sketch. B.

POSITIVE RESULTS. There are numerous remedies that cure sometimes and become trusted as useful, but none have ever proved so effectual—cured so many and such remarkable cases—as Dr. Ayer's medicines.

The Cherry Pectoral has restored great numbers of patients who were believed to be hopelessly affected with consumption.

Ague Cure breaks up chills and fever quickly and surely.

Ayer's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla eradicates scrofula and impurities of the blood, cleanses the system and restores it to vigorous health. By its timely use many troublesome disorders that cause a decline of health are expelled or cured.

Ayer's Pills and their effects are too well known everywhere to require any commendation from us here—Scranton (Pa.) Times.

WHEN THE WHEEL OF FORTUNE goes round without any preference being shown or any fraud committed, most people are satisfied, but not always. In a Western paper we note the plaintive growl of a lady correspondent, who says she sent to M. A. DARTHUS, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, two dollars for a ticket in the celebrated Louisiana State Lottery, and did not receive more than five hundred dollars; while the capital prize of thirty thousand dollars was sent to some boy in San Antonio, Texas. But then some people are always unreasonable.

Sharp competition is the order of the day, among the first-class hotels in New York. With one or two exceptions, they are trying to keep their old trade while adhering to their previous high rates. The Grand Central has reaped much benefit from this, by quietly "cutting" the rates from one to two dollars per day.

Don't pay 50 cts. and $1.00, when you can buy an article like Adamson's Botanic Balsam for 25 cts. It cures Coughs, Colds, and all Pulmonary Complaints. 25 and 75 cts. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.

Reflect that in every cemetery one-half of the silent tenants are the victims of neglected Coughs and Colds; and if you are thus afflicted, avoid their fate by resorting at once to Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, an immediate, agreeable, and certain means of cure. Sold by all Druggists.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. THE CITY.

Ship Gov. Goodwin, Lester, from Philadelphia arrived at San Francisco March 2nd.

Major David Urch, of this city, will address the Rye Reform Club in the town hall at Rye this evening.

At a regular meeting of the Greenback Club, Monday evening, Mr. Elisha Tripp resigned his position as President of the club, and Mr. Charles H. Joy was elected in his place.

Schooner Reporter, from Gloucester, arrived here on Saturday to fit out for the Western Banks. On coming up the river she passed inside of the beacon, striking the ledge, but slid off without injury.

The lecture by Rev. Mr. Goss, under the auspices of the Young People's Association of the Christian church, postponed from last week, will be given this evening in the church on Court street. Subject, "Wit and Humor."

The greenbackers hold their State convention in the old custom house in this city to-day. This evening they have a public meeting in Franklin Hall, with prominent advocates of "absolute money" from other cities as speakers.

In connection with the Children's Home, a day nursery is speedily to open, where parents, on the payment of a small sum daily, can leave their children in the morning on their way to work, and receive them again in the evening.

Sch. Mary S. Hontvet sailed Tuesday on her second trip to the Georges'. She cleared five hundred dollars on her first trip. The arrivals of fish have been light this week. Randall & Caswell have received 35,000 lbs. Shore boats are averaging 2500 lbs. each.

Rev. H. L. Kelsey, who resigned the pastorate of the Congregational church in Hollis a few Sundays since, has received and accepted a call to the Congregational church in Brockton, Mass. Mr. Kelsey was formerly of the New Hampshire Methodist Conference, and for several years pastor of the Methodist church in this city.

The ball of the Veteran Artillery Association at Congress Hall, Monday evening, was not attended by a large crowd, the weather of Feb. 22d (the date first set for the ball) having thrown cold water on the Terpsichorean ardor of many of the old fellows who would have attended could the ball have come off at the time first fixed upon; but all who were present had a jolly good time.

The third lecture of the Methodist church course will be given this evening in the church by Rev. C. M. Dinsmore; subject, "Success and its conditions." Mr. Dinsmore was for three years pastor of this church, and won a host of friends. We doubt not he will be greeted with a full house. In keeping with his characteristic generosity Mr. Dinsmore offers a neat volume, full of valuable instruction, to each one who attends the lecture. Admission twenty cents. Praise service at quarter past seven, lecture at quarter of eight o'clock.

NEWCASTLE ELECTION.

The republicans of Newcastle on Tuesday made a clean sweep of everything, from moderator to town constable, the "citizens'" movement inaugurated by the democrats to help them out not amounting to much. The Times had a despatch by its "tow-string telegraph," Tuesday, announcing that "The citizens' candidates are elected in nearly every instance." It was sent by the same operator who recently notified the Times of the passage, by "the republican city committee" of Portsmouth, of a resolution empowering three members of the committee (which doesn't exist) to "make the nominations for all the wards." The republican majority was sixty-two.

THE GREENBACKERS' VIEW.

Mr. Editor: In your famous wrestling match with the Declaration of Principles of the Independent Greenback Club, you seem to think that you gained some advantage at the first few rounds, but you admit that you were finally yanked clear out of your boots. Now in the first place you took an upper hold, which is always fatal unless you are the strongest, and consequently had to dance around on your toes from the commencement; and when you came to realize the elephantine proportions of the demands therein set forth, you gave up in despair, and closed the contest with voluble disparagement. Now to aid your benighted vision I will give you the benefit of the light that is within me, although I do not assume that I am capable of clearing your mental vision from the standpoint upon which you view the only living issue before the American people—our National finances.

I promptly admit that I am unable to conceive wherein the National banks were any benefit to the country "in its hour of dire need," unless they were given their circulating notes as a bounty for their aid to the government in the war with the South. If that was the case they should have been paid in greenbacks, just as the other bounty-jumpers and the soldiers were paid.

As to our desire to punish those men who loaned their money to the nation on its promise to pay them coin, I will say that all the money loaned to the government previous to the resumption act was greenbacks and that it was all loaned previous to 1866, for which they received bonds, the interest on which was to be paid in coin. In 1870 those who held the bonds demanded that a law should be made that the bonds themselves should be paid in coin, and to strengthen that law they had another enacted that they might exchange their bonds for new ones bearing upon their face the word that they should be paid in coin. Subsequently, in 1873, they had another law enacted that silver should no longer be coined for that purpose, but that the government might issue more bonds to buy silver for fractional coin for use among the masses. In consequence of those and other burdens heaped upon the people, they rallied in a great tidal wave that swept over the country in 1874, and sought the aid of the great democratic party in lifting from their backs the burdens heaped upon them; seeing that power over the people was going from them, their last move was the resumption act. The people, now aroused and exasperated, at the earliest opportunity met in conventions in Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, and declared that the resumption act should be repealed and that the greenback, by which they were able to meet their taxation and do their business with each other, should be restored. "Old Bill Allen" was their chosen champion, and all promised well for a complete rout of the enemy; but at once treason broke out in the camp. The great democratic party, to which they had looked for aid, was an enemy in disguise. One "Sammy Tilden" was trotted out by them as their general to run the campaign in New York, with the promise that if he would aid in defeating "Old Bill," he should be made generalissimo in 1876. With his aid, the National banks, bondholders and government patronage, Allen was forced to retreat, although his army in Ohio was 45,000 more than any democratic leader ever had in the State, bone and muscle being their only sinews of war. The results of that campaign were that the republican party became the especial champion of the hard-monied aristocracy, a large percentage of whom are members of the democratic party; and the democratic party being too cowardly to take issue upon that point, were defeated in their attempt to get control of the government in 1876—and to-day they would be in a hopeless minority in both Houses in Congress but for the greenback element therein, which is now largely absorbing the independent men in both parties.

The question of finances is now before the people for the first time, and they are fully competent to adjust the volume of money, and to say what shall constitute money; and I have faith to believe that they will establish a stable paper money, that shall be absolute money,—not a promise to pay, which is not and cannot be money. A simple declaration, "One Dollar," having the sanction of law, as on coin, is money; every man who holds one of them will guard its purchasing power; it will be protected by the strong hand of the law; it will pay thousands of millions of debts that cannot be paid without it, and hundreds of millions of taxes annually. It will lighten the burthens of the people and start the wheels of industry. But you say that a simple declaration is worthless, whereas a promise to pay has value. The bonds are promises to pay; about one person in a thousand holds bonds; if by reason of great depression and general bankruptcy, the people are unable to meet their obligations, they may in some unfortunate moment repudiate the whole debt; I have grave fears of such a catastrophe; the people are mighty, and the ballot will not always be controlled by money. With the whole debt, or half of it, in paper money, every person will have an interest in preserving it; it will have cost him labor, or his productions, before he can get it. But why need it be redeemable, any more than coin? It redeems itself every time it pays a debt or buys an article. If it ever becomes damaged it may be exchanged for a new one; if lost or destroyed, only the holder at the time loses. A gold dollar is about as useful as a gold yardstick; gold is too expensive to use as money; for sixteen years not one man in a thousand has had any use for the stuff; and a debt-ridden people like us, who have property and love honor, should use money that has no intrinsic value—but money that they will give their labor or property for, a money in which they can pay their taxes, the country's revenue, their war expenses—if unfortunately such a calamity should visit us.

Right here let us suppose that a war should break out, with no money but gold or silver. History shows us that it would soon disappear, then our Government would have to resort to more bonds, thereby increasing burdens already too great; but, should we have a thousand millions of a full legal tender paper money in circulation, all the money required could be drawn from the people in taxes and returned to them in payment of armies and supplies; business could be conducted with a little stringency in money at times, but no interest-bearing bonds would be required,—the vulture now gnawing at our vitals. Do you doubt? Look back. From 1865 to 1869 we were reducing the debt on an average of $100,000,000 per annum by taxation, besides paying enormous interest on bonds, with a circulating medium of $1,600,000,000; all this without oppression. But with the circulating medium reduced two-thirds and the bonded debt increased fifty per cent., our taxation is getting too grievous to be borne.

Lastly, what is money that we should make issue upon it? It is simply a token that you have given some valuable consideration for it, and it is of no value till you receive some valuable consideration, and so on; it performs the functions of settlement of debt and exchange of values. A bar of gold or silver cannot do that, except by mutual assent; it is simply merchandize. But a hundred pieces of nickel, worth twenty cents, but bearing the impress "one cent" on each, are one dollar, good and honest money.

With a full legal paper money, fixed by the demands of the people, from whom there is no appeal, at such a limit per capita as in their judgment is required for the business of the country, I predict general prosperity will be restored; no more bonds will be required; no more money panics can overtake us; every man can obtain money for valuable consideration, be it labor, services, the productions of his hands, or his investments. Government will provide means to bring it into circulation in a proper manner, in payment of its obligations. Who are the real opponents of such money? The man who hopes the time will come when his almighty gold dollar will buy a farm, shavers of private notes, banks of issue and bullion brokers; and a few people who have just so many dollars coming to them annually would like for their purchasing power to reach as far as possible.

Our government alone is responsible for the present distress, want and bankruptcy that has overtaken the people. It took possession of the business of this country by establishing it upon a greenback basis; not an inflated basis, as many thoughtless people assert—a basis of wild cat shinplaster specie basis five-for-one paper currency—but upon a legal tender lawful money, of an increased volume created to meet its own requirements. Upon such a basis we entered upon a season of prosperity such as we had never before experienced; the amount of wealth produced out of the bowels of the earth, and upon its surface by the aid of that circulating medium, is astounding. Railroads, manufacturing, machinery, coal, iron, stores, houses, farms improved, new ones cleared up where before was a wilderness, mechanics and laborers employed in contentment and independence, not as now, grovelling slaves to want. Many, elated by their prosperity gave temporary liens upon their possessions with the full assurance that in a little while their receipts for their toils and ventures would give them means to raise their encumbrance. There the government should have stood, but in an evil hour a few monied men, finding that the people were getting too independent for them, and to more effectually control the government and the people, resolved that the money of the government should be only gold and silver. Hence the contraction and depression that has followed.

But I have trespassed too long on your indulgence, to continue further this subject; and will close by saying if any one questions my democracy I will refer him definitely to the great apostles of democracy, Jefferson, Madison, Jackson and Calhoun; and if that does not suffice the modern type—will Vox Populi?

THE VICINITY.

The President on Monday nominated Mr. George F. Weston for postmaster at Exeter.

Father Lunnen, assistant priest at the Catholic church in Dover, died at Little Harbor Monday morning of dropsy. He was about thirty years old.

The trial of John Q. Pinkham for the murder of Mrs. Berry at New Durham on the 9th of January last, commenced in Dover on Tuesday, before Judges Foster and Smith.

The John B. Tytus who has recently been heavily assessed by a Cincinnati jury for dishonorable conduct toward a Miss Dickey, was some years ago a pupil at Phillips Academy at Exeter; and letters to the young lady, then twenty years old, written from Exeter by young Tytus, then only sixteen, were put in evidence on the trial.

CAPE NEDDICK LETTER.

CAPE NEDDICK, ME., March 3d.

A. H. Talpey's little daughter, about five years old, while playing with a boy some older than herself, Wednesday afternoon, had two of her fingers cut off, and the third cut very badly. The wound was dressed by Dr. J. J. Hazen.

Mrs. Stephen Stover kindly opened her house to the ladies and gentlemen of Cape Neddick last Monday evening, for an oyster supper. The gentlemen invited the ladies, and about sixty persons were present. The oysters were prepared by Mrs. Emma Stover, whose ability for making stews can not be excelled. The entertainment was satisfactory to all present, and can be correctly termed a good time.

Mr. A. H. Bowden is preparing to erect a new barn in the place of the one that was recently burnt, though not in the same place.

CAUTION.

The great popularity of "ASTRAL" OIL has induced some unprincipled persons to sell worthless and dangerous imitations for "ASTRAL," while others palm off inferior oils, representing them as good as "ASTRAL." To prevent this fraud, purchasers should demand "ASTRAL" and take no other.

Portsmouth Chronicle

The Portsmouth Man Wins.

The speculation which has been going on for some time past as to the result of the annual election of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, which occurs March 27, may now be set at rest, by the announcement that the difficulties between the two contending parties have been amicably settled, and that the probabilities are that there will be no change either in the directory or the management for the present. As is well known, there has been a misunderstanding for some time past between Mr. Robert Harris, president, and C. E. Perkins, vice president, and a fight for supremacy has been waged. Each of the gentlemen was backed by a powerful party, and it was believed that the matter would come to a head at the next annual meeting, and one or the other of the two men would have to give way. This fight has now been amicably settled between the two contesting parties, and Mr. Harris will be re-elected president and Mr. C. E. Perkins vice president. At a late meeting of the board of directors, where the matter was settled, the executive and finance committee, consisting of Messrs. J. N. A. Griswold, John M. Forbes, Sidney Bartlett, Charles J. Paine and Robert Harris, was authorized to ask proxies from the stockholders for the re-election of the old board. It is understood, however, that Mr. Perkins will retire from the active management of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad in Nebraska, while a new man is to be appointed general superintendent or traffic-manager, who, together with Mr. Harris, will control the business of the road. Who this new man will be has not yet been decided, but it is very likely that Mr. C. W. Smith, the present general freight agent of the road, will probably be the man, as a better one could not well be found to fill the responsible position. It is a good thing for the road that the difficulties regarding its management have been thus amicably arranged, for it would certainly have been disastrous to the interests of the line if Mr. Robert Harris, who has been identified with it for many years, and to whose skillful management is principally due its great prosperity, had been allowed to transfer his skill and ability to other fields.—Chicago Tribune.

—A Chicago man, visiting in Pittsburg, was crossing a lonely bridge, when a well dressed lady met him, knocked him down, and took from his pockets every cent. He was frightened nearly to death, made complaint, and had the woman arrested. It transpired that she was his wife, and knew that he could not go to Pittsburg without getting drunk and wasting his substance.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closest for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the fading of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and healthy. Under which conditions diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or elegant.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Fresh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are astonishing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of fresh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experience by the celebrated Samuel Pitcher, M.D.

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

"Sirs.—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasant to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are no kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the strongyr kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. In proof of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (more dollars-and-cents minded) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff"—dust, "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, dull and hearing impaired, body languid and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and used it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, I was cured, cure me in three-fourths of a second near in one hour or mouth, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months was cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors, Ulcers or Old Sores, Salt-Rheum; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption, Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Bilious cases. Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and a gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from torpid liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leuchorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

Construction AND Equipment OF THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in according with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS, JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM, THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH, AND THE WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temples, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before I was able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head, had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—A deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I recovered gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon cured the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the roaring noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or permanent benefit from any of them.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very painful side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the usual medicinal cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended me to try one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any living. I consider them inestimable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

PORTLAND, Me., April 23, 1870.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Hoarseness, Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases in these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Permeability of Building Materials.

A series of experiments has been making in Paris by Professor Marcker and Dr. Berthold to determine what substances used in building are permeable by gases and vapors. It was found that bricks, sandstone, shelly tufa, mortar, and cement permit vapors to pass freely through them if they are not kept under water. Substances absolutely impermeable are granite, porphyry, slate, alabaster, limestone, and marble. One conclusion to be drawn from this is that houses built in places where dangerous gases exhale from the ground are not made absolutely safe from this danger by cementing the cellar-floors, or laying them with brick or tile, though of course these precautions do something to make the building a more sanitary dwelling. Whitewashing a wall does not make it less viable to noxious gases; but two coats of oil-paint will make it practically impermeable. Thin paper-hangings reduce the permeability of mortar seventeen per cent., and thick glazed paper forty per cent. More attention should be paid to making the walls and floors of cellars impermeable by gases, especially where a sewer passes beneath; for, as shown by these experiments, the bricks of which the sewer is built offer but little resistance to the passage of sewer gas, which in the winter time, at least, will be drawn up into a heated house more readily than it can work up through cold or frozen earth.—Boston Journal of Chemistry.

—Out in Kansas City on a recent Sunday they had a brief sensation. A well-dressed lady at the post-office hurriedly approached a gentleman, presented a pistol close to his head, and exclaimed, "Follow me." The gentleman calmly surveyed the lady, bowed, and offered her his arm. They passed up the street, followed by several persons who had witnessed the scene.

—Townsend Harris, who recently died at New York, was called "the tycoon," as he was United States Minister to Japan in 1858, and for some years afterwards. He was a great reader and a great traveller, and once slept with a cannibal chief whose hut was adorned with the skulls of men he had eaten, and during the conversation that took place before the two went to sleep the cannibal chief gave his guest a "point" by telling him what part of the body made the most delicious food, and advised him to always choose that part when he sat down to a feast among cannibals. Harris was a bachelor. He lived a life of ease, and founded the Free Academy of New York, which has since been changed to the "College of the City of New York." He spoke several languages, and was altogether a capital society man, and much liked.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

For all the Purposes of a Family Physic,

CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole living. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skilful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take, and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

The Life-Saving Service.

AUBURN, ME., March 5th, 1878.

Mr. Editor: There is now, and has been, considerable excitement among those belonging to the United States Life Saving Service, caused by the bill introduced into the Senate Feb. 19th, 1878, proposing to transfer the control of the L. S. Service from the Treasury to the Navy Department, and the proposed change has met with the approval of many citizens of the country, as they say it will give employment to navy officers; and many have not hesitated to blame Mr. S. I. Kimball, General Superintendent of the Life Saving Service, for what they call the "inefficiency of the service."

Now what was the condition of the service when Mr. Kimball took charge of it? There were a few houses on the coast, imperfectly built, and worse provided with means for saving life; a few boats, not always in the best of repair; no regular crews of surfmen, and everything at loose ends generally. Mr. Kimball, with the aid of Capts. J. H. Merryman, John Faunce, and (I think) Capt. McGowan, of the Revenue Marine Service, went to work, travelling all over the coast to see for themselves what they had got to do, and found that they had got to begin at the very foundation. They did so, putting old houses into the best possible shape, building new houses where needed, furnishing complete new outfits in most cases, using their best endeavors to have everything in the best possible shape, so far as they had authority from Congress through the Secretary of the Treasury. The regulations of the service, drawn up by Mr. Kimball, are very strict, requiring the best possible men living nearest to the stations for surfmen, and the best men to be found for the keepers. There is no man allowed to be employed for any political work he may have done, although in some cases, no doubt, men have been rewarded for such service by a berth at one of the stations; but wherever such cases have been known to exist, the Department has invariably used its influence against any such course, the object being to get the best men without reference to any political party. In many cases, men poorly qualified for surfmen have been taken into the service, but so soon as Mr. Kimball has found it out they have been promptly discharged, and other and better men employed. Not only the surfmen, but the keepers, have been weeded out, and every endeavor made to obtain men in every way suited for the positions at the stations; and there is, each season, a board of examiners, consisting of revenue marine officers and a surgeon from the Marine Hospital, who visit each and every house in each district, to examine the men employed both as to their knowledge of boats and boating, and their physical condition; and wherever a man is found incompetent from any cause, he is promptly discharged and his place filled with the best man to be found; consequently keeping a body of men in the service, who, as far as human foresight can go, are the men needed for this, at times, extremely hazardous service. Every appliance for saving life, that has been proven to be of use to the service, Mr. Kimball has used his best endeavors to have adopted; and to-day, through his energy and care for the service, it stands before the world as the best service in existence.

Now why should those who know nothing of the workings of the service, and who know less of what Mr. Kimball has done and is doing for its advancement, be so ready to blame him for what neither he nor any other man on earth can control? Inefficient men will creep into every service; the best laid plans sometimes go wrong; and because some accident happens that no man can control, why be so ready to condemn? Until the "Huron" was so carelessly lost, nothing was said; and then there was a hue and cry that the "Life Saving Service was defective," and Mr. Kimball was to blame for it. My impression is, that had the "Huron's" officers been careful and competent men, she would have been alive to-day; but she was wrecked; that, too, remote from any life saving station; and when assistance did arrive, it was too late for any actual good. The wreck of the "Metropolis," too, called for some comments from a class of men who, as a rule, would not know whether a boat went bow first or stern first—another cry that the service was all wrong, and Mr. Kimball was to blame! How was he to blame? The Secretary of the Treasury (under whose orders Mr. Kimball works) had asked repeatedly for means to establish and equip more houses; but the cry of "Honesty and Reform" had gone forth, and Mr. Secretary did not get the money to work with; consequently houses which ought to have been built long ago are not built to-day. And because the ship "Metropolis" was wrecked where the stations were seven miles from her, each way, and where it would take men belonging to the stations from three hours to a day to get their apparatus to her, over a loose sand beach, the service is blamed; and now, instead of using their influence to have money appropriated to strengthen the hands of the Secretary of the Treasury, so that Mr. Kimball can carry out the needed changes for the betterment of the service, they have amused themselves drawing up the bill transferring the service from the control of those officers who have studied its wants and used their best endeavors for years to perfect it, into the hands of the Navy Department, which has neither men or officers qualified from any knowledge (other than what they have read) suited to the work of the L. S. Service.

About 1837 the President was authorized to have naval vessels cruise along shore, to help those who might be in need. This cruising was followed but a short time, when it was given up, as the naval officers and ships were not competent for the service; and of late years the revenue cutters have had the work to do, and have done it well, saving hundreds of lives, many vessels, and consequently much valuable merchandise. And upon the re-organization of the L. S. Service in 1870, it was thought (and naturally, too) that revenue officers were the men best fitted by practical knowledge and experience, to have charge of a service which was intended to be, and is, strictly coast work; and as the Revenue Marine, Coast Survey, Light House Board and Steam Boat Inspection, were under the control of the Treasury, there was no word said against the work of the L. S. Service being under the revenue officers. Mr. Cox (of New York) says the offer was made to the navy that officers in the navy could have charge of the service, but must work under Treasury Department orders, and that they refused, "because they were naval gentlemen." If they refused to take charge when the service was in its infancy, the more shame for them to want to take charge now that the service has, under the revenue marine, grown to be a credit to our own country, and to the whole civilized world.

The Cheney Investigation.

The case for the prosecution in the Cheney investigating case closed on the 5th inst. with the evidence of Postmaster Sperry, of New Haven, who testified that the postal service of New England is in a bad condition, through Mr. Cheney leaving his duties as General Superintendent of the New England Division to be performed by his subordinates; Mr. Sperry, while claiming to have full and particular knowledge of the affairs of the postal service all over New England, was so ignorant about the affairs of his own office that he could not tell how many clerks he employed, or give the amount of receipts at his office. Mr. Sperry is still a government official, but nearly every other witness against Cheney has been a discharged official, some of whom have been ardent democrats ever since they lost office, and not a few of whom on cross-examination acknowledged their utter ignorance of Mr. Cheney's official methods.

For the defence, Mr. Thomas N. Vail, General Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, testified that no charges had ever been made against Mr. Cheney in his official capacity, other than anonymous attacks in newspapers, which of course were unnoticed. He testified that the railway postal service in New England was well conducted, and that he considered Cheney an efficient and diligent officer. During Mr. Vail's cross-examination, it was declared by the chairman of the committee that this investigation was not so much directed against Cheney as to get at the inside facts respecting the management of the department; they intended to explore it to the bottom. A republican said that thus far the case seemed to have been conducted with quite another purpose.

Mr. Charles Field, Special Agent of the Post Office Department for New England, testified that he often met Mr. Cheney travelling on various routes, and that his duties were well discharged.

J. E. Larkin, Postmaster at Concord, James F. Briggs, of Manchester, and Postmaster E. G. Peirce, Jr., of Portsmouth, all testified without qualification to Mr. Cheney's efficient performance of his official duties.

On Wednesday J. C. V. Bailey, Supt. 3d Div. Railway Mail Service, Special Agent Field, and Eli Bidwell, postmaster at Norwich, Conn., testified to the efficiency of Mr. Cheney. Col. Henry W. Blair, member of Congress from the 3d District took the stand, and the democratic campaign committee abandoned the charges as to superfluous New Hampshire mail agents, just as Mr. Blair was about to testify to the usefulness of all there are. Mr. Blair testified as to Cheney's very serious illness during the summer he was absent so much. Cheney was threatened with hereditary cerebral disease. The Department reappointed him when he began to mend, the officials stating that it would be cruel then to decline to reappoint a faithful servant under such circumstances. Anybody who tells the truth knows that Cheney's physical disability was occasioned by great efforts in the service.

The Clipped Dollar.

The new silver dollar will be two per cent. lighter than the trade dollar and so nearly the same size as not to be distinguished from it, either by size or weight. The obverse has a fine head of Liberty, with the liberty cap and a wreath of wheat and cotton leaf, with full flowing hair falling low on the neck. The inscription over the head, "Liberty," and the fullness of the cap, is new. The motto, "E Pluribus Unum," is over the head, with thirteen stars completing the circle. The motto is pointed off with periods in the centre of the line. The date appears under the head. The head is large, the sprays of wheat extending into the motto. On the reverse is a displayed eagle with tips extending out to the milling. It is not the sitting eagle with extended wings familiar to those who see halves and quarters, but a plumed eagle ready for flight, a saucy bird. An olive branch is held in the right talons, and arrows in the left. There is a semi-circular laurel wreath under this; over the head the motto, "In God we trust," in German text. Above this, "United States of America," and below, "One Dollar," with stars pointing off the title and the denomination.

A Wedding and a Murder.

Two years ago Miss Ada McClay, a young lady of twenty, beautiful and accomplished, was one of the leading belles at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. She belonged in Clay county, N. C., and was the daughter of a wealthy farmer and politician, the late Hon. Richard McClay. Miss McClay at the Springs met Mr. William P. Shelburne, of New Orleans, and the couple became betrothed, Mr. Shelburne rarely seeing his intended bride afterward, though a constant correspondence was kept up. The wedding day was set for March 1st, and a few days previously Mr. Shelburne arrived from New Orleans. The marriage took place at the time appointed, and the husband then discovered indisputable evidence that the woman he had worshipped as the incarnation of purity was unworthy his love. In his frenzy he threatened to kill her, but spared her life on condition that she betrayed her betrayer, which she finally did, acknowledging that Simpson Forrester, a young man of twenty-two years of age and a recent graduate of a Virginia college, whose father's estate adjoins the McClay property, had effected her ruin five months previously, and that she had sworn never to betray him. Early next morning Shelburne went to Forreste;'s house, followed by the shrieking bride; called up the Forrester family, confronted the seducer in presence of his mother and sister, and after reproaching him bitterly fired a charge of buckshot into his shoulder, inflicting a fatal wound. The wife fainted as her paramour fell, he exclaiming he was killed "and desirved it all;" and Shelburne, taking a horse from the stable of Mrs. McClay, fled in the direction of Tennessee. The miserable wife, a few hours after the tragedy gave premature birth to an infant.

Political.

Ex-Gov. Moses, the "robber governor" of South Carolina who was driven from power by Gov. Chamberlain, (in return for which Moses' son, Judge Moses, ruled in all directions to suit the democrats during the electoral muddle,) is writing long letters to the papers to show that Tilden carried South Carolina, and was cheated out of it. On the other hand, Judge Cartter, republican, and Columbus Alexander, one of the democrats who went to that State to "watch the count," flatly contradict Moses in some of his most important and positive statements; and as he is one of the most notorious thieves and liars that even South Carolina ever produced, his word will not go very far against the reputable men who contradict him.

The municipal elections in New York, on the 5th inst., in many instances showed democratic gains, the democrats and greenbackers joining forces, — or rather, the democrats taking up the candidates nominated by the greenbackers. This goes to prove what has been so often asserted, that the inflation-and-repudiation party is in general accord with the democracy, and that the political contest is between honesty and dishonesty, with democracy favoring the latter.

News and Notes.

Gold, Wednesday, 101 1-4.

Nearly the whole business part of Hot Springs, Arkansas, is burned, including the Hot Springs Hotel, American House, numerous bath houses, banks, printing offices, etc.

Four members of a family at Cincinnati, named Grossheim, have been arrested by United States detectives on a charge of counterfeiting trade dollars. Moulds, electrotypes and 300 counterfeit trade dollars were secured.

The Cuban rebels have not all surrendered. Letters from patriots, dated about Feb. 27, bring the news that the Peace Commissioners representing the late "Revolutionary Committee," composed of General Mazimo Gomez, Brigadier Rodriguez and Major Callaso, who took the proposals of peace to Gen. Meceo, had been hung by that leader and their bodies sent to Santiago de Cuba for the Spaniards to judge of the patriots' readiness to surrender. Gomez, Rodriduez and Callaso went on a mission of peace to Meceo on the 27th of February.

About 150 buildings were burned at Hot Springs, Ark., and 1000 persons made homeless. Loss $300,000; insurance $25,000.

New Hampshire Items.

A meeting of the Governor and Council was held Tuesday, 5th inst., but no business of importance done. They visited the State Prison to inspect some buildings, but did not visit La Page, the Josie Langmaid murderer, who is to be hanged next week. Freeman H. Perkins was pardoned from the State Prison. The annual Fast was appointed for April 11th.

Serious charges are made against the officers of the National Savings Bank of Concord.

LaPage, who so brutally murdered Josie Langmaid at Pembroke, will be executed at Concord on the 15th inst., unless reprieved. He was undoubtedly the murderer of Miss Ball at St. Albans, Vt., in July, 1874.

Not long since Cyrus E. Hardy, of Marlboro', died under circumstances which led to suspicions that he had been foully dealt with, and scientific enquiry shows that he was poisoned, a deadly drug having been found in his stomach.

WHEN THE WHEEL OF FORTUNE goes round without any preference being shown or any fraud committed, most people are satisfied, but not always. In a Western paper we note the plaintive growl of a lady correspondent, who says she sent to M. A. DAUPHIN, P. O. Box 693, New Orleans, two dollars for a ticket in the celebrated Louisiana State Lottery, and did not receive more than five hundred dollars; while the capital prize of thirty thousand dollars was sent to some boy in San Antonio, Texas. But then some people are always unreasonable.

Sharp competition is the order of the day, among the first-class hotels in New York. With one or two exceptions, they are trying to keep their old trade while adhering to their previous high rates. The Grand Central has reaped much benefit from this, by quietly "cutting" the rates from one to two dollars per day.

Trustees, Alonzo F. Craig, Daniel L. Randall, Elisha Tripp, Samuel Langdon, Jr., James Sanborn, Ezekiel Burns, Wm. B. Colley.

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

Wednesday evening; present his honor the Mayor and Messrs. Sherburne, Wendell, Hackett, May, Goodrich, Gardner, Hutchinson, and Mrs. Wilson.

Communication received from Messrs. Buzzell and Perkins, asking an increase of salary on the ground that the teachers of same grade in other cities have a larger salary than is paid the supervisors in this city. The subject was referred to the committee on salaries, with the Mayor and Messrs. May and Goodrich added. The present salary is $984; they ask for $1100.

The subject of ventilation of school rooms was referred to a special committee.

The subject of closing primary schools at an earlier afternoon hour in the summer months was referred to the committee on primary schools with Mr. Gardner added.

Teachers in primary schools were instructed to close their schools at half-past four P. M., during the present month.

Adjourned.

GREENBACK STATE CONVENTION.

There was quite a large attendance of greenbackers at the State Convention in the old Custom House Hall in this city, Wednesday forenoon, the meeting being called to order by George E. Hodgdon, Esq., who nominated Gardner J. Greenleaf of this city as temporary president, and George E. Hutchins, of Whitefield, as temporary secretary, the nominations being approved by the convention. On motion of Mr. Hodgdon a committee of five was appointed to report a permanent organization, the following named gentlemen being the committee: Oliver L. Giddings of Exeter, Nathaniel Wiggin of Greenland, B. F. Austin of Kensington, George E. Hodgdon of Portsmouth, Ephraim Pickering of Newington. While awaiting the action of the committee Messrs. Charles McLean of Boston and Alexander Troupe of New Haven (editor of the New Haven Union, an ably-conducted paper of shocking financial creed,) addressed the convention; they are pleasing and earnest speakers, and their remarks were crammed full of patriotism —or demagogism, according to the listener's standpoint. Mr. Troupe was justly severe on the buying and selling of votes; raked Hon. Frank Jones fore-and-aft; thanked God that he (the speaker) did not vote for Rutherford B. Hayes, and doubly-thanked Him that he did not vote for "that meanest-looking of men, Samuel J. Tilden." The committee reported, and the permanent organization was effected as follows:

President, Gardner J. Greenleaf, of Portsmouth;

Vice Presidents, Oliver L. Giddings of Exeter, P. B. Holmes of Greenland, Charles S. George of Barnstead;

Secretary, George E. Hutchins of Whitefield;

Committee on Resolutions, Warren G. Brown of Whitefield, Edmund Brown of Lancaster, B. F. Austin of Kensington, Michael R. Perkins of Portsmouth;

Committee on Nominations, Nathaniel Wiggin, E. H. Weston of Whitefield, B. F. Austin, D. L. Rowell of Lancaster, Charles H. Joy of Portsmouth;

State Central Committee, E. H. Weston, Andrew J. Hoyt of Exeter, William H. Hodgdon of Kensington, Lemuel P. Cooper of Croydon, Stewart A. Sheldon of Portsmouth.

Having proceeded so far, the convention adjourned to meet again at two o'clock P. M.

On resuming, after recess, the committee on nominations presented the following list, which was accepted and adopted:

For Governor, Samuel Flint, of Lyme;

Railroad Commissioner, Nathaniel Wiggin, of Greenland;

Councillors,—District No. 1, Oliver L. Giddings, of Exeter; Dist. No. 4, Lemuel P. Cooper, of Croydon; Dist. No. 5, Royal Ellis, of Lancaster;

Senators.—District No. 1, Jonathan E. Brown, of Kensington; Dist. No. 2, Lafayette Chesley, of Chester; Dist. No. 6, Charles S. George, of Barnstead; Dist. No. 12, Lafayette Moore, of Northumberland;

Rockingham Co. Nominations: County Commissioner, Amos Southwick, of Chester; Register of Deeds, Clarence B. Mason, of Portsmouth; County Treasurer, Charles H. Joy, of Portsmouth; Delegate to National Convention, Geo. E. Hodgdon, of Portsmouth.

On motion, the State Central Committee were instructed to elect a secretary and treasurer.

The committee on resolutions reported the resolutions of the National Greenback Convention at Toledo, which were adopted.

Remarks were made by Messrs. Wiggin, Holmes, Hutchins, Austin, Greenleaf, Troupe, and Stephen Holt of Epping. Letters were read from Samuel Flint and Lemuel P. Cooper; and at four o'clock the convention adjourned, to meet at Franklin Hall at half-past seven in the evening to listen to addresses from the greenback apostles.

POLICE COURT.

Tuesday, March 5th; Batchelder, J.

John F. Janvrin was brought up on a charge of breaking and entering (continued case) the store of Thomas N. Chase in Seabrook. Nol pros'd.

John F. Janvrin, adjudged guilty of adultery with Eliza A. Lee, was bound over in the sum of $400 for his appearance to answer at the April term of the Supreme Court at Exeter. He procured bonds, putting up the cash to secure his bondsmen. The Lee woman was bound over in $300 to answer to a similar charge. Bunker, the proprietor of Bunker's Hotel (name seems to sound kind of familiar) at Epping, testified that Janvrin and the woman have boarded at his house, which contains sixteen rooms, for two years and a half; but he was utterly unable to tell which room or rooms they occupied. This remarkable failure of memory is probably due to the great rush of boarders at "Bunker's," the landlord testifying that he sometimes has had as many as five, and of course no man could be expected to tell where each individual of such a crowd roomed.

THE CITY.

Ship Grandee, Shillaber, from Calcutta, arrived at New York on Wednesday, the 6th inst.

Thursday, April 11th, has been appointed by the Governor and Council for a day of fasting and prayer.

The will of Rev. Daniel Austin was admitted to probate at the March term of the Probate Court for York county, held at Alfred, Me., on Tuesday.

At a caucus of the democrats of ward three, Tuesday evening, Mr. Andrew Sherburne was unanimously renominated for Representative to General Court.

The body of Father Lourney, assistant priest at the Catholic church in Dover, who died at Little Harbor on Monday, was taken to the Catholic church in this city on Wednesday, and after the usual services was transported to Dover by rail.

The greenbackers' meeting at Franklin Hall, Wednesday evening, drew a large audience. The speakers were good ones, and presented the greenbackers' peculiar ideas of financial honesty, etc., in a form sufficiently attractive to delude any who wished to be deluded; and granting the truth of certain false premises, their reasoning was unanswerable.

Ship Charles Luling, at New York, March 6th, from Hamburg, reports that on Feb. 22d, in latitude 36 04 north, longitude 56 40 west, she passed schooner Mary Ella, of Kennebunkport, abandoned. She was well afloat; spars standing, stripped. It will be remembered that the Mary Ella, which was built at this port and owned here before being sold to Kennebunk parties, was abandoned several months ago after being three times knocked on her beam ends in a heavy gale.

The widow and three fatherless children of a soldier who lost a limb in the service during the late war, were found to be in very destitute circumstances in Newcastle, Tuesday, having been without food for three days. As soon as their condition was discovered, accidentally, by a neighbor, their immediate wants were supplied. The widow and her late husband were survivors of the wreck of the steamer San Francisco, which went down at sea when on a voyage to California several years ago. The woman was saved by a vessel bound to England and was given up for a long time as lost, by her husband, who was rescued by another ship. A subscription paper is being circulated among our citizens and at Newcastle, to raise money for their relief.—Times.

The Boston Advertiser's Washington correspondent, in his report of the evidence offered before the House democratic campaign committee that is attempting to make party capital of the statements of discharged officials and disgruntled politicians, while pretending to investigate the postal railway service in New England on behalf of the people, locates our popular and efficient postmaster, E. G. Pierce, Jr., in Boston; and the day previous the Associated Press despatches made President Hayes appoint somebody as "postmaster at Portsmouth, N. H." Come home, Elbridge, come home right away; not but that the efficient Assistant Postmaster and clerks pay every attention to their duties and the public accommodation, but Washington was always a wicked city, and since democrats have become so numerous there it seems to be worse than ever—if there is such a thing as what is already as bad as possible growing worse.

NAVAL MATTERS.

Passed Assistant Engineer Charles F. Nagle is ordered to duty at this navy yard.

The Senate on Tuesday confirmed Surgeon C. J. Cleborne to be Medical Inspector in the navy from Jan. 7th, 1878, and Passed Assistant Surgeon Joseph G. Ayers to be Surgeon from the same date.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—A Mrs. Abbott of Pitts Point, Ky., who has been totally blind for about eight years, recovered her sight a few days ago for about ten minutes, so that she could see everything about the house. The house had recently been newly papered and painted, and when total blindness came over her again she described accurately the various colors used in the papering and painting. Her son had married since she lost her sight, and she had never seen her daughter-in-law, but in the period she was restored to sight she saw her and afterward correctly described her appearance.

—An English journal says that a firm of Yankee engineers in London have hit upon a novel mode of sending small cannon to any place where they may be required, and where, perhaps, the powers in command might object to their introduction. The plan consists of taking two small guns and placing a round bar of strong wood down the bore of each, so as to hold them together, the muzzles joining. They then bind the whole with straw rope, and cover that with a coat of fire-clay. This forms a perfect core, and round it is cast an iron column, like those used in building purposes. When complete they would not excite the suspicions of the most cautious customs officers.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, even when quite gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin locks; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, and all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Bruises, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. Olmay1

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics for the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that the type of the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's medicines have displ ced and outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported goes up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell what I know about catarrh, and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could mention a similar case in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A friend one notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over six months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.

Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

When the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or when there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow suffusion upon the eyes or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs; Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhea, arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Exaustion and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches is depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had hawking in the head, pains across the occiput, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the pains of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but as his report discouraged it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head kept it so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, for about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the burning soles in my feet ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and wished to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, caused by my lungs, I applied a Collins' Voltaic Plaster to the former injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the advice of numerous cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfectness and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them inestimable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Respectfully, Mrs. FRANCES HARELMAN.

GALLATIN, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases in these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a high Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

A New Flying Machine.

An exhibition was given in Bridgeport, Conn., recently, of the working of a flying machine, invented by C. F. Ritchel of Corry, Pa. Unlike many aerial machines, this one is not shaped like a bird, nor has it any wings. It consists of a large bag of cylindrical form, inflated with hydrogen, and underneath a car provided with attachments designed to control the elevation and descent of the bag and to direct its course. The bag is twenty-four feet long and twelve feet in diameter and requires 3000 feet of gas for its inflation. The raising and steering apparatus underneath has a framework made of brass tubing, and is provided with a seat for the passenger. Directly in front of the seat is a crank which he turns to produce the power that puts in motion two small fans that can be operated singly or together. The elevating fan has five blades, set spirally, and can be made to rotate at the rate of 3000 revolutions per minute. This fan furnishes, or is intended to furnish the lifting power which constitutes the novelty and value of the invention, and by reversing the motion depresses the airship on the same principle as it raises it. At the end of the framework of the car, some ten or twelve feet distant from the passenger, is another similar fan which works at an angle with the airship and is designed to turn it in any direction desired. It may be stated that both fans work in the air on the same principle that the Fowler steering and propelling apparatus works in the water. The exhibition was given in a large hall, a boy operating the cranks. The boy commenced to turn the crank, the fan then whizzed fiercely, and the bag rose three or four feet from the floor. It refused to go any higher however, but after ascending slightly, sank back toward the floor at each trial. Then the steering fan was set in motion with about the same degree of success. The attendants ascribing the partial failure of the experiments to the boy who engineered the machine, another boy was substituted. He succeeded considerably better than the first, elevating the bag to the ceiling several times, and had turned it about half way around with the steering fan, when two of the blades broke. The experiment led to the opinion that with some changes in the fans the machine might be made to perform as intended. As is well known, one great difficulty in balloon navigation is that the aeronaut is dependant for his elevation on the buoyancy of the balloon alone, another is that its course is dependent on the direction of the wind. Mr. Ritchel thinks that his apparatus can be made to overcome both these difficulties.

For all the Purposes of a Family Physic.

CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skilful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

Congress.

The Senate on Wednesday passed the bill which provides that the Secretary of the Treasury shall issue a sum not exceeding $100,000,000 of coupon bonds, of the denominations of $25, $50, and $100, redeemable in coin fifty years from the date of their issue, bearing interest, payable semi-annually, at the rate of four per centum per annum.

The President vetoed the bill providing for the holding of a special term of Court in Mississippi to try alleged violations of law by mill-owners charged with stealing logs from Government reservations.

In the House, Gen. Garfield replied to the attack made on him by pig-iron-and-inflation Kelley of Pennsylvania, showing Mr. Kelley's inconsistency in matters of finance, by referring to a resolution offered in the House in 1865 thanking Secretary McCulloch for his policy in contracting the currency and pledging the House to a resumption of specie payments at as early a day as possible. That resolution had been adopted, with only six negative votes, and among those voting in the affirmative he found the name of William D. Kelley. This created great laughter; and on a member asking how Voorhees voted, and Mr. Garfield replying that Voorhees also voted "yea," the laugh was greatly augmented. He also quoted Mr. Kelley as making a remark in favor of the bill demonetizing silver, to the effect that the silver dollar could not be kept up and must be dropped, and yet he said the gentlemen, not long since (with the voice of a Nestor,) had denounced that act as a legislative trick. At the conclusion of Mr. Garfield's speech it was some minutes before order was restored and business resumed. Members from both sides of the House pressed around Mr. Garfield, congratulating him. Among them was Mr. Tucker of Virginia, who remarked that the speech was unconstitutional, because it was an act of cruel and unusual punishment.

[Concluded.]

The Life-Saving Service.

Now the navy is, to all intents and purposes, intended for off-shore work; neither officers or men can possibly be, through any service they are now or ever have been in, so well acquainted with the coast and all its holes and corners as the revenue marine officers. The men themselves that the naval bill proposes, so far as possible, to put into the stations, are not practical boatmen; and it would take years for them to learn what our coast men already know about the different locations where the stations are built. There are rocks, shoals, harbors, tides, and in fact everything for these navy men to get acquainted with. How many men in the navy are competent to handle a boat in a gale of wind on our coast? Who would make the best showing; a lot of man-of-war sailors, or a lot of shore fishermen and pilots? And in such cases as the naval bill proposes to have shore men enlist, how many of our shore boatmen would tie themselves up to any naval rules, and be liable (as that bill proposes) to be sent on board ship in case of emergency? Not many, I judge.

The bill calls for a Coast Guard, as part of the service. Can any one tell the use of a Coast Guard on the coast of the United States? The coast of England is within easy reach of several countries where perhaps goods may be bought purposely for smuggling; and to protect her revenue it may be necessary to have a Coast Guard; but that Coast Guard never mans a life boat, unless some of the members may volunteer for that purpose, as the life boats there are dependent on just what all life boats should depend for competent crews, and that is, shore fishermen and boatmen. Our coast is such that, with the exception of that part of it extending from Eastport up as far as Mount Desert, there is not much chance of a smuggler being found; in that vicinity there are a number, doubtless, who cruise in small boats, and now and then run a small lot of liquors or groceries. After passing Mt. Desert, if any smuggling is done, it is by a larger class of vessels, and those I judge mostly from across the ocean, which go directly into port and take their chances with what they have, to get it on shore. What kind of a Coast Guard station would Bronney's Island, Me., be, where L. S. Station No. 3, 1st District, is situated? An island of thirty acres, six miles from the main land, surrounded with other islands, with numerous channel-ways where all the smugglers in the Bay of Funday could sail around; and with Bronney's Island as full of Coast Guards-men as it could stick, the smugglers would laugh at them. So with Cross Island, Station No. 3. So with White Island, No. 4 station. And would there be any gain in the revenue of the United States by having a Coast Guard? I am under the impression that the extra cost of the service, under the naval bill, would eat up all increase in the revenue. Let Congress pass the bill Mr. Cox has in hand, for the reorganization of the service; leave the service where it it is now, in the Treasury Department; commission keepers of life saving stations to act as Inspectors of Customs, with no extra pay beside their keeper's salary, (but make that at least $500;) and with the revenue cutters and keepers of stations, with their crews, there will be a better Coast Guard than the navy can produce, having in it a class of men tough, hardy, not afraid of getting wet, and who if occasion calls will make a good record.

If necessary to make the service look "pretty" and "high-toned," let all the surfmen wear a cheap uniform; but let what will be done, do not take the service out of the hands of practical men, and give it to those who know but little (and perhaps care less) about the service, more than to have a loafing place. If any men are to have pay for this service, let it be coast men, living near the stations, always providing they are the best men; if not, keep going until good men are got, and then keep them, as Mr. Kimball proposed long ago. If there are too many officers in the navy, stop appointing cadets, and after a while there will be room for all.

If any of those who are prone to find fault with the life saving service will take the trouble to read the reports of the service, and post themselves up, they will be more likely to judge correctly about the service and its workings; and any one can get the reports by writing the Secretary of the Treasury.

The record of the service for the last seven years has been a glorious one. No nation in the world but gives it credit,—and how can they help it? The report speaks for itself; and whether Mr. Kimball loses charge of the service or not, he has much to be proud of, and so far as I can see, nothing to be ashamed of.

The report for 1877 says that with 407 disasters, imperilling 4730 persons, between November 1, 1871, and June 30, 1877, there were but eighty lives lost. Can any one beat that? Does it not show that the service has been closely watched over, and speak well for the officers and men? Does any sensible man suppose that under the same circumstances the navy men could do any better? Could they do as well? It does not follow, because a man has followed the sea for years, either in a merchant ship or man-of-war, that he is a practical boatman. The poorest boatmen in the world are old sailors; and if our members of Congress have the good of the service in view, they will see to it that no change is made that will throw our coast men over, or take it from the Department that has had to nurse it and bring it along from infancy almost to an honorable manhood.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4th.

Although the work of 1878, by which Congress demonetized silver without seeming to know it, has been undone, so far as appears practicable, National finances are evidently fated to hold the pre-eminent position they have come to occupy among the many subjects of National import discussed in and out of Congress, till the end of the session. The purpose of the inflation element to force the adoption of their views through legislation, becomes more and more apparent. The enactment of the free coinage feature of the Bland bill, emasculated by the Senate, the repeal of the resumption act, and the issue of greenbacks, backed by the National faith "to an amount equal to the wants of business and trade," and to be, like silver and gold, receivable for all dues to the government and individuals, are parts of the programme now openly advocated. All disguise is being stripped off, and the original supporters of the Bland bill who refused to vote for concurrence, have come to be recognized as a distinctive faction working to accomplish unlimited inflation. In view of the many weeks—months indeed—devoted to an exhaustive investigation of the silver question in all its bearings, the complaint that the House and Senate acted discourteously to the President seems ill-founded. Nothing was to be gained by delay, and the mails and telegraph lines were burdened with messages urging, imploring or peremptorily demanding the immediate disposition of the matter, both that business interests should be relieved of the paralyzing effects of doubt and uncertainty and that other matters of momentous importance might be reached. The chief objection urged by Vice President Wheeler is said to arise from the feature of the bill making the interest on bonds payable in silver, when the dues collectable by the custom houses in gold were pledged to that purpose; and hence, to that extent, the bill amounts to practical repudiation. Secretary Sherman is disappointing many of his critics by orders to the mints to at once prepare for vigorous work in carrying out the provisions of the bill; and there appears no valid ground for supposing that he is not acting in entire good faith in the premises. Dr. Linderman is of the opinion that by next month the mints will be able to undertake the coinage of $3,500,000, their full capacity at present.

It is generally understood about town that the female employees of many of the divisions and sub-divisions of the Treasury and perhaps some of the other Executive Departments, are constrained to be judiciously reticent relative to the details of official life as seen and felt by them, lest the pains and penalties of the guillotine be visited on them for any indiscretion in that respect. It is also understood that some of them are under a system of surveillance as galling to their pride and womanhood as it is absolute in character. Their positions as subordinates of some Jesuitical institution where only allowed to visit the outer world in company with an informer, zealous to report any incautious utterance, could hardly be more irksome, even intolerable. The typical keeper in the person of some be-whiskered martinet, who is placed in charge of a room, is cordially detested; but their fears are usually sufficient to insure their silence. One of the most notorious and contemptible of the entire brood has recently lost his head, and another is on the anxious seat. He is charged with habitual drunkenness, registering himself present when absent, detailing lady clerks to help his wife in her household duties, and of petty tyranny. The ladies rejoiced over the fall of Guthrie, and will be made doubly happy if Moore has to go.

KNOX.

The Cheney Investigation.

Before the House post-office committee, Thursday, Mr. Cheney testified in his own behalf. The evidence against him has been surprisingly "thin" at all points save one, and that is as to the forcing a contribution of $250 to the campaign fund, for the appointment of a postmaster at Meredith, as sworn to by a former republican postmaster, who has been a good democrat ever since he lost his office. Mr. Cheney explained the matter by stating that he never heard of any such transaction until he heard it in the committee room. He did suggest that there should be hurry about the Meredith postmaster, and wrote to the department about it; but he never knew of any wrong committed with it. He acknowledged that he was an active politician, but never collected nor enforced assessments.

The Eastern War.

The revolt in Thessaly and Epirus is assuming proportions which will force both Russia and Turkey to take it into account. The apparent neglect with which the subject has been treated in the treaty of peace is more likely to embitter the conflict than discourage the patriots who strive to free an historic land from the yoke of the Ottoman. It is note-worthy that the Herzegovinian revolt, which precipitated the Russo-Turkish war, began on a smaller scale than that in the Greek provinces. Official intelligence has been received from Larissa that the Turks are marching against the insurgents at Makrinitz. Desperate fighting is expected. The Turks threaten bombardment from the Volo Harbor. A battle is also imminent at Karditza.

News and Notes.

The Philadelphia mint issued on Thursday 250,000 of the new silver dollars.

Capt. Harrison, who was a passenger on the Metropolis and subsequently made himself conspicuous in rescuing and caring for the passengers, has been arrested in Philadelphia on the grave charge of appropriating such effects of the victims as were washed ashore. In his rooms were found considerable clothing, with marks of Civil Engineer Moore and others of the wrecked passengers. He was locked up in default of bail.

At a town meeting held in Dexter, Me., Wednesday, it was not thought advisable to offer a reward for the detection of the Barron murderers. Speeches were made eulogizing the character of the murdered Treasurer. Resolutions of respect were adopted, and a Committee was also chosen to co-operate with the State authorities in the pursuit of the murderers.

A. K. Goodman, of the Hartford firm of Goodman & Gilbert, made an unsuccessful attempt to kill his wife at dinner on Tuesday, firing at her across the table with his revolver, and, after being arrested, said that he should kill her if he ever got a chance. He had previously threatened her with a carving knife and ordered her to leave the house. Mrs. Goodman's jealousy is believed to be at the bottom of the trouble, matters being brought to a crisis on Tuesday by her finding some cards bearing another woman's name in her husband's pocket.

The municipal affairs of San Francisco have come to a deadlock for want of funds, a legislative act restricting the monthly expenditure to one-twelfth of the annual revenue. The fire department, hospital and almshouse appropriations are used up.

Capt. W. Hill and three men of ship Bertha, of Yarmouth, Me., bound from Liverpool for Portland, were washed overboard and drowned on the 27th of February.

A telegram from Charlotte, N. C., 3d inst., says: "Mrs. William Shelburne, the unfortunate bride of a day, whose husband shot her seducer in Clay county yesterday, died in the night after having given premature birth to a child. Although Simpson Foster, the young student who had accomplished Mrs. Shelburne's ruin, was terribly wounded in the right shoulder by the infuriated and betrayed husband, he is now pronounced out of danger. Mr. Shelburne immediately after the shooting left for parts unknown, absolutely refusing to see or speak to his dying wife, who, while she retained consciousness, piteously declared her love for her deceived husband and her contempt for Foster. The indignation against the latter is great, and as Shelburne's friends have taken the matter in hand, it is thought that as soon as he is informed that Foster will recover he will at once return for the purpose of killing the scoundrel. The affair has created the most intense excitement throughout this section of the country, owing to the high social position of all the participants, and the popularity of the young people, who were universally esteemed."

Alphonso B. Glidden and William Place, both of Alton, in this State, but working in Marlboro', Mass., as shoemakers, had a drunken row in Marlboro' on Wednesday evening, and Place, who was nineteen years old, was fatally shot by Glidden, who is twenty-four. The murderer was arrested.

While a party of school boys at Norfolk, Va., were playing base ball, the ball was knocked into the yard of John W. Belote, who shot and dangerously wounded Robert L. Seymour, aged fourteen years, for coming on his premises without permission.

The purchases of horses in the Montreal market for the United States is being carried on vigorously. Two hundred and sixteen were shipped last week to the Eastern States at a cost of $15,000.

Fanny Lear, the daughter of an American clergyman, who not long ago stirred up a great Russian scandal by capturing a Grand Duke and persuading him to steal his mother's diamonds for her, is running a great rig in London, and has got "one of the most celebrated legal lights of the day" so infatuated with her that it is the common talk of the day.

THE CITY.

The republicans of all the wards hold their caucuses this evening, to nominate candidates to be supported at the polls on Tuesday. See advertisements.

Look out for the counterfeit trade dollars. They are smaller in size, lighter in weight and darker in color than the genuine article, but they are well calculated to deceive even the elect among money handlers.

The greenbackers held a meeting on Thursday evening at old Custom House Hall and elected a committee of three from each of the wards, to nominate Representatives to the legislature, subject to the approval of the caucus to be held on Saturday evening.

We are desired to state that the youthful couple from York, who were recently published and married in this city, gave their ages correctly to the City Clerk and clergyman, and "nothing extenuated"—and we willingly correct the statement, as we "set down naught in malice."—Weekly.

Washington despatches of Thursday say: "Naval Constructor Theodore D. Wilson is en route to Portsmouth navy yard, having proven by sworn affidavits to the Congressional investigating committee that the charges of having used red oak knees in the frigate Ticonderoga were false, not one ever having been placed in that or any other vessel by Constructor Wilson."

It is said that the motto of the Prince of Wales, "Ich Dien," which was gilded upon the car in which he passsed through this city on the way to Portland, while in this country, is traced to a Sanscrit derivation by a learned professor of the British Association, who says it does not mean "I serve," but "I shine," and thus is seen the propriety of the accompanying sun rays, which have also been corrupted into a plume. It strikes us that this would be a stunning motto for a bootblack. It is so expressive.

The Weekly says "the numerous and costly wire rope guy and boom derricks at Forts Constitution and McClary in this harbor, which have been disused for years, since the stoppage of work on those old-fashioned fortifications, have been allowed to stand in the weather, until lately some of those on the Kittery fort have been removed, with other material, by authority of the government officers in charge it is said, and some of the spars brought to this city and sawed into dimension lumber at Mason's mill." Who gave the government officers in charge of the forts authority to authorize the removal of the property?

A sacred concert of vocal and instrumental music is to be given at Music Hall next Sunday evening, by Harlow's Orchestra and the New England Glee Club, assisted by Miss Emma J. Flanders, the accomplished soprano. The orchestral overture will be from the Grand Oratorio, "The Great Jehovah," by nine professional artists of this city and Massachusetts. The local musical organizations which participate in this concert are unexcelled by any musicians outside of Boston. They generously make this effort in behalf of the deserving poor in our midst, and deserve the hearty co-operation of all our citizens.

POLICE COURT.

Thursday, March 7th; Balchelder, J.

George Day, John Gilmore and Henry Hayes' three "drunks," were all sent to Brentwood for lack of $9.90 each wherewith to pay their fines.

A VALUABLE PRESENT.

An elegant edition of the American Cyclopedia (sixteen volumes, in sheep-binding) was presented the Haven School on Thursday morning by the Misses Haven of Pleasant street. The books are intended more particularly for the use of the two Grammar Schools, Mr. Perkins' and Miss Marshall's rooms. The donors accompanied the gift with a modestly written note requesting that the books be carefully preserved and at the same time be accessible to every member of the school. Mr. R. H. Perkins, the Principal, courteously recognized the generosity and thoughtfulness of the ladies in the following note:

Misses C. A. and C. M. Haven: The master, teachers and pupils of the Haven School beg you to accept our sincere thanks for the most beautiful gift, which in your kindness you have seen fit to bestow, not only upon us, but upon all who in future time, as pupils or teachers, may walk the paths we now tread. In accepting this generous expression of your kindness we can but remark its appropriateness; it is indeed that which shall serve us in no small sense as a library in itself; that which, as it opens to our view a more extended knowledge of the opinions, systems, discoveries, events, actions and characters that make up the history of the world, shall remind us of you, of your disinterested kindness, and interest in our welfare. And we would assure you that from to-day the name of "Haven School" becomes doubly dear to us, and that from this moment your gift becomes a token which the heart of our school, as a body, will ever cherish with its brightest jewels.

With sentiments of consideration we are, very truly Yours,

R. H. PERKINS, for teachers and pupils.

THE CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening:

A communication was received from the Board of Instruction, requesting that certain improvements be made in the Manning school and for use of a room in State street for educational purposes.

A petition for a cross walk across Summer street, near the residence of Wm. H. Treadwell, was accepted and referred to committee on streets to report.

A communication was received, calling the attention of the board to the bad condition of several side walks on Court street. Accepted and referred to committee on streets to report.

Ex-Gov. Goodwin asked leave to withdraw his name from the petition regarding the widening of Penhallow street. Granted.

The City Solicitor appeared before the board in explanation of some items charged in his bill against the city. After submitting his statements the Board voted unanimously to pay his bill.

That part of City Solicitor's annual report that was referred to committee on printing, and which some members of the Board objected to, was stricken out and the report was accepted and referred to committee on printing, to be printed with the rest of the city accounts.

Robert Shillaber, Health Officer, was also before the Board, explaining some items in his bill which were objected to, after which his bill and that of Daniel Danielson were ordered paid.

The usual batch of monthly bills were presented and ordered paid.

The committee who were empowered to lay out a road around the north side of the South Mill pond, from Richards avenue to Edward street, reported by plan, which was accepted.

Voted that a committee be appointed to assess the land damages of the proposed road and to report at the next meeting. Aldermen Yeaton, Coffin, Payne and Norton were appointed.

Meshach Bell and John B. Hutchins were appointed special police without pay at Kearsarge Mills.

A request was made by bank directors and others that the lights at the corner of Market and Daniel streets and Market street and Commercial alley, be kept burning all night.

Voted that the light at the corner of Daniel street be lighted to a later hour, and kept burning at the discretion of the committee on gas lights.

Voted that the light on the corner of Commercial alley be kept burning the same length of time that the rest of the city lights are, and the committee in the mean time confer with the bank authorities and report at the next meeting.

Voted that a committee be appointed with the Mayor added, to confer with the Gas Company in regard to reduction in the price of gas used by the city.

Adjourned for two weeks.

THE VICINITY.

The democracy of Newington will hold their caucus on Monday evening.

The Cocheco Mills of Dover have signified their willingness to stop their manufacture of print cloth as suggested by the Fall River Board of Trade.

Gen Alfred Holt's suit against the Boston & Maine Railroad for setting fire to his buildings, near the railroad station in Durham, has been referred to three Judges of the Supreme Court.

On Wednesday, at South Seabrook, Frank Fowler, a little boy of five years, fell into a tub of hot water and was badly scalded. His mother was standing by and pulled him out at once, or the accident would have been fatal.

The republican county committee of Rockingham county met in Exeter on Thursday to compare notes in regard to the campaign. The attendance was very large, and the reports from all parts of the county were not merely more cheering than the republicans had dared hope for, but were positively flattering to the hopes of the party; and unless the indications are very much at fault the First Senatorial District will be redeemed by the election of Emmons B. Philbrick instead of Marcellus Eldredge, while the county will do its part toward retaining complete control of the legislature, and triumphantly re-electing Gov. Prescott. The industriously-prosecuted democratic "still hunt" will not succeed, unless the republicans are far more derelict of duty than is now indicated. Good work is being done in all quarters, and with every hope of the best results.

The statement that Hon. Charles H. Horton, ex-Mayor of Dover, is sick with paralysis of the kidneys, is incorrect. We saw Mr. Horton about town in Dover on Tuesday, and he informed us that he had just recovered from an attack of neuralgia.

BOARD OF TRADE—? ? ?

Sharp competition is the order of the day, among the first-class hotels in New York. With one or two exceptions, they are trying to keep their old trade while adhering to their previous high rates. The Grand Central has reaped much benefit from this, by quietly "cutting" the rates from one to two dollars per day.

Don't pay 50 cts. and $1.00, when you can buy an article like Adamson's Botanic Balsam for 25 cts. It cures Coughs, Colds, and all Pulmonary Complaints. 25 and 75 cts. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.

Reflect that in every cemetery one-half of the silent tenants are the victims of neglected Coughs and Colds; and if you are thus afflicted, avoid their fate by resorting at once to Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, an immediate, agreeable, and certain means of cure. Sold by all Druggists.

Pikes Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute. tab

How shall we regain our losses is the question anxiously thought over by thousands in these times. Take our advice and remit a small amount to Alex. Frothingham & Co., brokers, 12 Wall st., N.Y., who by their judicious investments have relieved hundreds from pressing need. Send for their Financial Report, sent free. 11

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH and that of your children, and use no other cure for Coughs, Colds, etc., except that standard remedy, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam. It is acknowledged by all who have given it a trial as being the most reliable preparation ever used; it is particularly adapted to lung and throat affections in children. Try one bottle. tmch23

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. Political.

Jugglers only will propose to create capital by legerdemain tricks of paper money.—Thomas Jefferson.

After voting for all the silver delusions and the resumption-repeal bill, a Georgia Congressman has the impudence to offer a bill which provides that Congress shall guarantee the interest on $15,000,000 of bonds devoted to the construction of a railroad in the Southern States, payable in gold at five per cent. per annum!

The military committee of the House of Representatives has by a strictly party vote decided to report favorably upon the bill to relieve the democratic member of the Ohio legislature from the charge of desertion and perjury—the said democratic member being chairman of the military committee of the Ohio House. "A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind." Banning, chairman of the National House military committee, secured his seat in Congress only by the perjury and repeating of gangs of democratic roughs imported from Baltimore and New York to Cincinnati, under the leadership of Eph Holland, the convicted prize fighter, thief and ballot-box stuffer. By the way, President Hayes pardoned out of the Ohio State prison this democratic scoundrel, Holland, at about the same time the Louisiana bull-dozers began to get their work in on the Returning Board. Conciliation must be attended to.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed preematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Samuel Pitcher, M.D.

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Swellings, Sprains, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. That the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific in the disease for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKFORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 25 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed, "snuff," "snuffers," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuffs until I became a reliable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, my constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen-fifths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, I did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Old Sores or Old Ulcers; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Indipent Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. His Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have yellow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and a loomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron, gives a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who a substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Erective Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, Whites, arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

GREAT THROUGH LINE AND UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for few years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated nostrils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My breath smelled all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to my syringe in my nose to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my condition was tolerable, but my general health had grown with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent physician in regard to an operation on them, but he in request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—A deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about as much as they could be, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped the cough in a few days. My throat is as a single I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The secretions across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my scapes of seeing and hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months been suffering with a very bad side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury in the chest, for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called Pleurisy cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I believe them invaluable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the world. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN. GALLAN, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs Irritations and Weakness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plaster of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, combination of Electric or Voltaic Plaster with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

The People's Credit.

The auditor of accounts of Virginia reports the financial condition of the commonwealth to be in a deplorable condition. Only $103 is in the treasury, and none can be borrowed or collected. The "credit of the people," of which the inflationists discourse so loftily, is not sufficient for the great State of Virginia to borrow a few thousands of dollars on! This is easily explained: the "people" of Virginia have been talking of swindling the State's creditors by "re-adjustment," (that's the mild term they apply to their proposition to make a good square steal,) and the men who have money do not care to loan it on the "credit" of any such people. New Hampshire, with but two crops of granite rocks a year and a reputation for honest dealing to offer for security, finds her low-interest bonds snapped up in a hurry by capitalists whenever she needs to borrow money; Virginia, with all her vast wealth and great natural advantages, cannot borrow a paltry $200,000 on any terms whatever! This shows what the true "credit of the people" is worth—and it also shows that the use of high-sounding terms is not all that is needed to secure for a dishonest "people" the "credit" they need.

News and Notes.

A romantic story is told of Martin Mix of Northfield and Ellen Manough of Middlebury, Vt., who have just got married after a long separation. Years ago they quarrelled and broke their engagement. Martin went to sea, dug gold in Australia and California, served in the Union army during the war, worked on the Pacific Railroad and was captured by Indians while travelling to the Black Hills, but escaping, returned to Vermont. Ellen had long since forgiven her recreant lover, and, having advertised in vain for his return, devoted her time to saving silver dollars, 800 of which found their way into one of her old stockings. Now the two are one and the past is forgotten.

The Memphis, Tenn., folks celebrated Mardi Gras on the 5th, and fully 20,000 people witnessed the ceremonies, the weather being delightful. The king arrived at three o'clock and was received with a royal salute from Bluff City battery. His chariot was escorted by military organizations. The keys of the city were surrendered by Mayor Flippin, and the king of misrule was placed in charge of the city.

Col. Kane of New York has become tired of playing the Jehu during the summer. The romance of "tips" and the jolly independence and familiarity of the coachman with all sorts of people have palled upon the taste of the millionnaire, and henceforth he will play prince entirely, and no more ploughboy or postilion. We trust that lack of diversion will not force him to become a fox-hunter. He has done some service as a coachman. He has earned the money that has been paid him; but a New Jersey fox-hunter is a being whose office it is to exhibit the last stages of aristocratic apishness and idiocy.—Boston Post.

An advertisement in the New Orleans papers, dated February 2d, and signed by the Mayor, declares that as the average price of flour is seven dollars a barrel the price of bread for the next week will be five cents for sixteen ounces, ten for thirty-one, and twenty for sixty-two. Bakers must use only the best flour of the above value, and the consumer is directed to report to the nearest police station any violation of the ordinance, either in variation of quantity or quality.

Changes will soon be made in the chiefs of the Bureaus of Docks and Yards, Navigation, and Ordnance, in the Navy Department. Secretary Thompson will no doubt use every effort to render these nominations creditable to his Department and useful to the service; and, in order to do so, he must exercise especial care and wise discrimination to protect himself and his action from deceptions that usually lay in wait for such occasions. A cautious study of the character and qualifications of the several applicants will no doubt lead to wise selections. We have confidence that he will act wisely and well in the premises.—Washington Republican.

—It is said that Hon. Edward Everett's housekeeper, who for many years cared for his interests faithfully at his residence, in Cambridge, Mass., and after his death extended the same good office to his son, William Everett, has lately died, bequeathing to the latter the savings of her frugal life, with the exception of a few small gifts to her other friends. The property is estimated at $40,000.

Mission of the Republican Party.

The cry of the democracy that the republican party is of no use and no longer needed, is as false as it is ridiculous. No intelligent man and most certainly no intelligent republican can help but see that there never was more need of a most thoroughly organized republican party than to-day. When the ex-President of the Confederate States, Jefferson Davis, is boldly eulogized on the floor of our National Legislature; when the Northern democratic members of that Legislature tamely submit to be ignored or insolently taunted by their Southern democratic brethren as in the old days before the war; when a new tariff bill is soon to be presented to the house by which all benefits will accrue more especially to the Southern states, and New England industries and New England products are to be rendered worthless and profitless; it must be patent to any observing man, whether he be republican or democrat, that for these if no other reasons there is once more need of a party which was not in 1861 and is not now afraid to take a decided stand and protest against such outrage and injustice.

"The Old Guard."

The democratic managers are evidently terribly worried over the sharp awakening of the republicans all over the State, and the evident dispositon to sink all disputed questions until the State is secured from another period of democratic misrule. The latest indication of democratic uneasiness is the scattering broadcast, all over the State, of a document purporting to be the work of "The Old Guard" republicans, calling for a defeat on Tuesday next as a rebuke to Hayes. This is too gauzy to cover the democratic cloven foot beneath; "stalwart republicans" never advise the throwing away of a victory, nor are they ashamed to sign their names to their manifestoes. "The Old Guard" is but a new name for the The Old Bourbons.

The democratic managers have shrewdly chosen their time to issue this "roorback" circular, just after all the republican weekly papers of the State were out, so that they cannot show up the fraud previous to election day; they learned a valuable lesson from the feeble effect produced by their famous "Belknap gun," owing to its being fired just one week too soon.

News and Notes

The ship, Brown Brothers, built at Newburyport in 1875 and in which some of our New Hampshire lumber men own an interest, has just arrived in Boston after a passage of 128 days from Port Madison, Washington Territory, with a cargo of ship spars and deck plank. The vessel was found to be very crank and the captain was obliged to throw over his deck load to render his ship more stiff. The ship cost about $110,000, and whether it proves a good investment depends very much upon the future of ship building in New England, which from the immense amount of foreign tonnage coming to our ports in ballast, seeking business, does not at present promise much.

The New York World publishes a batch of letters showing that the government was in possession of positive evidence that the steamer Estelle was built for the Cuban rebels, at the time she was seized some months ago. The rebel plans were betrayed by one Col. McCarty, who was arrested some time since for stealing $25,000 worth of diamonds, his price for his treachery being $5000 cash, a colonelcy in the Spanish army, and a royalty on a patent torpedo.

The new United States steamer Pansey, to be used as a light-house tender, went on her trial trip from Philadelphia on Thursday.

The United States ship-of-war Portsmouth, Commander McNair, arrived at the Brooklyn Navy Yard on the 6th inst. Preparations have begun for the enlargement of her hatchways, and she will take in cargo for the Paris Exposition in a day or two. The Portsmouth will sail on the 16th inst., but will not be able to take all of the remaining American exhibits, and another government vessel will have to be assigned.

The Louisville base ball club has withdrawn from the League.

Gov. Nicholls has convened the Louisiana Legislature for an extra session of fifteen days; this will cost the State about $75,000.

At Otis, Ind., a negro woman belonging to a troupe of jubilee singers sang with so much sweetness and fervor that the citizens grew enthusiastic in their admiration. They gave her as "a testimonial of approval of artistic merit and humble worth," a purse of silver dollars. She got drunk with the money, and when one of the admiring citizens helped a constable to arrest her, she fatally stabbed him with a knife.

Among the securities stolen from the Cambridgeport Bank last September were five $1000 bonds of the Connecticut & Passumpsic Railroad, the property of Luther Slater. Thursday he received notice from the company that the coupons of his bonds had been presented at their office for payment by the agent of Monroe & Co., bankers. Slater has taken legal steps to recover his property. This is the first heard of any of the stolen securities.

Virginia has been offered, by "Reaper" McCormick, of Chicago, a big telescope, on condition of building an observatory to contain it costing $30,000. The Virginia legislature fails to "see it," in the present depressed condition of the Treasury of the Old Dominion.

Governor McClellan, of New Jersey, has vetoed the bill to pay John O'Brien the State allowance of $6 a month to soldiers from the State of New Jersey in the late rebellion. O'Brien had been mustered into a regiment of another State. The reason assigned for the veto is that the application was not advertised according to law.

An invention that promises to considerably cheapen railroad construction is the property of the Railway Angle Co. 40 Water street, Boston. It consists of iron bent at right angles and riveted upon wooden stringers, and the advantages claimed for it over the old T rail are less weight, greater elasticity and a consequent saving of wear and tear of rolling stock. The chief economy of this rail lies, of course, in the greatly reduced weight of iron required for the building of a road, and it would seem to be especially calculated for narrow gauge railroads, and indeed all railroads upon which the traffic is not extraordinarily large.

It is said that a young Norwegian girl, who was taken to the Iowa Insane Asylum some time ago, was discharged cured, but had forgotten her mother tongue. Restored to her friends she began to regain it, but as she required facility in its use signs of derangement reappeared, and when she could again speak Norwegian fluently she had to be taken back to the asylum.

A German has invented a self-winding clock in which the winding machinery is operated by the alternate expansion and contraction of glycerine, or other suitable liquid. A piston, on the surface of the glycerine, is so connected with ratchet wheels and tooth racks, that motion in either direction will wind up the weight. The inventor thinks that the contrivance will be especially valuable for self-registering meteorological instruments.

There was a fire in the China Mills at Suncook, Friday, by which some cotton was burned though the mill was little harmed. The principal loss will result from water and the stoppage of the mill.

Political.

An attempt from the democratic side of the House to insinuate fraud in the President's title, Thursday, did not fare as well as when Mr. Cox attempted to smuggle his charge into the record unanswered. Mr. McMahon, addressing Charles Foster, said he supposed that Foster was acquainted with all persons in the government who had obtained their places by fraud. Mr. Foster called out instantly, "I am acquainted with the democratic chairman of the military committee, (meaning Mr. Banning,) whose election is claimed to have been by the grace of Eph. Holland, the ballot-box stuffer."

The New Jersey legislature has rushed through both branches a bill disfranchising the students of Princeton and Seton colleges, so long as they are students. The New Jersey legislature is democratic, and the students are generally republican; hence the passage of this law, which prevents a man fully entitled to vote in all other respects, from "gaining a residence" while gaining an education. Keeping a rum-shop in the State for the lawful length of time, however, will continue to entitle a man to vote, provided he is otherwise qualified. This is just like the legislation of the New Hampshire democrats concerning the students at Dartmouth, when they carried the State by a "still hunt" some years ago.

—"Have you a Chaucer?" asked a young lady, looking in at a book store. The polite young clerk replied no, he never used it; but there was a tobacconist's just two doors above.

An Open Letter. It speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2d, 1877.

Mr. Editor: Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For twenty-six years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks" wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package, and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure in three-fourths of a second, nor in one hour or month, but in three months I was cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Sharp competition is the order of the day, among the first-class hotels in New York. With one or two exceptions, they are trying to keep their old trade while adhering to their previous high rates. The Grand Central has reaped much benefit from this, by quietly "cutting" the rates from one to two dollars per day.

Reflect that in every cemetery one-half of the silent tenants are the victims of neglected Coughs and Colds; and if you are thus afflicted, avoid their fate by resorting at once to Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, an immediate, agreeable, and certain means of cure. Sold by all Druggists.

THE CITY.

The fishing fleet at Doane's wharves is making preparations for the spring cruise.

Ship William H. Marcy, Marcy, from San Francisco, arrived at Liverpool, England, on the 5th inst.

Chief Engineer Richard M. Bartlerzan is relieved from duty at the Boston navy yard and placed on waiting orders.

We are glad to learn that Major Daniel J. Vaughan, who has been confined to his home by reason of illness, for some time past, is rapidly becoming convalescent.

Boston & Maine railroad stock has advanced to 105. Eastern bonds have fell back to 62. The two rapidly advancing price probably brought them out too freely.

Schooner E. M. Smith is at the navy yard, loading for Boston with junk and other materials purchased by Messrs. Rider & Cotton, and others, at the recent auction sale held by Auctioneer Morse at the yard.

Sheriff Kent was suddenly summoned to New Bedford on Friday by the death of Miss Mary A. Davis, a relative, and a lady well known in this city, where she had a large circle of acquaintances. She was about thirty years of age,

How are the prohibitionists of this Senatorial District going to vote? For Emmons B. Philbrick, who is a total abstainer from intoxicating liquors, or for Marcellus Eldredge? Or will they aid the cause of temperance by running a candidate of their own, and thereby possibly secure the re-election of Mr. Eldredge?

We understand that arrangements have been making for several days past by Boston parties and others, to organize a company to run a new line from that port to this city, Saco, Biddeford and Kennebunk. It is proposed to put on a fine side-wheel steamer under the command of Captain George Loring of Boston, for a long term a commander, and lately of the steamer Artisan of the Boston and Provincetown line. The project is received with such favor that parties interested will shortly be able to make definite announcement.—Times.

The democratic candidates for State offices, or individuals of the democratic State committee, have visited every close town in the State in the prosecution of their "still hunt," hoping that the superior discipline of their party (and the apathy of the republicans) will put the Legislature into their hands and enable them to send a democrat to the United States Senate. They have little hope of electing Mr. McKean, but care mainly for the Legislature, for the control of that body this summer would not only give them the Senator, but would go far to give them the entire Congressional delegation which is to be elected next autumn. Let every republican remember this.

The fact that we have a well organized and disciplined orchestra, composed of gentlemen who are musicians by profession, and artists of pronounced ability, is indicative of the good taste and refinement of our citizens. That the orchestra has prepared for, and intend on Sunday evening to give a sacred concert, instrumental and vocal, for the benefit of the poor, is proof of their liberality and public spirit. The programme which they have arranged is appropriate to the time and occasion, and requires musical talent of a high order to render it with effect. It is hoped that a considerable amount will be raised for the charitable purpose to which the proceeds of the concert are to be devoted. Admission, 20 cents to parquette; 10 cents to gallery and balcony. In addition to the persons already announced as to take part, Miss Alice Hanscom will preside at the piano.

The House committee on naval affairs who have been examining Naval Constructor Theodore D. Wilson, stationed at this yard, charged with having used red oak knees in repairing the Ticonderoga, have concluded their examination, and completely vindicated him. A Washington despatch says that it was evident that the charges were prompted by a disappointed contractor, and it appeared that the oak knees alluded to by two of the witnesses were a part of some timber which had never been inspected, and did not consequently belong to the government. Naval Constructor Wilson had the testimony of four shipbuilders of recognized ability, besides other experts, who had examined the frame of the Ticonderoga and knew what they were talking about. Naval Constructor Wilson has reached home from Washington, and is receiving the heartiest congratulations of his host of friends, who have always had the utmost confidence in him.—Journal.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUSES.

The republican caucuses for the selection of candidates to be supported for Representatives to General Court, took place Friday evening, all being well attended.

In ward one, choice was made of Messrs. Frank W. Hackett, Robert B. Adams and Edward S. Ryder.

The caucus in ward two was a very large one, there being two candidates to ballot for—two of last year's Representatives, Messrs. T. Salter Tredick and Thomas E. Call, having served but one year each, being entitled by party usage to a renomination, and receiving it by acclamation. The first ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes	269
Necessary for a choice	135
Frank W. Miller had	44
James R. May	68
Oliver S. Loomis	113
Benjamin R. Curtis	141
Samuel Adams	156

And Messrs. Samuel Adams and Benjamin R. Curtis were declared selected. There was none of the "republican apathy" of which so much has been said, apparent at this caucus.

In ward three, Mr. Stephen P. Rhodes was chosen.

In ward four, Messrs. William H. Rollins and Ezra H. Winchester were nominated.

THE VICINITY.

The republicans of Kennebunkport elected all their candidates at the recent election.

There is not quite as much talk up in Eliot about red oak knees as there was a while ago.

A band of twelve pieces has been organized at Kittery, with Mr. Frank Cate, a member of the old Portsmouth Cornet Band, as leader.

Twenty-seven members were lately received into the 2d Christian church, Kittery, by the pastor, Rev. S. A. Hutchinson, who has attended thirty-seven funerals during the last year in Kittery and its vicinity.

The loss on the laundry and stable of the Island Ledge House at Wells Beach, has been adjusted. It is stated that the house is to be rebuilt by a stock company, and will probably be ready for occupancy the coming season.

The President has nominated Wilbur F. Lunt, Esq., of Biddeford, to be United States District Attorney for Maine. Mr. Lunt is now serving his second term as County Attorney for York County, and stands in the front among the rising young lawyers of the York County Bar.

A large number of the citizens of Newcastle assembled at the store of Howard M. Curtis in that town on Friday to attend the sale of the property of non-resident delinquent taxpayers. The largest tax was against Mr. D. E. Chase, the former owner of the Wentworth Hotel. The several estates sold were purchased by the town.

The late Deacon Palmer Walker bequeathed to the Kennebunk Baptist church all his pews in the church, all the books belonging to him, and one thousand dollars in cash, to be paid within one year from the date of his death. The interest of it is to be used toward maintaining a regular Baptist minister. The remainder of his property is left to his daughter, Mrs. Susan M. Trafton of South Berwick.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Ann Brewer, wife of Rev. Sydney S. Brewer, was held at the Advent chapel in Seabrook on Wednesday afternoon. Her death was very sudden. Her husband was awakened on the previous Saturday morning by her heavy breathing; she became unconscious, and sank gradually until Monday at midnight, when she died. The immediate cause of her death was paralysis of the brain. At the chapel prayer was offered by Rev. Wm. A. Rand, and Rev. Luther Boutelle of Chelsea preached from the text, "Comfort one another with these words." The services were attended by a large number of friends. The body was afterward taken to New Bedford, for funeral service on Sunday, the 10th, and subsequent interment. Mrs. Brewer having a daughter in that city. Mr. Brewer came to Seabrook eighteen months ago, and built a house just below the Advent chapel, on the depot road; the beneficial influence of such a Christian family has been plainly felt, and this death is truly a loss to the community. Elder Brewer is seventy-three years of age, and a year from next September would have brought a golden wedding to the aged couple. Death has rudely separated them, but "God knows why." *

At the Methodist church, preaching at 10:15 A. M. and 2:45 P. M. by Rev. Henry Dorr, of Newmarket.

Reform Club meeting at Mechanics' Hall in the evening; speaking by members; doors open at 7; praise meeting at 7:30; admission 5 cts.

THE BARNSTEAD REUNION.

At the reunion of the natives of Barnstead, at Concord, a few days since, Col. J. Horace Kent of this city, who is a native of Barnstead, was called upon for remarks, and spoke in substance as follows:

Mr. President and Friends: This pleasant occasion affords me a double pleasure to-night. First, because it brings me into agreeable associations with my native townsmen and women, many of whom I am personally attached to from lengthy and friendly acquaintance, while others are familiarly known through their honorable reputations for correct principles, as firm and unyielding as the granite hills of our good old State. Secondly, I am pleased and I think benefitted by being, if even for only a short time, at least relieved from the cares and toils of everyday life, and allowed to go back in recollection to our old birthplace and review the dear old scenes of our youth, where peace and plenty, fun and frolic were the order of the day and the sweet sleep of innocence the order of the night. There is nothing better if it be only in fancy, to soften the heart and clear the head, Mr. President, than an occasional visit to the homes of our childhood, to hear once more the old church bell, to see the venerable schoolhouse and romp and gallop on the old playground. It, sir, is a sort a elixir of life which prolongs our existence; or adds to it at least, by permitting us to again enjoy the sweet delights of our youth. Notwithstanding our native town was and is a small one, its children have been spread over a wide surface of the country and have been somewhat noted as being pretty enterprising fellows if not over and above smart, and as I cast my eyes around me, I don't think the present company ought to be excepted. It has produced a Representative in Congress and a U. S. Senator, and another "Barnstead Boy" is very prominently mentioned for Senatorial honors should the tide turn in favor of the party of which he is so distinguished and able a representative, and I am glad to see him here to-night. Numerous other citizens have held prominent governmental positions, and among our State officials we find that heretofore she has been honorably and creditably represented and is at the present time furnishing one of its most dignified and trusted judicial officers. I am gratified to see him, my companion of the old brick school house, here also.

As to our prominent public teachers sent abroad, the gentlemen who have preceded me have justly alluded to them, and, my friends, I think, according to our population, Barnstead can carry off the palm in this respect. Besides those in other places I can call to mind four or five who were at Portsmouth at one time. There were Pickering, Chesley, George and Tasker, and I don't think I shall ever forget the latter. He was an excellent teacher and (I was one of his pupils at Portsmouth) always opened the morning exercises with prayer, and the prayer invariably ended as follows: "Amen, come down here Kent," and as invariably I was punished. In after life Tasker told me that I was the best boy to learn my lessons, and devilry as well, that he had in school. An allusion has been made by one of the speakers that he believed it would be as well if not better if so many young men did not leave their native homes. I caught his inspiration and asked myself the question "How many of us have found a better fortune than we left behind us?"

For my own part, although I have seen much of the world, have dwelt in large cities and mixed with all classes of people, enjoyed all the pleasures and delights which are to be found in rich and populous places, and honored with positions beyond my desert, I sometimes feel that when I left old Barnstead I parted with a buoyancy of feeling, a hopefulness of heart, a homely simplicity of spirit that I have never since regained; and I look back with almost envy to the old associations and pleasures of youth in and around the old homestead, and faintly realize how old father Adam must have felt when he took a farewell look at Paradise as he left it to labor and struggle in the world beyond.

Mr. President, I could mention reminiscences, anecdotes, noble acts, patriotic purposes and Christian virtues of many of our townsmen and women, several of whom having fulfilled their mission on earth, their spirits have been wafted to heaven. Some of them have already been appropriately alluded to by others; and I know that if left for the ready and eloquent Sinclair to review he will cover all the ground that has been left out or neglected; and I cannot further take up your time, and will say in conclusion that I heartily enjoy and appreciate this pleasant reunion of old friends and fellow townsmen, and hope, as has been previously suggested we may have many more such gatherings to remind us of the times behind us, and nerve us for fresh duties in the days to come.

I have brought with me to share my enjoyment, my dear old Barnstead mother, my Massachusetts wife and my California son, and though they never speak in meeting I am sure they feel all that I feel, and I feel more than I know how to express. Let me close with the following sentiment:

"The Natives of Barnstead and their descendants."
